WORDS FOR MUSIC.

BY GEORGE P. MORRIS.

I.

Fare thee well—we part forever!
All regrets are now in vain!
Fate decrees that we must sever,
Ne'er to meet on earth again.
Other skies will bend above thee,
Other hearts may seek thy shrine,
But no other e'er will love thee
With the constancy of mine.
Yet farewell—we part forever!
All regrets are now in vain!
Fate decrees that we must sever,
Ne'er to meet on earth again.
Fare thee well!

II.

Like the shadow on the dial
Lingers still our parting kiss!
Life has no severer trial,
Death no pang to equal this.
All the world is now before thee,
Every clime to roam at will,
But within the land that bore thee,
One fond heart will love thee still.
Yet farewell—we part forever!
All regrets are now in vain!
Fate decrees that we must sever,
Ne'er to meet on earth again.
Fare thee well!

How is't with me when every sound appals me?

In the south entry! Hark! more knocking!

Hurricane Hall is a large old family mansion, built of dark, red sandstone, in one of the loneliest and wildest of the mountain regions of Virginia.

The estate is surrounded on three sides by a range of steep, gray rocks, spiked with clumps of dark evergreens, and called, from its horse-shoe form, the Devil's Hoof.

On the fourth side the ground gradually descends in broken rock and barren soil to the edge of the wild mountain stream known as the Devil's Run.

When storms and floods were high, the loud roaring of the wind through the wild mountain gorges, and the terrific raging of the torrent over its rocky course, gave to this savage locality its ill-omened names of Devil's Hoof, Devil's Run and Hurricane Hall.

Major Ira Warfield, the lonely proprietor of the Hall, was a veteran officer, who in disgust at what he supposed to be ill-requited services, had retired from public life to spend the evening of his vigorous age on this his patrimonial estate. Here he lived in seclusion, with his old-fashioned housekeeper, Mrs. Condiment, and his old family servants, and his favorite dogs and horses. Here his mornings were usually spent in the chase, in which he excelled, and his afternoon and evenings were occupied in small convivial suppers among his few chosen companions of the chase or the bottle.

In person Major Warfield was tall and strongly built, reminding one of some old iron-limbed Douglas of the olden time. His features were large and harsh; his complexion dark red, as that of one bronzed by long exposure and flushed with strong drink. His fierce, dark gray eyes were surmounted by thick, heavy black brows, that, when gathered into a frown, reminded one of a thunder cloud, as the flashing orbs beneath them did of lightning. His hard, harsh face was surrounded by a thick growth of iron-gray hair and beard that met beneath his chin. His usual habit was a black cloth coat, crimson vest, black leather breeches, long, black yarn stockings, fastened at the knees, and morrocco slippers with silver buttons.

In character Major Warfield was arrogant, domineering and violent—equally loved and feared by his faithful old family servants at home—disliked and dreaded by his neighbors and acquaintances abroad, who, partly from his house and partly from his character, fixed upon him the appropriate nickname of OLD HURRICANE.

There was, however, other ground of dislike besides that of his arrogant mind, violent temper and domineering habits. Old Hurricane was said to be an old bachelor, yet rumor whispered that there was in some obscure part of the world, hidden away from human sight, a deserted wife and child, poor, forlorn and heart-broken. It was further whispered that the elder brother of Ira Warfield had mysteriously disappeared, and not without some suspicion of foul play on the part of the only person in the world who had a strong interest in his "taking off." However these things might be, it was known for a certainty that Old Hurricane had an only sister, widowed, sick and poor, who with her son dragged on a wretched life of ill-requited toil, severe privation and painful infirmity, in a distant city, unaided, unsought and uncared for by her cruel brother.

It was the night of the last day of October, 1845. The evening had closed in very dark and gloomy. About dusk the wind arose in the northwest, driving up masses of leaden hued clouds, and in a few minutes the ground was covered deep with snow, and the air was filled with driving sleet.

As this was All Hallow Eve, the dreadful inclemency of the weather did not prevent the negroes of Hurricane Hall from availing themselves of their capricious old master's permission, and going off in a body to a banjo breakdown held in the negro quarters of their next neighbor.

Upon this evening, then, there was left at Hurricane Hall only Major Warfield, Mrs. Condiment, his little old housekeeper, and Wool, his body servant.

Early in the evening the old hall was shut up closely, to keep out as much as possible the sound of the storm that roared through the mountain chasms and cannonaded the walls of the house as if determined to force an entrance. As soon as she had seen that all was safe, Mrs. Condiment went to bed and went to sleep.

It was about ten o'clock that night that Old Hurricane, well wrapped up in his quilted flannel dressing gown, sat in a well padded easy chair before a warm and bright fire, taking his comfort in his own most comfortable bedroom. This was the hour of the coziest enjoyment to the self-indulgent old Sybarite, who dearly loved his own ease. Very comfortable was Old Hurricane; and as he toasted his feet and sipped his punch, while his black servant, Wool, applied the warming-pan to his cozy couch, he fairly hugged himself for enjoyment, and declared that nothing under heaven would or could tempt him to leave that room and that house and go out into that storm on that night. Just as he had come to this emphatic determination he was startled by a violent ringing of the door-bell. Ordering Wool to go and see what was the matter, he hastily arrayed himself in his sleeping habiliments and jumped into bed, determined not to be intruded upon, or to be called out of his room on any account whatever.

At this moment Wool reappeared.

"Shut the door, you villian! Do you intend to stand there holding it open on me all night?"—vociferated the old man.

Wool hastily closed the offending portals, and hurried to his master's side.

"Well, sir, who was it rung the bell?"

"Sar, de Reverend Mr. Parson Goodwin, and he say how he must see you yourself, personally, alone?"

"See me, you villain! Didn't you tell him that I had retired?"

"Yes, Marse, I tell him how you were gone to bed and asleep morne'n an hour ago, and he ordered me to come wake you up, and say how it were a master o' life and death!"

"Life and death! What have I to do with life and death? I won't stir! If the parson wants to see me he will have to come up here and see me in bed."

"Mes' I fetch him reverence up, sar!"

"Yes, I wouldn't get up and go down to see—Washington—shut the door, you rascal! or I'll throw the boot jack at your wooden head!"

Wool obeyed with alacrity and in time to escape the threatened missile.

After an absence of a few minutes he was heard returning, attending upon the footsteps of another. And the next minute he entered, ushering in the Rev. Mr. Goodwin, the parish minister of Bethlehem. St. Mary's.

"How do you do! How do you do? Glad to see you, sir! glad to see you, though obliged to receive you in bed! Fact is, I caught a cold with this severe change of weather, and took a warm negus and went to bed to sweat it off! You'll excuse me! Wool, draw that easy chair up to my bedside for worthy Mr. Goodwin and bring him a glass of warm negus. It will do him good after his cold ride."

"I thank you, Major Warfield! I will take the seat, but not the negus, if you please, to-night."

"Not the negus! Oh, come now, you are joking! Why, it will keep you from catching cold, and be a most comfortable nightcap, disposing you to sleep and sweat like a baby! Of course you spend the night with us?"

"I thank you, no! I must take the road again in a few minutes."

"Take the road again to-night! Why, man alive! it is midnight, and the snow driving like all Lapland."

"Sir, I am sorry to refuse your proffered hospitality and leave your comfortable roof to-night, and sorrier still to have to take you with me," said the pastor, gravely."

"Take ME with you! No, no, my good sir! no, no, that is too good a joke—ha! ha!"

"Sir, I fear that you will find it a very serious one! Your servant told you that my errand was one of imminent urgency?"

"Yes, something like life and death——."

"Exactly—down in the cabin, near the Punch Bowl, there is an old woman dying——."

"There, I knew it. I was just saying there might be an old woman dying. But, my dear sir, what's that to me? What can I do?"

"Humanity, sir, would prompt you."

"But my dear sir, how can I help her? I am not a physician to prescribe——."

"She is far past a physician's help."

"Nor am I a priest to hear her confession——."

"Her confession God has already received."

"Well, and I'm not a lawyer to draw up her will."

"No, sir; but you are recently appointed one of the Justices of the Peace for Alleghany."

"Yes; well, what of that. That does not comprise the duty of my getting up out of my warm bed and going through a snow storm to see an old woman expire."

"Excuse me for insisting, sir; but this is an official duty," said the parson, mildly but firmly.

"I'll—I'll throw up my commission to-morrow," growled the old man.

"To-morrow you may do that, but meanwhile, to-night, being still in the commission of the peace, you are bound to get up and go with with me to this woman's bedside."

"And what the demon is wanted of me there?"

"To receive her dying deposition."

"To receive a dying deposition! Good Heaven! was she murdered, then?" exclaimed the old man, in alarm, as he started out of bed and began to draw on his nether garments.

"Be composed—she was not murdered," said the pastor.

"Well, then, what is it? Dying deposition? It must concern a crime," exclaimed the old man hastily drawing on his coat.

"It does concern a crime."

"What crime, for the love of heaven?"

"I am not at liberty to tell you. She will do that."

"Wool, go down and rouse up Jebu, and tell him to put Parson Goodwin's mule in the stable for the night. And tell him to put the black draught horses to the close carriage, and light both the front lanterns—for we shall have a dark, stormy road—Shut the door, you infernal!—I beg your pardon, parson, but that villain always leaves the door ajar after him."

The good parson bowed gravely; and the major completed his toilet by the time the servant returned and reported the carriage ready.

"To the Devil's Punch Bowl"—was the order given by Old Hurricane as he followed the minister into the carriage. "And now, sir," he continued, addressing his companion, "I think you had better repeat that part of the church litany that prays to be delivered from 'battle, murder and sudden death;' for if we should be so lucky as to escape Black Donald and his gang, we shall have at least an equal chance of being upset in the darkness of these dreadful mountains."

"A pair of saddle mules would have been a safer conveyance, certainly," said the minister.

Old Hurricane knew that, but though a great sensualist, he was a brave man, and so he had rather risk his life in a close carriage than suffer cold upon a sure-footed mule's back.

After many delays and perils, the pastor and Old Hurricane arrived at their destination, called the Witch's Hat or Old Hat's Cabin. In one corner of the hut, on a ragged couch, lay a gray-haired and emaciated woman, evidently near unto death. On being informed that a magistrate had arrived, she insisted on everybody else leaving the room, as she would speak with him alone. Her request having been complied with, Old Hurricane drew from his pocket a Bible, administered the oath, and then said:

"Now then, my good soul begin—'the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth,' you know. But first, your name?"

"Is it possible you don't know me, master?"

"Not I, in faith?"

"For the love of heaven, look at me and try to recollect me, sir! It is necessary some one in authority should be able to know me," said the woman, raising her haggard eyes to the face of her visitor.

The old man adjusted his spectacles and gave her a scrutizing look, exclaiming at intervals—

"Lord bless my soul! it is! it aint! it must! it can't be! Granny Grewell—the—the—the—midwife that disappeared from here some twelve or thirteen years ago?"

"Yes, master, I am Nancy Grewell, the ladies' nurse, who vanished from sight so mysteriously some thirteen years ago?" replied the woman.

"Heaven help our hearts! And for what crime was it you ran away? Come—make a clean breast of it, woman! You have nothing to fear in doing so, for you are past the arm of earthly law now?"

"I know it, master."

"And the best way to prepare to meet the Divine Judge is to make all the reparation that you can by a full confession?"

"I know it, sir—if I had committed a crime; but I have committed no crime, neither did I run away."

"What? what? what?—What was it then? Remember, witness, you are on your oath?"

"I know that, sir, and I will tell the truth; but it must be in my own way."

At this moment a violent blast of wind and hail roared down the mountain side and rattled against the walls, shaking the witch's hut, as if it would have shaken it about their ears.

It was a proper overture to the tale that was about to be told. Conversation was impossible until the storm raved past and was heard dying in deep reverberating echoes from the depths of the Devil's Punch Bowl.

"It is some thirteen years ago," began Granny Grewell, "upon just such a night of storm as this, that I was mounted on my old mule Molly, with my saddle-bags full of dried yarbs, and stilled waters and sich, as I allus carried when I was out tendin' on the sick. I was on my way a-going to see a lady as I was sent for to tend.

"Well, master! I'm not 'shamed to say, as I never was afraid of man, beast, nor spirit! and never stopped at going out at all hours of the night, through the most lonesomest roads, if so be I was called upon so to do. Still I must say that just as me and Molly, my mule, got into the deep, thick, lonesome woods as stands round the old Hidden House in the hollow, I did feel queerish; 'case it was the dead hour of night, and it was said how strange things were seen and hearn, yes, and done too, in that dark, deep, lonesome place. I seen how even my mule Molly felt queer too, by the way she stuck up her ears, stiff as quills. So, partly to keep up my own spirits, and partly to courage her, says I, 'Molly,' says I, 'what are ye afeard on? Be a man, Molly!' But Molly stepped out cautious, and pricked up her long ears all the same.

"Well, master, it was so dark I couldn't see a yard past Molly's ears, and the path was so narrow and the bushes so thick we could hardly get along; but just as we came to the little creek as they calls the Spout, cause the water jumps and jets along till it empties into the Punch Bowl, and just as Molly was cautiously putting her fore foot into the water, out starts two men from the bushes and seizes poor Molly's bridle!"

"Good heaven!" exclaimed Major Warfield.

"Well, master, before I could cry out, one of them willians seized me by the scruff of my neck, and with the other hand on my mouth he says:

"'Be silent, you old fool, or I'll blow your brains out!'

"And then, master, I saw for the first time that their faces were covered over with black crape. I couldn't a-screamed if they'd let me, for my breath was gone and my senses were going along with it for the fear that was on me.

"'Don't struggle, come along quietly and you shall not be hurt,' says the man as had spoke before.

"Struggle! I couldn't a struggled to a-saved my soul! I couldn't speak! I couldn't breathe! I liked to have a-dropped right offen Molly's back. One on 'em says, says he:

"'Give her some brandy!' And t'other takes out a flask and puts it to my lips and says, says he:

"Well, master, as he had me still by the scruff o'the neck I couldn't do no other ways but open my mouth and drink it. And as soon as I took a swallow my breath come back and my speech.

"'And oh, gentlemen,' says I, 'ef it's 'your money or your life' you mean, I baint it about me! 'Deed 'clare to the Lord-a-mighty, I baint! it's wrapped up in an old cotton glove in a hole in the plastering in the chimney-corner at home, and ef you'll spare my life, you can go there and get it,' says I.

"'You old blockhead,' says they, 'we want neither one nor t'other! Come along quietly and you shall receive no harm. But at the first cry or attempt to escape this shall stop you!' And with that the willain held the mizzle of a pistol so nigh to my nose that I smelt brimstone, while t'other one bound a silk handkercher 'round my eyes, and then took poor Molly's bridle and led her along. I couldn't see, in course, and I dissint breathe for fear o' the pistol. But I said my prayers to myself all the time.

"Well, master, they led the mule on down the path, until we coned to a place wide enough to turn, when they turned me 'round and led us back outen the wood, and then round and round, and up and down, and cross ways and length ways, as e they didn't want me to find where they were taking me.

"Well, sir, when they'd walk about in this fused way, leadin' of the mule about a mile, I knew we was in the woods again—the very same woods and the very same path—I knowed by the feel of the place and the sound of the bushes, as we bit up against them each side, and also by the rumbling of the Spout as it tumbled along toward the Punch Bowl. We went down, and down, and down, and lower, and lower, and lower, until we got right down in the bottom of that hollow.

"Then we stopped. A gate was opened. I put up my hand to raise the handkerchief, and see where I was; but, just at that minute, I felt the mizzle o' the pistle like a ring of ice right agin my right temple, and the willain growling into my ear:

"'If you do ——!'

"But I didn't—I dropped my hand down as if I had been shot, and afore I had seen anything either. So we went through the gate, and up a gravelly walk—I knew it by the crackling of the gravel under Molly's feet—and stopped at a horse-block, where one o' them willians lifted me off. I put up my hand again.

"'Do, if you dare,' says t'other one, with the mizzle o' the pistol at my head.

"I dropped my hand like lead. So they lead me on a little way, and then up some steps. I counted them to myself as I went along. They were six. You see, master, I took all this pains to know the house again. Then they opened a door that opened in the middle. They then went along a passage and up more stairs—there was ten and a turn, and then ten more. Then along another passage, and up another flight of stairs, just like the first. Then along another passage, and up a third flight of stairs. They was alike.

"Well, sir, here we was at the top o' the house. One o' them willians opened a door on the left side, and t'other said—

"'There—go in and do your duty!' and pushed me through the door and shut and locked it on me. Good gracious, sir, how scared I was! I slipped off the silk handkercher, and feared as I was, I didn't forget to put it in my bosom.

"Then I looked about me. Right afore me on the hearth was a little weny taper burning, that showed I was in a great big garret with sloping walls. At one end two deep dormer windows, and a black walnut bureau standing between them. At t'other end a great tester bedstead with dark curtains. There was a dark carpet on the floor. And with all there were so many dark objects and so many shadows, and the little taper burned so dimly that I could hardly tell t'other end from which, or keep from breaking my nose against things as I groped about.

"And what was I in this room for to do? I couldn't even form an idee. But presently my blood ran cold to hear a groan from behind the curtains—then another—and another—then a cry as of a child in mortal agony, saying:

"'For the love of Heaven, save me!'

"I ran to the bed and dropped the curtains, and liked to have fainted at what I saw."

"And what did you see?" asked the magistrate.

"Master, behind those dark curtains I saw a young creatnre tossing about on the bed, flinging her fair and beautiful arms about, and tearing wildly at the fine lace that trimmed her night dress.—But, master, that wasn't what almost made me faint—it was that her right hand was sewed up in black crape, and her whole face and head completely covered with black crape drawn down and fastened securely around her throat, leaving only a small slit at the lips and nose to breathe through!"

"What, take care, woman! remember that you are upon your oath!" said the magistrate.

"I know it, master! And as I hope to be forgiven, I am telling you the truth!"

"Go on, then!"

"Well, sir, she was a young creature, scarcely past childhood, if one might judge by her small size, and soft, rosy skin. I asked her to let me take that black crape from her face and head, but she throw up her hands and exclaimed—

"'Oh, no, no, no! for my life, no!'

"Well, master, I hardly know how to tell you what followed—" said the old woman, hesitating in embarrassment.

"Go right straight on like a car of Juggernaut, woman! Remember—the whole truth!"

"Well, master, in the next two hours there were twins born in that room—a boy and a girl; the boy was dead, the girl living. And all the time I heard the measured tramping of one of them willains up and down the passage outside of that room. Presently the steps stopped, and there was a rap at the door. I went and listened, but did not open it."

"Is it all over?' the voice asked.

"Before I could answer, a cry from the bed caused me to look round. There was the poor masked mother stretching out her white arms toward me in the most imploring way. I hastened back to her.

"'Tell him—no—no,' she said.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous medicine who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are incribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS.

These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities Their action is specific and they are warranted relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by unskilled persons who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better wait either for a personal interview, or they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 3 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twelve related applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES.

The Concord Statesman says :—The Republican candidates for Governor and Congressmen are each of distinguished ability—men who have long exerted a wide and salutary influence upon the public opinion of New-Hampshire. Each has held a seat in the Legislature, and each in that body, although not always or even generally in a majority of the House, had great and sometimes controlling influence there. Against the character and capacity of Ichabod Goodwin the Democrats have not yet uttered the first word.

Three abler men than Gilman Marston, Mason W. Tappan, and Thomas M. Edwards have never, at the same time, represented New-Hampshire. Three abler men can not now be found in Congress from any Northern, if from any State. They are gentlemen, one of whom has already acquired an honorable and desirable reputation in Congress, and the others would not be long in reaching positions of influence in the same body Some men acquire influence in Congress only after protracted service, while the reputation of others as men trained to political experience and legislative rules, precedes and provides a place for them. Such are Messrs. Marston and Edwards; and the remark is just and proper that abler men have never been proposed for the suffrages of the people of New-Hampshire than GOODWIN, MARSTON, TAPPAN and EDWARDS.

From N. H. Gazette.

Must Have a Lawyer.—The Ballot, edited by a printer by trade, has several articles in this and last week's issue calculated to prove that a mechanic, however eminent and successful, can by no possibility be a fitting person to represent the people of this district in Congress; that nothing short of a lawyer, a person who can argue either side of any possible case with equal force and earnestness, for a suitable fee, can be the proper person to entrust with the interests of this district. Perhaps the people see the truth of this logic, and will prefer the wiley lawyer to the honest and enterprising business men. It may be that the people prefer that lawyers have a monopoly of the offices, but we incline to the opinion that they will at least make an exception in favor of Capt. Marcy.

A vote against Marcy, is a vote that no mechanic, no sailor, no merchant, can occupy a seat in Congress, so long as a federal lawyer claims it for himself.

From the Journal.

Portsmouth Young Men's Christian Association.—The government of the Association for 1859, was organized at the annual meeting, last Monday evening, as follows:

President, J. C. Carr; Vice President, Woodbury Mason; Recording Secretary, Moses H. Stickney; Corresponding Secretary, William Seavey; Treasurer, Robert Drew; Librarian, Henry G. Thompson.

The following constitute the Board of Trustees, permanently established in March last:

Rev. Dr. Burroughs, Rev. Dr. Peabody, Rev. Dr. Lamson, Rev. L. Whiting, Hon. I. Goodwin, Hon. H. D. Walker, and A. M. Payson, Esq.

The praiseworthy object of the Association commends it to all good citizens; and its existence and prosperity will depend much on the countenance which it receives from them. To sustain it properly its friends must take hold and help, exercising all the virtues of the heart, head, hands and purse, and performing the duties of the various committees with disinterested zeal, and with a greater self sacrifice than the community are generally willing to assume. It calls for our strongest sympathies. In a seaport like ours there are many calls which either some organized body or private and personal exertion on the part of philanthropists can alone answer; and the advantage of united exertion in any good cause is unquestionable. Let it not be confined to young men alone.

We learn that the new year will be entered upon with renewed zeal, and that a course of lectures are proposed—to be delivered on Sabbath evening at the various churches, by clergymen of Portsmouth and from abroad.

Readings of Shakspeare.—We are pleased to learn that our old townsman, Hon. Hampden Cutts, of North Hartland, Vt., will visit Portsmouth next week, and read at the Temple. He is well recollected as a good elocutionist, when resident here some thirty years ago. His old friends will hail his return by their presence, and the new generation will be gratified in listening to the treat he will present.

In one of the towns having two Representatives in the Legislature, of eighteen young men who become voters in March, sixteen will carry the Republican ticket.—N. H. Statesman.

Rev. H. D. Moore, of Portland, will preach at the North Church on Sunday morning and evening.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1859.

☞ A correspondence is published which has taken place between Commodore Totten of the U. S. ship Vincennes, and Commander Hopkinton, of the British steamer Viper, on the coast of Africa, relative to the burning of the American brig Rufus Soule, on the 11th of October, to the south of Kabenela. The testimony, which is admitted to be correct by the English Commander, goes to show that the steamer boarded the brig, off Bando Point, mustered the crew, examined the papers, took out the crew with their clothing, and set the brig on fire. After this they set the crew on shore on the beach at Kabenela, from which they were taken a short time after by the Vincennes.

In reply to the letter of the Commander of the Vincennes, making enquiries, the British Commander admits the truth of the statements, and says the brig was making a fraudulent use of the American flag in the slave trade.

Commander Totten replies that this letter is unsatisfactory, as it makes no mention of any legal investigation in the matter. The British Commander, in answer to this refers Commander Totten to the British Admiral on the station for further information. This closes the correspondence, which has been submitted to the Navy Department.

Hard Cases.—We thought the case of a person in Massachusetts, says the Boston Traveller, who in the settlement of a debt of about $2500 received a certificate of stock in an unincorporated iron company, nominally valued at about $400, as the best arrangement he could make with his debtor, and who afterwards had his entire property taken possession of to liquidate the debts of the company whose stock he had taken, was bad enough—but the English papers relate a case somewhat harder. A year or two ago an English merchant was remembered in the will of a friend, by a legacy of two shares in the Royal British Bank, then reputed to be prosperous and paying large dividends. The relatives of the testator disputed the will, or at least that particular legacy, and the Vice Chancellor declared in their favor, giving them the said two shares.

The legatee, happy in his legal defeat, was well rid of them, had he only known, but he did not; and, in his blindness, appealed against the Vice Chancellor's decision, which the Superior Court reversed, giving the appellant the shares in the bank. Since then the swindled creditors of the bank have come down on every stockholder who had anything outside his skin beyond his shirt, and the liability of those two shares has swept away every dollar of the merchant's property.

Cuba in Ohio.—The Legislature of Ohio has a majority of Democrats in each branch. On Monday last, Mr. Finefrock, a Democrat, offered a resolution in favor of the acquisition of Cuba. Mr. West, a Republican, moved to amend it so as to recommend the "immediate acquisition al so of all the British possessions in North America, by conquest or otherwise." This amendment was adopted. Another Republican moved to further amend "that in case of the acquisition of said Island, pro vision be made for the abolition of slavery therein." This was also carried. A Democrat then moved the squatter sovereignty proviso, which was adopted. The original resolution having thus been bound up with amendments, it was laid on the table and indefinitely postponed.

☞ A Paris journal publishes an account of a human locomotive which is called a baratrope—a carriage moved by the feet of those riding in it, acting as treadles.—The motion is said not to be difficult; it is said to be similar to walking. Two men with it made five miles in thirty-five minutes on the Boulevard Mezar at noon when the street was most crowded. At another time the same men made thirteen miles in ninety-six minutes;—and the exercise was so easy they offered to keep it up alternate hours day after day, and thought they could without difficulty average 50 to 60 miles per day.

☞ A few days since, Joseph Moody of Oxford, Ky., while in a fit of delirium from excessive drinking, murdered his father by beating out his brains with a billet of wood.

☞ The City Marshal of Augusta, Me., on Wednesday last, entered the Mansion House in that city and made a seizure of thirty gallons of liquor. The liquor was transferred to the city agency.

Symbols of the Capital; or, Civilization in New York. By A. D. Mayo. This is a new book, now in press in New York, by Thaxter & Hutchinson, publishers. It is one of the books for the times, discussing real life, schools, health, &c. The author says:

Until our women get more bodily vigor, all their aspirations will be at the mercy of a nervous fit; while they are so unpractical in common affairs that their husbands must buy their dinners and keep their accounts, and their servants look down from the eminence of the cooking stove and the washing machine in insolent contempt of their mistress's shiftlessness, and a man with a cane and moustache must be the body guard of their timorous steps abroad—why talk of more rights, when they throw away the primary human right of keeping out of fire and water and taking care of themselves.

Our author is by no means too severe on the frivolous fine ladyism of metropolitan society, or the weakness of those who make no attempt to escape from the dependence they find so galling. He shows the false position of a young lady in a large family, having no employment except such as she adopts to kill time, living on her father till she can find a husband. Household labor and study without definite aim are not sufficient to remedy the evils which this condition entails on the sex.

The girls of America need a thorough training in some form of profitable and congenial labor on which they can depend for steady occupation, and which shall relieve them of their pecuniary dependence, and keep their minds stendied by actual contact with the real work day world.—Then, young men will know a wife will be a help and a companion, not "a bundle of physical helplessness draped in expensive dry goods."

The Author of "Sweet Home."—It is said that the author "Sweet Home," J. Howard Payne, whose song has been sung all over the world, was himself a wanderer in life, and never had a home. He was at one time Consul to Tunis, and was a man of fine conversational powers. A friend of his records that he gave a history of his wanderings, his trials and all cares incident to his sensitive nature and to poverty. "How often," said he, once, "I have been in the heart of Paris, Berlin and London, or some other city, and heard persons singing, or hand-organs playing, 'Sweet Home,' without having a shilling to buy myself the next meal, or a place to lay my head. The world has literally sung my song till every heart is familiar with its melody. Yet I have been a wanderer from my boyhood. My country has turned me ruthlessly from office, and in my old age I have to submit to humiliation for my bread." Thus he would complain of his hapless lot. His only wish was to die in a foreign land, to be buried by strangers, and sleep in obscurity. His wish was realized. He died at Tunis.

☞ At Fort Abercrombie, in Dacotah, a soldier lately fell quite ingloriously.—He went with two of his companions to a whiskey shanty three miles distant, where each one indulged freely in an inferior article of liquor. Late in the evening the three started back. One strayed from the path and did not return. It was not a severe night and only a partial search was made for him; but the next morning he was found frozen to death with a bottle lying near him. He was an Irishman about twenty-five years old, and among his papers the surgeon found an unfinished letter to his mother, exhibiting much tenderness and affection, and which, in a literary point, the surgeon said would have done credit to any one at the fort.—His was the first death at the fort.

Sullivan County, N. H.—At the Court held in this county last week:

Nancy Connell, convicted last term of selling liquor contrary to the statute, was brought into Court and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs of prosecution; and not complying, was committed to jail.

Thomas Barrett of Charlestown was tried on four indictments found at the last term, for selling liquor contrary to law, convicted on the two, and the jury could not agree on the other two. He was fined $50 and costs on each, which he paid.

Harvey M. Bowman, of Charlestown, was tried on two indictments for selling liquor, found at last term. On the first the jury did not agree; on the second found guilty, and fined $50 and costs.

Blackmer & Co. v. Town of Charlestown. This was an action to recover pay for liquor sold the agent of said town.—The sale and delivery of the liquor to the agent was not denied, but it was proved that the agent was not permitted by his license to buy liquors on the credit of the town, except by special consent of the Selectmen. Plaintiffs nonsuited.

☞ In Congress on Thursday, the two houses debated the Tariff and Cuba, the Fishing Bounties and the negroes, Oregon and printing.

The Personal Appearance of our Saviour.—Jesus Christ is described by Lentulus, a cotemporary, as a tall, well-proportioned man, straight in stature, of nearly six feet in height; his hair was of the color of new wine from the roots to the ears, and from thence to the shoulders it curled, and fell down the lowest part of them; upon the crown of his head it parted in two, after the manner of the Nazarenes; his forehead was flat and fair; his eyes were gray, large, and extremely lively; his nose and mouth were well proportioned; his face was neither round nor sharp, resembled his mother's, and was adorned with a very graceful vermillion; his beard was thick and forked, and of the color of his hair, which he wore long, the scissors having never been used upon his head, nor had the hand of any one touched him, except that of his mother when he was a child; his neck was not stiff, neither was his carriage proud; he stooped a little with his head; his hands were large and spreading, and his arms were very beautiful; there was an air of serenity in his countenance, which attracted at once the love and reverence of all beholders; in his reproofs he was terrible, but in his exhortations amiable and courteous; he was never seen to laugh, but often observed to weep; gravity, prudence, meekness, and clemency were strongly depicted in his countenance, and he was considered the handsomest man in existence.

☞ The very latest development of genius is the enunciation of the Norway, Me. Advertiser, that the people of a Territory have the power to regulate and protect slavery, but not to cripple or destroy it.

The Bath Times takes the following humorous comment on the above:

"It is said they catch very wild Irishmen in the 'could country' on this wise. They make a crib or pen of small logs placed so near together that 'paddy' can put his flat hand in but cannot draw his clenched fist out. This is filled with potatoes. The wild fellow slips in his hand, grasps a big 'paratio,' and not knowing enough to let go, he is caught in the trap and found hanging to the side of the pen in the morning. It is lucky for the writer in the Advertiser that he don't live on the 'bog,' else his wonderful genius, which can grasp a thing but can't let go, might make him a victim of the log trap."

Skating Basket.—Henry Shepherd of this town, has invented an apparatus to assist the ladies in mastering the new and fashionable accomplishment of skating.—It is apparently modeled after the common hooped skirt, and consists of four hoops fastened to as many upright pieces, terminating in a ball which rests upon the ice. The upper hoop comes to a convenient hight for the learner to rest her hands upon. Once ensconced within the hoops, there is no possibility of falling, and the ladies, we are happy to say, very soon become adepts in the art of skating. It is quite an improvement on the barrel as used in other places, because, in addition to its lightness and ease of movement, it does not necessitate any crinoline condensations.—Northampton Gazette.

Prescott the Historian.—The Salem (Mass.) Register says:—

"We have heard that the accident which deprived Prescott of the use of one eye, and subsequently so impaired the power of vision in the other, was occasioned by a blow from a crust of bread thrown across the room by a fellow student in Commons Hall, near the close of his college career. This seeming calamity changed the whole current of his life, which he intended to devote to legal pursuits, and finally led him into that brilliant career as a historian, in which he has achieved a world-renowned honor for himself and his country."

☞ A Washington letter says "the White House just now is resplendent with beauty, grace and dignity. The lovely neice of the President—Harriet Lane—is lovelier than ever; her beauty is mellower, her manners have softened, and her smile is more genial than before. She has as a guest with her at this moment—Mrs. Judge Roosevelt, of New York, sister of Lady Gore Ouseley, and decidedly one of the most elegant and accomplished women of the world that the country can boast of.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The effect of the vote in the House to-day, laying the Nebraska election case on the table, is to continue Judge Ferguson in his seat as delegate from that Territory.

The impression prevails that the proposition to place money at the command of the President to negotiate for the acquisition of Cuba, will pass the Senate, but will be defeated by a large majority in the House.

☞ A melancholy occurrence took place at Ostend a short time ago. A person named Sweetlove was lying on his deathbed, surrounded by his wife and children, when his father came to see him. The father was so affected that he was struck with apoplexy, and he and the son died at about the same moment.

☞ A young Esquimaux woman, brought from the icy regions by Capt. Reid, of the Arctic, to Peterhead, has just died there. She was active and intelligent, but a change of climate and food, including, perhaps, too many luxuries, has been fatal.

THE WHEELER & WILSON

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

GOOD NEWS.—A reduction in the prices of Sewing Machines is announced. Their utility is established beyond question, and at the present prices we see no reason why they should not be found, as they ought to be, in every household.—Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

An Enemy Conquered.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

The Lion has Roared for the Last Time.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, thousands of sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief, likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming obstructed, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, and is used by all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and he guaranteed by the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

The Original and Only London Gin Imported.

THIS GIN, distilled in London, from corn and Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper berries, which is the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that acrid quality of the Dutch Gin, and is the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the very weak and feeble will find it adopted to cure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

The Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at twenty-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—None Genuine is Imported.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Morton, 16 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor declines no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tutts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

NOT EXACTLY NEW.—The editor of the Dallas, Alabama, Gazette, speaks very favorably of the new lot of negro slaves lately come from Africa. The editor of the Gazette is quite merry over this new infusion of African blood into the South. The prices demanded for them range from $600 to $1100, which the editor thinks a little too high. He says in conclusion that "a few more must be imported to bring down the price, when we will get one, and make a press man of him," and he naively adds "a wild African working a press would be something new in the history of this country."

It is not exactly new, however, for the New Hampshire Gazette, nearly a hundred years ago, and for a long series of years, was printed on an old Scotch press by Primus Fowle, an imported negro.

Prime was a peppery tempered old fellow, who knew a great many things, though he never learned to read. And had he seen any chance to better himself he would have been precisely one of that kind who would not scruple to run away. In those days, however, there was nowhere to run, and so old Prime finished his days here.

Prime was probably from "one of the first families" in Guinea; at any rate he always had a high sense of his own dignity, and a keen perception of his own prerogatives, such as they were.

In the days of slavery here, when any white member of a family died, it was customary, at the funeral, for a negro to walk at the left hand of each white survivor, among the chief mourners. At the funeral of Mrs. Daniel Fowle, wife of the editor, Prime should have gone on the left of his master, but he got on the right.—His master whispered, Go t'other side. Prime did not move. His master touched him and whispered again, Go t'other side. This was too much. The old peppery negro sputtered out, as loud as he could,—Go tudder side yo self, ye mean jade.

☞ Uncle Toby gratefully acknowledges the receipt of a fine roast of beef from Rowe & Stokell's provision store.—This beef was from the farm of Mark Wentworth, Esq., and was fatted on rutabaga, giving the meat a fine flavor.

☞ Frank Leslie's Family Magazine and Gazette of Fashion is one of the most comprehensive, complete and valuable publications in the country—we know of no one so thorough. It is filled with instructive as well as entertaining matter, and excellent illustrations, for all sorts of readers, including the ladies. It may be had at the periodical depots, or of Frank Leslie, publisher, New York. $3 per year, 25 cents per number. Get one, and see if we have spoken too highly of it.

☞ Mrs. Emma A. Wentworth with the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, are giving a series of Concerts in Newburyport.

LOUISIANA ON THE SLAVE TRADE.—The representatives of the slave trade interest in Louisiana have introduced into the Legislature the following bill relating to the purchase of negro slaves by the people of that State, and obtained its reference to the Committee on Foreign Relations:

Whereas, the Federal Government has no power to prohibit the buying of negro slaves by the citizens of this State; and whereas the people of Louisiana to purchase slave property in any market, whether domestic or foreign, where negro slaves are sold, has never been alienated from her sovereignty, or granted to the control of the Federal Government:

Therefore, be it enacted, &c., That any citizen or association of citizens of this State be and they are hereby authorized to purchase negro slaves from Cuba, Brazil and Africa, and to bring the said slaves so purchased into this State, and to hold the same in full right and title for their proper use, benefit and behoof; provided, said slaves, so purchased and imported into this State, shall be subject to the same regulations and tariff of duties as other species of foreign property or imports.

Query, whether the modern doctrines of non-intervention, State equality, and other specious humbugs, do or do not justify all this,—and whether somebody will not shortly make this a party test, and denounce all who oppose it, as sectional.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 11.—A fight occurred on the 8th ult., near Chester, Nebraska, between fifteen Pawnee Indians and eleven white men, in which three Indians were killed and several wounded. The affray was caused by the attempt on the part of the Indians to outrage white women.

This is probably a lie;—as it is quite contrary to the Indian character. It is more likely the boot is on the other leg.

Some very refined writers speak of the feelings feeling upon the flags on the margins of the brooklets. We never have wished our eyes with such a sight, but we have often laid awake listening to the melody of the rat-lings behind the wall-ings of our sleeping apartments.—Bath Times.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

Ship Mary Washington, Chapman, old Boston 10th, for Charleston.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The Committee on Ways and Means had the subject of the tariff before them this morning. The members of the committee declare their inability to agree upon any tariff bill, and it is probable that the subject will come before the House on Monday without the report of the committee.

The feeling in favor of a modification of the tariff is decidedly stronger. Pennsylvania Democrats declare their purpose to unite with the Republicans on it.

The Committee on Military Affairs recommend a reduction of the Army appropriation bill to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars.

☞ An expressman at Stillwater, Minnesota, had occasion to go to Arcola, a few days since on business requiring speed, whereupon he harnessed a fine Newfoundland dog to a light hand-sled and made the journey, seven miles, on the ice in twenty-seven minutes.

It seems to be generally thought here there are only about six healthy women in our city. Mesmerism, Physiology and the hypo have caused nearly all the beautiful creatures about us to discover that in some particular thing they don't feel very well, and the darlings are pronounced sick. Augusta (Me.) Journal.

HYMN TO THE PEOPLE.

BY C. D. STUART.

Not to be blest with warrior strength,
To wield the sword and wear the glaive,
Or rise to conqueror's fame as length,
Proclaims the good or makes the brave.

To have the power to bide the scorn,
And rise above the hate and strife
Of those to wealth and title born;
Is the crown'd courage of our life.

What are the swords that prop a king—
The banners in his army's van—
To strength of soul, that dares to spring
And show the monarch in the man?

Kings and the mightiest men of arms,
Strong as the heads of realms they bide,
Sport as they may with fortune's charms,
They are like leaves upon the tide.

In dim of old sepulchres they lie,
The feast of silence and decay,
While the true world-heart beateth high
And thrones itself upon to-day.

Give me the man whose hands have tossed
The corn-seed to the mellow soil,
Whose feet the forest depths have crossed,
Whose brow is nobly crown'd with toil.

THE HIDDEN HAND.

BY EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.
AUTHOR OF "THE BRIDE OF AN EVEN NG," "THE DESERTED WIFE," ETC., ETC., ETC.

'Have you got through?' asked the man at the door rapping impatiently.

'No, no,' said I, as directed

'He re-umed his tramping up and down, and I went back to my patient. She beckoned me to come close, and whispered—

'Save my child! the living one I mean! hide he! oh hide her from him! When he demands the babe, give him the poor little dead one—he cannot tell the—And he will not know there was another. Oh! hide and save my child.'

'Master, I was used to queer doings, but this was a little the queerest. But if I was to conceal that second child, in order to save it, it was necessary to stop its mouth, for it was squalling like a wild cat. So I took a vial of paregoric from my pocket and give it a drop, and it went off to sleep like an angel. I wrapped it up warm and lay it along with my shawl and bonnet in a dark corner. Just then the man rapped again.

'Come in, master,' said I.

'No, bring me the babe,' he said.

'I took up the dead infant. Its mother kissed its brow and dropped tears upon its little cold face; and I carried it to the man outside.

'Is it asleep?' the villian asked me.

'Yes, master,' said I, as I put it, well wrapped up, in his arms, 'very sound asleep.'

'So much the better,' said the knave, walking away.

'I bolted the door and went back to my patient.—With her free hand he seized mine and pressed it to her lips, and then held up her left hand, pointed to the wedding ring upon her third finger.

'Draw it off and secrete it, while conceal the child under your shawl, and take her with you when you go; save her and your fortune shall be made.'

'I declare master, I hadn't time to think, before I heard one of them wretches rap at the door.

'Come! get ready to go,' he said.

'She also beckoned me I hastened to her. With eager whispers and imploring gestures she prayed me to take her ring and save her child.

'But you,' said I—'who is to attend you?'

'I do not know nor care! Save her!'

'The rapping continued I ran to the corner where I had left my things. I put on my bonnet, made a sort of sling around my neck of the silk handkerchief, opened the large parcel it like a hammock and laid the little sleeping babe there. Then I folded my big shawl around my breast and nobody any the wiser. The rapping was very impatient'

'I am coming,' said I.

'Remember!' whispered the poor girl.

'I will,' said I, and went and opened the door. There stood t'other villian with his hat drawed covered with black crape. I dreamt of nothing but blackheaded demons for six months afterward.

'Are you ready?' says he.

'Yes, you need not be so snappish,' says I.

'Come along, then.'

'And binding another silk handkerchief round my eyes, he lead me along

'Instead of my mule, a carriage stood near the horse block

'Get in,' says he, holding the pistol to my ears by way of an argument.

I got in. He jumped up upon the driver's seat, and we drove like the wind. In another direction from which we come, in course, for there was no carriage road there. The carriage whirled along at such a rate it made me quite giddy. At last it stopped again.—The man in the mask got down and opened the door.

'Where are you taking me?' says I.

'Be quiet,' says he, 'or—' and with that he put the pistol to my cheek, or fered me to get out, take the bandage from my eyes, and walk before him. I did so, and saw dimly that we were in a part of the country that I was never at before. We were in a dark road through a thick forest On the left side of the road, in a clearing, stood old house; a dim light was burning in a lower window.

'Go on in there,' said the villian, putting the pistol to the back of my head. As the door stood ajar I went in to a narrow, dark passage, the man all the while at my back He opened a door on the left side, and made me go into a dark room. Just then, the unfortunate child, that had been moving painfully began to wail! Well it might, poor starved thing!

'What's that?' says the miscreant, under his breath and stopping short.

'It ain't nothing, sir,' says I, and 'hush-h-h' to the baby. But the poor little wretch raised a squall

'What is the meaning of this?' says he. 'Where did that child cum from? Why the devil don't you speak?' and with that he seized me again by the scruff of the neck and shook me

'Oh, Master, for the love of heaven don't,' says I, 'this is only a poor unfortnet infant as its parients wanted to get outen the way, and hired me to take care on. And I have had it wrapped up under my shawl all the time 'cept when I was in your house, when I put it to sleep in the corner.

'Humph! and you had that child concealed under your shawl when I first stopped you in the woods?'

'In course, Master,' says I.

'Whose is it?'

'Master,' says I, 'it's—it's a dead secret!' for I hadent another lie ready.

He broke out into a rude, scornful laugh, and seemed not half to believe me and yet not to care about questioning me too closely. He told me sit down then in the dark, and went out and turned the key on me. I wet my finger with the paragoric and put it to the baby's lips to quiet its pains of hunger.—Then I heard a whispering in the next room. Now my eyesight never was good, but to make up for it I believe I had the sharpest ears that ever was, and I don't think anyone could have heard a leaf whispering but me. I saw a little glimmer of light through the chinks that showed me where the door was, and I creeped up to it and put my ear to the keyhole.—Still they whispered so low that no ears could o' heard them but my sharp ones. They was talking about selling some woman and child. I should 'av been uneasy if they had'nt call the woman Kate. My willain offered 'em for fifty dollars, but t'other villain wouldn't give a cent. He told my willain, as he called Captain, that he'd take 'em off his hands and no more And then they talked about cheap and went out o' my hearin'. And in the mornin' the new willain came and took me and the child off in a shay and drove down a long way to the beach, and hailed a vessel on the river and took us aboard and sold us to the captain right afore my eyes, and then went ashore, and we was carried off out to sea, though I cried, and 'splained, and spoutuated all the time.

'Now, sir, came a strange providence, which the very thoughts of it might convert a heathen! We had been to sea about five days, when a dreadful storm rix I tell you, master, that looked like the wrath of God! I hugged my baby to my breast—and went to praying as hard as ever I could pray.

'Presently I felt an awful shock, as if Heaven and earth had come together, and then everybody screamed, 'She's struck! She's struck!' I felt the vessel tremble like a live creatur, and the water a pouring in everywhere. I hugged the babe and scrambled up the companion way to the deck. It was pitch dark, and I could hear every man rushing to the side of the vessel.

'A flash of lightning that made everything as bright as day again, showed me that they were taking to the boat. I rushed after, calling to them to save me and the baby But no one seemed to hear me; they were all too busy trying to save themselves and keep others out of the boat, and cursing and swearing and hollering that there was no more room—that the boat would be swamped, and so on. The end was, that all who could crowd into the boat did so. And me and the baby and a poor sailor lad and the black cook were left behind to perish

'But, marster, as it turned out, we as was left to die were the only ones saved. We watched after that boat with longing eyes, though we could only see it when the lightning flashed And every time we saw it, it was farther off. At last, master, a flash of lightning showed us the boat as far off as we could see her, capsized and beaten hither and thither by the wild waves—its crew had perished.

'Master, as soon as the sea had swallowed up the wicked captain and crew, the wind died away, the waves fell, and the storm lulled—just as if it had done what it was sent to do, and was satisfied. The wreck—where we poor forlorn ones stood—the wreck that had quivered and trembled with every wave that struck it—until we had feared it would break up every minute, became still and firm on its sandbar, as a house on dry land.

'Day light came at last And a little after sunrise we saw a sail bearing down upon us. At we could do was by signs. But they were very good to us, dried our clothes and gave us breakfast, and made us lie down and rest. And then put about and continued their course. The sailor lad—Herbert Greyson—soon found out and told me they were bound to New York—and in fact, marster, in about ten days we made that port.

'Well, marster, I aint a gwine to bother you with telling you of how I toiled and struggled along in that great city—first living out as a servant, and afterwards renting a room and taking in washing and ironing—aye! how I toiled and struggled—for ten long years, hoping for the time to come when I should be able to return to this neighborhood, where I was known, and exposed the evil deeds of them willains and for this cause I lived on, toiling and struggling and laying up money penny by penny.

'No one ever helped me but the lad Herbert Greyson. Whenever he came from sea, he sought me out, and made a little present to me or Cap.

'Cap, marster, was Capitola, the child. The reason I gave her that name was because on that ring I had drawn from the masked mother's hand were the two names—Eugene—Capitola.

'Well, marster, the last time Herbert Greyson came home, he gave me five dollars, and that, with what I had saved, was enough to pay my passage to Norfolk.

'I left my little Cap in the care of the people of the house—she was big enough to pay for her keep in work—and I took passage for Norfolk. When I got here I fell ill, spent my money, and was at last taken to the poor house. Six months passed away before I was discharged, and then six more before I had larned and saved money enough to pay my way on here.

'I reached here three days ago, and found a wheat field growing where my cottage fire used to burn, and all my old neighbors gone, all except old Hat, who has received and given me shelter. Sir, my story is done—make what you can of it," said the invalid, sinking down in her bed as if utterly exhausted.

Old Hardcastle, whose countenance had expressed emotions as powerful as they were various while listening to this tale, now arose, stepped cautiously to the door, drew the bolt, and coming back bent his head and asked—

'What more of the child?'

'Cap? I have not heard a word of Cap since I left her to try and hunt out her friends. But any one interested in her might inquire for her at Mrs. Simmons, landress, No. 3 Rag Alley.'

'You say the names upon that ring were—Eugene—Capitola?'

'Yes sir, they were.'

'Have you that ring about you?'

'No, marster. I thought it was best, in case of accidents, to leave it with the child.'

'Have you told her any part of this strange history?'

'No, marster, no; nor hinted it; she was too young for such a confidence.'

'You were right. Had she any mark about her person by which she could be identified?'

'Yes, marster, a very strange one. In the middle of her left palm was the perfect image of a crimson hand, about half an inch in length. There was also another. Herbert Greyson used to please me, marster, upon her fore arm in India ink her name and birthday.—Capitola, Oct. 31st, 1832.'

'Right. Now tell me, my good soul, do you know, from what you were enabled to observe, what house that was where Capitola was born?'

'I am on my oath. No, sir, I do not know; but—'

'You can yet.'

The woman nodded.

'Second floor back.' said old Hurricane, stooping and whispering a name that was heard by no one but the sick woman.

She nodded again, with a look of intense meaning.

'Does your old hostess here, that know or suspect anything of this story?' inquired Major Wardell.

'Not a word! No soul but yourself has heard it.'

'That is right! Still be discreet! If you would have the wicked punished and the innocent protected, be silent and wary. Have no anxiety about the girl.—What man can do for her will I do and quickly! And now, good creature, that is earned dearly. You must seek repose. And I must call the parson in and return home. I will send Mrs Condiment over with food, wine, medicine, clothing, and every comfort that your condition requires.' said old Hurricane, rising, and calling in the clergymen, with whom he soon after left the house for home.

Then he reached Harrington Hall in time for an early breakfast which the astonished housekeeper had prepared, and for which their night's adventures had certainly given them a good appetite.

Major Wardell kept his promise and as soon as breakfast was over he dispatched Mrs Condiment with a carriage filled with provisions for the sick woman. But she was not needed. In a second visit he found the housekeeper returned with the intelligence that the old nurse was dead. The false strength of mental excitement that had enabled her to tell her long and dreadful tale, had been the last flaring up of the flame of life, that almost immediately went out.

'I am not sorry, upon the whole, for now I shall have the secret in my own hands!' muttered Old Hurricane to himself—'Ah! Gabrielle Le Noir; better you had cast yourself down from the highest rock on this range, and been dashed to pieces below, than have thus fallen into my power.'

So far we have followed the lovely heroine and her friends, but the foregoing is all that we can publish in one chapter. The remainder of the narrative can only be found in the New-York Ledger, the great family paper, which can be obtained at all the periodical stores where papers are sold. Remember to ask for the Ledger dated February 12, and in it you will get the continuation of the narrative from where it leaves of here. There are no back numbers to be given, convenient to where you reside, the publisher of the Ledger will send you a copy by mail if you will send him five cents in a letter. Address Robert Bonner, Ledger office, 44 Ann Street, New York. This story grows more and more interesting as it progresses.

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNAED'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that in addition to its certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood decange the nourishment and functions of the Heart, enough may to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and without exception they are harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or deadened by the use of tobacco, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which also always is consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening the days of their life should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the Inventor, and warranted, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR

Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam, has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health, after being pronounced anyone the wrath of scrofula. And this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with hoot Cough, Pain in the side, General debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told he could NOT LIVE WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely sit up. He saw a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as he believes, permanently cured.

Yours truly, H. G. O. WASHBURN, Bookseller.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the difficulty in Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century,

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must be the true effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a native of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at my service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, JAN. 14, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOUNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 18, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant itching to which I have been subject, and which troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large size, containing three times as much as a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

all morbid or bad matter from the system, and a preventive of supplying in their place a healthy flow of Bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving a healthy tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of sickness. Only one bottle needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Chronic Dyspepsia, sallowness or unnatural color from the skin, giving vigor to the system and makes the blood digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its severest form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost at the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by expelling the cause.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a bilious character, it operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands and tens of thousands in flourishing towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are incurable, and all the rest imperfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be induced to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 18 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE'S RESTORATIVE PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by those who are those who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of a safe remedy, can rest assured that the genuine article, which will be sure to relieve, and cure, in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper for her to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye made them a beautiful brown.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1859.

[For the Chronicle.]

MRS. ELIZA BIGELOW.

Died, in Pepin, Wis., Feb. 15, after an illness of six days, Mrs. Eliza Bigelow, wife of the late Rev. Jonathan Bigelow, of Euclid, Ohio.

Stereotyped, fulsome obituaries are but a poor offering to the memory of departed, worthy friends. If the departed were the excellent of the earth, it needs not to be proved, when they are gone; and if it did, the usual formula of panegyric would prove nothing. Moreover, it is derogatory to God to exalt a creature to the skies. If we have any moral excellence God alone is its author, and His should be the glory. If departed friends were careless sinners, or doubtful professors, our encomiums will neither alter facts nor change the opinions of those who knew them well. It is not only injurious to mankind—not only creates a feeling of revulsion, to laud our departed friends unreasonably—but it is in very bad taste. Truth is modest and simple. No glorified friend would wish to be represented as perfect, or very near perfection, when upon earth.

The friends of Eliza Bigelow need no information respecting her character and life. But they would, no doubt, be gratified to learn some of the particulars of her sickness and death. She breathed her last in a log house, in a retired spot, far from her early friends and privileges. But it is believed that not many happier Christian ladies can be found, in the midst of exalted privileges, than she was, for months, in that humble dwelling, before Jesus called her up higher.

Pioneers at the West expect privations, —or, if not, they are wont to meet them ere long. She had her share. And at her time of life, (she was 62 years of age,) and with her early training and associations, she could well appreciate the discomforts of a home in that retired spot.—But the glory of Christ shone as brightly into that humble dwelling as in any, probably, in which she had ever lived. Very sweet and exultant were her last letters.—No matter if the crops were cut off—no matter if she and her children lived on the simplest fare, and God's promise was all that gave hope of the future—that promise was food, and raiment, and rest, and joy, and salvation; and on it she lived, like a simple, trusting child. Let this be said and thought of, in honor of a faithful Redeemer, and to cheer drooping hearts in their need. Let the friends of dear Eliza learn to trust all with Jesus, and outward circumstances will be as nothing. A log home is a heaven with Jesus; and a palace, to a Christian, is a hell without him.

Her disease was pneumonia, and her sufferings were severe. But she enjoyed perfect peace. "I desire to live one year more," she said, "that I may live in Christ all the time." Her daughter replied, "You can live in his bosom in heaven, dear mother." "That is far better, she said, but I have been such a sinner. "I wish I could tell all, one sentence, Look to Christ! Look to Christ!" "Do you love Jesus better than us?" her son inquired. With a heavenly smile she answered, "Ten thousand times ten thousand." In the evening in which she died, she exclaimed, "All is well! Oh, my all is well! Jesus, thy blood and righteousness, my beauty are, my glorious dress. Jesus will go down into the valley, and bands of angels are waiting for the soul that loves Christ." It was remarked to her, "There are more friends waiting for you on the other side, than on this shore; father, mother, husband, children, all are there, but the best friend of all is Jesus." "Oh, yes," she said, "if I can find his robe to cover my simple soul."

Many attended her funeral, and acts of kindness and sympathy testified to the regard in which she was held. More might be said consistently with the commencing remarks. But this may suffice to comfort and edify her early friends, and to cheer any fearful believer, who may read these lines. Let us live by the day, and with all our might, and unto Jesus, and Jesus will take charge of our death, aye, of our eternity. D. D. T.

☞ John H. Davis, a heavy packer, of Cincinnati, died suddenly, Saturday. A local paper says: "He was highly esteemed as a man of benevolence and enterprise, and was a good judge of pork!"

☞ The English Christmas pantomimes have proved fatal to two ballet girls, whose dresses took fire from the foot lights of theatres at London and Birmingham.

REDUCED CONSUMPTION.—The Dublin correspondent of the Boston Pilot, mentions the failure of the British government "to raise another half million on Irish spirits," by putting up the duty to 8 shillings a gallon. The failure is attributed by the government to "the evident increase of illicit distillation, which is stimulated by two concurrent circumstances, the very low price of grain and the excessively high duty."

The Irish correspondent does not exactly believe all this, nor does he think that lowering the duty will help the revenue.—He says:

When the cost of manufacture is not more than two shillings, and the duty is ten, the chances are in favor of the smuggler. At the same time, we do not trace the falling off in the duties to this cause, but to a reduced consumption, and also to the reduced quantity held by retailers in stock.

Here this intelligent Irishman gives incidentally the most cheering piece of Irish news for a twelvemonth, viz., that the consumption of liquors has diminished enough to affect the revenue. Let no man say nothing can be done. Ireland, by doing something for herself in this way, may yet lift up her head among the nations.

For the Chronicle.

MUST HAVE A LAWYER.—Messrs. Editors: I see in your Daily paper, this morning, a little piece from the N. H. Gazette, with the caption, "Must have a Lawyer." And the piece winds up by saying, that "a vote against Daniel Marcy is a vote that no mechanic, no merchant, no sailor, can occupy a seat in Congress, so long as a federal lawyer claims it for himself."

This is a great argument, Messrs. Editors, and with your leave I will turn it round, and let your readers look at the other side of it.

A vote against Goodwin is a vote that no mechanic, no sailor, no merchant, can occupy a seat in the Governor's chair so long as an up-country lawyer (Asa P. Cate, Esq., of Northfield,) claims it for himself.

One turn more, and I have done. In this district, in 1857, and also in 1855, the opposing candidates were Pike, who is a methodist preacher, and Kittredge, who is a doctor of medicine, and also a methodist. Viewed professionally, the democratic party voted that nobody but a doctor should go to Congress, while every vote for Pike, whether by K. N.'s or "black republicans," was a vote that none but preachers should go. Viewed religiously both parties voted that no one but a methodist should go to Congress.

But really, no such things were voted for. Each party then, as now, had some object or measures to pursue, or principles to carry out—and each voted for men who were supposed to favor those objects, measures or principles. BOB SHORT.

SURGERY AT FAULT.—From the accounts that reach us respecting the case of the Rev. T. B. Thayer, of Boston, we should infer that his recovery will not be noted in the medical journals as an instance of the triumph of modern surgical skill. The mortification should be elsewhere than with the patient.—Boston Transcript.

Mr. Thayer's whole system appeared so prostrate, immediately after his injury, that his surgeons were afraid to amputate his leg, lest he might die under their hands. He remained in a very feeble state for many days, but by the best of nursing he is now recovering, without the loss of his leg. His case is very similar to one of our own citizens, who was put in a similar way, years ago. Nature, in both cases was better than art or science.

PROSPECTS AND BETS.—The Concord Daily Patriot of Feb. 10 proposes the following bets:

$100 that Goodwin will not have 5000 majority;

$100 that Marston will not have 700 majority;

$100 that Tappan will not have 1500 majority;

$100 that Edwards will not have 2000 majority;

$100 that the blacks will not have two-thirds of the Senate;

$100 that the blacks will not have the entire Council.

$100 that we win all of the above bets if they are taken.

These bets must all be taken together.

The Patriot did not use to offer any such bets as these. It used to bet on the majorities of its own candidates—not on the minimums of its opponents.

☞ The mother of John G. Saxe, the poet, who resides in Troy, went to Bennington, last week, for the purpose of hearing her son read his poem on "Love." Though he has lectured four hundred and fifty times, this was the first time the old lady ever had an opportunity of hearing him.

COUNTER PROSPECTS.—A day or two ago, we published the N. H. Patriot's prospects of the next election. Now, per contra, we copy from the Manchester American the following estimate of the result of the canvass now going on in this State.

We have in this State, when no adverse influences are operating in our ranks, an undoubted majority of from six to seven thousand. In the coming election we shall elect our candidate for Governor by five thousand majority. In the first Congressional District, the contest will be more closely contested than elsewhere, but Mr. Marston will be chosen by at least 700 majority. In this district we shall have 1500 majority. In third district the Republicans will have over 2000 majority. We shall have two-thirds of the Senate, nearly two-thirds of the House, and the entire Council. With the present condition of affairs in the General Government, the only real wonder is that the Democratic party in New Hampshire can have the courage to make the thorough and vigorous campaign they are now engaged in."

ANOTHER DIVORCE CASE.—The New York and Philadelphia papers contain a long report of the trial of a divorce case, Emily L. Fry against Horace B. Fry, both of Philadelphia. The wife is a daughter of Mr. Grigg, a man of large wealth. The story is the old one, of a young girl with wealthy and too indulgent parents, brought up in entire neglect of mental training and discipline, sought out and married by a brute in the disguise of a gentleman. The wife, neglected and ill-treated, becomes intimate with a most friendly gentleman who sympathizes with her wrongs, and cause is given to suppose that her affections were transferred to this sympathizing friend, though there is nothing in the intercepted letter of the lady to her male friend, which is put in as evidence in the case, which can justify a charge of criminality. The parties were married only six months ago, and it is the lady who sues for the divorce.

THE GREAT FRAUD IN ILLINOIS.—The fraud recently discovered in Illinois, is of great magnitude. The large amount of $236,000 of State scrip, as far as has been ascertained, has been fraudulently re-issued, it having been paid and sent to the Governor for canceling, some years ago. A committee of the Legislature is diving deep into the fraud, and it is feared that new and more astounding frauds will be brought to light. Ex-Gov. Matteson is said to be implicated in the matter. He holds a large portion of the fraudulent scrip, which he alleges he has bought of various persons during the last years, but the names of most of whom he cannot now recollect.

☞ Three men in disguise recently forced an entrance into the house of the Treasurer of Erin, Washington county, Wisconsin, and proceeding to one of the chambers broke in the door, when a pedler, who was lodging there by permission of the Treasurer's wife, shot one of the three with a revolver, killing him, when the others fled. Upon examining the body of the robber, it was found to be that of the Treasurer himself, who had placed the funds belonging to the town where the pedler was lodged.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—A letter from an influential gentleman in London, under date of Jan. 20th, to a friend of his in Portland, Me., has been seen by the Advertiser.—He says:—

"Yesterday I signed the contract for the purchase of the Big Ship for the new company, and we shall at once proceed to finish her, having got the money to do so.—You may say to all Portland, I hope ere long to pay you a visit in her."

LIQUOR SEIZURE.—A man from Gardiner, complained to the police in Augusta, a few days since, that he had found at the Mansion House a room fitted up in the basement for the retailing of liquors; that he drank several glasses of liquor there, as had others. On this information being giving the City Marshal, he obtained the necessary papers and proceeded to the Mansion House, where he found the liquor room with its fixtures, and made a seizure of the liquors. The court adjudged the parties guilty, and the case has gone up to the higher Court. The Mansion House is leased to be kept in accordance with the laws of the State.—Augusta Journal.

A man was found drunk in North St. Boston, Wednesday night, with two bank books showing $1500 to his credit, a watch, a note for $100, and $5 in money, in his possession. He belongs in New Hampshire, and according to a memorandum in his pocket, was robbed Dec. 23d, of $200.

SINGULAR DEATH.—Isaac Crow, aged 16, while playing "shinney" in Port Carbon, Pa., struck the ball with such force that he dropped dead. It is supposed that he sustained some fatal injury from over-exertion.

☞ The democratic caucuses at Washington are perfect pictures of the condition of the democratic party.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, Feb 11.—Steamship Moses Taylor, from Aspinwall, with California dates of the 20th ult., and $1,320,000 in specie, arrived at this port this evening.

The U. S. ship Vandalia, Com. Sinclair, sailed from San Francisco, Jan. 10, for Guaymas.

The Moses Taylor on the 9th inst., passed the U. S. sloop-of-war Brooklyn, steering S. W.

The Tehama Gazette says a vein of coal, which, it is hoped, will equal the Scotch Cannel, has been found on Elder Creek.

The Burns Centennial was to be celebrated in various parts of the State.

The new Sugar Refinery in San Francisco has been much damaged by an explosion. Only one man was killed, though there were 30 in the building.

From Honolulu we learn that the French have taken possession of Clipperton Island, 600 miles west of Acapulco.

On New Year's day the settlers of Round Valley, Cal., killed 40 Indians, for stealing stock. Mayor Johnson had arrived there with troops to give the Indians protection.

The stage running between Forest Hill and Yankee Jim's, Placer Co., had been robbed by 8 or 10 highwaymen, of between $2000 and $3000.

The New York News indulges in a bitter diatribe against New England on account of her clamors for a high tariff. The truth is, very little is said in New England about an increace of tariff, while the most clamorous state in the Union is Pennsylvania. It is in bad taste for a paper which daily glorifies the President, to indulge in slang against the friends of specific duties and protection; for Mr. Buchanan stands at the very head of this class.—Bath Times.

THE WHEELER & WILSON

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

GOOD NEWS.—A reduction in the prices of Sewing Machines is announced. Their utility is established beyond question, and at the present prices we see no reason why they should not be found, as they ought to be, in every household.—Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels. This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the spine with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no mystery so certain to insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is recommended as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Malt Barley, under the supervisance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the very "pile kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounced Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and elsewhere, with unparalleled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ The Concord Daily Patriot of Feb. 11, says, "We have no doubt that two-thirds of all the places where liquor is sold in the State, are in the hands of black republicans."

How it may be in other parts of the State, we cannot say, as to the proportion of rum politics;—but in this city, about nine-tenths of the sellers call themselves democrats,—and possibly one-tenth may claim the name republican.

NAVY YARD MATTERS.—The New York Tribune's Washington Correspondent says:

"Four witnesses from Kittery, Me., were on the stand in the Select Naval Committee yesterday, thirty minutes each, and to-day were paid $4400 and discharged. Their testimony related to brick contracts in the engineer department, and the employment of men."

"Perley" gives the names of the four witnesses as from New Hampshire, viz., Messrs. Nathaniel M. Rand, Jedediah Rand Samuel A. Trefethen and Samuel Spinney, —and says they have each received about one hundred and ten dollars, and it cost nearly as much more to summon them.—The entire expense of the witnesses in the Navy Yard Investigations, thus far, has been over five thousand dollars, besides reporting, printing, &c. He adds,—It is to be hoped that something tangible will result from this.

HAYTI A REPUBLIC, AGAIN.—The black republicans of Hayti are victorious, and at the latest dates, Jan. 26, the black Emperor Soulouque had arrived at Kingston from Hayti, on a British ship, claiming British protection.

The reader must remember that the Haytien negroes are Frenchified, and the mulattoes more so. Therefore there is no telling how long the new republic will last. We hope for the best, however.

Latest.—Gen. Goffard entered Port au Prince on the morning of the 14th, when the city surrendered without firing a gun, and the republic was proclaimed.

Soulouque immediately abdicated, when a guard was detailed to escort him on board the British steamer Melbourne, but the mob was so excited against him, that he was forced to take refuge at the French Consulate. He finally got safely on board the Melbourne, and arrived at Kington, as before stated.

The American Consul at Aux Cayes had written to the Consul at Kingston for an American man of war, but there were none there.

The people at Port au Prince were rejoicing over the downfall of the Emperor.

A day of thanksgiving had been appointed, when a Te Deum would be sung at the Roman Chapel.

Geffrard had been declared President of the Republic by acclamation.

ANOTHER DEATH FROM THE BAKERY FIRE. Mr. Allcock, who was so badly injured at the burning of the Mechanical Bakery, in Boston on Sunday, while attempting to save his money in the cellar of an adjoining building, has died at the Hospital from his injuries.

RACES ON THE ICE.—Ogdensburg, Feb. 10. Several races took place on the ice here to-day. As the crowd were returning home, ten teams broke through and several horses were lost. A team just come over picked up four men nearly frozen. Some of the teams have not been heard from.

☞ About three-fourths of the female "strikers" at Lowell have returned to their work, and some have left the city to seek employment elsewhere.

OUT-OF-SCHOOL STUDY.—The excellent remarks of Mayor Silsbee of Salem are awaking attention to this subject, a fact which we are pleased to record. We have long doubted the efficacy of out-of-school study; the attention of childhood is too frequently distracted by the household duties in progress, to make their application of any particular service. Their eyesight is impared, too, by poring over school books at night, and their health injured by constant confinement in the house. Too much is expected of them; they are obliged to devote altogether too much time to their studies, and have no connected time for exercise. As a matter of course a great portion of what they study goes for nothing, and, for that matter, might as well never have been looked at. All study should be done in schools, and it needs no ghost from the grave to tell us that now-a-days the pupil is, in nine cases out of ten, overworked.—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

LADIES' SKATING.—There is one obstacle in the way of ladies learning to skate gracefully, which it is very hard to overcome, and this is the constantly abiding consciousness that femininity has the same amount of limbs that characterize the masculine human, and a wish to conceal the fact from everybody else. To be a good skater, the lady must yeild herself to the spirit of the hour, and, without abandoning anything but her prudishness—for the spirit of modesty is not at all compromised by the act—dash away over the course with the same abandon and fearlessness as give ease and grace to her male companions.—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

The history of the last three centuries developes the fact that as civilization increases, crimes against property increase, while offences against the person decrease.

ATROCIOUS VILLANY.—On Monday night, Jan. 31, some desperate rascal entered the dwelling of Mr. Henry Stowell in Shutesbury, and stealthily proceeded to a bed room in which his daughter Ellen, (an excellent young lady of some 19 years of age,) and another lady were sleeping, in separate beds, to both of whom he administered chloroform He then made several cuts with some sharp instrument, upon the forehead of Miss Ellen, extending from the roots of the hair to the eyebrows, and also on her chin. From these wounds the blood flowed freely, but they are not serious. He also made a gash of some three inches in length upon her breast, and probably committed other outrages.—On retiring she took the rings from her fingers and place them upon the table near her bed; these were found upon the floor broken and useless. Her clothing was all taken from the room in which she slept, and from the rooms adjoining. Even her trunk was broken open and clothing and papers carried away. Her summer hat, and summer clothing of all kinds, as well as whatever else belonged to her was carefully selected and carried off.

There were many valuable articles in the same rooms belonging to other members of the family, but nothing whatever was disturbed, except such things as belonged to this interesting young lady.—It seems evident, therefore, that revenge was the only object of the scoundrel. She came to consciousness about daylight the following morning, and found her face and bed clothes covered with blood, and herself suffering greatly from the violence described. The family were at once made acquainted with what had happened and a diligent search has been instituted, but as yet no clue to the perpetrator of the outrage has been obtained.

Miss Ellen Stowell is an intelligent young lady, of much amiability of character, and greatly esteemed by all who know her. She is not conscious of having made any one her enemy. We learn that the family have their suspicions of the inhuman monster, but as yet have no proof of his guilt.—Amherst Mass., Express.

WHAT A BATCH OF PIES COST A UNITED STATES SENATOR.—Two passengers came thro' on the underground railroad train, a few days since from Kentucky. One was Senator Thompson's "boy," a likely mulatto of some 18 or 20 years of age.—It is said a tie of so delicate a nature connects the "boy" with the master as to excite the ire of his mistress; and to make home particularly uncomfortable when the senator is at Washington.

A batch of pies caused the 'boy' to leave home. He had put the pies into the oven, leaving the doors open, as the oven was too hot; by some accident the door got shut, the pies were burned, and the boy was promised a licking in the morning—but before day he and a fellow were on their way to the North Star.—Cleveland Herald.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Several days ago, over 30 Republicans in the House were expected to vote for the admission of Oregon, but now the calculation is that not more than half that number will, if so many.

Judge Douglas has been invited by some of the leading Democrats of New Hampshire and Connecticut, to visit those States, and make political speeches.

Several material errors occurred in the transmission of the account of the Democratic caucus on Wednesday night. The only resolutions adopted were those of Mr. Phelps, of Mo., by a large majority. Mr. Crawford's resolution, declaring it inexpedient and unnecessary to disturb the tariff of 1857, was defeated by 27 against 31.

TRIAL FOR ABDUCTING NEGROES.—St. Louis, Feb. 11.—A bill appropriating $1000, and authorizing the employment of counsel for the defence of Mr. Day and his son, charged with abducting negroes from Missouri and now in jail in Platte City, Mo., passed the lower house of the Kansas Legislature on the 7th without opposition.

☞ Miss Burdett Coutts has given $125,000 for the endowment of the Church in British Columbia. This is the third Bishopric she has endowed.

☞ Chief Justice Taney abstains from all society. Lord Napier was recently denied an interview with him, in consequence of age and infirmities.

☞ In the U. S. Senate, Friday, Feb. 11, Messrs. Benjamin and Doolittle made Cuba speeches; and the House debated the admission of Oregon.

☞ Mrs. Susan Walden and family, of of Buffalo have given $1000 in money to the Buffalo General Hospital.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50. HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.
It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machine in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

From the Portsmouth Journal.

"MR. GOODWIN'S RECORD."

The "Patriot," presents extracts purporting to give the record of Mr. Goodwin's past political history. I am glad to see it, (says "S. F." of Lyme,) because it brings to my mind some very interesting reminiscences. He is charged with reporting certain resolutions in 1838, depreating the agitation of the slavery question. I have a very distinct recollection of those days. Mr. Goodwin was acting with the Whig party, and I was voting the Democratic ticket. We have both of us had abundant reason to repent of our sins, for subsequent events have demonstrated the truth, that both of these old parties were appendages of the slave power. One is dead, the other is in a sinking condition. In his process of decay and reconstruction, it so happens that Mr. Goodwin and myself stand upon the same platform, members of the same party. If the managers of the democratic party in this State, think they are going to prevent the old "abolitionists" from supporting Mr. Goodwin at the next election, because, in 1838, he was opposed to certain measures of theirs, they will find themselves very much in the condition of certain democratic patriots, who swill down immense quantities of bad liquor out of spite to the temperance law. This running back twenty years to show what position a candidate for office occupied on the question of slavery, is about as sensible as it would have been for the apostles to have rejected St. Paul, because he once opposed them. The older men in the Republican party, with scarcely an exception, were formerly members of the old Whig or Democratic parties. And they are men of principle; who left these parties, being fully satisfied they were in error.

The difference between the two candidates, is as wide as freedom from despotism. The one stands pledged to oppose the farther extension of slavery. The other contends that a slaveholder has just as good a right to plant slavery in the Territories as a freeman has to make liberty the rule. Mr. Goodwin represents the principle of universal freedom. Mr. Cate represents the slave power; and stands ready to do its bidding in the future, as he has ever done in the past. The one has left the service of the slaveholders; the other is a slave still. If Mr. Goodwin is elected, as I think he will be, it will be a triumph of freedom. If Cate is elected, the slaveholders will raise a shout of joy. And well they may, for it would be a triumph of despotism.

From the N. H. Gazette.

Not Dead Nor Dying.

On the strength of a jocose article in the Washington States, commenting with more wit than propriety upon the latitudinarian views of prominent Democratic statesmen upon the novel questions which have recently presented themselves, the opposition papers are again repeating the old and foolish statement, that the Democratic party is no more. Because the President favors a mixture of specific and ad valorem duties, and thinks the revenue should be increased by placing a small additional duty upon certain commodities, while Treasurer Cobb thinks any disturbance of the tariff at the present time unnecessary; because the President favors a Pacific Railroad, while certain prominent Democrats are of opinion that a scheme so gigantic as that ought not to be undertaken by government, at least, not until its route and an approximate estimate of the total expense can be determined; because a portion of the party favor the thirty million Cuba bill, while others, equally anxious for the annexation of Cuba, regard that plan as ill-calculated to effect the object;—because of differences upon matters like these, our opponents flatter themselves that the Democratic party is about to burst up and be heard of no more, except as a thing of the past. A few months will suffice to demonstrate the delusiveness of hopes based upon such a foundation as this. The Democratic party does not "die," "vanish," nor do any of those things which its opponents are so fond of predicting. It just goes along the even tenor of its way, pausing occasionally to bury its fallen enemies, the same false prophets who, while alive, made themselves hoarse croaking the speedy demise of the old Democracy. For our own part, we expect to live long enough to attend the political funeral of brothers Whitten, Miller and Brewster, and of two or three generations of deluded individuals who will inherit their political effects, and, under some new name, set up business in opposition to this same always "about to die," but never dead Democracy.

From the N. H. Gazette.

Don't Trouble Yourselves.

Of one thing our readers may be assured: we support for office during the present campaign no man whom we do not know to be sound upon the great principle of Popular Sovereignty, who does not adopt the only honest and sensible interpretation of that doctrine, and who does not deprecate all interference by federal office-holders against the organization and will of the party, whether such interference be made in Illinois, New Hampshire, or elsewhere.

Under the circumstances in which we find ourself placed, we must be regarded as very stupid or very corrupt, to advocate the election of men whom we do not know to be sound upon the great principles of the party. As to the charge that Capt. Marcy is an "Administration man," upon which our opponents are ringing the changes, we see nothing in this worth refuting, or even admitting of contradiction. We are ourself an "Administration man," and are in favor of all its measures which accord with the Cincinnati platform; and we think that in the main, the present Administration deserves the continued support and endorsement of the party & the country. This is, as nearly as can be stated, the feeling of Democrats throughout the Union, and we propose to send three men to Congress who shall represent precisely that sentiment and nothing more.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another favorice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the Rot and Rent and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was doing what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now compare the hair that was gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAVENS.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 13, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds at least 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and inclosing all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be turned from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALEREMOVAING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is sure and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 d1y

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. It only says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

A new lot is just received for the accommodation of the public. by

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and succesful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1859.

OREGON ADMITTED.

In the U. S. House of Representatives, on Saturday Feb. 12, Oregon was finally admitted to the Union.

Before the passage, Mr. Grow, of Pa., offered a substitute, defining the boundaries of Oregon and Kansas, authorizing citizens of the United States who are legal voters resident in each territory to take the necessary steps for the establishment of a State Government, the respective constitutions being subject to approval and ratification by the people.

Ruled out by Speakes. Grow appealed, and Stevens of Ga., moved to lay appeal on the table. Carried, 136 to 92.

Grow then offered an amendment repealing the prohibitory clause in Kansas compromise bill, which the Speaker ruled out.

Davis, of Ind., moved to recommit the bill to Committee on Territories, with instructions to add another section repealing prohibitory clause in Kansas bill, and providing that Oregon be not admitted until it is ascertained by census that she has population enough for one representative.

Speaker decided motion out of order.—Mr. Davis appealed, and the Speaker was sustained—118 to 95. Other amendments were offered and rejected, when Washburn, of Ill., moved to table the whole subject. Disagreed, 124 against 94.

Mr. Marshall of Ky., offered an amendment, providing for admission on a census ascertainment taken by order of the Governor, and that the sufferage clause shall not be construed to authorize unnaturalized foreigers to vote for members of the House of Representatives. Rejected, 18 against 189.

Mr. Bingham of Ohio, offered a substitute declaring that the Constitution of Oregon, does not conform to the Constitution and Laws of the United States, and submitting the question of admission to the people.—Rejected, 84 against 132. The question was then taken on the preamble to the bill, and it was agreed to, 13 against 94; and the bill passed 114 against 102, precisely as it came from the Senate.

The objections to the bill, which were chiefly urged were—first, that it made an unjust discrimination between different territories, inasmuch as it imposed no such restriction upon the people of Kansas. Congress said to Kansas, and still says, "You shall not come into the Union until you can show a population sufficient to entitle you to a Representative in Congress!"

The Boston Atlas classifies the vote thus:

For admission, Lecompton Democrats 92; Republicans, 15; Anti-Lecompton Democrats, 7; total, 114—against admission, Republicans, 71; Americans, 11; Anti-Lecomton Democrats, 2; Lecompton Democrats, 19; total, 103. Locally classified the vote stands: for admission—slave state, 30. The question was decided precisely as it came from the Senate, all amendments having reference to the restriction on the Kansas consitution, to the negro suffrage, and to the vote of unnaturalized foreigners having been voted down, so that Oregon comes in with a constitution just as it was presented.

Among those who voted for the admission in this stage were, of the Republicans, Messrs. Comins and Thayer of Massachusetts; Foster and Wood of Maine; Adrain of New Jersey; Billinghurst of Wisconsin; Curtis of Iowa; Kunkel of Pennsylvania: Nichols, Leiter and Horton of Ohio; Colfax, Cass, Kilgore, Pettitt, of Indiana—all the other Republicans voted against the bill. Five-sixths of the Republican party and all the Americans in Congress voted against the bill; five-sixths of the Lecompton Democrats voted for the bill. This shows how much of a party vote it was.

The three Representatives from New Hampshire voted Nay.

[In another account, we observe Mr. Cragin's name among the yeas.]

LIBERTY OF WITNESSES.—Mr. Willard has offered a bill in the New York Senate to protect witnesses in criminal cases, who are too poor to obtain bail, against the long imprisonment to which they are now often subjected. It provides that the witness shall make an affidavit before the magistrate that he is poor and unable to procure bail, and that his application is not made by collusion with the accused, or any other person, to avoid testifying upon trial; and that if the magistrate is satisfied these statements are true, he shall, within six days, give an order for a conditional examination in the presence of the District Attorney and the accused, if the accused is in custody; and that after this conditional examination, the witness shall be discharged upon his own recognizance, binding himself to appear and testify on trial.

NEW HAMPSHIRE POLITICS.

Messrs. Editors:—Before the primary meetings for the choice of delegates to the different conventions, I advised your readers through the Chronicle, that Douglas would be returned to the U. S. Senate; that Marston would be nominated the candidate for member of Congress from District No. 1, in New Hampshire; and that Goodwin would be unanimously nominated for Governor. Thus far, my statements have been verified.

Having seen statements made in different papers, and after observation obtained while in most of the towns in this District, and from extensive acquaintance and reliable information, I venture to predict again—through the Chronicle, if you please—that Mr. Goodwin will prove the most popular candidate ever offered for the suffrages of the Republican party in New Hampshire, and will increase the Governor vote.

I believe that Gilman Marston is universally considered as able as any other person in the District; that the great Republican party understand fully the great issues which they are called upon to condemn or approve. And I know that the other nominations throughout this District are highly acceptable. I am aware that there exists an apprehension that Mr. Marston will not run so high as "the ticket." With those I take issue. I would not state positively that Marston will get so large a vote as Goodwin. Nor do I believe any other candidate would.—But I believe he will run as high as the average of the Republican State ticket, in this District. In fact I doubt if his vote falls much short of Goodwin's, in the District. And my belief is founded on the fact that I can learn of but few places where exists any disaffection, or but very few who will not ultimately support him.

As bare statement without reasons, is of little consequence, I have hastily advanced a few upon which I found my opinion, and close with a last and quite important one:—that all the candidates nominated by the Republican party were selected with due deliberation, by unprecedented by full conventions; are persons of undoubted ability and reputation, and will receive the support of every consistent Republican. RURAL.

☞ The reader may see, on our fourth page to-day, two political articles, viz.,—one from the Independent Democrat, giving Gilman Marston's Record on the Slavery Question; and the other, on "the Cause of Popular Sovereignty Down East," which we copy from the New Hampshire Gazette, and which should have been credited to that paper, as it contains several libels on Democratic Collectors, Administrations and editors, for which we do not choose to take the responsibility, particularly that item about a dirty old dog fed with federal pap under this administration.

If the reader will look at Monday's Morning Chronicle, he will see another extract from this same Gazette, in which the editor says:

We are ourself an "Administration man," and are in favor of all its measures which accord with the Cincinnati platform; and we think that, in the main, the present Administration deserves the continued support of the party and the country. This is, as nearly as can be stated, the feeling of Democrats throughout the Union.

The reader is respectfully requested to keep his countenance if he can, at the idea of supporting an Administration which threw a wet blanket on Alexander the Great, gives him the cold shoulder, and keeps on feeding dirty dogs with federal pap, while the clean dogs are turned out.

And the whole Democratic party feel just like giving it the same kind of support!

ELOPEMENT IN JERSEY CITY.—The Jersey City Courier says that a well known citizen resident of the Fourth Ward, and until recently doing a large business in the poultry line in Washington market, New York, has left his house, his business, and any quantity of debts, for parts unknown. And rumor goes so far as to say that the runaway took with him a widow lady of tender years, and that both have gone to "merrie old England" to pass their days as man and wife. The first person mentioned in this item has heretofore been held in good repute, was a member in good standing of a Third Ward church, and leaves a wife and several children to "mourn his loss."

PUB. DOC.—Reports on the Finances, and on Commerce and Navigation, received from John P. Hale. Wanted, from the same, De Bow's Abstract of Census of 1850.

IMMORTELLES.

SELECTED FOR THE CHRONICLE.

WHO SEEKS TO PLEASE.

Ill hath he chosen his part who seeks to please
The heartless world. Ill hath he chosen his part;
For often must he wear the look of ease
When grief is in his heart.
And often in his hours of happiest feeling,
With sorrow must his countenance be hung;
And ever his own bitter thoughts concealing,
Must he in hollow grandeur's praise be loud,
And to the errors of the ignorant crowd
Assent with lying tongue.
This much would I conceal, that none should know
What secret cause I have for silent woe.
And taught by many a melancholy proof
That those whom fortune favors, she pollutes;
I, from the blind and faithless world aloof.
Nor fear its envy, nor desire its praise,
But choose my path through solitary ways.
[Translated from Michel Angelo.

THE SEA.

Through the night, through the night,
In the sadness unrest,
Wrapt in white, all in white,
With her babe on her breast,
Walks the mother so pale,
Staring out on the gale
Through the night!

Through the night, through the night,
Where the sea lifts the wreck,
Land in sight, close in sight,
On the surf-flooded deck
Stands the father so brave,
Driving on to his grave
Through the night! [Stoddard.

THOUGHTS.

We do not make our thoughts; they grow in us
Like grain in wood. [Bailey.

TATTING.—This, with many ladies, is a kind of knitting, or rather looping, quite fashionable at present. Some, who are at a loss to know how to spell the word, or where it came from, cannot find it in the Dictionaries, and would like to have its orthography and etymology hunted out and cleared up.

Uncle Toby does not feel quite positive about its origin,—but supposes the word has changed.

The word Tatting is found in the Ladies' Magazines of the day, applied to this kind of work, and has not yet got into the Dictionaries. But the word Tach, or Tache, is found there, and it means, a button, a loop, a catch, &c. The same word is found in the Bible, viz. Old Testament, Exodus 26:6, and elsewhere, where the Taches were of gold, brass, &c. connected with loops, of purple and other material, by which the curtains of the tabernacle were coupled together.

The making of a series of loops might naturally be called Taching, or Tacking, which means something like it,—and this, by a very little carelessness in pronunciation could degenerate into Tatting.

We do not say, this was the origin of the word; but it is possible;—and unless something better is known, seems probable.

[Chronicle Correspondence.]

NAVY YAND, Mare Island, Cal., January 19, 1859.

* * * Not much of importance has occurred for the past month or two, except the interest excited in the new Steamer, on account of its being the first Naval Steamer ever built in California.

The work on her is progressing rapidly, she now being all planked, and Deck Beams in and fastened, and ready to lay deck planks. Should no orders to the contrary be received, she will be launched in about six weeks. The contract for building the engines had been awarded to P. Donohue of San Francisco, to be built under the superintendence of George Sewall, Esq., Chief Engineer in the Navy, who has been ordered here by the Department for that purpose.

The "Vandalia" arrived here the 4th of December, and stopped about one month for the purpose of putting in stores, provisions, cleaning, painting, &c., and sailed on the 3d of January, for Guymas, to relieve the Sloop St. Mary's, which has already sailed for Panama to be relieved of her officers whose term expired in December.

The "Merrimac" will not probably be here for some time, owing to the necessity for vessels along the coast of Lower California, Mexico and Nicaragua,—and the small number of vessels attached to this Squadron.

The Light-house Steamer "Shubrick" is at present laying up at this Yard, there being no necessity for her services along the coast at this time.

Truly yours, W. W. H.

☞ The Winthrop House in Boston was sold at auction for $106,500. It cost $230,000. It was purchased in behalf of the Grand Lodge of Masons, the upper stories to be used as a grand Masonic Hall, and the middle and lower part as a hotel.

'Bubby, why don't you go home and have your mother sew up that hole in your trowsers!' 'Oh, go along, old woman, our folks are economizing, and a hole will last longer than a patch.'

☞ There is a bill now before the Legislature of Louisiana, legalizing the African slave trade, and there is a prospect of its passage.

☞ The Massachusetts Legislature is about passing a law making two years residence in the State, after procuring his papers, necessary to qualify a naturalized foreigner to exercise the right of suffrage.

REDUCED FARE TO CALIFORIA.—Steerage passage in the U. S. mail steamships is now only $100. The reduction is made in consequence of the announcement by Commodore Vanderbilt that an opposition line of steamers would be put on.

☞ Rev. H. H. Hartwell, of Nashua, N. H., had a "donation party" last Thursday evening.

Rev. Mr. Fifield, of South Newmarket, had a similar party on the 10th inst.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtonttiorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and joins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 15 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Blotches and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.—THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing uneasyness which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Ure, Medical Inspector of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever met with."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at twenty-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NEAT ORIGINAL IMPORTED.

DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

VOTES IN FORMER YEARS.—In the year 1856, Hon. Daniel Marcy was elected Senator in District No. 1, by a majority of 74 votes. He had a majority in this city of 127.

In 1857, the same gentleman was re-elected by 57 majority in the district; and he had 104 majority in this city.

In 1858 he was not a candidate; and Mr. Daw, republican, was chosen by 80 majority over Bennett, who had 24 majority in this city.

In this Congressional District, in 1857, Pike had 758 majority over all, and there were 200 scattering votes.

In March, 1858, Gov. Haile had 1300 majority in this Congressional District.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The Committee on Ways and Means this morning could not agree on any way of reporting tariff bills, or on a bill authorizing the issue of 20,000,000 Treasury notes for two years.

Mr. Phelps will endeavor to get this Treasury note before the House under the rules.

Matters look as though the bill will ultimately pass. It will be preferable to a restoration of the tariff of 1846.—Special Dispatch to Boston Journal.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The Tribune's Kansas correspondent states that Ossawottomie Brown had escaped from a blockade near Nebraska, being released by a Free State force, and that he had afterwards attacked the Missourians under Dr. Woods, Deputy U.S. Marshal, whom he had hung.

☞On Sunday, 6th, about 1 o'clock, P. M. a fire broke out in the Dry-house connected with the Factory at the Genie, Rochester, N. H. CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Feb. 14.

SENATE.—Messrs. Seward and Fessenden presented memorials from New York and Portland respecting the Reciprocity treaty.

Mr. Hunter commenced his speech on the tariff.

HOUSE.—Mr. English reported a bill establishing new post routes.

Mr. Jones of Tenn. characterized the California overland route as a curse to the country. He moved to table the bill. Negatived—80 to 98.

HADLEY FALLS, MASS.—The property of the Hadley Falls Company, was sold by auction for $325,000. It was purchased by Alfred Smith of Hartford. The Springfield Republican says Chester W. Chapin bid $320,000 in behalf of a combination of the Boston stockholders.

The property consisted of 1100 acres of land, the great dam across the Connecticut River, the long and fine canals and attendant water-power, the large machine-shop and subsidiary buildings, and from sixty to seventy tenement buildings — all of which cost about two millions of dollars.

LONGEVITY IN LITCHFIELD.—An article in the Litchfield (Ct.) paper gives some curious statistics of the longevity of people in that town. A list is given of thirty-seven persons who have died in that town since 1803, aged over ninety years! The oldest was Mrs. Samuel Adams, who died there in 1803, aged 106 years. She was the mother of the Hon. Andrew Adams, LL. D. After she was one hundred years old it is recorded of her that she rode on horseback 30 miles in one day.

THE BEECHER FAMILY.—In the Independent of this week, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher notices the toast of the Infidel club, which spoke of Beecher in connexion with the heretic clergy, in a very felicitous manner. He states that he hesitates in appropriating the family designation to himself, because, "These gentlemen might have had in mind another one of the same name, who has, for the sake of manhood, put Sampson quite into the background. For this sacred Hercules carried off the gates of Gaza, and escaped from his enemies. But Dr. Edward Beecher has gone far back of Gaza, to the gates of Time, and unlatched, unhinged, and walked off with the doors of the world on his shoulders, so that men can walk back and forward between a pre-existent world and this one, as one would walk from chamber to parlor, or from parlor to boudoir!"

Supposing' however, that the allusion is to himself, Mr. Beecher speaks very happily, as follows:

"Let no man think that we despise the sympathy and well-wishing of a convention of Infidels. We thank them for their kind feelings. Like our Master, we had rather discourse with publicans and sinners than dine with the most select and eminent Pharisee. But we love a true Christian better than either. But, Infidel and Pharisee, all need the grace of God, and all, by repentance of sin and faith in Christ, the Savior of sinners, may yet meet in heaven."

Of the demands made upon Austria by Louis Napoleon, the N. Y. Times says—"It certainly, therefore, is not to be expected that the Sovereign who has done more to make his dynasty popular at home and formidable abroad than any other French Monarch or French Government, of any sort, since that of Richelieu, (the Government of his greater uncle not excepted,) will give way at such a point, and at such a time in his career."

The Avalanche office, at Memphis, Tenn, has been set on fire twelve times within a short period, but fortunately the fire was discovered before any damage was done. The incendiary proves to be a negro boy, who acts as fireman in the press room where the paper is printed.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper.
This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.
The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.
The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.
Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.
EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE

GILMAN MARSTON.

HIS RECORD ON THE SLAVERY QUESTION.

The assertion has been made and reiterated by the Democratic press, that Mr. Marston is placed in a novel and unaccustomed position as the candidate of a party which takes strong ground in opposition to slavery extension, and in favor of the rights of the North. It is alleged that he has never sympathized with those who hold such opinions, and that he must abandon his antecedents to do so now.

A slander more grossly false was never perpetrated. Mr. Marston stands now exactly where he has always stood upon this issue. He is with the Republican party to-day, and has ever professed the sentiments of the Republican party, upon the great questions of slavery extension and the encroachments of the South. An examination of the record of his votes and speeches for the past thirteen years, will put this matter beyond dispute or cavil, and brand with falsehood the authors of this calumny.

In 1846, Mr. Marston, as member of the House of Representatives of this State, made a stirring speech and voted in favor of the anti-slavery resolutions introduced by John P. Hale.

In 1847, Mr. Marston also sustained similar resolutions introduced by Judge Fowler, and by John Preston.

In 1848, he also voted for similar resolutions.

In 1849, Mr. Marston drafted the resolutions adopted by the Whig State Convention, in which was the following:

Resolved, That as citizens of a free State—as friends of the largest liberty to all men—as a Christian people, claiming to be among the most enlightened on earth, we profoundly deplore the existence of slavery in these United States. That determined opposition to the extension of slavery into territory now free, ought to be with every free people, as it most emphatically is with us, an abiding principle in politics, morals and religion.

In August, 1854, a mass meeting was held at Wolfborough, N. H. at which Mr. Marston, among others, made some very extended remarks, from which we make the following brief extract:

We are called upon by every consideration that can operate upon the minds and hearts of intelligent men to stay the progress of slavery—self-preservation—our independence—our love of liberty, all require that no more States with a slave representation should be admitted into the Union.

On this subject we should hold to the South language similar to that addressed by Napoleon to Alexander, when the latter asked his permission to make his conquest of Constantinople: "My friend, I should like to oblige you; we can do great things together; we can rule the world; but my policy, my dignity and my safety, will not permit that you should possess Constantinople.'

And the North should say to the South on this subject of the admission of slave States into the Union: 'We will abide by the original compact—the work of our fathers—and under that we can perform great things together. That compact imposes upon me no obligation to extend slavery over one foot of territory that it does not now cover. Our interests and our safety, and, as we believe, the best interests and the highest glory of the whole country require not only that the extension of that institution should cease, but that it should be forever blotted out from the land.'

Slavery is an element of weakness and not of strength in the State. It is is abhorrent to all our ideas of justice and of right, and receives the almost unanimous execration of the civilized world.

I say, then, that it should be adopted as a fixed and unalterable principle of political action by the free States and by every individual man in the free States, that no new State with a slave representation shall ever be admitted into the Union, be it carved out of the new territories of the west, of Mexico or Cuba, or any other region of the earth which we may acquire by purchase or conquest. And when it is seen and felt that such is the unalterable determination of the North, we shall hear no more of the annexation of Mexico or Cuba.

In 1856, when presiding over the Fremont Convention at Exeter his introductory speech contained the same anti-slavery sentiments.

Such are the views which Mr. Marston has maintained by his vote and his speech, for the past thirteen years, and yet are the views which he presented to the Congressional Convention of the 5th of January last, in his speech accepting the nomination. It is impossible that any man should exhibit a cleaner record. In all the changes of party organization, in the shifting issues of the various campaigns, Mr. Marston's course upon the great slavery question has been perfectly consistent and uniform. He has always opposed with his might the increase of slave territory, the grasping policy of the South, and every attempt to bring the national government into subjection to the slave power.—Independent Democrat.

The Cause of Popular Sovereignty Down East.

The Popular Sovereignty resolutions recently adopted unanimously by the Democratic members of the Maine Legislature, have created quite a nice little mess among the conductors of the Democratic newspapers in that State. Since the passage of the resolutions, scarcely any other matters have been discussed or alluded to in the political columns of Maine Democratic papers. What is, and what is not the proper interpretation of Popular Sovereignty, are the questions that set them by the ears. We are glad to see that all the papers of best established character as reliable and independent Democratic organs, defend the action of the Legislative caucus, while those who find fault with that interpretation of Popular Sovereignty, are the organs fed upon federal pap. One of these last, the Republican Journal at Belfast, is edited by a dirty old dog named Dickinson, who under this Administration, is Collector of that port. This Dickinson has a brother in this State, a blaring, drivelling negro worshipper, half fool and half knave; but the Belfast Dickinson is by far the least decent of the two. A few months ago this Collector at Belfast saw fit to make a gross and unprovoked attack upon ourself, mark the article, and send copies of his venal sheet to Democrats in different parts of this State. And altogether, he has shown an aptitude at doing dirty work, which will undoubtedly insure his continuance in office during the balance of his term. The Bangor Union and Norway Advertiser are the other papers, nominally Democratic, which adopt the doctrine that the people of the Territories are mere things to be regulated and disposed of as Congress and "Dred Scott" may feel disposed. On the other hand, we have among the champions of the true and honest doctrine of Popular Sovereignty, that ably conducted and extensively known paper, the Augusta Age; at Bath, we have that spiciest of papers, the Times; the Free Press at Rockland, the Advocate at Lewiston Falls, the Democrat at Saco; and several other Democratic papers stand fair and square on this great and cardinal question of national politics. Maine is all right; her delegates to the Charleston Convention will strike hands with those of New Hampshire, and we doubt not, of every Northern State, and insure the formal endorsement by the National party, of the only policy which can give peace to the country, and insure success to the Democratic ticket in 1860.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their own protection, to warn them of the worthless Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathering from Field, Forest, and possesses healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those afflicted with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, and at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Croup, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and Tarring and Sanding of Roofs of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., JAN. 20, 1858.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hairs have totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! an it has been before for twenty years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that you will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this place, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 20, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

Brookfield, Jan 19, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasant results.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, retails for $1; the medium, holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consulting a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unfailing in efficacy and superior virtue, regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under the same or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place to get it, Boston being the only place.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES OF ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 3, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

REFORM IN THE COURTS.

It is cause for satisfaction (says the Statesman) that the Judges of our Judicial Courts are determined upon a reform in the mode of conducting trials. No one at all familiar with legal proceedings has failed to notice the trivial questions put to witnesses; hours and even days sometimes being wasted in putting and answering interrogatories, often of little or no consequence whatever, and put, apparently, more for the purpose of embarrasing those under examination, than from any particular object sought in the questions themselves. By this unwarrantable process, days have been wasted upon causes which should not have consumed an equal number of hours; to the expense of honest litigants, besides augmenting State and County taxes. The evil has become a crying one, calling loudly for redress, and there is a prospect that an amendment will speedily take place.

We learn that at the commencement of the present term in Concord—the Supreme Judicial Court, sitting for Merrimack County—Judge Perley informed the Bar that his associates upon the Bench had taken the subject into consideration, and that henceforward counsel would be expected to confine themselve within proper bounds. Certain members of the profession were subsequently found to be running into the old channels, when they were reminded of the expectations of the Court, and, of course, returned from what might have been a long ramble in the old, tedious and expensive path so common hitherto in New Hampshire.

☞ The admission of Oregon was celebrated in Washington, on Saturday night, by a large concourse of citizens, who, with the Marine Band, serenaded the distinguished friends of the measure, including Gen. Lane, Senator Green, Representatives Nichols, Scott, Stephens, Letcher, Thayer, Comins, Stevenson and Orr, nearly all of whom delivered brief speeches eulogistic of the political event.

The President, in response to repeated calls, appeared at a window of the White House. He said he sincerely congratulated them upon the advent of another sovereign State into the glorious confederacy of republics. Expansion was, in future, the policy of our country, and cowards alone feared and opposed it. Thanking them for the honor paid him, the President concluded by calling for "Yankee Doodle," which was performed by the Band.

Vice President Breckinridge, in another part of the city, declared that whenever he could he had given the bill a push, and expected, on Monday, to swear in both Senators. Having been called upon to say something about Cuba, he remarked that we talked too much, and did too little.—When England wished to do a thing, she did it, and talked afterwards. If the island of Cuba, instead of being placed at the mouth of the Gulf of Mexico, laid at the opening of the British Channel, England would take it in ten days; and he was in favor of the acquisition of Cuba. He would not rob for it, but would act with any portion of his fellow citizens in using all honorable means to acquire it.

☞ In the U. S. Senate, on Monday, Feb. 14, Messrs. Lane and Smith, Senators from Oregon, were sworn, and took their seats, and Mr. Hunter made a speech on the tariff.

The House passed the bill for new post routes, went into Committee, and took up the Senate's amendment to the Indian Appropriation bill.

After debate, without action, the Committee rose.

Mr. Phelps asked leave to introduce a bill providing for the payment of the outstanding Treasury notes, to authorize a loan, and fixing the duties on imports, and for other purposes. Objection was made.

The House found itself without a quorum, and adjourned.

☞ A caucus of the democratic members of the United States Senate was held at Washington a few days ago, to consider the subject of the tariff. In the course of the discussion, Mr. Bigler declared that the public debt—$64,000,000 now—would be $100,000,000 by the first of July next, without the $30,000,000 proposed to purchase Cuba.

☞ Hay brings $20 per ton for the first quality, in Bangor, and the farmers find it profitable to bring their surplus crop a distance of ninety miles to dispose of it.

OUR BOSTON CORRESPONDENCE.

BOSTON, Feb. 14, 1859.

Dear Chronicle:—The plan for the acquisition of Cuba seems to have taken a more philosophic form within the few days past. The purchase project seeming to hang hard for three strong reasons, a revolutionary independent and annexation scheme is being looked at tenderly, and it is thought now that in this light, the fruit seems much riper than ever before—much much more likely to fall soon. The idea is,—that if Cuban discontents are by strong hints given to clearly understand that the United States will acknowledge their independent government as soon as they declare one; and not only acknowledge, but aid it to walk alone awhile if need be;—the pronunciamento will grow to the walls of Havana some fine night before a very long time hence, and will then be shouted all over the Queenly Gem of the Antilles by thousands of throats, and be maintained by any quantity of muscle,—with gunpowder and bayonets in the requisite proportion. The quiet ease and superior shrewdness of this move over the more costly one of purchase,—to say nothing of the inconvenience of this latter course when the Treasury is short of Eagles,—meets [with a flattering amount of recognition, as the wave of popular conception of its inherent strength rolls over the land. Verily, there is more than one way to relieve puss of her main exterior.

The real, active, admission of Oregon as a sovereign State has taken many by surprise. The working time of Congress has now begun.

Of current local news there is not much except small gossip—poor of its kind too. Our Bakery fire and its antecedents are still demanding some attention however, and though new points develope slowly, there is considerable promise of a movement when one looks a little under the crust. The Bakers held a comparatively private meeting, Saturday night, and a strictly private one on Thursday night.—I understand that they have been preparing to give some reasons for their statement of last week that Mr. Berdan had not been paid for his ovens and machinery furnished for the Bakery, and from what intelligence I have obtained as to their reasons, it seems probable that they may justify themselves for having taken the position that he had not been paid at the time of the fire.

The Bakers are hardly likely to rest easy under the imputation that their interest or their journeymen's interest prompted the firing of this lamented establishment. They seem grieved and galled at the readiness manifested to attach suspicion to them; and it is not much to be wondered at.—They work hard and seldom acquire wealth; and the bulk of money they do make is on fancy articles, not loaves; and hence there is not any very enormous inducements for them to overthrow a rival Bread maker.

Meantime the ruins burn still. On Saturday afternoon,—almost a week from the time the fire commenced,—a man nearly lost his life by overheat, and exertion and inhaling gas while at work to quench the buried furnace of half burnt timbers in the cellar.

We have sleighing now instead of skating, although our artificial ponds and some suburban ponds are in good condition for the display of muscle. Sunday was a gala day for sleigh riders. There were a large number of people who didn't go to church but half a day, and some who didn't go at all—needing the forenoon to get ready for afternoon riding. Some fine sleighs and horses were out, and some very poor ones. The day was beautiful and immense numbers of people were out for a walk, beside the riding sinners. The little people were also out in full delegation—especially the portion wearing feathers and hoops. One little fellow, seemingly of an envious disposition, yelled out vigorously to the driver of a passing carriage which had a small outside passenger in the rear clinging hard to a short piece of runner. "Hallo, Mr. Hackman!" said young Master Envious and Vicious, "just switch yer whip around a' kind there, and yer'll have a fine cut at a boy!"

The most practical token of Sunday work I saw any sign of, was over across an open space in full view of my windows the bulk of the day;—consisting of a fine large yard thickly hung with various just-washed articles of white fabric, while from one window overlooking them and evidently of the same household, depended a considerable portion of a huge feather bed, and from the window alongside hung an immense half of a bed quilt, whose colossal proportions and queer colors attracted decided notice. As the day was fine the proprietor of these articles evidently concluded to waste no opportunity to give them an airing. Sometimes there are a good many things in a small way to be seen in Boston and once in a while an item that is a decided oddity.

The Tiger Ball at the Boston Theatre promises to be the ball of the season, for elegance and glaring show. Probably there will be some real beauty and tasteful exhibitions of it, mingled with the more gaudy displays of a majority,—some pretty full dress, and some pretty full display of no dress where a slight extension would better suit a modest taste. But the Ball is exciting a decided fever of expectation and interest.

The National Theatre is now the arena of Theological discussion and prayer every Sunday. As a Theatre it don't pay; as a Church its owner hopes it will. Of other amusements in Boston, we have but very small supply, except the Legislature, and that is getting monotonous. Music is not plenty this season, since opera.

The fine weather recently brings throngs of ladies richly dressed upon the street—many of them very attractive in appearance; but that can hardly be said of the majority. Vanity is a predominant expression of countenance, and that is death to beauty. Some of your fine complexioned Portsmouth girls would make a sensation here. BERNARDE.

MR. COBB THROWN OVERBOARD.—The Washington States, which represents the division of National Democrats in Congress who are in favor of free trade and retrenchment, attacks Secretary Cobb for his desertion of free-trade principles and his adhesion to the plans of Mr. Buchanan. It remarks:

"If, rather than acquiesce in the repudiation of his principles, Mr. Cobb had renounced office under a protectionist administration, he would have been embraced by the State-rights Democracy with an enthusiasm of affection, and no honor within their bestowel would have been thought above his desert. He was unequal to the emergency. The cause he betrayed: he retained the place."

The States, therefore, tosses Mr. Cobb overboard after Mr. Buchanan.

☞ Leonard Scott & Co., of New York, the enterprising and liberal publishers of the American reprints of the British Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine, have sent us the January number of The Westminster and Blackwood. The contents of Blackwood are "Maga;" Bulwer's masterpiece; "What will he do with it," is concluded; "Burmah and the Burmese," and "A Cruise in Japanese Waters" are capital articles; "How to Boil Peas" is not a dissertation on cookery, but a most witty and pointed article on the folly of making ourselves miserable. "An Angling Saunter" is very readable. "Popular Literature and the Periodical Press" aims to show that talent is leaving other professions, and concentrating in the press, to which fact, is attributed the lessening interest felt for oral discourse, whether from the lecture-room or the pulpit. "The Royal Proclamation to India" gives us the Tory view of the condition and prospects of that vast country, as compared with what they were under the rule of the famous "East-India Company."

The contents of The Westminster are:

"Reform of Parliament," "The Religious Policy of Austria," "The Sanitary Condition of the Army," "Chloroform and other Anæsthetics," "Spiritual Destitution in England," "Carlyle's History of Friedrich the Second," "Recent Cases of Witchcraft," "Contemporary Literature."

Terms for Blackwood's Magazine or either the London, Edinburgh, North British, or Westminster Reviews, $3 per year; Blackwood and either of the Reviews, $5; Blackwood and the four Reviews, $10.—Address as above.

ESSEX COUNTY, MASS.—We learn from the Newburyport Herald that at the Court of Common Pleas, in Salem, on Saturday, Mr. Renton M. Perley was sentenced, for violation of liquor law, to four months' imprisonment, a fine of $50, and costs of prosecution. On account of sickness in his family, the sentence of Mr. Pillsbury, Perley's partner, was delayed. There was great effort made on the part of members of past and present city government and other gentlemen, to have this sentence suspended, as the parties had gone out of the business, and were ready to give bonds not to enter it again; but these efforts failed.

☞ In Southampton, Mass., on the night of the 5th inst., Miss Maria Moore, while passing near the Catholic Cemetery, was suddenly seized by a man with a dark lantern and wearing a mask, who drew a dirk, inflicted several wounds upon her neck, and then fled. A discarded lover of the young woman, named George Hume, is suspected of being the perpetrator of the outrage.

LEAVENWORTH, K. T., Feb. 12.—A bill abolishing and prohibiting slavery in Kansas has passed the Legislature, but will doubtless be vetoed by Gov. Medary.

This, we presume, is to be the great illustration of the "great principle of popular sovereignty," where the people of the territory decide against slavery, and a governor appointed by the federal executive overreaches them!

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Advices from Kingston, Jamaica, of 29th ult., give additional details respecting the revolution in Hayti. The Standard contains Soulouque's paper of abdication, and adds that upon his arrival at Kingston great excitement prevailed among the Haytien refugees who had been expatriated by his orders. The negro population of Kingston were unanimously in his favor, and rushed in thousands along the streets to get a sight of him. A strong escort of police was found necessary to keep off the crowd.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 15.—The Grand Jury have found true bills against Messrs. Selvas and Mares, the consignees, and Mr. Cassineras, captain of barque Angelita, seized here on suspicion of being fitted for the slave trade.

☞ Key West advices state that Col. Rector has succeeded in inducing the greater part of the Seminoles to leave, and they are to embark on the 12th from Fort Myers for New Orleans.

☞ In Godey for March, "Mutual Instruction" is a plate that will please all lovers of children. The fashion-plate "Easter," is an original design—five figures colored. "The First Falsehood" is printed in tints. This number contains seventy engravings, one hundred pages reading matter, and fifty-articles. Miss Slimmins still figures, and is fast getting herself into difficulties. "The Brothers" is an admirable story. Aunt Sophie pays another of her delightful visits. Read "Content," by Mrs. Haven.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian, artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about large thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, is cordially recommended to the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders a article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of immitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is IMPORTED.

LOCAL.

☞ Just 10 minutes before 10 o'clock, on Tuesday morning, a salute fired from the Navy Yard, announced that the new Steam Sloop of War was successfully launched, and was afloat by the side of the other noble ships lying there, only waiting appropriations and orders, to go forth bearing the stars and strips to the remotest seas, or to lands at the ends of the earth.

The keel of this vessel, No. 2 of the six Sloops of War, was laid about the first of October, and her being built this winter, has afforded comfortable employment to a good number of mechanics and laborers.

Many national men are of the opinion that the Franklin ought to be launched and sent abroad a noble specimen of Naval Architecture, and especially of the work done at this yard. But in the present poverty-struck condition of the federal treasury, there is no great prospect of it.

☞ An advertisement of the New York Ledger, in another column this morning, contains a list of the most celebrated contributors to the columns of that paper—which, taken together, probably cannot be excelled by the writers for any other publication in the land; certainly not by any other low-priced newspaper. Bonner knows how to get up a good paper, as well as anybody—and knows how to interest the people in it, better than most anybody else. His Ledger "foots up" more satisfactorily than most of the merchants of New York, these hard times; and all on account of advertising, too. Why, he has spent $100 in this city of Portsmouth within a fortnight, in advertising a four-cent weekly paper; a sum which it frightens most of our business men to spend in a year. Well, asks Mr. Slow, would you advise us all to advertise to that extent? No—but in our opinion any man who pays more for store-rent than for advertising and printing, don't know his business—that's all. Liberal, judicious advertising never yet failed to pay—ask anybody who has tried it.

☞ An eloquent and patriotic orator, clearly charged with some exhiliarating beverage, spread himself into various attitudes, and made a very brilliant and vehement political speech on Tuesday morning, near the New Custom House. The Superintendent, however, was not so much charmed with the eloquence as he was annoyed by the noise; and the city marshal politely conducted him from the custom house to the lock-up, where he had opportunity to meditate, and if he saw fit, to prepare another speech.

George Washington.—Engravings of Stuart's Portrait of Washington, furnished at one dollar each, by the Mount Vernon Association. Persons wishing copies of this valuable engraving, can procure them by sending one dollar each to Mrs. I. Goodwin, Islington street.

Portsmouth, Feb. 14.

Messrs. Editors:—You state a fact, when you say about nine-tenths of the liquor shops in this city, are kept by men who call themselves democrats; and, you might have added, with truth, that about nine-tenths of those grocers who sell no liquors, are republicans. I suppose this accidental—for I know of some democratic grocers, who are second to none in regard to temperance—but it is a remarkable accident.

Bob Short.

The Investigation Committee.—New York, Feb. 12.—(Times Washington Correspondence.) Wm. D. Kennedy of New York, appeared voluntarily before the Sherman Investigation Committee. His evidence was very important, in its exposition of the system by which government is defrauded in its purchases. George Saunders, Navy Agent of New York, also made important revelations. He showed that more than two-thirds of the open purchases made for the Brooklyn Navy Yard, (and in connection with which corruption was charged) were made by other parties than himself. While his purchases amounted to but $30,000, the others amounted to $80,000.

In the Printing Investigating Committee, to-day, the books of a certain New York warehouse were called for. One member of the firm (now dissolved,) swore the books had been burned; the other partner swore they are not destroyed, but are in the hands of the first witness.

(Tribune Washington Correspondence.) The evidence before the Select Committee on Printing to-day, will fasten purjury upon a Philadelphia witness. It also implicates the publisher of the Union. If Mr. Wendell refuses to testify, an attachment will issue for him. Nearly 100 witnesses have been examined by the Naval Corruption Committee.

☞ The latest news from Europe, is by the America from Liverpool, Jan. 29.

In Prussia the Princess Frederick William was safely delivered of a son on the 27th. The news of the event reached Queen Victoria at Windsor Castle in six minutes after its occurrence in Berlin.—Demonstrations of rejoicings took place at Windsor, and at Berlin. The Regent and his consort appeared on the balcony of the Palace, and amid vociferous cheering thanked the people for their sympathy.

The English papers contain congratulatory, leaders on the event, as tending to strengthen the bonds uniting England and Prusia and thereby assisting to preserve the peace of Europe.

It is alleged that the English Government had completed contracts with three large iron companies for the supply of sixty eight-pounders as fast as they can be cast. An important contract for gunpowder also included.

A large portion of the Red Sea Telegraph Cable has been shipped from Liverpool in the steamers Imperandor and Imperatrice.

A case had occurred in London of forged bills of Exchange having been successfully put into circulation to a large amount.

The arrival of £661,000 in Australian gold was announced but will not bed elivered for some days. A large portion is expected to be sent into the Bank.

The Times contains the following upon the tea market:—"In consequence of intelligence from China, confirming the previous reports of short supplies, there was great excitement in the tea market, and considerable demand for most descriptions at the higher prices some holders withdrawing altogether."

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News states that warlike preparations are going on so actively that the breaking out of hostilities would seem to be not a question of weeks but days. The demand for cavalry is so urgent that orders have been given to buy horses nine years old.—Letters from Toulon state that sixty-two war transports are to be ready March first.

The supplemental surg ons in the Military Hospitals of Paris and Marseilles are ordered to hold themselves in readiness for active servivce.

In the Artillery there are companies in which five-sixths of the men are excused from regular duty because they are making cartridges. A letter from Grenoble speaks of the continued arrival of troops and formation of a Corp d' Armee on the Alps. Three men-of-war left Toulon on the 26th for Genoa, it is supposed for the purpose of accompanying Prince Napoleon and his bride to Frace. Three ships of the line were under orders at Cherbourg to form the experimental squadron in the Mediterranean as quick as possible.

Later from Kansas.—St. Louis, Feb. 14.—Advices from Leavenworth state that the Legislature of Kansas adjourned on Friday, after passing an amnesty bill, granting pardon to persons in custody, and immunity from action for past disturbances in Southern Kansas. The bill received the approval of the Governor.

☞ The Concord Democrat says "the Republican State Committee held a very full meeting at the Eagle Hotel, Tuesday evening. Every part of the State was represented, and the reports were in the highest degree encouraging. Unless all signs fail, we shall sweep the State by a larger Republican majority than ever before."

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their Celebrated Family Machines, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50. HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

C. C. WHITTEMORE, Agent in Portsmouth.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper. This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard. The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping. The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep. Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied. EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE A Carpet Sweeper.

FORCE OF IMAGINATION.—Buckland, the distinguished geologist, one day gave a dinner after dissecting a Mississippi Alligator, having asked a good many of the most distinguished of his classes to dine with him. His house and all his establishment were in good style and taste His guests congregated. The dinner table looked splendid, with glass, china, and plate, and the meal commenced with excellent soup. 'How do you like the soup?' asked the doctor, after having finished his own plate, addressing a famous gourmand of the day. "Very good indeed!" answered the other;—"Turtle is it not? I only ask because I do not find any green fat." The doctor shook his head. "I think it has somewhat of a musky taste," said another—"not un pleasant, but peculiar!" All alligator have," replied Buckland, "the caymas peculiarly so—the fellow whom I dissected this morning, and whom you have just been eating!" There was a general rou of the whole guests. Every one turne pale. Two or three ran out of the room and only those who had stout stomachs remained to the close of an excellent entertainment. "See what imagination is,' said Buckland; "if I had told them it wa turtle, or terrapin, or birdsnest soup, sal water amphibia or fresh, or the glut en of a fish from the maw of a sea bird they would have pronounced it excellent and their digestion been none the worse—such is prejudice!" "But was it really an alligator?" asked a lady. "As good calf's head as ever wore a coronet!" answered Buckland.

TOBACCO CHEWERS

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertible fac that the use of Tobacco is the promoting caus of many of the most severe to which the race of man is subject, as carefu analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by sometimes lodging in the blood, deranging the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irreparably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Trochos immediately and throw of the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Trochos or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box or Three Boxes for $1 00.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam, has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable, by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health, after being pronounced BEYOND HUMAN AID by the doctors. I shall this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, ELIJA J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told HE COULD NOT GO WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely sit up. He saw a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the direction and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as he believes, permanently cured.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many I year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; he has succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my one head, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some five months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and whiskers, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy, as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two prefers my head as it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns; you may say what make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of life in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous diseases who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics, he has come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and inclosing $1 will cover the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all those irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. If they are once used, they have been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 dly

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can colour Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at the gentlemen's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

A new lot is just received for the accommodation of the public.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in securing inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 3 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1859.

POLITICAL FUNERALS.

A friend asks Uncle Toby what he thinks of the political funeral, wherein he and some worthy gentlemen are to be followed to their burial by the editor of the Gazette, as appears by an article copied from that paper into Monday's Chronicle.

He answers, that he does not think anything at all of it, beyond the laugh at the idea of perpetuity in any party—and the heartier laugh at the bombast of an editor, who came into the profession yesterday, and bids fair to go out to-morrow, but who seems to think he is the man and wisdom will die when he does.

Uncle Toby well remembers the funeral of the federal party in 1815, and of the republican party a few years after; the undertaker at the latter funeral being James Monroe. He also remembers the birth of the democratic party, attended by Drs. Benton, Jackson and Calhoun; and the birth of the whig party, under the auspices of Doctors Clay and Webster.

The latter party died of the black plague in spite of the skill of Drs. Fillmore and Scott, and their funeral was attended by a large crowd of the Democratic party, led by one Pierce, a young undertaker.

Owing to some lack of skill or faithfulness in the burial, the infection of this black plague spread from the corpse to the funeral,—and the democratic party is now under the Doctor's hands, sick of the same disorder. In Washington, Doctors Buchanan and Douglas, Forney and Cobb, give doses,—In New Hampshire, Doctors Burke and Alexander, Butterfield and Kittredge, are trying their skill to cure, and if possible, to give immortality.

In the mean time another young party has sprung into life, the American Republican, not under the hand of any regular doctor,—but spontaneously, a work of nature, a rapid, vigorous out-growth,—destined to an active, stirring life, whether long or short. Its greatest vitality happens to be at the North and West, and in New Hampshire and Maine it is as lively as a cricket just now.

It may be buried this year if it should die suddenly—as every thing in this life is uncertain,—but judging from present appearances, the next political funeral in New Hampshire may be in another quarter.

If any reference were made to Uncle Toby's own political funeral—(not to that of a party)—that is a matter of no sort of consequence—he has been buried so often and so deep in this way, and always rose again, that he is used to it, and cares nothing about it. He has great respect for good men of all parties, but no fear of them,—and when, twenty-five years ago or so, he avowed distinct ground against slavery, and in favor of freedom, he did not expect to live long enough to see, as he has seen, the anti-slavery flag waving in triumph over New Hampshire, and men of all parties, repelling the imputation of pro-slavery as a foul slander, likely to defeat their election. He has seen that, this year, and in it he does and must rejoice.—He may be buried, often metaphorically, and literally he knows not when or how soon; but freedom will live and prevail, and evil be overcome of good. In this hope he is too strong to be greatly moved by the rise or fall of parties, or by the success or defeat of any favorite scheme.

☞ B. B. Bunker, Esq., of Manchester, for many years a leading champion of the Democratic force in that city, has accepted the offer of Col. George of one-half of his sleigh and one half the time, while canvassing his district. In his letter to Col. George, Mr. Bunker says:—

"Now, it is known to you and the Democratic party, that I have been a working Democrat for years, without flinching.—Indeed, I have been a voter with that party for more than twenty consecutive years, down to the last municipal election in this city. I have voted for every Democratic nominee for the Presidency, from the election of Mr. Van Buren to Mr. Buchanan inclusive. But feeling that I cannot follow that party in its various changes of its positions upon the several issues fairly before the people of this country, I take my position with the Republican party, believing it to be the true and national party."

MOLASSES TRADE OF PORTLAND.—The quantity imported in 1858 was nearly 44,000 hogsheads, more than one-fifth the whole number imported into the United States during the same time, and more than double the quantity imported into that port the previous year.

☞ At a grand reception and ball by the Emperor Napoleon at the Tuileries, among many other Americans present was Mr. Charles W. March, of this city.

CAMPHENE DOES NOT EXPLODE.

LAWRENCE, McHENRY CO., ILL., February, 1859.

Friend Miller:—I have not said above that camphene will not explode, for I have no doubt the skill of the chemist can bring about a mixture of atmospheric air with the vapor of hot camphene that will explode with some violence; but that ever an explosion did occur while filling, using or breaking a camphene lamp, I can find no evidence whatever. The term "camphene explosion" is familiar enough, and I have questioned many who professed to have been eye-witnesses of one: but in every case they testify that the lamp had no chimney; and as camphene cannot be burned without a chimney, I find in every case that the dangerous fluid is a "spirit gas" or other mixture of camphene and alcohol, in which camphene supplies the illuminating power and alcohol the danger. The eminent chemist, Dr. Torrey, now U. S. Assayer, New York, caused every "camphene explosion" recorded in that city in the papers he saw, to be conquired into, and found all of them were of burning fluid tincture of camphene.

Burning fluid ought to be more explosive than camphene. Explosions are the sudden union of mixtures of oxygen and a combustible vapor or gas. The more volatile a combustible liquid, the more apt it is to make an explosive mixture. Now alcohol boils at 173°, and camphene, if I mistake not, (I have not the data in reach,) at about 312°. Subtract from each 70°, the proper temperature of a room, and the danger of the two liquids will be as 104 is to 242. But if you assume the heat of a burning lamp to be 150°, the alcohol in burning fluid might be considered as much more dangerous than camphene, as 162 is greater than 24.

But none but chemists can be satisfied with such calculations: we must appeal to facts. When tea is over to-night, take two silver table-spoons. Carefully fill one with camphene and the other with 'fluid.' Remove all children with combustible dresses to the distance of six inches or a foot, for safety. Plunge a lighted stick or match to the bottom of each spoon. The camphene extinguishes the match: the fluid takes fire and covers the whole surface. Now pour camphene into a hot spoon, and it will burn as cold "fluid" did. Are you satisfied now? Try one more experiment; a knowledge of it might have saved Harper's buildings. On a brick or zinc hearth make two pools of camphene and "fluid." Drop into the camphene a few little bits of crumpled paper to serve as wicks; set it on fire and see how a single flirt of a lady's fan, a mere wave of a woolen shawl, will put it out! Light the other, but don't let the article with which you flop out the flame touch the fluid, or that in turn will become covered with flame.

Persons are never harmed by the explosion. The noise is terrific, and the concussion might raise a blood blister on the hand that held the vessel. But the frightened person generally takes this opportunity to cover himself or others with the ignited fluid, and becoming more frightened, suffers it to kill or maim. I believe all these accidents come of filling lighted lamps, and it is the can that explodes. I had a lamp once that extinguished itself as you unscrewed it. I should have mentioned it publicly before, but it was a glass lamp with two holes ground in it: within that an India rubber bottle: within that a pig's bladder. When the thing began to leak, and I discovered this esoteric structure, I became disgusted and threw the good away with the rest.

I have little doubt that the cheapest domestic light (city gas may be far cheaper in many places) is from rosin oil, could we invent a lamp that would burn it without sending black flakes into the room. Next in price is camphene, and it yields the best and whitest light. Far behind these in price is Kerosene, or coal oil. All these must have a glass chimney and a hollow wick. They are too rich in carbon or illuminating power, to be otherwise burned. All, I fear, oxydize or deteriorate in keeping. Either, if set briskly burning at once, and left alone, may heat, burn furiously and even melt the chimney, or festoon the room with lamp black. Before proceeding to mischief, they roar and frighten folks, but can be put out by a single puff.

I own the best lamp I ever knew. It is a fountain camphene lamp mounted on a stand like a retort stand. It has no central button. I lent it to a friend who carried it far away, leaving a commission to purchase another at his cost. I have searched New York and cannot find another as good. It must be twenty years old, but I would not give it for any two new ones I ever saw. Month after month it made me no trouble—always giving a bright, clear, safe and cheap, but not portable light. For further particulars, inquire of Mr. McCready, lamp dealer, in Broadway, N. Y., or of Rev. Mr. Illsley, formerly of Portsmouth, N. H.

The Camphene in burning fluid or spirit gas (it has many other aliases) yields nearly all the light. The alcohol supplies the cost, the danger, and the ability to burn it in small, cheap lamps. It is only a costly and dangerous substitute for a glass chimney. Camphene is pure, recently distilled oil of turpentine. Spirits of turpentine is the same with the oil of turpentine. It is distilled from turpentine, the inspissated sap of pine trees; and rosin (one of the resins) is left in the still. The oxygen of the air thickens camphene by converting minute portions of it into rosin, as I conjecture, and thus gums up the lamp.

Contrary to my custom, I give my name and address with this article; and if it contains aught erroneous, I plead the entire absence of books as my excuse, and exonerate you from all blame.

Ever yours, I. F. HOLTON.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Union says that Oregon was admitted by the Democratic majority reinforced by a few Republicans, for the most part of Democratic antecedents!

The Boston Atlas says, let it be remembered that it has been decided at Washington that a population of 93,000 is requisite for the admission of a Republican State into the Union, but that 40,000 is enough to bring in a Democratic State.

Lane takes his place in the Senate immediately, with his colleague Smith.—They have to draw for the long and short term. Lane is so honest that I fear he will draw the short term. Of course his interest in securing the passage of the measure was very trifling, making a difference to him of only $13,000.

A free colored man, residing upon Capitol Hill, in the District, was imprisoned, a few days since, for harboring his own son, a little boy only ten years of age, who is owned by a gentleman of an adjoining State. This man, by almost superhuman efforts, has succeeded in liberating himself by purchase and was at the time of his seizure earning money to buy his wife and child. A philanthropic gentleman of this city went to the magistrate and offered bail. The amount was fixed at $2000 and when the gentleman demurred at the amount he was informed that if he grumbled it should be raised to $5000.

The correspondent of the Tribune says:

The first vote of Mr. Lane of Oregon in the Senate to-day was significant. Yesterday, the Indiana delegation with the exception of Mr. Wilson, under instruction of their Legislature, voted him into the United States Senate. His first vote in that same body to-day was to vote out of the Senate the Senators sent here from Indiana by that same Legislature. In drawing for terms Lane got the shortest.

The President said to-day that if this Congress will not vote him means to carry on the Government and execute their own laws, he will see if the next Congress will not do it. He remarked that he cannot see how to avoid calling the next Congress together in August.

SIAMESE SUPERSTITIONS.—An interesting letter from Siam to the Newburyport Herald says:—The only honorable funeral amongst this people consists in burning the body, and the practice is very general. The persons not deemed worthy of this rite are women dying in child-birth, persons who come to a sudden death, persons who die of the small pox, and malefactors.

☞ On Thursday night the police of New York found a man lying on Fiftieth street, with several severe wounds on his head, which were bleeding profusely. He was taken to the station house, and so far recovered as to be able to be carried home next morning. He refused, however, to divulge the cause of his injuries, saying it was a family matter, and that he had no complaint to make. Pleasant family relations his must be!

☞ Last week, on Thursday night, Mr. George Miller, cashier and teller of the Union Bank, at Jackson, Tenn., was murdered in the banking house, and the bank robbed of $16,000. He was found the next day, seated in his chair, the check book before him, and the pen still in his hand. He had been struck with a hammer twice on the head, which occasioned his death.

☞ In the Kansas Legislature, the other day, while the liquor question was under consideration, Mr. Wright of Quindaro moved to exempt "vinous and fermented" liquors, and commenced his speech by saying, "I have done as much as any man to put down liquor." "Down your throat!" shouted a member. As the hit was palpable, the house roared, much to the discomposure of Mr. Wright.

It is a Chinese maxim, that "for every man who does not work, and every woman who is idle, someboby must suffer cold or hunger." All loafers please notice.

☞ A man living on the line of the Central Railroad in Georgia, not long since, concluded that he would send a lot of beeswax to Savannah for sale. Not being acquainted with the manner of shipping articles for market, he stationed himself by the side of the track and waited the approach of the cars. As they passed him, one of the side doors being open, he threw the sack of beeswax into the car. He says he has not received the scratch of a pen from Savannah, and would send no more beeswax to those fellows down there.

☞ One of the prisoners in the Alton (Ill.) penitentiary was last week discovered to have in his possession a knife. He was ordered to remove his clothes, leave them upon the floor of his cell, and come out. This he refused to do, and the superintendent accordingly gave orders that food should be withheld from him until he should submit. It was not until after ninety-seven hours, upwards of four days, that he became so weakened as to give up the contest. The knife was then taken from him, and he was provided with food.

CLERICAL.—The Unitarian Society of Somerville have voted to extend a call to Rev. Charles A. Lowe of Salem, to fill the vacancy in the pastorate occasioned by the decease of Rev. Augustus R. Pope.—This Society is now unencumbered by debt, having within the last year, by voluntary subscriptions, provided for the discharge of financial obligations amounting to upwards of five thousand dollars. The salary offered to Mr. Lowe is $1200 per annum.

☞ Benjamin Jones, the fugitive slave from Wilmington, N. C., whose escape from New London, Ct., last summer, caused some excitement there, is now a free negro—having been purchased by Capt. Potter, of the schooner Eliza Potter, (from which vessel, it will be recollected, the negro escaped.) Although in no way responsible for the negro's escape, Capt. Potter has communicated with his former owner, and effected a settlement by paying over the amount agreed upon as Ben's valuation.

☞ A Washington telegram in the New York News says there is no truth in the rumor that Miss Corcoran is to be married this winter. She is heiress to a snug little douceur of five millions.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontiorum cenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about twenty thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—the cause of the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operations and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable carminative herbs growing in the kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians for its efficacy in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., which the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing infirmities which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

LOCAL.

☞ The Concert on Tuesday evening, was well attended—and it was really refreshing to see the Temple once more filled, even though the regular concert-goers were not there—it seems impossible to get them out. No lyceums, no lectures; few concerts, and those not half attended. On this occasion, "our adopted citizens" were largely in the majority; and Young Ireland made a very creditable turn-out, too.

The Concert was a good one—the performances of Karl Krebs, on violin, piano and especially clarionet, were excellent. He is a young man, brother to one of the celebrated Mendelssohn Quintet Club, and is a musician of rare abilities. Mr. Milliken also performed well on the piano. The singing was so satisfactory to the audience, that both the lady beneficiaries were called out for an encore. The intolerable nuisance of boot-heels and whistling was introduced, as usual, by the boys, little and big.

It will be seen that Mr. Krebs announces another similar entertainment for next week. He merits a full house.

NOTICE.—The Committee of School District No. 2 will hold the yearly examination or the public schools within their district, this week, in the following order:

Thursday, 9 A. M., at Mr. Durgin's.
" 2 P. M., at Miss Mendum's.
Friday, 9 A. M., at Miss Hill's.
" 2 P. M., at Miss Ham's.
Saturday, 9 A. M., at Mr. DeMerritt's.

And on Monday of next week, at 9 A. M., at the Plains School.

Parents and friends of the scholars requested to attend. L. D. SPALDING, Sec. pro tem.

☞ Wednesday was a regular Spring day, and no mistake. We were fancying it was about the first of April, but a glance at our McAdam's Counting-room Almanac (from Shores's,) satisfied us it was Feb. 16. "One swallow doesn't make a summer," we have discovered before this; but it is certainly advisable for all the in-door folks to get as many swallows of air, these days, as they can. Those who can't afford to ride, can walk; and those who can't afford time to walk, can ride—that is, if this thaw don't spoil the sleighing—and skating.

☞ Isn't it singular, that the Irish Catholic Fair in this city, recently, should have cleared $500 toward procuring a cemetery—when a much more labored and inviting exhibition of a similar description, given just before by a strong Association of American young men, cleared little or nothing? Also that almost the concert which has been well attended in this city, this winter, should be one gotten up by a couple of ladies from the Emerald Isle?

☞ The inhabitants of some houses near Liberty Bridge, were alarmed on Tuesday night, near midnight, by cries of distress or calls for help, loud enough, but not very distinct. The trouble was, that two young men, both of whom had been drinking, came upon the bridge together, and by some accident one of them lost his cap overboard.—In his efforts to recover it, he got overboard himself,—and but for the help of a couple of sober men who were attracted by the outcry, the poor tippler would probably have been drowned.

☞ All members of the I. O. of O. F. will remember that the Love of the Fraternity comes off to-night at Congress Hall. Outsiders are all N. G.—no go. The affair is gotten up this year at a price which most everybody can afford—as it should be.

☞ Albert Laighton read his Poem on Beauty before a large audience at the Town Hall, Exeter, on Monday evening last. The poem was in the list of lectures, etc., before the Exeter Lyceum; and of course gave satisfaction to all. Mr. Laighton's friends are eagerly awaiting the published volume of his poems.

AHEAD OF BONNER.—"One must get up very early in the morning to get ahead of Bonner, of the Ledger," we fancy every one will say on seeing the heading of this paragraph. Nevertheless, Mr. E. Z. Simmons is ahead of him on one arrangement. For instance, when the Tribune says Boxer drives the best horses in New York, it evidently is not aware of the fact that Mr. Simmons handles a team called Dandy and Pet, that can take down any gentleman's team on the road. Mr. Simmons expresses a desire to prove the same to Mr. Bonner, should that celebrated man feel inclined to call at our office, and make terms for him to do so.—Porter's Spirit.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate on Tuesday, the House bill in relation to the pay of army officers was passed with an amendment. The Cuba debate was continued. In the House, Mr. Lafayette Grover, the representative from Oregon, appeared and was qualified. The Indian appropriation bill was further discussed.

MARRIED.

DIED.

General William Walker, of buccaneering fame, has turned Catholic. Any change that he may make, provided it be sincere, must be for the better; but our belief is that he has become a Catholic because the races of whom his movements are designed to operate are Catholics, and so would prefer one of their own faith to a Protestant. With him, religion must be a mere matter of business; so that the old church is hardly to be congratulated on her last acquisition.—Traveller.

TESTIMONY.—Dea. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

Henry Bowen, Librarian of Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association Rooms, School street, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters are a very valuable medicine—the best he ever used.—All medicine dealers sell them.

Mathes & Varrell sell Dr. Clarke's Bitters.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale
A NEW STYLE MACHINE;
PRICE $50.
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.
It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They
HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH
in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which
A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of
FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,
and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.
This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.
The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.
The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.
Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.
EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE
A Carpet Sweeper.

E. A. STEVENS,
No. 46 Market Street.

☞ Murders, fatal accidents and violent deaths in multiplied forms are filling the news column of the New York press. It is a shocking and alarming state of things. We read the details (says the Portland Advertiser) with disgust: and yet we must read them, if haply the cause may be traced. And it is not difficult to find it. In most cases — the exceptions being very rare—it is RUM. This is the monster. Is there no way, in which good men of all parties may cordially unite, whereby this monster shall be slain?

NOT A STRAY HORSE.—One of our street merchants (says the Manchester Mirror) one evening visited a family near the edge of Hookett, about three miles from the city proper. He keeps a nice horse, one that knows enough to stand without hitching. Leaving the animal by the roadside, he entered the mansion of his friend, and remained for some time—supposing his horse and sleigh were all right. Two very kind-hearted gentlemen were passing, and thinking the horse had strayed away, took him back to Manchester, and informed the police of the discovery. The horse was provided "bed and board" for the night. The proprietor of the "nag," had healthy exercise of walking back to the city. In the morning the owner's name was found upon the sleigh, and it was with much satisfaction to himself as well the police, that the property was returned to its proper owner.

OLD BROWN.—The report that "Ossawattomie Brown" of Kansas has hung U. S. Deputy Marshal Woods, as received by telegraph, is not fully credited at Shawnee, Kansas, where it originated, although it was believed that Brown had captured the Marshal.

FREE LABOR IN VIRGINIA.—Mr. Caldwell, one of the State Senators of Virginia, and twice Mayor of Wheeling, the other day delivered at the Court House in that city a very strong speech in favor of free labor—the first speech of the kind ever delivered in that city. The audience was large, and the sensation considerable.

☞ Another of the new steam sloops of war was launched at Charlestown, on Tuesday.

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertible fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood deange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the description by him and Post of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the most severe trial, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respect we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and at the severest test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old: my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am convinced that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of Maine, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 26, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

Brookfield, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

LIVER INVIGORATOR

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Costiveness, Piles, and a preventive of Cholera.

Half a bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness and yellow color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment a thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which had been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are incurable when he first saw them, so imperfect are perfectures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

The medicines can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE STRENGTHENING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine, the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country, by addressing as above. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can colour Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper by one dollar than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

A new lot is just received for the accommodation of the public. by

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL, AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN' APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1859.

A TRIP TO TEXAS.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Feb. 1.

Dear Chronicle:—My last was dated at New Orleans, about three weeks ago, since which time I have made a horseback trip through a small portion of Western Texas, and in consequance deem myself competent to treat thereof. Leaving New Orleans by the New Orleans, Opelousas & Great Western R. R., we passed through the devastation occasioned by the Bell crevasse, and arrived in safety at Berwick Bay, where we took the steamer Suwanee for Galveston. That was a great mistake; the boat was a miserable affair, being a repair of the old Pampero of Cuban notoriety; and on this hulk,—ill-manned, ill-officered, and ill-everything—we were obliged to stay three days to make a trip of 200 miles, and had the felicity of knowing that those who left New Orleans, forty-eight hours later than ourselves, arrived in Galveston several hours previous.

Galveston, with its wide streets, sandy soil, neat houses, and fine stores, seemed to me the prettiest city I've seen in the South; but "yellow Jack," the scourge of southern seaboard towns placed his mark indelibly upon Galveston during the last summer, — taking citizens as well as unacclimated persons. A fine hard beach, twenty-five miles in length, affords a pleasant ride to the inhabitants and visitors, but the scenery consists of sand heaps.

Owing to the late heavy rains in Eastern Texas, roads in that portion of the state were very bad, therefore we took the steamer for Indianola, and by boat from there to Matagorda Bay. This is a thriving little place, and has a railroad graded to Victoria, thirty miles distant, of which five miles are in running order, and have been for a year. Their one engine is left standing in the street, exposed to the storm and sunshine, and rusty from neglect and lack of use. And nothing shows the difference in the energy of North and South more strikingly than this road, for, having purchased ponies, we followed the grade to Victoria, and for the whole distance we were never out of sight of the immense wagons which filled the road, dragging a vast amount of freight through deep black mud—freight enough to pay for the road in a very short time.

The country from Lavaca to Victoria is one prairie, almost destitute of water, and bare of wood, but having a rich soil, from four to six feet deep, and covered with countless herds of cattle which have eaten out the range.

Crossing the Guadaloupe, from Victoria to Goliad, a distance of twenty-eight miles was mostly over a sandy prairie, with some timber; pretty good grazing country, and better watered than the tract we passed through yesterday. Some miles before reaching the town of Goliad, the traveller will observe a small heap of stones piled up by the roadside; it marks the scene of Fannin's defeat in 1836. Approaching from the east, Goliad makes a fine appearance; the houses of white limestone peering from among the live oaks on the hillside, reminding one of a New England village when the apple trees have leaved out. On the opposite side of the San Antoine stand the ruins of the old town; a few miserable Mexican huts, and the old Mission, are all that remain of a town, that tradition informs us once contained 15,000 inhabitants. The visitor finds a melancholy interest in visiting the spot where Fannin's men where so treacherously massacred, and witnessing the terrible retribution which fell upon the place; the mission-doors pierced with bullet-holes, the ruined walls of the great square, and the remnants of the fortifications ploughed up by the missiles hurled against them.

From the San Antoine, across the Blanco, the Medio, the Aransas, and some smaller streams, to the Neuces, is a fine range for cattle, well wooded, pretty well watered, and not too thickly settled.

Following the river from Fort Merrill to Oakville, (the frontier settlement of this range,) and going 18 miles above that town, the range seemed very fair, but there was a great deal of chapparel, rendering it much too thickety for the easy management of stock.

Retracing our steps as far as the Blanco, we struck across for the San Antoine river, and followed it eighty miles to this place. The stock range seemed rather slim, and the wood a great deal slimmer in many parts of this route, but I noticed some large cotton plantations low down. The bottom lands of the rivers are very fine for agricultural purposes, and health prevails in all Western Texas. The fare will be found very rough; corn bread, pork, and coffee being chief articles of consumption. The people are hospitable as a class, but still many of them are not so delicate as to refuse pecuniary recompense for food or lodging, and the articles furnished bear no comparison to the prices charged. The easy life led by the inhabitants of this section of the country soon brings indolent habits, and that will account for my making so poor a letter out of so abundant materials for a good one.

The city of San Antonio de Bexar differs from all other towns in the United States. Many of the streets are narrow and crooked, and the Mexican houses are of one story, built of stone or mud, or of a combination of mud and wood. To construct those of the latter class, long poles are driven into the ground, as close as their crookedness will permit, and the intervals are then filled up with clay. The surface of the interior is smoothly plastered, and looks passably well, but the exterior has the appearance of a pig-pen rather than the abode of man. The roofs are thatched, and afford but miserable protection from the weather. The stone and adobe (unburned brick) buildings, are generally plastered and whitewashed on the outside, and of course present a more comfortable aspect than the others. The side walls rise higher than the lower line of the roofs—which are almost flat—forming a kind of parapet with openings at regular intervals for the passage of the water. The roofs incline only in one direction; they are formed by heavy rafters laid a few inches apart, upon which boards, running in the same direction, are firmly nailed, the joints being immediately above the rafters. The whole then receives a covering of cement, and perhaps a foot or two of clay. Wooden gutters pass through the holes left in the parapet walls, and project several feet into the street, so that at a short distance the houses present the appearance of a fortification, bristling with artillery. With few exceptions, they have no floors other than the ground. This, when dry, forms a hard surface; but in many houses they have worn away so much as to bring the level below that of the streets, which are thus drained into the houses. All of the buildings of Mexican origin are without windows, and, while they look very like prisons, are indeed little better.

Of late years many fine buildings have been erected here, and last night there was an opening of a new hotel, called the "Menger Hotel," which has just been erected at a cost of $45,000, by a German named Menger, who ten years ago came here not worth a dollar.

I take from a writer in Putnam's Magazine an account of the Roman Church here.

The building is of stone or adobe, and belongs to that class of architecture common to the "missions" in the vicinity, though of more limited capacity. Its walls are of great thickness, but the material is soft, and in many places crumbling away. Over the principal or eastern entrance there is a small niche occupied by a very comical statue of his holiness the successor of Saint Peter in general. He has lost the fraction of one arm below the elbow, and a portion of his nose; his robes are rent in many places, and other fractures are visible about his person. There is no sadness, however, amid so much dilapidation; and the figure reminds one of a clown, drawing down the usual thunders of applause from the juveniles, in the very facetious act of placing his thumb on his nose, and extending his fingers, while he pantomimes "you can't come it."

I quote the same authority for a description of "The Alamo," as it was in 1846. It is now occupied as a store-house for the quarter-master's department, but has changed its surroundings in a great measure, and entirely for the better.

The Alamo is by far the most interesting object in the vicinity of San Antonio, tho' rapidly losing the romance connected with its historical recollections. It is now a shapeless mass of ruins. The walls on the north-eastern side are level with the ground, and there are broad openings on the other fronts, which preserve only detached portions of their original dimensions. The entrance to the chapel, the remains of which are at the northern angle of the work, still shows the elaborately cut stone which forms the facade, and indicates no ordinary degree of taste and skill. The doorway is arched, supported by two lofty columns. The Mexicans have a tradition that the cement of the walls was mixed with goat's milk, by which some peculiar sanctity, if not strength, was given to the structure; but how much or how little of the tale is not true, cannot now be determined. Extending from the western side of the chapel is a wing, similar to that at the old mission, used as a convent, according to some, and by others, supposed to have been a barrack for soldiers. Gibbon observes that the barbarian now stables his steed in the palaces of the Cæsars; and within this consecrated inclosure, the hammer of the quarter-master now rings upon the anvil, and the sacred retreats of the Mexican vestals (?) are decorated by the rude presence of the grim followers of Vulcan. Sic transit, &c.

Of the ditch which, it is affirmed, originally surrounded the work, all signs have so complety disappeared, that one may be pardoned for doubting whether it ever had an existence. There is a rank growth of weeds within the outlines of the walls, and a few Mexican hovels on one side, which seem to have been erected from its fallen materials. Every thing around it is stamped with gloom and desolation. The solem chant, the lofty swell of the organ, the prayer which daily rose to heaven, have vanished for ever from the church; the glitter of the soldier, or the veiled faces of the nuns, will be seen no more;—and the fire of musketry and the roar of artillery are hushed until a mightier power shall cause these dry bones again to revive and re-people the habitations which are now desolate. Time and the elements will soon complete what the Mexican army commenced; and this spot, which is worthy to be reverenced as a second Thermopylæ, will present but a shattered and crumbling monument to the immortal memory of its defenders.

Constantly increasing in population and business, having a salubrious atmosphere, and being beautifully situated, San Antonio is bound to be a place of importance, in the opinion of ION.

EXETER CORRESPONDENCE.

EXETER, Feb. 15.

Messrs. Editors:—Events enough have transpired in our good town of Exeter to fill a Court Journal, during the last three weeks, and I am surprised that some of your many correspondents have not chronicled them with due form and ceremony. Can't you make a sort of Court Journal of one side of your popular paper, and hire me to fill it? Would it not be nice for me to have a liberal salary, and for you to have all the Court patronage?

Fifth Avenue, alias Front street, has made two changes in the way of residents and purchasers. A gentleman who has made a fortune honorably has purchased Mr. Hoyt's residence and occupies it. He will, of course, take his place in the first society, as we have no aristocracy but wealth in this country; and take the lead in it, too, if he is public spirited to his own credit and the good of the town. A colored trader on Water street, who has made a share of his fortune by selling liquor, I am told has purchased the residence of Mr. Dalton, so long known by his advertisement as a teacher in this place. He has not moved into it, and it is not known that he intends to.

March meeting is near at hand, and some hope is entertained that the gambling saloon, brothel and dram shops on Water street may be closed, or rather some action taken that may lead to their being closed.

Jefferson said of large cities that "they were foul ulcers on the body politic." If he lived in our day he might extend his remark to small ones, and even to large towns.

I do not know whether it is charity, indolence or philanthropy that makes people of influence and wealth sit down and fold their hands under such evils. Perhaps they reason that the young will be exposed to such temptations when they go abroad, and so they bad better pass through to Moloch now. No one will venture to assert that fear has anything to do with it, or that the votes of rum-sellers or rum-drinkers are of any account. Of course not.

A new way to draw custom has been to advertise a horse race or trotting match, the principal mover in the affair being a keeper of a gambling saloon, and a member of the Royal Family, whose influence is greater for evil, than any ten families can be for good, Yea, any forty. But they have money, and why should they not go on? What if the town is scandalized, the youth endangered, homes made wretched, and children's bread gambled away and drunk up? Is not this a free country, and is not money omnipotent?

The Methodist Society hold a levee this week, and as their minister is rather popular in the town, it will probably be well attended. It ought to be looked upon as a Missionary church, as there is no room in the two denominated Orthodox, for the poor who cannot afford to pay pew hire. I hope they will consider the matter, and be liberal. A man who preaches to the poor must live by bread, as well as he who preaches to the wealthy, I suppose, at least for the present.

I hope the ladies will get up a calico ball or a set of tableaux for the benefit of the poor of the town, as it seems to be the established way of raising funds. It is good also in putting amusement where it always ought to be, in the hands of upright women. What a world this might be to all whom our Father sends here to sojourn, if each one did what he could to make it better. Yours truly,

SCRIBBLER.

What is the difference between a butcher and a young lady? Ans.—The former kills to dress, while the latter dresses to kill.

☞ Mr. Willis writes a pleasant letter to the Home Journal about the Burns celebration in Boston, in which he says:

"The two hundred and fifty guests at Parker House were probably not all Presidents of Railroads or cashiers of Banks; but they all looked most fatiguingly responsible—too wide awake for comfort—men who are likely to be born into the next world as mere cherubs, their legs and livers having been so entirely forgotten, in this life, as to have dropped away from the consciousness which forms the soul.—Emerson should give them a lecture, I think, on 'The Neglected Animal in Boston.'"

The Penobscot Indians are beginning to yearn for the luxuries of civilization. They are trying to raise a salary of twenty-five dollars a year for their Governor, by the aid of the Maine Legislature. The sum certainly seems reasonable. The modesty of the Oldtown copper skins must be commended. How some salaries would shrink if measured by the value of services rendered.

AN OPINION.—The Louisville Journal says that the fact that the name of Franklin Pierce is suggested as a probable nominee of the Charleston convention, is the most severe comment on Buchanan's administration that could be imagined.

A juryman was asked, out West, whether he had been charged by the presiding Judge. "Well" said he, "the little fellow that sits up in that pulpit and kinder bosses over the crowd, gin us a lectur, but I don't know whether he charges any thing or not."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Yarrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, throw out from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, and is in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietor, and is guaranteed superior to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Blites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

LOCAL.

☞ There are petty thieves about the city, to a cartainty. Morning papers are pilfered from house doors, to the great annoyance of subscribers and the damage of the printer. One of our subscribers, a physician in full practice, loses his paper quite often in this way—and within two or three days has had a trunk of medicine and a whip taken from his sleigh, as it stood before a door in the evening. The doctor only wishes he could get hold of the rascal and give him some of the medicine. We think a little discipline of the whip would be bad enough for the thief that steals the paper—but the man that steals medicine, steals something worse than "he who steals my purse."

☞ Hampden Cutts, Esq., who is to read the Comedy of Errors this evening, at the Temple, is a native of this place, and was editor of a paper here. He was regularly educated, a good scholar and a good speaker. A residence of several years in Vermont has rendered him comparitively a stranger here: but the spending of these years in agricultural and literary pursuits, may have given him new physical and mental energies.

We hope his old townsmen, with the younger ones and the now comers, will give him a good house and generous welcome.

NOTICE.—The Committee of School District No. 2 will hold the yearly examination or the public schools within their district, this week, in the following order:

Saturday, 9 A. M., at Mr. DeMerritt's.

And on Monday of next week, at 9 A. M., at the Plains School.

Parents and friends of the scholars requested to attend. L. D. SPALDING, Sec. pro tem.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.

SENATE.—Mr. Fitch reported a joint resolution providing that after the close of the present session, all such public documents as both Houses require shall be printed in one lot, thus saving the expense of two separate jobs. Passed.

Mr. Seward's bill of January 13, being additional to the act which prohibits the slave trade, was reported by Mr. Bayard, from the Judiciary Committee, without amendment and without recommendation.

The Diplomatic Appropriation Bill was taken up.

Mr. Clay moved to strike out $75,000 for the expenses of the kidnapped negroes of brig Echo.

Messrs. Seward, Wilson and all the Republican Senators advocated the appropriation.

Mr. Clay's amendment was lost by a vote of 42 to 10.

The Cuba bill came up as the special order, and Mr. Thompson of Kentucky, addressed the Senate and an audience of over two thousand persons. He spoke for two houses in a facetious, but somewhat rambling strain interrupted by constant laughter. He was wholly against the acquisition of Cuba, and was astonished that the Senator from Louisiana was in favor of it. The acquisition would draw off trade and commerce to a better climate and the port of Havana, till New Orleans became shrivelled up, and like Lexington, Kentucky, a finished town. Cuba the youngest child, would be as usual the pet of the family, and how much it would cost to get her in trim the Lord only knows.

In conclusion, Mr. Thompson utterly condemned this rampant spirit that clamors for war. Cuba, however, might do for a platform.

Mr. Thompson, addressing himself directly to Mr. Seward, said he would volunteer him a piece of advice that would be useful if he came to be President. As far as the noise and laughter permitted the reporter to hear, he understood Mr. Thompson to ironically advise Mr. Seward to follow the example of other Presidents, and throw down the ladder when it had placed him in power. There was always some alternative to cast it aside. The advice was, "Don't stand on the platform when the cars are in motion." (Roars of laughter.

HOUSE.—Mr. Stephens, from the committee on Territories, reported a bill providing a temporary government for Arizona, and asked for its immediate consideration.

Mr. Kilgore moved to table the whole subject. Carried, 121 to 78.

Mr. Stephens then reported a similar bill for Dacotah, which met a like fate.

Mr. Stevens also reported a bill for a temporary government for Jefferson, which was likewise tabled.

A bill granting a pension of $50 a month to the widow of General Gaines was passed.

The Senate amendments to the House Agricultural College bill was taken up.—Mr. Cobb of Ga., moved to table the bill. Lost 108 to 95. The Senate's amendments were concurred in.

Mrs. Jenkins complained in the evening that the turkey she had eaten, at thanksgiving, did not set well. "Probably," said Jenkins, it was not a hen turkey!"

S. J. COURT, CONCORD.—The Manchester Mirror reports that Dr. Pike, of Lebanon, was tried for adultery on the 15th, and the jury, after five minutes, brought in a verdict of guilty. The Mirror says:

The case, when divested of all rumor and consequent excitement, is but the natural fruit of infatuated religious excitement. The young prisoner, we learn, has seen his folly, charges his downfall to the influences of the erroneous doctrine which he embraced, but declares, as a "dying man," (evidently wasting away with consumption,) that he is innocent of the charge laid against him.

The Dr. is a man of 25 years, and has a family in Lebanon. The reader may remember that his case made a great stir in the papers last fall, in connexion with a Mr. Kimball of Franklin, with Kimball's wife, and two daughters of about 20 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Kimball were spiritualists, and so was the doctor— but the girls were not. The Dr. staid at Mr. Kimball's house, and as the Mirror says—"aided and urged on by the parents, he soon became the medical, spiritual and only adviser of the girls. The relations between the parties soon became intimate, causing as a result a prostration of the physical system on the part of the girls, with a total aberration of the mind, which still continues. It also appeared from the testimony that the prisoner urged on his work by the use of drugs.

The parents of the girls appeared upon the witness stand, and declared, upon their oaths, that there was no improper conduct on the part of the Dr. during his stay with them, &c."

Nevertheless, the jury convicted him, as above.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 —The vote in the Senate to-day confirming the nomination of Potter as Collector of Sandusky stood 16 to 17 against. This is the case which led to the recent angry discussion between Senators Fitch and Douglas.

The impression is very general that the President will veto the Agricultural College land bill.

The evidence before the Printing Investigating Committee shows a settled system by which officers of government collect ten to twenty per cent on every contract. The witnesses testified that they could not get these contracts except by submitting to these exactions. The books of the Philadelphia firm which one of the partners swore had been burned are now in the hands of the committee. Entries on their pages show clearly the motive for the perjury of the witness.

The Philadelphia Democratic members met in caucus to-day and decided to cast their votes as a unit on the tariff question. If they fail to get the bill before the House on its own merits, they will endeavor to tack it on some appropriation bill. They will continue to vote against a loan bill and against the re-issue of treasury notes until action is had on the tariff.

Henry Bowen, Librarian of Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association Rooms, School street, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters are a very valuable medicine—the best he ever used.—All medicine dealers sell them.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing the CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;
PRICE $50.
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

GOOD NEWS.—A reduction in the prices of Sewing Machines is announced. Their utility is established beyond question, and at the present prices we see no reason why they should not be found, as they ought to be, in every household.—Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.
This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.
The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.
The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.
Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.
EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE
A Carpet Sweeper.

HOW THE MONEY GOES.

How goes the money?—Well,
I'm sure it isn't hard to tell:
It goes for rent and water-rates,
For bread and butter, coal and grates,
Hats, caps, and carpets, hoops and hose,
And that's the way the money goes!

How goes the money?—Nay,
Don't everybody know the way?
It goes for bonnets, coats, and capes;
Silks, satins, muslins, velvets, crapes,
Shawls, ribbons, furs, and furbelows,
And that's the way the money goes!

How goes the money?—Sure,
I wish the ways were something fewer;
It goes for wages, taxes, debts,
It goes for presents, goes for bets,
For paint, pomade, and eau de rose,
And that's the way the money goes!

How goes the money?—Now
I've scarce begun to mention how;
It goes for laces, feathers, rings,
Toys, dolls, and other baby things,
Whips, whistles, candies, bells and bows,
And that's the way the money goes!

How goes the money?—There!
I'm out of patience, I declare—
It goes for plays, and diamond-pins,
For public alms, and private sins,
For hollow shams, and silly shows—
And that's the way the money goes!

HEALTH AND EDUCATION.—We are glad to notice, that in various parts of the country some of the wisest and best men are directing their attention to the subject of education in its relations to the health of the scholars, and that these inquiries are likely to elicit many facts which will show the need of reform in the studies of the young. It appears to be generally admitted by those most conversant with the matter that in our country too little regard has been paid to physical education, and that the well being of the body is sacrificed to an imagined lofty standard of intellectual attainment. This subject is certainly worthy the most conscientious and considerate attention of all persons connected with schools, as parents have but little voice in the matter, and it would be difficult to name a public trust more sacred, or of a higher responsibility than is confided to teachers and school committees.

Most literary men who have spoken on the subject have expressed the opinion that five or six hours a day in the labor of composition, cannot in the long run profitably be exceeded. It is certainly a fair inference that a longer period cannot be safely allowed in the tasks of the youthful brain. Yet besides the six hours of study in the school, imposed upon the pupils, from one to four hours are usually required out of school. Sunday also has its special school with its lessons so that intervals of rest are rare.

OSSAWATOMIE BROWN.—The Boston Traveller contains part of a letter received from Atchison, Kansas, and without doubt the true account of the reported engagement between "old John Brown" and the U. S. Marshal's posse, with the rumored hanging of the Deputy, Dr. Wood. Dr. Wood is a well known ruffian, having been engaged with Gen. G. W. Clark in the murder of the Free State martyr, Thomas Barber, during the first invasion in the winter of '55, '56. The letter bears date of Feb. 3, and shows that Brown captured four men, took away their horses and revolvers, and let them run after Dep. Marshall Wood and his posse, who had run away before, from the very old Brown whom they went out to take.

THE CUBAN SCHEME IN THE SOUTH.—The New Orleans Picayune has a letter from a gentleman who has just returned from Cuba, who says that forty times thirty millions asked for by the President would not much facilitate the purchase of Cuba under the present circumstances. He also claims that its acquisition would be injurious to the South.

APPOINTMENT.——The Boston Advertiser states that the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, has appointed S. P. Hanscom, Esq., to be the agent to prosecute the Massachusetts claim at Washington, during the present session of Congress, under the authority of a resolve of the Legislature, recently passed.

THE HUDSON BAY COMPANY.—In the Canadian Parliament, on Thursday evening, the Inspector General announced that the government had reason to infer that the exclusive right of trade enjoyed by the Hudson Bay Company in their extensive territories would be abrogated by the Home government on the 1st of June next.

Why is a cooper like a lady? Because one hoops up staves, and the other staves up hoops.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Heat and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife is the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood, and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the one holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for 67; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of diseases which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are indebted unon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE ANODYNE AND PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine, as the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 diy

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is charming to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look handsome.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1859.

ESSEX COUNTY.—The Court of Common Pleas for Essex County, is in session at Salem. Among others sentenced was William Joyce, well known in connection with the Hodsdon murder case, to three years in the State Prison. In regard to the enforcement of the liquor law, a Salem correspondent says:

The liquor-sellers of this county are sorely troubled, feeling that the strong arm of justice is hanging over them, and that soon they too will be called upon to join the army of martyrs gone before to serve the State at Ipswich and Lawrence. Some ten or twelve others, whose sentences have not yet been pronounced, have been convicted at the present term, and there is still remaining a large number of these cases. The rum-dispensing fraternity have the benefit of able counsel in a majority of the cases, but it avails nothing with the juries in this county, if the facts in the cases are convincing. Old Essex was ever a law-abiding county, and whether it be a liquor law or any other, will do her duty fearlessly and faithfully.

Thirteen cases contested with great ability and perseverance, went up to the Supreme Court on exceptions, and being returned for sentence, the offending parties were finally disposed of by being fined $50 each, with heavy costs, and going to the House of Correction at hard labor, some 2 months, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8 and 12 months.

In ten other cases, of single sales, and common sellers, the prisoners were fined from $10 to $50, and sentenced, some to 30 days' and some 6 months' imprisonment hard labor.

☞ One of Burleigh's letters from New York to the Boston Journal says:

The new Swedenborg chapel was dedicated in the early part of this week. It is a small, neat, but peculiar looking edifice, resembling a snug, cosy stable of some millionaire, rather than a house of worship. Rev. Mr. Fernald and Rev. Mr. Bush presided at the opening. One was for many years a Universalist; the other, Prof. Bush, quite a celebrated Orthodox preacher. So both of these men, occupying the extremes of religious faith, meet at the shrine of the great visionary, and strike hands over the altar of Swedenborg.

The men here named are the Rev. Woodbury M. Fernald, a native of Portsmouth, and Rev. Prof. George Bush, one of the best Hebrew scholars and one of the most learned men generally on this continent.

The author of the Togus Letters says:

I perceive that "Burleigh" announces the conversion of a Universalist clergyman out West—Rev. Mr. Gower. Please inform your readers that this is T. M. Gower, who is not, and never was, in fellowship with the Universalist denomination. He formerly lived in Maine, tried in vain to enter the ministry in that State, went out West, made no headway, preached a few times on his own book, got discouraged, and—is now trying something else.

THE FORGERIES AT HARTFORD.—The Hartford Courant of yesterday, says the amount of forged paper which Dr. Brockett has put out, is probably nearly $20,000. He was apprised of the discovery on Monday, but has made no attempt to escape, and makes no explanations of the causes which induced him to commit the crime. The Courant also says:

"Dr. Brockett was a man highly respected in this community for his supposed piety, his talents as a writer for various periodicals, including the Press of this city, to which he was a regular contributor, and for an uprightness which he always affected. There seems no sufficient inducement for the great risk he ran. It is one of those cases which occasionally comes like a thunder-clap upon a community to show how little faith can be placed in appearances and how close a mask the very worst of villains may wear. The community will feel the greatest sympathy for his family, particularly for his father, a worthy clergyman in Wethersfield, now in his 71st year, but this sympathy will not extend to himself nor mitigate their feelings of detestation for his crimes."

☞ As an offset to Mr. Bunker, of Manchester, who left the Democratic party lately, and joined the Republicans,—the papers name F. C. Lyford, Esq., of the same Manchester, who in a letter, says he cannot vote for the whigs, and therefore goes from the Republican party to the Democrats. He was formerly there, but became a K. N. when Gov. Baker and thousands more did the same.

CHURCH ORGAN.—Messrs. Appleton & Davis, of Boston, have just completed a fine organ for the Congregational Church of Rochester, N. H. It has twenty stops, two banks of keys, and a pedal sub bass. The case is very elegant, and was appropriately designed to receive a handsome clock, the gift of a public spirited Boston gentleman, who is a native of Rochester.

☞ A sailor boy, named John Banan, who killed Henry Clair, on board ship Siam, has been held for trial in the U. S. Court in Boston, for Manslaughter. He was examined on a charge of murder, but the testimony destroyed that charge utterly, and the District Attorney stated that he was satisfied that the homicide was the result of a sudden altercation, and that it was proceeded by blows struck by Clair. He therefore did not think the case was one of murder, but might be manslaughter. The Commissioner coincided in this view, and the boy went to jail, in default of $2000 bail.

In the examination, a mate said, Clair, when sober, was very quiet; but when he had liquor he was quarrelsome. He was very quick-tempered.

One of the seamen said, Banan was a good boy; and there was no trouble with Clair, except when he had taken a drop.—It appears in evidence that Clair, who was larger than Banan, threatened his life, and struck him repeatedly, when Banan stabbed him fatally, with his knife. It must be a slight degree of manslaughter, if any; an acquittal is probable.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Mr. Morrill's bill appropriating 6,000,000 acres of land among the several States, according to their federal representation, for the establishment of Agricultural Colleges and the promotion of the Mechanic Arts, has been finally passed of by both houses. Its enemies are congratulating themselves on an anticipated Presidential veto.

In the House, on Wednesday, the Republicans generally, with a few Northern Democrats, and about twenty-five Southerners, voted to table the Arizona territorial bill; but on the similar disposition of the Dacotah bill, several Republicans changed to the negative, and the affirmative vote embraced forty-five Southerners.

Vice President Breckenridge has sold his house for $20,000, having to the regret of social friends abandoned the idea of housekeeping in Washington.

☞ The foreign news by the Prince Albert gives us Liverpool dates to Feb. 5.

Warlike preparations were going forward actively throughout France, but the Ministerial journals were recommended to keep silent on the subject.

The British Parliament opened on the 3d inst. The Queen's speech was very non-committal, and was silent on the war question, causing a decline in funds in London and Paris. The speech threatens the sending of a force against Mexico.

Satisfaction is expressed at the abolition by France of negro immigration from the east coast of Africa, and pending negotiations give promise of the total abandonment of the system.

☞ Chief Justice Taney is very feeble from the infirmities of age. Judge T. resides in Baltimore, is a Catholic in religion, a democrat in politics, was the Secretary of the Treasury under Jackson when the deposites were removed from the U. S. Bank, and succeeded Judge Marshal on the Supreme Bench, as a reward, probably, of his ingenious and lawyer-like defence of an illegal act.—His great work, however, was the extra judicial opinion commonly called the Dred Scott decision.

☞ John Percy sued the Albany Evening Journal for the moderate sum of $1,300,000 for alleged libels; but the jury failed to see the point of the joke, and told Mr. Percy he must not only do without the dimes, but pay the costs of prosecution. A good lesson for litigious individuals.

☞ The MacDonough property in the First District of New Orleans, belonging to that city, was recently sold at auction for $290,000, or $60,000 more than its estimated value when the property was divided between New Orleans and Baltimore.

☞ We learn that the large woolen factory, at Great Works, near South Berwick, was a mass of flames as the train from Great Falls came down Friday afternoon. Engines from South Berwick were in attendance, and busily at work to save other buildings.

☞ It appears by an item in the Concord Independent Democrat that Colonel George refuses to give B. B. Bunker, Esq., a seat in his sleigh and half the time to speak. The Colonel is a wise man, for he has not a moment to spare.

☞ The Mayor of Columbus, Ga., has issued orders for the stationing of a policeman at each of the churches, whose business it is to arrest any person chewing tobacco, or smoking and spitting upon the steps of the church.

☞ The Dover Enquirer gives a very good account of Mr. Charles Tappan's successful lecture there, on the West Indies. The Enquirer says:

The large audience present on this occasion seemed to expect something peculiarly refreshing, and, if we may judge from appearances, they were not disappointed.—The brilliant passages of the address were received with prolonged applause—such applause as showed that the audience knew how to appreciate beauty of writing, eloquence of sentiment and grace of delivery.

Mr. Tappan gave a very glowing account of the West Indies—in ancient times they would have been called the "Isles of the Blessed"—describing the salubrity of the climate, the abundance of luscious fruits, evenness of temperature of Barbadoes. He gave statistics showing that the emancipation of the slaves had operated favorably on the amount of exports from that island. He said the blacks who had been slaves, were industrious and willing to work for any planter who would treat them well. When he went there, it was with the impression that the emancipation of ignorant and degraded slaves would be attended with numerous insurmountable evils, throwing upon community a hoard of vagabonds. But he has found reason to change his opinion, from actual observation of the results of emancipation.

☞ The New York Tribune's Washington Correspondent speaking of the Navy Yard Investigating Committee, says:

"It is in evidence before the Committee, that W. C. M. Swift of New Bedford, Mass. paid George Pitt, Treasurer of the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, in 1856, about $16,000 to aid the election of Mr. Buchanan; that through the agency of certain officials, high in power, Swift has since obtained nearly all the contracts made for supplying the Government with live oak timber. These contracts amount to about $500,000. The evidence shows that every usage of the Department in such matters has been violated to reward this political friend of Mr. Buchanan.—The disclosures will astound the country."

DEFICIENCY IN THE RECEIPT OF WHEAT. Chicago, Feb. 17.—Wells' Commercial Express to-day has an article showing the deficiency in the receipts of wheat from the harvest of 1858, at this point, to be over 5,000,000 bushels at present, and estimating that to come in, the deficiency by the first of August will reach eight millions of bushels.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The forgeries on the Colonial Bank of Barbadoes were committed by a German named Henry Law, doing business at the time at 34 Beaver street. He went to Europe a few weeks ago, taking with him about $70,000, the product of his operations. Law was formerly a merchant in Calcutta.

PROVIDENCE, Feb. 17.—An American Republican Convention met in this city to-day, for the purpose of nominating State officers. Thomas G. Turner, who was on Tuesday nominated for Governor by the Republicans, was unanimously accepted by the Convention to-day.

WORCESTER, Feb. 17.—Capt. Lewis Bigelow, a leading farmer of Worcester, about 70 years of age, and of ample fortune, but of rather intemperate habits, hung himself on Thursday morning. The cause was low spirits.

CONCORD, N. H., Feb. 18.—The auditors in the case of Warren H. Smith v. the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad, in which Gilmore and Clapp are the real plaintiffs, have reported in their favor for $59,893,35 and costs.

A Mr. Jackman, who has been confined some fourteen months in the Bangor Jail, for debt, was recently discharged by his creditor. Jackman complains most bitterly of being turned out of doors during the cold weather and threatens to bring a suit against his creditor for a breach of agreement, as the said creditor had promised him a home for life if he did not pay the debt. The debt has not been paid, and Jackman insists upon the agreement being fulfilled.

KANSAS.—The Secretary of the Interior has asked Congress for $20,000, for taking the census of Kansas, preparatory to its admission into the Union. The admission of Oregon without census ought to settle that question; and if Kansas asks admission to-morrow, the democratic party would make themselves infamous, if they should refuse her request.—Newburyport Herald.

REVERSE OF FORTUNE.—The undoubted nephew of the great John Philpot Curran is at present, and has been for some time, an inmate of a workhouse in his native county of Cork. A movement is on foot with a view of collecting a sum of money sufficient to keep him independent of public charity for the rest of his life, and thus save the country from a stigma which must otherwise rest upon all classes of Irishmen.

☞ The Kansas Territorial Legislature has granted a divorce to Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Coburn, parties in the famous Coburn and Dalton case, of Boston.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY, in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance, Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about their thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the one pound "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveilance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the medical gentlemen, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., and the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only medicinal in character, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHERS IMPORTED.

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their unkindness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

SHADE TREES IN PORTSMOUTH.—A petition for a small appropriation for Shade Trees has been laid before our city government, largely signed. Something ought to be done in this direction, for health's and wealth's sake, as well as for ornament.

One of the active movers in this business wrote to the Mayor of New Haven, Conn., making some enquiries as to the value of the trees in that beautiful city.—The following is the answer, from which we perceive that the trees there impart most of the beauty for which the place is noted.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW HAVEN, Feb. 14, 1859.

SAMUEL BAKER, ESQ.,—Sir:—Yours of the 11th inst. is received. With the exception of the principal business streets of our city, the others, wherever the lots are built upon, and in many cases where they are not, are set out with shade trees, and to them, in a great measure, is owing the reputation of New Haven for beauty and desirableness as a place of residence.

With the exception before mentioned, our buildings (particularly dwellings) are detached: and for our population, about 30,000, we cover a large area of territory. The prevailing taste of our citizens is to have their houses with court-yards, gardens, shade trees, and shrubbery; and this taste is encouraged by all our leading citizens. The trees chiefly used are elms, but the sugar maple is also used to a considerable extent.

As to the amount which the loss of the trees would depreciate the value of real estate, there is no data upon which to base a reliable opinion; but my own opinion is, and I have repeatedly heard the same views expressed by others, that if our trees were swept out of existence, it would depreciate property in value at least one-third. P. S. GALPIN, Mayor.

It shade trees increase the value of real estate one-third, would not fruit trees increase it one-half? S. B.

☞The Levee of the Odd Fellows, Thursday Evening, was a grand success, of course—thanks chiefly to the ladies; though it would seem to be a misnomer, for odd fellows to patronize the dear creatures at all. Be that as it may, they were there in good numbers and bright array; and with plenty of beaux, and Lamprey & Haines' Quadrille Band discoursing excellent music, the company 'wouldn't go home till morning,' almost. Heretofore it has been the custom at these annual gatherings, to include supper in the price of tickets; but this time refreshments were for sale to those who wished—and Mr. Newell furnished an excellent variety of edibles. This is altogether the best plan—for then each person calls for and pays for only what he wants.

☞The Boston Transcript says Washington's Birthday (Tuesday next, Feb. 22d), is to be more widely and generally celebrated this year, than at any time since 1832. Well, if our Boston cotemporaries "celebrate," we shall—by a masterly inactivity at the Chronicle Office. We don't wish to be behind anybody; in this sort of patriotism. We Chroniclers, some of us, are at work from 4 o'clock in the morning, till 9 at night; and we want at least one holiday every month. Last year, in honor of the inauguration of the Franklin Statue, at Boston, we "celebrated" his birthday—by doing nothing; but this year, as the Boston printers worked on the 17th of Jannary, we thought we must too. We don't believe it was right, however, to disregard the memory of the glorious old patriot and philosopher thus; for every time we have looked at his portrait since, as it hangs in our counting-room, we have fancied he looked reproachfully at us.—We don't believe we shall do so again.

☞We are glad to learn that Mr. Long is, on the 1st of March, to resume his Course of Lectures on the Fine Arts. The place is not announced—but for a small audience, the new Mercantile Hall would be found well adapted and agreeable.

☞We were left in the dark on Friday evening, by the sudden extinction of the gas. We learn that it was cause by the guide-sheave or truck of the gas-holder at the gas works having caught or jammed. Matters were made straight after the lapse of ten or fifteen minutes.

☞The funeral of Mrs. Frances Abby Morrill will take place at her late residence, No. 3 South street, this (Saturday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

☞The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room; price 3 cts. $1 per year, in advance.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

From the N. H. Gazette.

☞The Ballot, Chronicle and some other black Republican organs in this vicinity, have dug themselves pretty nearly through the lowest strata of editorial meanness. Political editors of the capacity and experience possessed by the individuals who conduct the papers referred to, must be pretty short of available material when they resort to the contemptible garbling of language and distortion of ideas advanced by others, which we have frequently noticed in those papers of late.

An individual who will divide a sentence, or tare it from its context, thus making it express what in its true reading or original connection it did not express, and then go on with disparaging comments based upon the miserable perversions of which he has been guilty, is a knave, a fool, or a bad mixture of both.

For our own part, when we can't find a more decent method of defending a political cause, than that illustrated by the Chronicle and Ballot in their versions of the Patriot's offer to bet upon election results, the Gazette's statements with reference to the position of Capt. Marcy, and several other matters of like nature, we shall certainly vacate in favor of somebody who has a natural passion for meanness, and can repay them in their own coin.

CALLING NAMES.—That very Democratic organ, the Bangor Union, which goes for Congressional interference with the subject of slavery in the Territories, and argues that the people have no sort of control over their own affairs, calls the N. H. Gazette, "a Free Soil, Hannibal Hamlin sort of an organ." We are a Free Soiler so far as this: if the people in the Northern Territories want free soil, we are willing they should have it; if they want slavery or the itch, or any other nuisance, we have not a word to say against their free, deliberate choice. The eleventh commandment is our creed upon this matter; if that is Hannibal Hamlinism, the Maine Senator is a good Democrat, and must be read out of the Republican ranks back into the national Democratic party.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

ELEVEN MONTHS SETTLEMENTS.—The Society at Jamaica Plain have received an acceptance of a call extended to the Rev. James W. Thompson, of Salem, to become their pastor. The salary is $2500 a year, with a yearly vacation of five Sabbaths, during which the pulpit is to be supplied by the Society. Accounts of settlements like the above we frequently see in the papers, made alike by various denominations. There is no good reason that we know of for breaking up the old custom of settling a minister for a whole year, instead of eleven months, until the time arrives when business generally is suspended for a month in the year—when for a month there is a guarantee that there will be no sins committed, no sickness, no death, marriage, or other calamity or blessing in a parish. It is the custom of many ministers to employ their vacations in preaching elsewhere, performing about as much labor as they would be called upon to perform at home. On the old system, any minister, by exchange could easily absent himself for a month or six weeks in summer, without unsettling himself for that length of time, and leaving his flock to seek some temporary shepherd. There is no objection to ministers taking rest in the proper season—it is beneficial to them; but there is no more propriety in being released from connection with their parishes a tenth part of the time, than there would be for a suspension of the publication of all the city papers for five successive weeks. Give ministers pay enough for a whole year, and if they wish to be absent, let them see to having their places supplied.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

In Board of Aldermen, Thursday evening, a communication of Dr. Baker was received, enclosing one from the Mayor of New Haven, respecting shade trees, and one from the Street Commissioner of Dover, respecting the use of snow plows in the streets,—the former laid on the table, and the latter referred to the committee on streets.

The joint committee on School Houses, to whom was referred the subjects of the Mayor's Address relating to repairs of school houses, and the building of a new school house in District No. 1, and also the subject of building a new school house in Cabot street, reported,—recommending that a new school house be built in Cabot street, and that the other subjects be indefinitely postponed; and the Board voted, (for the concurrence of the Common Council,) that the matter be referred back to the committee to report a plan and estimates.

The joint committee on the Fire Department reported,—respecting the recommendation of the Mayor's address, that in their opinion a building should be built for the Hook & Ladder Co., and for storing hose, &c., and it was voted that the matter be referred back to the committee to report a location, and plan and estimates.

A communication, with sundry recommendations from the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, was referred.

Voted, that the bells be rung, morning, noon and evening, on Washington's birth-day, Feb. 22.

The President of the Howard Benevolent Society acknowledges the receipt, on the 14th inst. of $25, through the post office, from an unknown source, being the fourteenth annual contribution bearing the same date each year, for the good of the poor. Portsmouth, Feb. 15, 1859.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE

A Carpet Sweeper.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks strongly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy t an it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 26, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

BROOKFIELD, Jan. 19, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the large holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, and supply in their place a healthy flow of bile, which is the great purgative, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all yellowness or bilious color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the kidneys to action.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the thousands of persons who are spending their hard earnings in trying experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE REGULATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miserable wretches who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number 13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or family advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1859.

ITEMS FROM WASHINGTON.—The vote to postpone the Cuba bill in the Senate, for the purpose of taking up the Homestead bill, was carried, 27 to 26, which is considered equivalent to a defeat.

The Army Appropriation bill, as reported, will receive a powerful opposition. The belief is that it will be rejected.

The Philadelphia witness, who perjured himself before the Printing Investigation Committee by swearing that a certain set of books had been burned, made an ineffectual effort to be examined for explanation. The books have since been found and exhibit a fraud of $7000.

The Territorial bills are to be pressed in the Senate. They will be killed in the House, with their present pro-slavery features.

The large number of the general appropriation bills to be acted upon, including those for the army, navy, post office, miscellaneous, and ocean mail service, together with the measures for relieving the treasury, and other subjects, will have to be crowded into as many hours as there should be days for their intelligent consideration.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT.—On Thursday the President sent in an extra message to Congress, with the reminder that the session is drawing to a close, and urging that an act be passed authorizing him, under such restrictions as may be deemed proper, to employ the land and naval forces of the United States in preventing the transit route in Nicaragua from being obstructed or closed by lawless violence, and in protecting the lives and property of American citizens travelling thro' that country.

This is the first proposition. As Nicaragua is not comprised in the limits of the United States, and as we have no voice in the administration of the affairs of that country, the proposition is tantamount to our taking upon ourselves the protectorate of that country. The second point of the message refers to the condition of the republics of Mexico and Central America, and recapitulates in brief the state of anarchy in Mexico, and the outrages against the United States, in view of which the suggestion is plainly made that the Executive ought to have the war-making power placed in his hands, that he may act upon the offensive upon a sudden contingency.

He commends the subjects to the wisdom of Congress and expresses a desire that due discretion may be used, in which, says the Atlas, we heartily join, for we have seen quite enough of the one man power.

☞ In England, the Minister of Colonies has decided that the immigration of Africans shall be superseded by that of Chinese.

Rumors are current in England of extensive warlike preparations, including an increase of 3000 men for the navy.

The marriage of Prince Napoleon with the King of Sardinia's daughter, was celebrated at Turin on the 30th. The bridal party started forthwith for Paris.

A Turin letter says that matters look slightly more pacific there.

The Brazilian Mail at Lisbon, brings news that the Brazilian Government had offered to act as mediator between Paraguay and the United States. The American Commander had accepted the mediation, and the Brazilian Admiral had gone on the Mission.

JUDICIAL DIGNITY IN KANSAS.—A letter to the Cincinnati Gazette, from Lawrence, in Kansas, describes the Federal Judges Lecompte and Williams of the Supreme Bench, as engaged one quiet Saturday evening in the judicial occupations of drinking hot whiskey punches and relating anecdotes of dubious morality. As the evening waned they grew hilarious, and organized an extempore band, in which Judge L. gave facetious imitations of the banjo on a poker, and Judge W. of the tamborine on a dilapidated hat belonging to one of the party. Neither of the gentlemen were at church the next day.

☞ Rev. Dr. Bushnell, a distinguished Orthodox preacher in Hartford, Conn., in his book, entitled Nature and the Supernatural, says:

"Satan or the devil, taken in the singular, is not the name of any particular person, neither is it a personation merely of temptation, or impersonal evil, but the name is one taken by imagination to designate, or embody, in a conception the mind can most easily wield, the all, or total, of bad minds and powers."

WHAT KENTUCKY THINKS OF CUBA.—In the Congressional proceedings of Wednesday, mention is made of the speech of Mr. Thompson, a Democratic Senator from Kentucky, against the whole Cuba scheme, which he held to be supremely ridiculous.

We gave some extracts of his speech under that head,—and here select a few more rare bits.

One of the best poets of Rome had said that Empires had tumbled to pieces from mere accretion. He feared that would be our fate. Our people from their Anglo-Saxon blood, had derived the belief that it is right and proper to take from the Spaniard, Mexican or Indian, anything they want, and that it is not homicide or murder to kill him either. We want to Christianize and Americanize Cuba—do we? It reminded him that two Young Kentuckians went there on a similar mission; one being a good looking fellow for an American, got to be an overseer for a widow. That Christianized her. The other ran away with an old man's daughter, and within a year the old man was living on a corner of the plantation, and himself in full possession.

This is the way we Americanize. The Cubans would not stay if we had the Island. They have too much instinct for that. Place the lion on the prairie and the buffalo will soon vacate it, or put the tiger where the deer haunt, and you will find none there in forty days. The blue rat peacefully possessed this country till the Norway rats acquired it—then instinct told them they had got to leave and they did. It was shame to pamper to the spirit of acquisition that is dominant within us. A century in the life of nations is but a day—so this nation is not yet a year old. Our true policy is to consolidate, secure and build up what we have, not to acquire more. It was said the possession of Cuba would give us an outlet for our fiery spirits. The Pacific Railroad was argued on a similar plea. He had seen some of these Filibusters about Washington. They did nothing—had nothing—"Toiled not, neither did they spin, yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

I'm against these gentlemen letting off their spirits in the Rocky Mountains, cracking rocks, or toting about railroad bills. No Sir,—It is fallacious, for those who are always talking about their readiness to spill the last drop of blood, are generally willing to let anybody else spill theirs first. Cuba seemed to Mr. Thompson to be the element of weakness rather than of strength, and tending to interrupt our peaceful relations with other powers.

Mr. Thompson had known gentlemen of of Virginia to be ruined ere now by owning too much land, which would be sold for the taxes upon it, until, when they died, there was barely enough left to pay the funeral expenses. Our own country would be too big, and the treaty of Guadalcupe would have been a curse, had it not been for the fortunate turn-up of gold in California: but as to Cuba, there is not any Godsend there, nor has it been gravitated one inch, not even by the passional attraction of the free-love school. We would derive no benefit from it. We would pay Spain more for it than it is worth, and negroes being cheaper than in the South, they would rise in price, and the Cubans would sell out their possessions at higher rates.

He had also other insuperable objections to the bill. If it means anything, it means that the money is to be drawn by the Spanish ministers of the day, who will make a treaty, and is thus offering a premium to revolution.

Here Mr. Thompson made some palpable cuts at the Democratic party, saying he understood the discipline was very strict and that whoever does not chalk up to the mark goes overboard. Indeed, he must take an opportunity, before his term ends, to ask the Senator from Illinois if he has not been doing something with Cuba to amuse the South, and bound the key stone to him by bars of iron and hooks of steel. The President might demand a renomination, for he never knew a Scotchman but would hold on till death. It was said his luck would kill Mr. Buchanan, but Mr. Thompson knew something of hygiene, and gave a decided opinion that he is good for ten years yet, and then may leave it to a son of his—politically, of course—for none he has otherwise.

MAY LADIES ATTEND FARMERS' CLUBS? We say yes to such a proposition. Farmers' wives and sweethearts have experience like other women, and much good can they do by encouraging the sterner sex to deeds of valor. We like the presence of ladies as we do flowers and sunshine. They already do such things in the Empire State. The following is extracted from the Tribune:—"Mrs. Elizabeth Langdon of Thompson, L. I., who owns a farm of three hundred acres, attended the American Institute lately and gave her experience."

☞ Farmer, the benevolent New Yorker, who last year fed at his own expense thousands of the destitute, has again come into the field for the relief of the very poor.—This winter, however, he helps only those who will work, giving them labor which will benefit each other, as mending clothing, repairing boots and shoes, &c., or be sets them at work upon the sidewalks. He is one of the few true philanthropists of whom the world is cognizant.

GRANDMOTHER VICTORIA.—The Queen of England is a grandmother before she is forty years old.

LOSS OF A BRITISH STEAMSHIP.—The English papers received by the America give an account of the loss of the screw steamship Czar, which foundered in a violent gale off the Lizard, on the afternoon of the 23d ult., after striking on the Vogue rocks—Capt. Jackson, the commander, his wife, a passenger, and several of the crew, in all 14, perishing with the ship. The Czar was a powerful iron-built vessel, launched at Hull last year, and, according to Lloyd's register, was classed A 1 for nine years. She was constructed under special survey, of 937 tons burthen, working engines of 180 horse power, and was the property of Messrs. Samuelson of Hull. She was chartered for the conveyance of Government stores, principally shot and shell, to Malta.

STILL ANOTHER SURPRISE PARTY.—According to the Worcester Spy, a young gent who was returning with a merry party of ladies and gentleman from a ball at Clinton, a few nights since, jumped from his sleigh and gave chase to what was supposed to be a rabbit, running along the road. He was successful in his pursuit, but—horror of horror!—the rabbit proved to be a skunk, and administered an overpowering dose of his celebrated perfumery upon the unfortunate youth.

Of course his unfragrant presence could not be tolerated by the superfine broadcloths and silks in the sleigh, and the unlucky wight was secured to the rear of the vehicle, and thus conveyed to Worcester, a melancholy illustration of the effect of talking into bad company.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—In Portland, Thursday afternoon, a lad aged about 14, named Moses Wiggin, son of Mr. David Wiggin, fell through the sky-light of Lancaster Hall, a distance of eighteen or twenty feet, striking on a settee, which was broken by the concussion. He gave but a gasp or two, and was a corpse. The presumption is that the boy must have stumbled and fell through the sash. He was evidently drawn there by curiosity, as he had no connection with the establishment. Coroner Chas. Hall was called, but did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest.

MILL BURNT AT SOUTH BERWICK.—Great Falls, N. H., Feb. 18.—The Blanket Mill, belonging to the Nowichewanock Company, in South Berwick, took fire in the picker room this afternoon and was burned to the ground. Loss $20,000; insured for about $15,000.

☞ The President's age seems not to be known. The papers state that he was a practising attorney in Kentucky in 1804 and 1805.

☞ The Concord Daily Patriot of Thursday confirms the report that Col. George declines to stump his district with Mr. Bunker, who offered to go.

Farm for Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER, being about to change his business, offers for sale, until the twelfth of March, one of the best farms in the County of Rockingham, situated in Stratham, two miles from Exeter, and on the main road from Exeter to Portsmouth, formerly part of the well known Ladd farm, consisting of 88 acres, of which 8 are in tillage, including one of the best orchards in the State, the remainder being an excellent pasture, twelve acres of which is covered with a fine growth of white and yellow oak.

The buildings consist of a small house in thorough repair. There is also on the premises a frame for a barn 60 x 40, with flat posts, and stone split for the underpinning and cellar.

The above property is situated in one of the best farming towns in the State, being under a high state of cultivation, and has upon it two desirable locations for building, and offers great inducements to any one wishing a farm, either for pleasure or income. It is in the immediate vicinity of schools and churches.

The society in town is excellent, having been so much improved within the last year and a half by the change of property, that the subscriber regrets exceedingly that a change of business renders it necessary for him to leave the pleasant town of Stratham. J. B. WADLEIGH.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and fatigue—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in bringing on the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They know not that the usual perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These may be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound B. Barley, under the surveilance of the British Excise Laws, is perfectly flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it the favorite of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant, or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c.; while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "that only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as to travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at twenty-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and confectionery merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHERS IMPORTED.

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. LOCAL.

THE READING of Shakspeare's "Comedy of Errors," by Hon. Hampden Cutts, on Friday Evening, was a very gratifying entertainment, and the most meritorious performance of the sort that we ever had the pleasure of attending. Mr. Cutts is a gentleman of fine appearance, good voice, and easy and agreeable manners—and performed his part, or rather the numerous parts of the play, to the delight of a select and appreciative audience.

So entirely easy and natural is his reading,—so free from any approach to the stage-struck rant which to our apprehension mars and almost destroys the effect of such entertainments generally—that the interested listener will often forget himself, and fancy the characters personated are all actually before him, engaged in familiar colloquy.

This (Monday) evening, Mr. Cutts is to read from "King Henry Fourth,"—a selection admirably adapted to his powers; and if all our citizens who would enjoy this treat, attend, it will be necessary to go early to secure a seat.

Mr. Cutts has read considerably in public, of late; and his reading of the selection for this evening is particularly admired. The Vermont Freeman says:—"in person, in the peculiar quality of his voice, which is flexible and melodious; in manners, tone, gesture, and general good taste in rendering, he is most peculiarly qualified to read Shakspeare to large audiences; and in his personation of Falstaff, his triumph was even more marked than before."

☞ A well-to-do farmer, residing a mile or two from this city, called at our office, Friday evening, to advertise his loss of a pocket-book containing nearly a hundred dollars, and papers of value, on the morning of that day. We were just pitying him, and preparing to do what we could to restore his treasure, when he came back, and in a tone altogether different from the first, announced that his folks at home had found his wallet, as it fell from his overcoat pocket when he throw it over the sleigh, and had sent in to let him know it. We were glad of it—and he was more glad, doubtless.

POLICE COURT.—William Mathes of New Castle was brought before this court, Saturday morning last, for an assault with a shovel upon Levi Gilson of New Castle.—The assault was proved, and the defendant ordered to recognize in the sum of $200, for his appearance at the Supreme Court on Tuesday night.

☞ Rev. Walter Harriman, a prominent and able Democratic speaker, addressed a large audience at the Temple, on Saturday evening.

Charles Doe, Esq., of Dover, late a champion of the Democrats, will address our citizens in opposition to that party, at Jefferson Hall, this (Monday) evening.

☞ Have you got a Sewing Machine? If you have, and have given it fair trial, we know you would as quick dispense with your cooking-stove—if not, see the advertisements of Grover & Baker in to-day's paper. A large number of their machines are used in this city—and give perfect satisfaction, of course.

☞ See advertisement of Farm for sale in Stratham—a rare chance to obtain prime land in a good location and agreeable neighborhood.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for March is published, with a rich table of contents, by Phillips, Sampson & Co. of Boston,—and is for sale by J. H. Locke in this city.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Lafayette McMullen to-day resigned the Governorship of Washington Territory.

It is reported that the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress will support Mr. Morrill's tariff measure. An effort will be made on Monday to suspend the rules for the purpose of taking up the tariff bill.

In the Investigating Committee to day, Mr. Sherman submitted his report, accompanied by a resolution censuring the Secretary of the Navy for alleged carelessness in regard to the coal contracts. The resolution was voted down, two to three.—There will be two reports—that of the majority, exonerating the Secretary, and that of the minority, seeking to implicate him.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.—St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 19.—Mr. Henley, Chief Electrician of the Atlantic Cable Company, has arrived here, with batteries and instruments, to commence operations with them on this end of the Cable.

☞ In the city court at Portland on Friday, the liquor seized at the store of James Carlan, also at the store of Owen Gallagher a short time since, were declared forfeited to the city, no one appearing to claim them.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

SATURDAY, Feb. 19.
Arr sch Cornelia, Getchell, Rockland.

☞ The U. S. Senate on Thursday Feb. 17, took up the Homestead Bill, 26 to 23, and then put it by for Consular Appropriation Bill, 28 to 28, the Vice President giving the casting vote in its favor.

The bill was then laid aside for the Cuba proposition, when Mr. Chandler took the floor.

Mr. Chandler energetically dnounced the measure, and characterized it as worthy of the Ostend Manifesto, and of its author, the brigand James Buchanan, but unworthy of the President of the United State. The thirty million is a great bribery and corruption fraud, and the purchase of Cuba is a clap-trap, and a vain attempt to save the Democratic party from that annihilation the Almighty has destined for it. He spoke elaborately on the expenses the purchase would entail as mortgage and interest, and detailed his personal experience to prove that Cuba, although, a good land, is not so good as the Western States, and its climate in effect a perpetual tropic. To purchase the island is merely to pay two hundred dollars per head for every man, woman, child and negro, not to own them, but merely to govern a scum of population that we would reject with scorn if they offered to come for nothing.

The only use of the Island to us would be to keep an army and fleet there costing one hundred million annually. The native Creoles are an ignorant, vicious, priest-ridden set over whom Gen. Tacon established a military despotism, not to prevent a political insurrection, but crime.—From the Capt. General, the Judge on the bench, and the priest in the pulpit, to the lowest Cuban, bribery is universal. No other but the Catholic religion is tolerated, and the Cubans to a man are true to the Catholic Church, and the Catholic Church to despotism.

He believed that the Declaration of Independence, quoted by Mr. Benjamin, was written in some tavern in New Orleans.—What was the fate of the gallant Crittenden, when he went in good faith to aid these so-called panting Cubans? He died like a man, but declared with his latest breath, that he had been deceived in his belief that the Cubans thirsted for liberty.

Here he went largely into the Dred Scott decision, saying that it and the thirty million corruption fund are the only planks in the Democratic platform of 1860, and under which they will march to certain defeat.

Mr. Chandler concluded by examining the details of the expenditures to show that the increase, since 1852, has arisen from corruption.

Mr. Polk spoke in favor of the acquisition of Cuba.

The House debated the Army Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Chaffee supported the bill.

Mr. Stanton moved to strike out the $100,000 for the recruiting service, considering the army four times as numerous as necessary.

Mr. Branch opposed the amendment.

Mr. Faulkner opposed it, as it struck a blow at the very existence of the army.

Mr. Stanton said he did not advocate the reduction simply as a question of economy, but because the army was now used as an instrument of despotism in the enforcement of offensive laws and perverting the first principles of civil liberty.

Without action the committee rose, and the House adjourned.

☞ A Cincinnati paper tells of a belligerent negro in a magistrate's office in that city, who was inebriated, noisy and demonstrative. He threw a chair out of the window, sprawled a clerk, severely, punished an interfering constable, touched with his fist the left ear of a defendant, corrected the magistrate himself by knocking him into the stove, to the great damage of the pipe, &c., and finally 'whipped' the whole party collectively, who assaulted him with canes, law books, ledgers, and a large hammer, after which he retired highly elated.

BAY STATE MILLS STARTING UP!—The bell of the Bay State was rung last Sunday morning, to call the operatives to work for the first time since the stoppage of last fall. The painters are busily engaged painting the tenement, and repairs are being made in the mill. We do not think it advisable, however, for people to come to this city for empvoyment for some months to come.—Lawrence Courier.

☞ The New Haven Palladium says that the steamer Vanderbilt, contrary to report, is to all appearance in good order for repairing. She is not injured badly, but lies as straight and elegant in form as ever, and the only apparent injuries are those caused in breaking her up to get out the boiler and machinery. The real damage to her hull is mostly towards the stern, and it has been determined to repair her at once.

GROVER & BAKER'S CELEBRATED
FAMILY SEWING MACHINES.
NEW STYLES—PRICES FROM $50 to $125.
EXTRA CHARGE OF $5 FOR HEMMERS.
18 Summer street, - - - Boston.
495 Broadway, - - New-York.
Agencies in all the principal Cities and Towns in the U. S.
These Machines sew from two spools, as purchased from the store, requiring no re-winding of thread; they Hem, Fell, Gather, and Stitch in a superior style, finishing each seam by their own operation, without recourse to the hand-needle, as is required by other machines. They will do better and cheaper Sewing than a seamstress can, even if she works for one cent an hour, and are, unquestionably, the best Machines in the market for family sewing, on account of their simplicity, durability, ease of management, and adaptation to all varieties of family sewing—executing either heavy or fine work with equal facility, and without special adjustment.
As evidence of the unquestioned superiority of their Machines, the GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE Co beg leave to respectfully refer to the following
TESTIMONIALS.
"Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and a half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed. Family Sewing."—Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent.
"I confess myself delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."—Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate.
"After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."—Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of Brooklyn Star.
"I have used a GROVER & BAKER Sewing Machine for two years, and have found it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch. The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."—Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York.
"For several months we have used Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine, and have come to the conclusion that every lady who desires her sewing beautifully and quickly done, would be most fortunate in possessing one of these reliable and indefatigable 'iron needle-women,' whose combined qualities of beauty, strength, and simplicity, are invaluable."—J. W. Morris, daughter of Gen. Geo. P. Morris, Editor of the Home Journal.
"Your Sewing Machine has been in use in my family the past two years, and the ladies request me to give you their testimonials to its perfect adaptedness, as well as labor-saving qualities in the performance of family and household sewing."—Robert Boorman, New York.
Extract of a letter from THOS. R. LEAVITT, Esq. an American gentleman, now resident in Sydney, New South Wales, dated January 12, 1858:
"I had a tent made in Melbourne, in 1853, in which there were over three thousand yards of sewing done with one of Grover & Baker's Machines, and a single seam of that has outstood all the double seams sewed by sailors with a needle and twine."
"If Homer could be called up from his murky hades, he would sing the advent of Grover & Baker as a more benignant miracle of art than was ever Vulcan's smithy. He would denounce midnight shirt-making as 'the direful spring of woes unnumbered.'"—Prof. North.
"I take pleasure in saying, that the Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines have more than sustained my expectation. After trying and returning others I have three of them in operation in my different places, and, after four years' trial, have no fault to find."—J. H. Hammond, Senator of South Carolina.
"My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public."—J. G Harris, Governor of Tennessee.
"It is a beautiful thing, and puts everybody into an excitement of good humor. Were I a Catholic, I should insist upon Saints Grover and Baker having an eternal holiday in commemoration of their good deeds for humanity."—Cassius M. Clay.
"I think it by far the best patent in use. This Machine can be adapted from the finest Cambric to the heaviest cassimere. It sews stronger, faster and more beautifully than one can imagine. If mine could not be replaced, money could not buy it."—Mrs. J. G. Brown, Nashville, Tenn.
"It is speedy, very neat, and durable in its work: is easily understood and kept in repair. I earnestly recommend this Machine to all my acquaintances and others."—Mrs. M. A. Forrest, Memphis, Tenn.
"We find this Machine to work to our satisfaction, and with pleasure recommend it to the public, as we believe the Grover & Baker to be the best Sewing Machine in use."—Deary Brothers, Alisonia, Tenn.
"If used exclusively for family purposes, with ordinary care, I will wager they will last one 'three score years and ten,' and never get out of fix."—John Erskine, Nashville, Tenn.
"I have had your Machine for several weeks, and am perfectly satisfied that the work it does is the best and the most beautiful that ever was made."—Maggie Atkinson, Nashville, Tenn.
"I use my Machine upon coats, dressmaking, and fine linen stitching, and the work is admirable—far better than the best hand-sewing, or any other machine I have ever seen,"—Lucy B. Thompson, Nashville, Tenn.
"I find the work the strongest and most beautiful I have ever seen, made either by hand or machine, and regard the Grover & Baker Machine as one of the greatest blessings to our sex."—Mrs. Taylor, Nashville, Tenn.
"I have one of Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines in use in my family, and find it invaluable,—I can confidently recommend it to all persons in want of a machine."—G. T. Thompson, Nashville, Tenn.
"I take pleasure in certifying to the utility of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines. I have used one on almost every description of work for months, and find it much stronger and better in every respect than work done by hand."—Mrs. D. W. Wheeler, Nashville, Tenn.
"I would be unwilling to dispose of my Grover & Baker Machine for a large amount, could I not replace it again at pleasure."—Mrs. G. H. Scovel, Nashville, Tenn.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost to Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman well known, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guaranty of truth, the Dr. needs no encomium, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife is the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of diseases of the Urinary Organs, merely treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number had inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE PILLS.

PREVENTATIVE PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtues in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country, free from exposure. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 6ly

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says she prefers to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

A new lot is just received for the accommodation of the public, by

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but though it is convenient for advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL, AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I record Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and succesful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1859.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY, Feb. 22, is a legal holiday in Massachusetts, and is becoming more and more a holiday elsewhere. We have made it such in our office in past years, being one of about five or six vacation days in a year. We continue the custom this year; so that our readers will look for their next Chronicle on Thursday morning; but none on Wednesday.

The day will have more or less of public notice in almost all cities and large towns; and the man and the life which made this day honorable, are held in glad and grateful remembrance by the few who can remember them of their own contemporary knowledge, and by the millions who read the story as a portion of American Scripture, and who deem it semi-sacred, rather than profane history.

It is best remembered, perhaps, by a portion of the people, who look at Washington as a chosen instrument of the Divine Ruler, to bring about purposes of liberty, order, peace and general welfare for our land;—who long for a return to the policy and the purity of the early days of the republic;—and who are anxiously looking for the Advent of the men and the hour that may cleanse the Augean stables of Legislative and Executive corruption at the federal capital, may resist the aggressions of the slave power, and rebuke its lordly assumptions.

A revival of the public and private virtues, is a consummation devoutly to be wished,—a proper subject for fervent prayer on Washington's Birth Day.

A SHEPHERD WITHOUT A FLOCK.—The New York Express, alluding to the telegraphic report stating that no Senators were present during the prayer made by Father Boyle (Catholic) in the United States Senate Chamber on Tuesday, remarks:

It must not be inferred from this that the prayer of the good Father Boyle was thrown away, because he had a beggarly account of empty benches for listeners.—Prayer is addressed to heaven, not to men; and hence in this view, the absence or presence of the miserable sinners was a matter of but little difference.

Sure enough; of the wicked black republicans and know-nothings, what better could be expected than they should turn their backs on the holy man. But then, the pious and devout Douglas men and administration democrats, where were they? and why were they not on hand? There must be a screw loose somewhere.

☞ The Pope talks of going to Vienna for a residence, should the French enter Italy. He has no idea of countenancing the red-legged gentleman who have made their bayonets a seat for him these last nine years and more. He probably understands that their protection has been purely political, and he knows that the Austrians would have come to Rome if the French had remained on the other side of the Alps, where he has always wished them. It may turn out to be an easier thing to get to Vienna than to get back thence to Rome.

☞ Thomas Jefferson is advertised in the Richmond Enquirer as a runaway, and one John Hutcheson offers $100 for his recovery. He is described as "of brown complexion, full head of hair, good teeth, five feet ten inches high, and rather grum countenance." To believe that "all men are born free," &c., and to claimed as the property of John Hutcheson, is enough to make his countenance rather grum, but very likely this is not the Jefferson who wrote the famous Declaration.

☞ The chair so long occupied by John Quincy Adams, in the old House of Representatives at Washington, has been presented to William E. Robinson, formerly the "Richelieu" correspondent of the New York Tribune. The chair was recently obtained in Washington by the subscription of a number of gentlemen. The presentation speech was made by Horace Greeley.

☞ On Tuesday, an elderly lady by the name of Palmer, who was walking along the main street in Fisherville, Concord, N. H., was run upon by a young lad who was sliding down a cross street. The concussion was so great as to break both legs and one arm, with other bodily injuries. Mrs. Palmer was just alive at last accounts, and is not expected to recover.

☞ The cold has lately been so great in Madrid, this winter, that a coachman was frozen to death on his box, and three washerwomen were found senseless by the side of the Manzanares.

DEN OF SWINDLERS.

A den of thieves in Plaistow, N. H. with branches in Newburyport and elsewhere, has been broken up, as we learn from the Newburyport Herald, but the thieves are not yet taken. As they are now known, however, some of them will doubtless be caught and caged.

The Herald says it called attention some time since, to a notice inserted in a Buffalo paper, respecting the "New England Art Union Lottery" drawing, advertised to come off in Newburyport, on the 16th inst. The Western States have been flooded with these tickets, in some of the States there being agencies for distribution in nearly every county—together with a circular, purporting to be from the firm of Duncan, Morton & Co., [formerly Morton Brothers & Co.]

Marshal Westcott and Constable Batchelder, of Newburyport, have for some time been employed in ferreting out the den of these thieves. Having obtained a warrant in Exeter, with the assistance of Deputy Sheriff Towle, of that place, together with Deputy Sheriffs Boynton, of Georgetown, Davis, of Haverhill, and Constable Burnham, of the latter place, they started on Friday morning, Feb. 18, for Plaistow, N. H., and proceeding to the Rockingham House, kept by Mr. William P. Shute, where the Shute family, that formerly lived in Newburyport, and who have become wealthy, by this species of fraud, make their head-quarters.

They found the birds had flown, but on the premises they discovered all the paraphernalia appertaining to this business, which was brought to Newburyport, and stored in the Marshal's office. Among the effects are all the books of the concern, containing the names of agents in every State in the Union and extending to the British Provinces and even to Havana;—Books containing the names of those who had purchased tickets, memorandum index, receipt and expense books, which show one of the most deliberate systems of robbery ever established, running back to 1856. On a fly leaf of one of their books occurs this sentence—"The death of Jesus atones for the past, but we have got to look out for ourselves for the future."—They had been fearful of being detected for some time, and therefore they had sentinels posted in the house which commanded a view of the road for a long distance each way, to apprise the inmates if anything of a suspicious nature should be observed; and it was this vigilance that prevented their arrest.

Among their effects were bushels of quills, each containing a number corresponding with a ticket, all ready to be drawn; a corresponding number of quills not prepared; "tickets in the New England Art Union Lottery," with the plate on which they were printed; hand stamp and types; circulars and bushels of printed numbers; thousands of envelopes, superscribed ready for transmission, together with a four-foot chest, which was packed solid with letters that had been sent to their address from every part of the country. These letters had contained money, from a postage stamp to $20, in payment for lottery tickets, and receipts for various purposes, such as making honey, vinegar, blacking, love powder, to secure the affections of the one you most desire, and other prescriptions to be used for vile, base and murderous purposes.

The following is one of their sovereign cures for consumption: "Take one quart of brandy, one quart of honey, two oz. of alum, boil down one half and take a teaspoonful before every meal." A writer encloses three dollars for a receipt to toll a fox for one mile. A clergyman, in a western state, remits one dollar for a receipt to make honey for three cents a pound. Letters from indiscreet young ladies, and inquiries of young men as to the safety of their powders for certain uses, were numerous. The wickedness revealed in the correspondence of that four foot chest would startle the most depraved.—Hell itself could not devise schemes of greater corruption. Some idea may be formed of the extent of their operations by an examination of accounts. Envelopes by the fifty thousand were purchased; circulars in the same quantity were printed and distributed; receipts for tickets to the amount of $20,000 are shown on their books. The wonder is, that such a nest of swindlers could carry on their nefarious business for a series of years, without being detected. The officers are entitled to a good deal of praise, for breaking up this notorious gang of idlers who have been preying for so long a time upon the credulity of the people, and robbing the weak-minded, while they were swimming in ill-gotten gains, driving fast horses, and living in the fatest manner.

☞ It has been ascertained that the individual who coolly entered the New Haven Bank about six months ago, during business hours, and stole $2300, with which he escaped, is a young man who is now incarcerated in Sing Sing Prison, for larceny in New York city. He attempted a similar financial movement in Baltimore, but was detected. He got off, however, on straw bail; but only to fall into the clutches of the law in New York.

☞ A Norfolk correspondent of the N. Y. Spirit of the Times says he that morning "attended church and heard the preacher say, 'Christ had bread and wine, but a little whiskey is more strengthening.'"

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for March has its usual rich bill of fare. The Professor at the Breakfast Table seems to be as much at home as ever—but instead of saying how good his article is, we copy the following stanzas, with which it closes. Those who can appreciate them, need not any commendation to make up their minds as to their merit:—

THE OPENING OF THE PIANO.

In the little southern parlor of the house you may have seen
With the gambrel-roof, and the gable looking eastward to the green,
At the side toward the sunset, with the window on its right,
Stood the London-made piano I am dreaming of to-night.

Ah me! how I remember the evening when it came!
What a cry of eager voices, what a group of cheeks in flame,
When the wondrous box was opened that had come from over seas,
With its smell of mastic varnish and its flash of ivory keys!

Then the children all grew fretful in the restlessness of joy,
For the boy would push his sister, and the sister crowd the boy,
Till the father asked for quiet in his grave paternal way,
But the mother hushed the tumult with the words, "Now, Mary, play."

For the dear soul knew that music was a very sovereign balm;
She had sprinkled it over Sorrow and seen its brow grow calm,
In the days of slender harpsichords with the tapping tinkling quills,
Or carolling to her spinnet with its thin metallic thrills.

So Mary, the household minstrel, who always loved to please,
Sat down to the new "Clementi," and struck the glittering keys.
Hushed were the children's voices, and every eye grew dim,
As, floating from lip and finger, arose the "Vesper Hymn."

—Catharine, child of a neighbor, curly and rosy-cheeked,
(Wedded since, and a widow,—something like ten years dead,)
Hearing a gush of music such as none had heard before,
Steals from her mother's chamber and peeps at the open door.

Just as the "Jubilate" in threaded whisper dies,
—"Open it! open it, lady!" the little maiden cries,
(For she thought 'twas a singing creature caged in a box she heard,)
"Open it! open it, lady! and let me see the bird!"

CONGRESS.—The Senate on Saturday agreed to meet hereafter at noon as usual, instead of 11 o'clock. The consular and diplomatic appropriation bill was taken up and amended so as to prevent the President from appointing more ministers without the consent of Congress. Some other amendments were adopted, and the bill was passed. The reduction from the estimates of the Secretary of War amounts to $2,000,000.

The House tabled a bill proposing to reform certain abuses in the folding room, and adopted a resolution declaring that extra copies of books given to members are intended for gratuitous distribution, and that any other disposition of the same meets the unqualified disapprobation of the House.. The House went into committee on the army appropriation bill, and several amendments were adopted and reported to the House.

☞ The U. S. Senate on Friday, discussed the President's Message, asking for a grant of power to make war.—Douglas favored it, and says:—

He ought to be invested with power summarily to enforce redress for any outrage committed upon our flag, citizens, or property, wherever it occurs. The Executive of every other Nation has it. Mr. Douglas did not mean to give a special vote of confidence to the present executive, but was content to trust that power to him and his successors in all time. Our policy is to make the executive strong abroad—to make the American name respected; but not unduly to increase the executive power within the United States. He hoped this message would originate a more vigorous and efficient foreign policy.

Uncle Toby believes that the executives of other nations, are called Kings, Emperors, Czars, and Sultans.

Query, whether the American Republicans, or American Democrats, are prepared to make a new King, (who of course can do no wrong,) every four years?

This, Mr. Douglas intimates, is not unduly to increase the President's power,—and Mr. Douglas is himself looking forward to the presidency.

The House debated the Army Appropriation bill.

THE NAVY YARDS.—The New York Evening Post gives the following information relative to the various navy yards of the country, derived from official sources. The statements relative to the Washington, Pensacola and Benicia yards are estimates, but are believed to be correct:

	Original cost.	Present mn'thly Expenses disburse for 1858.	nts about
New York	$40,000	$1,816,637	$80,000

☞ It is rumored Chief Justice Taney and Judge McLean intend resigning their seats on the bench of the Supreme Court. Both are very aged, and in infirm health, the Chief Justice being over 80 years of age, and Judge McLean 76.

"Man wants but little here below,
Nor wants that little long."
'Tis not with me exactly so,
But 'tis so in the song.
My wants are many, and if told
Would muster many a score;
And were each want a mint of gold,
I still should want for more.
—J. Q. Adams.

☞ Trinity Church and Chapel, in New York, cost $500,000, while in Tatnall county, Georgia, there are, for all denominations, sixteen church edifices, worth in the aggregate, $105, or six dollars and fifty-six cents each. The primitive christians, some one says, had no church houses.—But they soon began to build.

"It is quite too bad of you, Darby, to say that your wife is worse than the devil."

"An,' plaze yer Riverence, I can prove it by the Houly Scriptur'—I can, be the powers. Didn't your Riverence, yesterday, in your sermon, tell us that if we resist the devil he'll flee from us? Now, it I resist my wife, she flies at me."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NERVOUS IRRITABILITY.—How often do we see persons so easily irritated by the commonest trials and events of life, as to be perfect "sensitive plants" as regard external circumstances. Let such persons try the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and they will soon find, that with their increased strength, they can buffet the waves of every day life with vigor and pleasure.

R. R. R.

A NEW BODY.—On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his diseased body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st., RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day, his body was washed with water and R. R. Relief; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bathing-tub of water. Two of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 25th, four days later he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is the rapidity with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with, a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIM PLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending opera and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the very "Venerable kingdom," rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally, in case of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing unnoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Hoskins, Physician to the Host, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'—NONE OTHER is IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Pocker, 20 Elm st; J. French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cauticled against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above quotation, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will subply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

[For the Chronicle.]

NEW FREIGHT LINE.—We understand at a party having a lot of pressed hay ich he was going to have transported m this city to Boston, sent his hay to Eastern Railroad station to be loaded, that road, being minus freight cars, ld not carry the freight. The hay was n sent to the depot of the Concord & rtsmouth Railroad, and it was supposed the shipper would be sent to New Marr Junction, over the Boston & Maine R. to Boston.

It seems that the lessees of the C. & P. R. are not very anxious to put freight en the B. & M. R. R., and the hay was refore sent from Portsmouth to Concord, nce over the Concord and Manchester & wrence Roads to Lawrence, and thence Maine Road to Boston—having been uled by the Concord and Manchester & wrence Railroads eighty-one miles, to vent its being transported nineteen les by the Boston & Maine Railroad.

We do not know which is the most repensible—the Eastern Railroad Corpora n for not having cars enough to do its timate business, or the other roads for rking so hard to get the legitimate busiss away from each other. We are inmed that the lawns of the Portsmouth am Factory, which should be sent eir by way of New Market Junction and & M. R. R., or by way of Salem & Es Road to Lawrence, are in like manner t from Portsmouth to Lawrence by way Concord and Manchester! How much C. M. & Lawrence Road makes by the eration, we shall probably not ascertain ore the session of the next legislature.

☞ In order to give the employees at Chronicle Office, an additional incen e to respect the anniversay of the natal y of The Father of His Country,—and other less patriotic but no less cogent asons—we shall keep holiday to-day; d so shall issue no Daily on Wednesday. The Church bells are to ring at sunrise, on, and sunset; and the ball belles, who ve in rings almost as great, and with fluence radiating vastly wider than that their metallic synonyms, will make all rry at Congress Hall to-night, to the spiriting music of Lamprey & Haines' nd.

☞ Don't forget Karl Krebs' Concert, dnesday Evening. One of his clarionet po alone is well worth going to hear—sides the violin and piano playing, and the vocal attraction.

☞ Mr. Elijah Bryne is canvassing the y for a few days, exhibiting a series of nty-five fine Stereoscopic Views, in a ge and improved instrument, for six ts. It is a beautiful display.

He is stopping at Hatch's, opposite the am Factory.

☞ The Old Folks Choir muster in ful mbers, to rehearse the programme for ir seventh concert—which will be seen our advertising columns. The entertainnt will be equal to any they have given, ich have proved abundantly satisfactory all who heard.

☞ The trial term of the Supreme Judi Court commences at Exeter to day.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—It is in evidence fore the Naval Investigation Committee t Mr. Buchanan sent a letter to Mr. ncy in September last, urging that a tract for building the machinery of the ladelphia sloop-of war be taken from Novelty Iron Works, New York, who e the lowest bidders, and given to Mer t and Sons, Philadelphia, and it was so cided. It is also in evidence before the mittee that J. Glancy Jones, when a mber of Congress, was agent for proing contracts with the government for Reading Forge in Pennsylvania, reing ten per cent. for his services.

In this city, on Monday afternoon, Feb. 21st, John Knight Pickering, Esq., aged 66 years: a merchant of energy and skill, perseverance and success; in whose demise the interests of this city, as well as his own domestic circle, sustain a serious loss.

☞ Funeral on Wednesday morning, at 11 o'clock, from No. 26 Pleasant St.

In Salem, Mass., Feb. 19th, of consumption, Mrs. Frances Emily Marshall, aged 26 years, wife of Mr. Samuel K. Marshall, and youngest daughter of the late Joseph Moulton, of this city.

FLOUR INSPECTIONS.—A suit has recently been decided in Richmond, of a novel character, in which flour inspectors are deeply interested. It has been the rule for years that the draws are considered the perquisites of the Inspectors, and when heavy inspections are made, these "long augur draws" amount to a considerable toll.—The case was decided by Judge Meredith, who said that a flour inspector had no legal right to retain the flour drawn in the process of inspecting. Crenshaw & Fisher, of Richmond, served a protest against the practice, upon D. S. Delaplane, on January 1st, 1856, and sued for "draft flour" retained by him since that period, to July, 1858. The average value of the "draft flour" per barrel is three cents—making the receipts of the office in 1858, when 650,000 barrels were inspected, $19,-500 gross. The Judge and jury went to the mills and saw the flour inspected in the usual manner—the "draft" being from seven and three-fourths to ten and a half ounces. The legal half inch "tryer" drew out one and a half ounces. The jury gave a verdict for the millers for $2,-361 08.

WHAT THE AMERICAN CHILDREN EAT.—A correspondent of the Poughkeepsie Daily Democrat states that "while visiting a school in Montreal, he asked the teacher if there were any American children there. She said there were, and she could tell them by their pale faces, bright eyes and nervousness. They learned quicker, but lost so many days during the term, from sickness, that they did not get along so fast as those who were able to be present constantly. He also took occasion to examin their luncheon baskets, and found the American fare to be a piece of mince pie, the same of pound cake, two doughnuts, a pickle, and a cold sausage; while the English, Irish and Scotch children had either two day's old bread and meat, bread and honey, or bread and apple, with nothing else."

☞ A letter from Vallecillo, in the State of New Leon, Mexico, of Jan. 11, mentions an extraordinary change of the weather. On the 7th day of January the weather there was oppressively hot up to 11 o'clock P. M., when a norther set in, and at 1 o'clock, or two hours later, there was ice! Next morning birds frozen to death in all positions lay around, and sheep and goats of tender age perished by thousands.

☞ The Eagle of the South, published at Jackson, Miss., thus speaks of the reopening of the slave trade:—

"Why, it is a most exorbitant profit.—The Congo fellows who sold them to the Wanderer did not ask more than thirty dollars per head. But the profits, we suppose, are necessarily large on the first reopening of the trade, inasmuch as there was a sort of quasi terror of being hanged as 'pirates.' That is all over. No jury of the South will convict, or dares convict, an honest merchant of being a felon; and we have the pleasure to announce that the trade is re-opened already."

PEASE.—DR. Pease, dean of Ely, was once at dinner, when just as the cloth was removed, the subject of discourse happenned to be that of extraordinary mortality among lawyers. "We have lost," said a gentleman, "not less than six eminent barristers in as many months." The dean, who was quite deaf, rose, as his friend finished his remarks, and gave the company grace: "For this and every other mercy, make us truly thankful."

☞ Among author bibliopolos, figures the indefatigable Paterson in the first half of the eighteenth century, Hutton of Birmingham, sometimes called the "English Franklin," born to abject poverty, made his way through cold hunger, and heavy blows, to wealth and consideration. He thus took leave of his readers, in 1811, being in the eighty-sixth year of his age:

"As it is perhaps the last time I shall appear before the world as an author, I may be allowed the liberty of exhibiting my performances in that character. I took up my pen, and that with fear and trembling, at the advanced age of fifty-six, a period when most would lay it down; I drove the quill thirty years, during which time I wrote and published fourteen books."

☞ The religious influence pervading the congregation of the Methodist Church on William street, Baltimore, on Sunday last was such that the services were protracted from 11 o'clock in the frronoon till 5 in the afternoon.

☞ A flock of 450 turkeys and geese arrived in New York on Tuesday from Ohio, and their novel appearance, as they were driven through the streets on the way to the place of slaughter, attracted much attention.

E. GREEN & CO.,

Take the pleasure of returning their sincere thanks to their patrons and the public generally, for past patronage, and hope for a continance and increase of favor in future. Now as it is a well established fact how cheap we have let clothing slide during the past month, the public will be satisfied that it is no humbug, if we hold out still greater inducement in offering Clothing without regard to cost. Therefore, for your advantage we call your attention.

Come to see us soon, while the Stock is large; we assure you that if you are a judge of Goods, you'll not leave our place without buying, on account of the quality and price. This inducement, corresponding well with the present season, we expect this enlightened community will give us as great a rush for Gent's Wearing Apparel, as last month.

☞ Those indebted to us, we wish to "call at the Cap'n's office and settle." We are ready to meet all demands against us as soon as presented

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.

Bath, Me., Jan. 20, 1858.

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.:

Gentlemen:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. It have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that it speaks will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. Raymond.

Baltimore, Jan. 28, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and my words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

Finley Johnson.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

Ws. Dyer.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. Bragg.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: half a pint, three quarters, and small; the one holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of victims in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year or his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of Gravel have been immediately treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are described upon the books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be led from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with fictitious pretenders who are at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE REGULATING PILLS. These celebrated pills are rivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been tried by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research es made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered in any other place. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services more moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, together with an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 3 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1859.

A CONFAB.

The first speaker is Leonard H. Pillsbury, a young man from Kansas, who spoke the other day in Kingston Academy.

Pillsbury—I had just premised by saying that Kansas probably had felt more than any other Territory, the inconveniences incident to a newly settled country; for, not only had she been deprived of the protective power of the general government, but that power had been unscrupulously used for her oppression. Yes, said I, it is useless to endeavor to conceal a fact which none will dare deny. The tyrannical iron hand of administrative power has ever been grasping at the throat of freedom in Kansas—bent on extinguishing the vital breath which fanned the spark of liberty.

The second speaker is the Daily Union, of Manchester.

Daily Union.—If Mr. Pillsbury didn't get kicked out of doors for the utterance of such audacious falsehoods, before a literary association, he got off a great deal better than he deserved.

The third speaker is the Portsmouth Gazette.

Gazette.—We have been removed from our office because of our incompetency to advocate a falsehood and defend a lie; because, despite of threats from enemies, and hints from friends, we have dared now and then to say a few words in defence of the party platform, upon which this Administration was elected; because we dared to express our dissent to the policy of making Lecompton a test of party fidelity; * * because we dared to denounce the new and damnable doctrine of a Congressional Slave Code; because, in short, we have dared to adhere to the principles, and depart from the time-honored usage of the party. And for this our head falls into the basket!

The fourth speaker shall be Uncle Toby.

Uncle T.—Mr. Pillsbury dared to speak against the Lecompton slavery policy of the federal government in Kansas, as strangling liberty. For this, the Manchester Union charges him with falsehood, and says he deserved to be kicked out of doors!

Mr. Alexander, of the Gazette, dared to speak of the same Lecompton policy calling it a falsehood and a lie,—he "denounces the new and damnable doctrine of a slave code," and rebukes the federal government for departures from principle,—and for this he is kicked out of doors by this same general government! and his head falls into the basket!

Mr. Pillsbury accuses the administrative power, of tyranny over Kansas—so does Mr. Alexander.—Mr. P. does it orally, in a speech, and is hushed down, by timid friends, as a dreadfully black republican. Mr. A. does it in a newspaper, and the "tyrannical iron hand of administrative power grasps at the throat of" his free speech! Then he shrieks,—and then they cut of his head,—and after it is off, he speaks, and finds fault with Mr. P. because as the Gazette says:—"he availed himself of the courtesy shown him, to abuse the present and past administration, and to denounce the Democratic party as a pro-slavery party."

Really, Mr. P. in the first extract above, speaks less severely than Mr. A. does in the third extract. If one is treason or rebellion, so is the other, Mr. A. being the greatest rebel of the two. Make the most of it, tyrants:—freedom is rampant in Rockingham. The Gazette strikes at the hand that fed it—and strikes for Liberty.

POSITION DEFINED.—The Manchester Union Democrat says:—

The American need not talk to us of the comparative merits of license and prohibitive liquor laws. We are opposed to both. We have a thousand times declared that we have no faith in any law designed to regulate or prohibit the sale and use of liquor. * * *

Our theory of law leaves everybody to sell who pleases.

This is plain,—the Union goes for free rum, without regulation or restriction.

☞ Washington's Birth Day was celebrated very extensively, in New England. Here, by bells only; in Manchester, by the Veterans, who had a military parade, oration, dinner, &c. In Boston, in the evening, Gov. Banks delivered an oration before the Mercantile Library Association, in the Music Hall, which was crowded full. Music by the Handel and Haydn Society, with orchestra.

☞ Statistics show the encouraging fact that although crime increases, it does not increase so fast as population.—The proportion of rogues to honest men is less than it was a hundred years ago. A hundred years hence there will doubtless be more convicts in our State Prisons than now; but we shall double in population, and the community as a whole, will be of higher moral character, and in the aggregate freer from vice.

OUR BOSTON CORRESPONDENCE.

BOSTON, Feb. 21.

Dear Chronicle:—The question of a military despotism has been fairly broached here—a military despotism for the United States of America! That is probably all that will be done just at present. The President's suggestions that he be clothed with extra authority, both financial and warlike, undoubtedly has led to some extreme fancies on the part of those who should have learned philosophy in years gone by. A few months ago, when a little pamphlet was issued relative to the chances of the slave trade being re-opened, it was thought a wild idea; but now some of our most prominent journals announce that the slave trade is practically re-opened, and it is claimed by some that it is in very fair working trim.

And now, far on beyond that, the question of a military despotism is likewise given to the winds. Undoubtedly the winds will take good care of it. Raised for political capital, it will probably never pay a dividend. Questions of vast importance to our commercial interests are coming boldly forward now, and cannot much longer be profitably trifled with.

Isthmus transit and a Pacific Railway are, on large scale, matters of no common consequence. The transit across the Isthmus must unquestionably be open to all powerful commercial nations alike, or nearly so; while a Pacific Railway might be wholly our own.

And yet, with such vital interests at stake—the almost unlimited worth and value of direct, easy trade with the lands whose commerce has ever enriched whatever city or nation that has carried it on, for a score and more of centuries—thousands and thousands of years—with even such a trade pending upon our movements for direct, easy and rapid communication with our Pacific States, no substantial movement is made to complete a railway there.

A generation hence, men will wonder at our supineness now, in the vital time; will wonder even more than we praise our own energy and success in partial thrift. The country has the capital in plenty—much of it idle or earning less than legal interest. We have the means in every way; men are idle for want of work, and thousands more would gladly dig for moderate pay. We shall feel ashamed yet that we did not act more promptly and forcibly regarding this matter.

Russia is daily making vast efforts to contest with England for this wealth-yielding trade of the Indies, so easily open and accessible to us from our Pacific shore; but we look on almost impassive. England is pushing a railway across America to the Pacific through a more frozen region than ours, while we look on and talk of difficulties—ay, even of "impossibilities!" Bye and bye we shall be ashamed of it in earnest. We have fancied that we are vastly energetic, and now we toady to the fancy. The toady propensity grows among us. It seems the highest ambition of some to have something of position or notoriety to toady to. Sometimes this object is an abstract thing, as a quality or characteristic; and sometimes it is a memory of persons or of things gone by—while sometimes it has less excusable a personal object of present time in actual life.

A few days since a correspondent of the Boston Journal, generally know to be an man of clerical memory, spoke of I. S. Kalloch's lecture in New York as a fine success. A correspondent of the Post now developes that the lecture was a "fizzle," so far as success went—the attendance being trifling. The attempt to represent Mr. Kalloch as a man of eloquence and supreme ability seems a decided farce, and will probably be dropped as soon as he is really known. His style, manner and inflection of voice—all are bad, unpleasant; and his argument is usually defective in strength. He may suit some gross tastes, and those who consider noise supreme, but a refined taste will hardly find many pleasing items in his discourses.

It is bad enough to toady to anything—even to talent, but to toady to mere notoriety is yet worse.

The Tiger Ball is a prominent social topic. It will probably be a very brilliant affair, and it being the first time our fine Boston Theatre has been selected for this purpose, it will have the charm of novelty.

The Mount Vernon Ball for the 4th of March promises also to be a magnificent affair, although many think it would have been much more seasonable on the glorious twenty-second of February; but probably the Theatre's receipts for Theatre business on such a night—the twenty-second being now an established holiday—would be too considerable to allow the use of it for another purpose. Since the announcement of this Mount Vernon Ball, it has rather taken precedence of the "Tiger." The list of names of Managers and Committee presents a very formidable array of our substantial citizens; and it is probable that for actual beauty of women and represented wealth of men, the Mount Vernon will take the palm. But for valor and ferocity, the "Tigers" will strive for the higher position. Yours, BERNARDE.

A WILD STATEMENT.—An editorial article in the Cincinnati, Ohio, Enquirer of the 27th January, makes this strange statement:

Of the three thousand Republican clergymen who petitioned Congress against the Nebraska bill, in the name of Almighty God, over one third, or one thousand of them, have been deposed from the ministry for immoral and licentious practices.

With as good a knowledge of clerical character in all denominations, as is possessed by almost any one, we pronounce the above statement to be a lie, gross and deliberate, by whomsoever uttered.

The 3000 clergymen above slandered, were of course all protestants, and embrace three-fourths if not seven-eighths of all the pastors of the New England churches of every Christian denomination. They certainly were not below an average, whether in position or character, of the entire clerical body of the United States.

The New York Tribune says of them in regard to this matter:—

"In the five years which have elapsed since their appeal to Congress, it is possible that a dozen of their number may have been proved guilty of some criminal act; we are sure the number even accused of "licentious practices" has not been anything like one hundred.

We add, that we obtain annually, reports and official documents of all the denominations whence these signatures came; that we have, in a very large exchange, every case of clerical delinquency which is reported in the free states—and that they do not amount to one tenth, nor much beyond one hundredth of the numbers above charged.

We saw a similar charge, made just before the last Presidential election, nearly in the same words. We contradicted it then, as decisively as now; but some reckless liar has revived it now, for what purpose the reader can judge as well as we.

BET, BRAG AND BLUSTER.—Not long ago, the Manchester American had a paragraph (which we copied) giving its views of the election of the several Republican candidates, with their supposed majorities. We have also given from the Concord Patriot several bets, $800 in all, that the said Republicans would not get so large majorities as claimed for them by the American.

Now we give the following bets, as an offset to those of the Patriot, with just two remarks:

1. That betting is no proof of anything beyond the hope of him who bets, and his willingness to run a risk thereon. And

2. That both the Patriot's bets and those of the Democrat may be won! and that on the whole we think it likely they both will be, if taken.

MORE BETS.—The Independent Democrat appends to a notice of the recently proposed bets offered in the Patriot, that "$800 will be given outright to any person or persons who will deposit in the hands of the cashier of either of the banks at Concord, the money to cover the following bets:—

1. $1000 that Mr. Goodwin will be elected Governor by the people.
2. $1000 that Mr. Marston will be elected to Congress.
3. $1000 that Mr. Tappan will be elected to Congress.
4. $1000 that Mr. Edwards will be elected to Congress.
5. $1000 that the Republicans will have a majority in the Senate.
6. $1000 that the Republicans will have a majority in the House.
7. $1000 that the Republicans will have a majority in the Council.

☞ The March Number of the "Ladies' American Magazine" has an excellent colored steel Fashion Engraving. The Fashion wood cuts are drawn from actual articles of costume. The Literary Department is under the superintendence of Mr. Charles G. Leland, and is highly interesting.—Henry White, publisher, New York—only $2 per year.

☞ The New Haven Palladium says that the steamer Vanderbilt, contrary to report, is to all appearance in good order for repairing. She is not injured badly, but lies as straight and elegant in form as ever, and the only apparent injuries are those caused in breaking her up to get out the boiler and machinery. The real damage to her hull is mostly towards the stern, and it has been determined to repair her at once.

RYE.—There is a great revival in Rye. A correspondent writes to a paper abroad that one hundred and fifty persons have been converted. All the churches—Congregational, Methodist and Christian—work as one body.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NERVOUS IRRITABILITY.—How often do we see persons so easily irritated by the commonest trials and events of life, as to be perfect "sensitive plants" as regard external circumstances. Let such persons try the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and they will soon find, that with their increased strength, they can buffet the waves of every day life with vigor and pleasure.

R. R. R.

A NEW BODY.—On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his disease-eaten body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st., RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day, his body was washed with water and R. R. Relief; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bathing-tub of water. Two of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 25th, four days later, he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia, and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is this regenerating power with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, and in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, distilled from London, rum sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally, in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. M. Hewes, 1 Blackstone st; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st; R. French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the French for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's price, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

For the Chronicle.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—The members of the Ladies' Benevolent Society in this city, called at the house of their president on Monday evening, and soon after their arrival, one of the number appears in a well filled room, amid joyous faces, with a Silver Cake Basket and Butter Cooler, which were presented with the following address.

Mrs. Sherive,—The remembrance of your kindness and faithful discharge of duty, for the past nine years while you have presided over us, has stimulated us to be here this evening.

The recollections of our social gatherings are of the best kind and never to be forgotton.

As a token of our high esteem, we have the pleasure at this time to present you with these articles.

Their pecuniary value is small, but please accept them as sincere offerings.

Their possession, in times to come, may afford some satisfaction when you think of former scenes and friends connected with our society.

Long may the kindly sentiments which have been growing with us continue, to help us in our benevolent operations and cheer us onward to the better land.

The President made a very feeling reply, acknowledged her surprise at such marks of esteem, and said it had so overpowered her, that she was unable to express her thanks in the manner it deserved; but the present time was one of great pleasure to herself, and also as she trusted, to all who now surrounded her.

After refreshments and good singing, the Company separated, highly gratified with the occasion. A. B.

☞ The Portsmouth correspondent of the Boston Journal, the ubiquitous "John Halifax," truly says: All Portsmouth is eagerly awaiting, with pleasant anticipations, the publication of the Poems of Albert Laighton, our local poet, whose sweet songs have delighted so many of his admirers throughout the land. The work is in the hands of one of the most enterprising Boston publishing houses, and will doubtless receive a generous welcome from all who can appreciate its worth.

☞ Mr. Cutts' rendering of selections from King Henry Fourth, on Monday evening, was one of the most agreeable entertainments we ever attended. Most public readers of Shakspeare are those accustomed to its stage performance, and carry with them much of constrained manner that is not agreeable; Mr. Cutts is one of the most natural, if not the most natural, free and life-like reader we ever listened to. We were never acquainted with Falstaff before—and Hotspur, the King, and all, could have delivered their parts little if any better in person. We hope to hear this gentleman in Portsmouth again ere long.

☞ A correspondent who participated in the Washington Ball, at Congress Hall, Tuesday evening, says it was an attractive and successful affair. Of course everything would be done up in good shape, under Mr. Lamprey's management. A large and brilliant company kept time to the rich music of Lamprey and Haines' Band, till some time the next morning. Mr. Newell furnished excellent refreshments in the room above.

☞ Wm. B. Brown and Ermina Augusta Marsh, a gentleman and lady of great celebrity in Massachusetts and elsewhere, are to give one of their famous concerts at the Temple this evening. They certainly have a very large and attractive list of pieces from which to select a programme; and if previous and long-continued success, and the highest compliments from the press and people wherever they go, mean anything, our citizens may depend on a rare treat.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

The February Trial term of the Supreme Judicial Court, commenced at Exeter on Tuesday. Hon. Ira Eastman, presiding. The number of cases upon the civil docket is 134, of which forty-five were marked for trial.

The first case put upon trial was No. 8, Joseph Little and Rebecca his wife against James Gibson. This is a civil action brought to recover possession of two pieces of land in the right of the wife. The land is situated in Atkinson. The plea is the general issue. The case has been once before tried. Bell for plff. Wells and Wilcox for deft.

☞ The editor of the Gazette says that when he cannot sustain the democratic party without resorting to such meanness as the Ballot is guilty of, he will vocate in favor of some one else. We thought he would not continue much longer; who is to be his successor?—Ballot.

MARRIED.

In Bellows Falls, Vt., Edward J. Sylver to Miss Lelia A. Marcy, both of Windsor.

DIED.

In Dover, Edgar E. Bennett, aged 5 years, child of Joseph and Susan Bennett.

In Rochester, Mr. James Robinson, aged 89.

THE STATE PLATFORM.—Many copies of a large handbill have been posted up at the corners of our streets, for some weeks past, being placed there for the benefit of the democratic party, and designed to attract voters to the democratic ticket.

The first part of the handbill shows what the democratic party propose to do, if they succeed; the second part is devoted to finding fault with the Republicans for what they have done, and have left undone.

We copy only the first part, giving the programme of what party action is laid out for next June.

The Democratic Party goes for the Repeal of the Liquor Law.

Repeal of the Peddler Law.
Repeal of the present expensive Judiciary System.
Repeal of the law defranchising Naturalized Citizens.
For the Sale of the Reform School, with all its appurtenances.
In favor of Non-Intervention, State Rights and Popular Sovereignty, and of the right of every political community to regulate its own domestic affairs without outside interference of any kind.
In favor of putting an end to the miserable negro agitation by which the interests of New England have been paralyzed.
In favor of the acquisition of Cuba, by which New England manufactures can find a market, the Slave Trade be abolished, and the laboring man can buy his sugar for three cents a pound.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The tie vote of 104 in favor of and against suspending the rules for taking up the Fishing Bounty Abolition bill in the House, shows that the two-thirds necessary cannot be obtained; but if the Committee of Commerce is called, the bill will come up regularly, and probably be passed.

A dispatch from Mexico says Miramon has invited Santa Anna to return to Mexico and govern under European protection.

Mr. Fitzhugh was examined to-day before the Committee of Inquiry into the charges against the committee on Accounts. He testifies that he paid Mr. Searing of New York, a member of said Committee, $400 to have his claim passed.

☞ A few nights since, a farmer living near Dansville, Livingston county, N. Y., hearing a noise at his stable, armed himself with a club and went there, when he found two fellows about leading forth a valuable horse. One of the theives drew a pistol, and was about to fire, when the farmer struck him on the head with his club, killing him instantly. The other rogue then fled, when the farmer examined the body of the slain man, found thereon $400 in good money, but no clue to his identity.

FLOODS IN OHIO.—Cincinnati, Feb. 20. There were incessant rains throughout the West last week. The Ohio now has fifty-three feet of water in the channel at this point, and is still rising at the rate of a foot per hour. The water is now within three feet of the high water mark in 1853, and is up to the second stories on water street. All the upper streams are overflowing. No train went out on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad to-night. The weather is now clear, but there is a high wind.

☞ A reliable letter from Kansas, to Feb. 12, (in the Boston Journal,) speaks of the close of the Legislative session there Feb. 11, and says:—

A large amount of work has been performed by it, and with the single exception of failing to pass the bill formally abolishing and prohibiting slavery in season for it to become a law, its labors will prove satisfactory to the people of Kansas.

A bill repealing the bogus statutes passed, has been signed by the Governor, and is a law. There is much jubilation over it. Immediately after the adjournment of the Legislature, an immense bonfire of tar barrels was kindled in front of the Eldridge House and a copy of the bogus statutes was publicly burned, amidst the shouts and cheers of the assembled crowd! Another copy has been sent by express this morning to the Governor of Missouri, with a message informing him that the people of Kansas have no further use for them! And thus, we hope, the last vestige of the usurpation which has so long deprived the people of Kansas of their rights is wiped out. Laus Deo!

The Constitutional Convention bill has been approved by the Governor, and is now a law.

☞ Andrew N. Damrell, son of the Hon. William S. Damrell, M. C., from Massachusetts, has been appointed one of the Massachusetts Cadets at West Point.

The Wheeler & Wilson
Medal Family Sewing Machine.
A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.
This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.
The Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co.
Invites the attention of Housekeepers, Seamstresses, Dressmakers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Ladies' Gaiters, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols and Silk Goods, to the perfect adaptation and unrivalled excellence of these SEWING MACHINES for their uses. Their extensive and increasing sale, and the unanimous commendation that they have received, warrant the Company in warmly recommending them. They have been in use sufficiently long to test them thoroughly, and have given entire satisfaction.
They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.
Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses.—Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand-sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.
Among their undoubted advantages are—
1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.
The change made in the tension during the past year, so that the upper thread is used from the original spool, and the addition of the hemmer, by which, hems of any width are turned and stitched without any previous basting, evince the care of the Company in incorporating with the machines every device that can tend to perfecting them. They now combine every improvement that has been invented for sewing, and the Company feels confident that, in their present form, they are by far the best ever offered to the public; and refers, for confirmation of this opinion, to the thousands of families and manufacturers who use them.
Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.
During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler & Wilson machine has won the highest premium.
We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi, Missouri & California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco.
At the Fair of the St Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee was composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson machine, the highest and only premium, a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.
"We prefer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for family use."—[N. Y. Tribune.
"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines are the favorites for families."—[N. Y. Times.
"The Wheeler & Wilson Machine has secured and justly maintains the pre-eminence for sewing every kind of material."—[N. Y. Express.
"There is not an invention of this inventive age that honors American genius more than the Sewing Machine. No family ought to be without its benefits."—[Independent.
"A Sewing Machine is among the most useful and economical articles a housekeeper can purchase. In looking out for the best, see the machines of Wheeler & Wilson."—[Examiner.
"Wheeler & Wilson is the machine par excellence for family use, and we recommend it most emphatically."—[Advocate and Journal.
"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines combine everything that can be required in the manufacture of garments. Our friends abroad may be assured that to purchase one of them is a safe investment."—[Observer.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of
FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,
and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many a year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other compounds now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of its kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of the Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks strongly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the best seeds of a nostrum, nor useless puffery from the press:

HATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used none. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! an it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will, on occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds a pint and a half per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which had been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing eyes.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the grand pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are universally acknowledged the superior remedy for regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

THE FOURTH OF MARCH.—The Alexandria Sentinel tells the familiar story about Col. Bentons's refusing to recognize the House of Representatives as a legal body on the 4th of March:

"It was Sunday morning, and the 4th of March of the short session. Col. Benton held that as the 3d of March was the end of the period for which the Representatives had been elected, the House had expired at midnight of Saturday. By a sort of legal fiction, however, the House not only claimed to be living on Sunday morning, but was calling up its absent members; and it so happened that just as Col. Benton, after a good night's sleep and a hearty breakfast, reached the door of the hall, his name was called by the Clerk.—Immediately "his indignation was great." "You shan't call my name, sir. This is no House, sir. And I am no member, sir.—I'll sue you if you call my name in there, sir."

In addition to this, Col. Benton told them it was a mob—that he was "a member of no such body." The present Speaker, Orr, was in the Chair at the time, and he promptly replied: "As the gentleman denies being a member of this House, the Sergeant-at-Arms will please remove him from the Hall." The remark created a roar of laughter, and Old Bullion, in a towering rage, stalked out of the Hall.

Col. Benton was right in this thing.—The members of the present Congress have just the same right to do business on the 4th of March, 1859, as they have on the 4th of July, '59, or March 4, 1860—that is, no right at all.

Every Representative's time is out before the 4th day of March begins—for his term began that day. Not only so, many of them have successors chosen, whose powers and pay begin on that day.

The above legal fiction is a fraud and a swindle—and some vile measures have been carried through by it.

The mob, as Benton called it, was a mob of Sabbath-breaking loafers, without the slightest legal or constitutional sanction.

☞ In Lowell, Mass., a correspondent of the Boston Journal states that the new city government is engaged in regulating the tippling shops.

The Mayor in company with the City Marshal, having called upon many of them, and politely requested them to discontinue their illegal traffic. Many have complied with the request, and those who have not will be immediately proceeded against. The following order was unanimously adopted at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen:

"Ordered, That the City Marshal be and is hereby instructed to impartially enforce all laws of the Commonwealth for the suppression of the illegal traffic in intoxicating liquors, against all persons in this city who shall violate the same; and that he be, and hereby is, especially instructed to prosecute without respect of persons, all owners of buildings within the city, in which are sold intoxicating liquors contrary to law; and that the entire police force be, and they hereby are, particularly required to render, under the direction of the City Marshal, all necessary and lawful aid in the execution of this order."

DEFALCATION.—William S. McGowan, the Treasurer of the Columbian Loan and Fund Association of Boston, has disappeared suddenly, and under circumstances of a highly disreputable nature. The Association was incorporated in 1855. The deposits are chiefly made by the Irish residents in the vincinity of the South End, and have amounted in all to about $80,000. The amount of property not accounted for is the January dues, about $2,000. McGowan's bondsmen declare themselves ready to make good all loss from the defalcation. McGowan has gone to Australia or California. The Ledger says his trouble has been caused by visits to the gambling table, and that having been fleeced by sharpers of money deposited by members of the Association, he left to avoid "facing the music" which might be expected under the circumstances. McGowan was an apothecary, a prominent Democrat, and a young man who has hitherto been esteemed. He was a member of the Common Council last year.—Boston Rec.

☞ The last accounts from Havana, state that a Dutch ship had landed four hundred and eighty Chinese Coolies from Macao. She lost quite a number by deaths on the voyage. Asiatics went off briskly at an average rate of $400 per head.

LOLA MONTEZ.—Lola Montes lectured in Manchester, England, on the 9th inst., on America and Americans. She characterized the spittoon as one of the institutions of America; although she was glad to say that it was gradually disappearing from the drawing rooms of New York, Philadelphia and Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials now given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 3 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
B. H. EDDY.

DEBATE IN THE SENATE.

Nearly the whole of Wednesday, with the evening and part of the night, was devoted in the U. S. Senate to a debate on Kansas, a subject which we have been told again and again was a by-gone issue—all settled, no more to disturb anybody. But now, when this Congress is on its last legs, and almost at its last gasp, the Senate uses up a whole day in earnest, ardent discussion of the English Lecompton business.—The discussion was mainly between the various discordant elements of the Democratic party, with a little help from the Republican Senators.

We give a few extracts from the debate, all for which we have room :—

The Executive, etc., Appropriation bill was taken up. The question recurred on Mr. Hale's amendment repealing the restrictive clause in the Kansas act.

Mr. Stuart of Mich. said he would vote against taking a census of Kansas.

Mr. Seward of New York said Congress had decided that Kansas might come in under the Lecompton Constitution without reference to population, but not otherwise unless she had 92,000 inhabitants.—Here was a discrimination against freedom and in favor of slavery. Oregon, because she was a Democratic State, was admitted without reference to population, and Kansas, because of different politics, was excluded. He was glad of this occasion to renew his vote. He was glad also that so many gentlemen on the other side will give Kansas a fair hearing. It indicates that the time is coming when any State applying for admission will be heard on its merits apart from all other considerations; that if Texas should divide, or if free States should be formed in Mexico, they should come in as free States.

Mr. Brown of Mississippi made a strong Southern speech. He held to the doctrine of State rights, denied the squatter sovereignty of Territories, and threatened secession with banners flying, if the South was deprived of her rights. His address was directed to the Northern Democrats. He placed his views frankly on record, and desired neither to cheat nor be cheated.

Mr. Douglas of Ill. felt it incumbent on him as a Northern Democrat to make a reply. He admired the frankness, candor and directness with which Mr. Brown had approached the question. He (Douglas) too would put his opinions on record in such a manner as will acquit him also of a desire to cheat or be cheated. He agreed, at the outset, with Mr. Brown, and with the decision of the Supreme Court, that slaves were property, and that their owners have a right to carry them into the Territories as any other property. Having the right of transit into the Territories, the question arises, how far does the power of the Territorial Legislature extend to slave property; and the reply is, to the same extent and no further than to any other description of property. Mr. Brown has said that slave property needs more protection than any other property. If so, it is the misfortune of the owners of that kind of that property.

Referring to the great battle fought and gained in 1854-6, he would like to know how many votes Mr. Buchanan would have got in Pennsylvania or Ohio if he had then understood the doctrine of popular sovereignty as he claims to now?

Mr. Bigler of Penn. asked how many votes Mr. Buchanan would have received in 1856, had the Senator from Illinois and those who acted with him told the people the Kansas act was not intended to extend to the Territories the sacred right of self-government, but simply to give the people the right to petition for redress of grievances—a right not denied to any citizen.

Mr. Douglas said he would frankly tell gentlemen of the South that no Democratic candidate can carry one state North but on the principles of the Cincinnati platform as construed by Mr. Buchanan when he accepted his nomination, and which he (Douglas) stood here to defend.

Mr. Davis (of Mississippi) replied to Mr. Douglas elaborately, denying that he (Douglas) rightly interpreted the obligations of the Democratic party.

Mr. Green (of Missouri,) was sorry that this subject of contention had been brought forward. It was to try and bring discord into the Democratic party—the only party to override the Republican party. He hoped and believed there was no difference between the North and South. A government is formed to protect persons and property, and when it ceases to do either, it ceases to perform its one great function. Mr. Hale's amendment brought up the question—What is property? He (Green) maintained that under the Constitution and by the decision of the Supreme Court, slaves are property; and here he argued the subject in many aspects, concluding by calling on the Democratic party to stand united, and not permit a combination to make use of a mere figment to disorganize them.

In the course of his remarks he quoted from Mr. Douglas's Springfield speech to show that he had therein proposed Congressional intervention in Utah. He could not see the consistency of the Senator's course then and now.

Mr. Douglas denied that he had proposed Congressional intervention to regulate the internal affairs of Utah. The intervention he proposed was alone on the ground of rebellion—not on account of their domestic affairs, but as aliens and rebels.

Mr. Green in speaking of how Territorial legislation could destroy the rights of slave property, said he had before him a copy of the bill passed by the Kansas Legislature to abolish slavery.

Mr. Douglas remarked that several speeches had been made very pointedly at him, making him out no better than an abolitionist, for leaving the Territories to carry out their own affairs. It does well to attack one man for his opinion, but when was the most aggravated act ever committed there. He did not say it was committed in manumitting your slaves and confiscating your property. The gentleman who spoke thus, says: 'It is not yet true.' There is no better time than the present to introduce a bill to repeal that act of the Kansas Legislature. Senators say he, Douglas, may go out. No. He stands on the platform, and it is for those who jump off to go out. [Laughter.]

Mr. Fessenden (of Maine) said the Senators on the other side of the House had consumed seven mortal hours in their own family quarrels. The Senate had better adjourn and he so moved. Rejected—15 against 27.

Mr. Hale, of New Hampshire, had listened to the tale of the slaughter of innocents in the States, from the members on the other side, with pleasure. He reviewed the decision in the Dred Scott Case and said that the only thing in it was, could Dred Scott maintain an action in Court. In the rest of the decision the Court went out of its way for a political purpose.—He denounced it as contrary to the enlightened judicial opinion of the country. He charged this debate upon the harmonious democracy. The Republicans had said scarcely anything in it. He denied that the Constitution recognized property in Slaves, and argued the question at great length.

After a long debate Mr. Hale's amendment was put and lost—19 to 27. The bill was then passed by a vote of 27 to 19, and the Senate adjourned at midnight,

☞ In the U. S. House of Representatives, on Wednesday, Feb. 23, Mr. Hughes made another unsuccessful attempt to bring up the bill revising the Tariff act of 1846.

The House went into Committee on the Post Office Appropriation bill. Mr. Montgomery offered an amendment, repealing the present tariff and reviving the act of 1857. The Chair ruled the amendment out of order, and was sustained by the House. After much debate, the Committee rose, and reported the bill to the House without definite action thereon. Adj.

☞ The Bey of Tunis has been merciful to shipwrecked mariners. In the recent dreadful tempest on the coast of Tunis, the Bey, seeing a French vessel, the Solide, wrecked within view of his palace, went off himself in a boat and rescued the crew. He stripped off some of his own garments to give to one of them, made his suite do the same, provided for all their other wants, and in addition presented each man with one hundred piasters, and the captain with two hundred. Moreover, during the two days that the tempest lasted, the Bey was continually on horseback, visiting different parts of the coast, to see that proper relief was afforded to the numerous shipwrecked sailors of different nations.

☞ Kossuth is said to be in straitened circumstances, living on the proceeds of his lectures and contributions to newspapers, eked out by the remnant of his wife's $20,000, most of which was lost in railroad investments in the United States. The $100,000 collected by him in this country has all been expended on political objects, not a cent being appropriated by Kossuth for his own use. The great Magyar is said to look twenty years older than he did when in this country, seven years ago.

☞ The Boston Traveller says it will be a curious result of opposition liberality, if the three electoral votes of Oregon were to decide the Presidential contest of 1860 favorably to the democrats. This is something within the limits of possibility. The slave States, Pennsylvania and Oregon have 150 electoral votes, which is now just the number necessary for the choice of a President. The slave States, Indiana, Illinois, California and Oregon, have 152 votes, or two more than the necessary number. The slave States, less Maryland, with New Jersey, California, Indiana, Illinois and Oregon, have 151 votes.

☞ New York has 7779 dram shops, of which 5185 are open on Sundays. There is one drinking-place to every fifteen families. Only seventy-two have licenses. The large establishments have on Sunday afternoon and evening the attraction of bands of music, and small theatres, where the lowest comedies are acted, and where vile women exhibit themselves on the stage and among the audience. The officers also report 496 houses of ill-fame, 84 houses of assignation, and 185 low groggeries where lewd persons resort—total 764.

"What's the use," asked an idle fellow, "of a man's working himself to death to get a living?"

Reports of the progress of Temperance and Intemperance, in several important towns, were made by committees and others; and the general interests of temperance discussed.

A series of resolutions being introduced, they were discussed, amended, and passed as follows:—

Resolved, 1,—That we look back upon the temperance efforts of past years, with devout thankfulness for the measure of their success,—and that we may look forward with good hope for the future.

2,—That we approve the Prohibitory Liquor Law, now on our statute books, and hope to see it sustained and thoroughly enforced.

3,—That the further progress of the Temperance cause imperatively demands the earnest and persevering presentation of the Moral Argument and the circulation of the Pledge, especially among the young.

4,—That we request the ministers of the County to preach frequently on the subject of Temperance, and that we request all the Religious Bodies in the County, in their annual reports, conventions, &c., to note the progress of temperance, or intemperance, in the several towns,—and to keep the subject before the people and the churches, as an important branch of christian morals.

Voted, to hold the next annual meeting at North Hampton.

A lecture on temperance in the evening, was well attended, and heard with interest and we hope with profit. Meeting dissolved. T. H. MILLER, Sec.

☞ It is supposed the defalcation of Oscar L. Field, paying-teller of the Atlantic Bank, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will reach $60,000. It is said a few days before he left the bank, the vaults were swept of the gold. It is rumored that Field has recently lost heavily at play, and that certain brokers in New York have been aiding him in his peculations on the bank. Field has been employed in the bank for six years. He has absconded, leaving a young family behind him.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NERVOUS IRRITABILITY.—How often do we see persons so easily irritated by the commonest trials and events of life, as to be perfect "sensitive plants" as regard external circumstances. A NEW BODY.- On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his disease-eaten body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st., RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day; his body was washed with warm water and R. R. Relief; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bathing-tub of water. Two of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 26th, four days later, he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia, and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is the rapidity with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

LOCAL.

☞ It will be gratifying to every citizen who is interested in the business success and prosperity of Portsmouth, to learn that there is a prospect of the immediate establishment of an Iron-Rolling Mill and Manufactory here. A meeting of capitalists and others interested, will be called in a few days, to meet and confer with some gentlemen from New York, who have the matter in hand. It is about time the rare and unexcelled advantages and facilities our good city offers for the establishment of mechanical business of all sorts, on the largest scale, were improved by somebody.

☞ Two female pedlers of dry goods, one a young woman and the other an old one, have called at some houses in this city this week, offering goods for sale which they carried in baskets. It is highly probable the goods were stolen, perhaps not by these women, but by those who fitted them out. Housekeepers would do well to fasten their doors, as these new traders walk in without knocking.

☞ Mr. Brown and Miss Marsh gave an excellent Concert at the Temple, last evening. They are both performers of rare ability; and he is one of the best concert givers travelling. Don't fail to go tonight and hear them. Only those who did'nt go last evening, will need this advice.

☞ We are pleased to learn that our old friend, David P. Towle of Hampton, is engaged in drilling a large and excellent choir, at Exeter, to perform Mr. Root's celebrated cantata of "Esther," and will probably bring it out in good style at Exeter, sometime in March. Why can't we have it, down this way?

☞ It will be seen that tickets to the charitable Concert, Sunday Evening, may be had at Thacher's and Preston's—so those who wish to procure a quantity, to aid the cause, will know where to find them.

☞ "Echo of Scotland" 6 Scottish Airs, arranged for Violin and Piano, by F. Suck—just published by Russell & Tolman, Boston, and for sale at C. C. Harvey's, where all the new music may be had.

☞ See advertisement of Wood, for sale by Davis & Co, They have a large stock, of good quality—and excellent facilities for doing the business.

Death of a Great Man.—Asher A. Skillings, a man of immense weight, died in New York, on Saturday, of disease of the liver. Mr. Skillings has been very corpulent for the last seven years, but latterly his obesity increased to such an extent that it was with difficulty he could walk. Two years ago he weighed 460 pounds. Since that he continued to increase in size, until at length his weight reached the almost incredible figure of 678 pounds. This was his weight when he died. Deceased was a native of Portland, Me., thirty-nine years of age, and had kept a fish and oyster market in New York for the last fourteen years. The physicians who made the post mortem weighed some of the internal organs—the liver weighed 16 1-2 pounds, and the heart 2 pounds 7 ounces. The fat on his abdomen was 16 inches in depth, and on the chest 7 inches.

☞ It appears to us that the Monthlies for March are, each and all, much better than common. The Atlantic was never so good before. Leslie's (New York) Magazine and Gazette of Fashion is even more attractive than usual. Arthur's (Philadelphia) Home Magazine is indeed a treat for an evening or two by the fireside. The (New York) Great Republic is altogether the best number yet, and is better printed too. Peterson's (Philadelphia) Ladies' Magazine is also a capital number. They may be addressed as above, by mail, or single numbers can be had at the periodical depots.

Vessel Burnt.—New Orleans, Feb. 23. The ship Mary & Adelaide, of Thomaston, Me., loading for Cork, took fire on the 22d, and was scuttled. She had a cargo of 2000 bales of cotton on board. The ship was still burning at noon to-day. Her cargo will be mostly lost. The cotton is principally insured in France, and the vessel is partially insured at Thomaston. Two firemen and a negro were drowned. It has been found impossible to sink the ship, which is burning between decks.

☞ Capt. Cotton Bennett died very suddenly at the office of the Beverly Insurance Company, on Tuesday afternoon. He was a native of Newmarket, N. H. He had been a representative of the town for several years, and was always a friend of temperance and reform, and a good citizen.

The Pirate Gibbs.—This man was born in Rhode Island, of highly respectable parents. At school he learned easily, but was "sulky and refractory," and was expelled. He was then put on a farm to labor. He did not like to work, and at the age of fifteen he went to sea privately, in opposition to the friendly counsel of his parents. After his first voyage, he was "set up" in business by his friends. He opened a Grocery in Ann street, Boston.—His principal trade was in intoxicating liquors. He had a "License to retail Spirits." He soon failed in business, and with $100 in his possession, went to sea again. Soon after his arrival at the port to which he sailed, he spent all his money. He then enlisted on board a Privateer, and having a quarrel with the commander, engaged in a mutiny. The mutineers took possession of the vessel, landed the crew, and sailed for the West Indies to engage in piracy. In a short time, more than twenty vessels were captured, and nearly four hundred persons murdered.

In the midst of his career of wickedness, he was heard to say: "How often when the fumes of liquor have subsided, have I thought of my good and affectionate parents, and their God-like advice!—But when the little monitor began to move within me, I immediatly seized the cup to hide myself from myself, and drank till the sense of intoxication was removed. My friends advised me to behave myself like a man, and promised me their assistance, but the demon still haunted me, and I spurned their advice."

He revisited Boston in 1826, and sailed for Buenos Ayres in the brig Hitty, of Portsmouth, and after a career of dreadful wickedness, he was arrested, tried, and sentenced to be hung. In a letter written by him in prison, he says: "It is impossible to discribe unto you the horror of my feelings. My breast is like the tempestuous ocean, raging in its own shame, harrowing up the bottom of my soul." He was executed April 22nd, 1831, in the City of New York. What a warning to boys who are disobedient to their parents!

☞ Letters from Hayti say that horrible discoveries are made of the barbarities practiced by the late Emperor. It is said that in one prison fifteen hundred skeletons were found by Geffrard. A terrible tough story.

Henry Bowen, Librarian of Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association Rooms, School street, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters are a very valuable medicine—the best he ever used.—All medicine dealers sell them.
Mathes & Varrell sell Dr. Clarke's Bitters.

Testimony.—Des. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

The Wheeler & Wilson
Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.
This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The Wheeler & Wilson Mf'g Co.
Invites the attention of Housekeepers, Seamstresses, Dressmakers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Ladies' Gaiters, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols and Silk Goods, to the perfect adaptation and unrivalled excellence of these Sewing Machines for their uses. Their extensive and increasing sale, and the unanimous commendation that they have received, warrant the Company in warmly recommending them. They have been in use sufficiently long to test them thoroughly, and have given entire satisfaction.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses.—Substituting as they do, healthful exercise and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand-sewing, they are hailed as Woman's Friend.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

The change made in the tension during the past year, so that the upper thread is used from the original spool, and the addition of the hemmer, by which, hems of any width are turned and stitched without any previous basting, evince the care of the Company in incorporating with the machines every device that can tend to perfecting them. They now combine every improvement that has been invented for sewing, and the Company feels confident that, in their present form, they are by far the best ever offered to the public; and refers, for confirmation of this opinion, to the thousands of families and manufacturers who use them.

Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler & Wilson machine has won the highest premium.

We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi Missouri & California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco.

At the Fair of the St Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee was composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson machine, the highest and only premium, a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.

"We prefer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for family use."—[N. Y. Tribune.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines are the favorites for families."—[N. Y. Times.

"The Wheeler & Wilson Machine has secured and justly maintains the pre-eminence for sewing every kind of material."—[N. Y. Express.

"There is not an invention of this inventive age that honors American genius more than the Sewing Machine. No family ought to be without its benefits."—[Independent.

"A Sewing Machine is among the most useful and economical articles a housekeeper can purchase. In looking out for the best, see the machines of Wheeler & Wilson."—[Examiner.

"Wheeler & Wilson is the machine par excellence for family use, and we recommend it most emphatically."—[Advocate and Journal.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines combine everything that can be required in the manufacture of garments. Our friends abroad may be assured that to purchase one of them is a safe investment."—[Observer.

"Wheeler & Wilson is beyond all question the machine for family use."—[Life Illustrated.

"There is but one Sewing Machine, and that is Wheeler & Wilson's."—[Judge Meigs, of the American Institute.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which
A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of
FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,
and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

Our Register of Deeds.

We received from Exeter last week a communication in which it was averred that Smith, the democratic candidate for Register of Deeds, defeated last year by the voters of the county, had been going about from town to town representing that the present Register neglected his duties and entrusted their performance to a mere boy employed in the office. We went to Exeter on Thursday last, and on calling at the office, found both the Register and the boy. We looked over the records of the present and past political years, and satisfied ourself that the people of Rockingham county were never better served by any occupant of the office. We satisfied ourself, and we are confident that any one who will make a like examination will be satisfied that the duties of that office were never better performed than since BENJAMIN D. LAIGHTON entered it. Every one who knows anything about the business of that office is fully aware that at times it is impossible for one man to record promptly all the papers sent him. The present Register might, perhaps, by neglecting for several weeks to make the records, as other have done, do all the work himself; but being too conscientious in the discharge of his duty thus to neglect the business of the office, he has secured, at liberal wages and at his own expense, not a mere boy, but a young man every way qualified for the position—an excellent penman, and an exceedingly polite and attentive clerk. In looking over the records we found a large proportion in the well known beautiful chirography of our friend Laighton, notwithstanding a large portion of his time is occupied in replying to letters requiring information in relation to the records. We are confident that no man who has in person or by letter communicated with the Register's office can say a word against the present Register, while we have seen commendations of that officer from political opponents. If every voter in the county could pay a visit to the Register's office, and see, as we have seen, every document recorded, the indexes fully made up, and the Register and his clerk ready to give immediate attention to all orders received, we are satisfied that a large majority of the voters would come to our conclusion—that BENJAMIN D. LAIGHTON is "the right man in the right place," and give him such a vote for reelection that our friends would next year except him from the rotating principle. —Ballot.

FALL RIVER ITEMS—Fire and Murder.—We learn from the Beacon that on Tuesday night the house of Mr. James Bodge, Captain of the Night Watch, near the end of the north pond, was set on fire by some ruffians. Capt. Bodge was on duty as usual, and his family, consisting of a wife and four small children, the eldest of which is ten, and the youngest a few months old, and his mother, about eighty years of age, were all sound asleep at the time. Mrs. B. was awakened by a movement of one of the children, and smelling smoke, went to the door, when she discovered the whole side of the house in flames. She alarmed the neighbors, and the fire was extinguished before it had made much progress. On examination, it was found that rags had been saturated with some inflammable liquid and used in setting the fire, and that some of the same liquid had been poured upon the building.

A few minutes later, and the building and its contents would probably have been consumed. It is supposed that Captain Bodge, in the discharge of his duties, has offended some depraved villain, who resorted to this diabolical attempt to obtain revenge.

On Monday evening, Edward Reardon, living in Pearl street, while laboring under delirium tremens, and in the act of abusing his wife, kicked his infant child, from the effects of which it died shortly afterwards. The murderer is now under arrest.

Died in Philadelphia, Pa, Jan 30, Mrs. Tacy Gray, 100 yrs, 4 mos. Up to three days previous to her decease, she was in the enjoyment of most remarkable health. Mrs. Gray was with her husband, who was an officer in the navy, on board Commodore Perry's ship at the battle of Lake Erie. Her recollection of Washington was perfect. She leaves numerous descendants.

LEGAL GENTILITY.—"Lawyers," says Sam Slick, "have grown so genteel, they have altered their very name and very nature. Once upon a time they used to be called attorneys, now, forsooth, they are s'licitors; formerly they were styled lawyers, but now nothing but bannisters will do; and nice bannisters they are for a feller to lean upon that's going down stairs to the deuce.

"Why do you have so many corrections in your paper?" said a friend to us the other day. "I don't notice them in other journals," he continued. The fact had not occurred to our mind before, but we could account for it, if a fact, only on this wise: when we tell a wrong story, we invariable correct it as soon as we make the discovery, while others, perhaps would stick to it.—Bath Times.

Voltaire's definition of a physician is; "An unfortunate gentleman, expected every day to perform a miracle; namely, to reconcile health with intemperance."

E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.
Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.
THE inventor of this Roofing labored many a year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!
This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.
We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER
Of The Nineteenth Century.
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.
Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a citizen of Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic; such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Doc. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.
BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.
PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.—
GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and whiskers, the hair has assumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.
The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one can make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,
A. C. RAYMOND.
BALTIMORE, JAN. 23. 1858.
WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.
Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.
The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.
WM. DYER.
Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.
Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.
Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,
KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directions also given.
Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.
DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by some home doctor under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.
Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.
Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.
This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 18 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female complaints. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.
The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under the same spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.
All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.
These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—18 Howard street, Boston.
P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 diy

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE.

KEENE, N. H., Feb. 21.

Messrs. Editors:—Perhaps you would like now and then a "jotting" from this beautiful village. Few country towns have the beauty of situation which is enjoyed by Keene. Nestled in among surrounding hills, which seem, like sentinels, to keep their watch over the lovely valley of the Ashuelot, she reminds one of the beautiful simile of the Psalmist,—"As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people, from henceforth, even for ever." Strangers are delighted with Keene, and often come to reside here, attracted both by the beauty of its scenery and situation.

We have had, this winter, a course of Lyceum Lectures, eight in number. They were well attended, and many good things have been said. The closing lecture of the course was delivered last week by G. W. Curtis, of New York.

A number of Union Lectures to the Young, have been given at the Town Hall, on Sabbath Evenings, during the winter. These have been very well attended, as also have the Temperance meetings, which have been held often, and a good deal of interest seems manifested.

There is a Union Morning Prayer Meeting each Sabbath morning. These are held in rotation in the Methodist, Baptist, and Orthodox churches. The attendance has fallen off during the winter, but they are kept up with a good degree of interest.

Several Festivals have been held at the Town Hall this winter. One by the Ladies of the First Congregational Church, the proceeds of which are to go towards purchasing an organ. The Methodists have also held a festival to assist them in supporting the Gospel. A Concert has also been held by the Keene Brass Band, the receipts to defray the expenses they have incurred in the purchase of new silver instruments. These cost, I think, over twelve hundred dollars. The Keene Band discourse most excellent music, as the citizens of Keene can testify. To-morrow evening, the Firemen's Festival is to be held, which will probably be very fully attended.

Keene, with all her beauty, her good society, and her literary advantages, is troubled with the same plague which infests so many other places. The liquor-shop, and the billiard saloon are in her midst, luring the young and unsuspecting in the path to ruin. One of the Keene liquor sellers (Knight) lies at present in the County Jail, in this place, awaiting his trial.

You have heard, I suppose, of the New Court House recently completed in this town. Joel Bullard, Esq., of Paper Mill Village, Alstead, was the architect. The building is in form a parallelogram, measuring 76 by 55 feet. There are two principal stories, besides a basement, or cellar. The first story is fire-proof, having iron window shutters, and iron doors, with floors of iron beams, and brick arches.—This story contains the Offices of the Clerk of the Courts, 24 by 15, with Record Room attached, 19 by 15 feet; Register of Deeds Office and Record Room, of the same dimensions; Registry of Probate, 22 by 19, and a Witness Room adjoining, 19 by 13. The main Hall, exclusive of stairs, is 75 by 10 feet.

The second story contains in the centre portion the Court Room, 50 by 41 feet, with a Gallery 50 by 6 feet; Council Room and Law Library, each 12 by 12 feet; the Jury Rooms, each 19 by 12 feet; Commissioner's Room 16 by 16, and three other rooms to be used as best may subserve the public interest. For these dimensions I am indebted to the New Hampshire Sentinel.

The Court House is, in its exterior, elegant and imposing, and an ornament to our village, and to Cheshire County. It has a fine-toned bell. The cost is less than $28,000, which is less than the estimated cost.

We had some rain yesterday, and the snow became very soft, but during the night the weather changed, and now the streets are very icy, and the weather quite cold. QUI.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that one is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability in his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

Farm for Sale.
THE SUBSCRIBER, being about to change his business, offers for sale, until the twelfth of March, one of the most desirable farms in the County of Rockingham, situated in Stratham, two miles from Exeter, and on the main road from Exeter to Portsmouth, formerly part of the well known Ladd farm, consisting of 83 acres, 40 of which is in tillage, including one of the best orchards in the State, the remainder being an excellent pasture, twelve acres of which is covered with a fine growth of white and yellow oak.
The buildings consist of a small house in thorough repair. There is also on the premises a frame for a barn 60 x 40, with 12 feet posts, and stone split for the underpinning and cellar.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1859.

☞ The U. S. Senate, on Thursday, Feb. 24, came very near passing a bill to raise letter postage from 3 to 5 cents, and for various other purposes—but on trying to pass it, lacked a quorum.

In the House, the Post Office bill was rejected, 119 to 86.

The Navy Yard abuse committee made two reports, both exposing abuses enough at Brooklyn, and one of them censuring the Secretary of the Navy.

Mr. Sherman also reported a bill to regulate navy yards and docks, and for other purposes.

The whole subject was postponed till Monday, and the House went into Committe of the Whole on the Naval Appropriation bill, and debated almost everything.

☞ The Black Republicans of Hayti, on Sunday, Jan. 28, inaugurated their new President, Fabre Geffrard, with great pomp and military show, with a grand beating of drums, and flourish of trumpets; and the cries Vive Geffrard, Vive the Liberator of the Country, Vive the President of Hayti, were heard resounding through the air, whilst the cannon joined to the national joy its solemn detonation.

The President, in the Senate House, pronounced, with a firm accent, beard by all, the oath to respect the national independence and the rights of his countrymen. The cries of "Vive La President of Hayti," 'Vive Liberty,' made by the President of the Senate, joyously repeated by the people and prolonged by a salvo of seventeen cannon, announced the inauguration of the liberal and constitutional regime of Democracy. After this, the golden crown of the empire was laid on the table, and the President knocked it in pieces by three blows of a little iron hammer, and delivered a republican speech over it.

Two days after the President lost his son, Charles Fabre Geffrard, Aid-de-Camp of the President, aged 26 years, of malignant fever, taken while with the Republicans at St. Mare.

News had been received in Hayti that the ex-Emperor Soulouque had fallen sick at Jamaica, and as he was in the neighborhood of eighty years of age, his death was not improbable. The new President was about to make a tour of the Island, in order to fully re-establish the republic at all points.

☞ Professor Velpeau, Chief Surgeon of the Charity Hospital in Paris, is going to put one of its wards in charge of a mulatto named Wries, well known as the "Black Doctor," who has cured several persons of note of cancerous abscesses which had been pronounced to be utterly desperate cases. His remedies are purely vegetable, brought from the Dutch East Indies. The most striking of his cures is that of Adolphe Sax, the celebrated brass instrument maker, whose face was nearly consumed by a cancer. The "Black Doctor" has now under treatment the wife of a stock broker, famous for her beauty, and given up as incurable in her thirty-fourth year by her former physicians, Ricord and Nelerton. Wries will cure her. This mulatto Esculapius receives fees of fabulous amount, but not too dear for the value of his services.

☞ Respecting the mean, sneaking, spy plan adopted by the merchants of the large cities, to discover the soundness of their distant debtors—and which can rarely benefit the creditors, while it must often trouble or ruin worthy traders—a writer in the Boston Bee, well says: the Mercantile Agency system has "little more dignity than Fouche's French Police, and hardly as much apology for its existence." Fact—down with it! We are glad to see that most papers of influence speak against it.

☞ Before moustaches became a popular institution, a prominent church member subscribed $25 towards the salary of a distinguished Hartford organist who sported a huge specimen, pledging himself to double the amount if the man of music would divest himself of his hirsute appendage. The Press says the gentleman soon after received a neat package containing the identical "hair" referred to, and thereupon promptly "came down" with the additional $25.

☞ Our dates from Victoria, V. I., are to 10th January. There was no particular news from the mining region. A number of lives had been lost on Fraser river. The number of miners still on Fraser river, is estimated at 2000.

SHORT-SIGHTED REVENGE.—Some time ago a man was arrested in New York for an assault on an officer, and was sentenced to an imprisonment for thirty days, about one-sixth of the time he would have been committed for, had he not been a politician of some influence, being the keeper of a Fourth Ward drinking house. One of his first acts, on regaining his liberty, was to punish the officer whose evidence had convicted him; to this end he sent his wife screaming into the street, just as his intended victim was passing the house, and bade her implore the aid of the officer against the husband, whom she was to accuse of beating her. The stratagem succeeded, and the officer had no sooner set foot within the trap, than he was assaulted by the publican and his son. They beat him with his own club, broke a glass decanter upon his head, and attempted to stab him. The officer, however, overpowered the father, took him to the station, then returned for the son; both are now committed on a charge of assault with intent to kill. So much for revenge.

The emperor of France made his speech on the 7th, at the opening of the legislature. On the surface, it is 'peace, peace,' —but no one can rely on the truth of his professions.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says—If any slight change has supervened upon reflection, it is perhaps more in favor of a pacific than a warlike interpretation—the same uncertainty prevailed, but without any increased alarm.

The number of ships of war in commission in French ports was 200.

The correspondent of the London Press looks warlike. There is a great diversity of opinion, and it is believed that hostilities will commence before the end of the year.

The Herald's letter says affairs stand just as they did before the Emperor's speech. Great difficulty exists, and if diplomacy fails war must ensue.

The Daily News says the latest rumors are altogether warlike. Six floating batteries are to be constructed in French ports, to be navigable like ships.

The Paris Bourse on the 9th instant opened buoyantly, advanced 1-4 per cent., but a re-action took place, and the advance was nearly all lost; on the 10th, the market opened firm, but closed dull and lower; 11th—The market was dull and depressed. The appearance of a pamphlet by Girardin, entitled O. Laguerre, caused some uneasiness.

☞ S. M. Pettingill & Co., the well known liberal, prompt and efficient Newspaper Advertising Agents in Boston and New York, have sent Hon. Edward Everett a check for $500—their contribution to the Mount Vernon Fund. In the accompanying note, they say that Bonner, of the New York Ledger, has invested one hundred thousand dollars (ye, $100,000) within one year, through their agency, in advertising that paper. And it has proved a paying speculation, too—and Mr. Bonner is going to extend operations still further and wider.

Mr. James Jones left Boston on the 26th ult., in steamship Niagara, for Liverpool. He goes out for Mr. Bonner, for the purpose of European-izing the Ledger, if possible. Jones is well supplied with the "munitions of war," and may inaugurate in London the Bonnerian system of advertising, so popular in this country.—It is stated that he has in his possession a copy of the Ledger, printed on the finest white silk in the market. This single and beautiful specimen of an American weekly paper, is to be presented to Queen Victoria as a "token," of "high consideration," etc. Success to Bonner and the New York Ledger.

☞ On Friday night last, at New Castle, Del., twenty-one prisoners, confined in jail for various purposes, effected their escape. Among them were two who were imprisoned for murder, one who was under sentence of death, and another who was to be tried for a capital offence. The Sheriff summoned a large posse to his assistance, and six of the fugitives were captured, among them the one under sentence of death, and the one awaiting his trial.

☞ The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser states that a novel scene was witnessed in Hamilton Avenue, Brooklyn, on Monday evening, being a grand wedding party; the groom a negro and the bride a young Irish girl. The wedding party consisted of seven negroes with their wives. The groom is a waiter on the steamer Empire City.

THE MARRIAGE OF PRINCE NAPOLEON.—The marriage of Prince Napoleon with the Princess Clotilde took place at Turin on the 29th ult. The benediction was pronounced by an archbishop and four bishops. The married couple departed at once for Genoa, where they were enthusiastically received; a large bouquet was presented to the Princess Clotilde by the young ladies of that city. At Marseilles great enthusiasm was manifested, and the Princess replied to an address of the municipality, calling the members her "new fellow citizens." From Paris, Feb. 3, we learn that the entry of the marriage party into the capital was received with great indifference on the part of the people.

Weekly Chronicle Correspondence.
LEBANON, February, 21.

Dear Chronicle:—Enclosed please find one dollar, which should have been sent long before this time, in payment for your paper the present year. If the amount is not satisfactory at this late hour, name the amount that will quiet your feelings, and it shall be forthcoming. Only you keep my neglect from my dear wife, and all will go well. Yours, W. K. R.

No, we shall not demand anything more, this time—seeing you are so penitent and willing to make amends. But we publish your note, to let some others in like condition have the benefit of your example—especially as we believe that a discreet wife, (which it seems you must have—since she wants the Chronicle, and to have it paid for in advance) should have no secrets kept from her by her husband.—[Ed. Chron.

INSTALLATION AT BRENTWOOD.—Rev. Hugh McLeod was installed on the 17th inst., as pastor of the Congregational church at Brentwood. The exercises were as follows: Invocation and reading of the scripture, by Rev. M. Patton of Raymond; Introductory Prayer by Rev. A. Mann of Exeter; Sermon by Rev. L. S. Parker of Haverhill, Mass.; Installing prayer by Rev. W. Fifield of South Newmarket; Charge to the pastor by Rev. J. H. Mellish of Kingston; Right hand of fellowship by Rev. O. T. Lamphear of Exeter; Address to the people by Rev. J. H. Stearns of Epping; Benediction by the pastor.

☞ Capt. John H. Glover of Salem, now in the 80th year of his age, went to the Mill Pond on Tuesday last, and skated with an ease that surprised himself and astonished the spectators, although he had not been on skates for sixty years. The Gazette irreverently remarks, in recording this incident, that "children should be cautious of trusting themselves upon the ice, this mild weather." We hardly think the "old boy" will thank them for the advice.

☞ Richard Randolph, a cousin of John Randolph of Roanoke, died on the 31st of January, in Miami Township, Ohio. The deceased, who was as eccentric as his more celebrated cousin, was an old bachelor, and had resided on the Randolph tract, Ohio, for twenty-five years. He leaves a property, mostly in land, valued at $80,000, to be expended in the purchase and freedom of the slaves now and formerly owned in the Randolph family.

☞ On Saturday evening, in Chicago, as the lamplighter was performing his duties, a terrific explosion took place, by which a large portion of the sidewalk was blown high into the air. It seems that the gas pipe had leaked under the flagging, and had filled a large cavity with gas, which was ignited by the flame in the lamp. Three persons were severely injured by the falling stones of the pavement.

☞ Charles Farley, an old English actor, has just died, in the eighty-eighth year of his age. The Illustrated London News says—"In his way, Farley was an excellent actor. He was almost born on the boards. And what a link was he with the past. Garrick retired in June, 1776, when Farley was in his sixth year. Farley had more than seen Garrick; he had a child's part in a play in which Garrick acted."

☞ A police officer in New York, last Monday night, saw a man with a drove of nineteen hogs, which he was conveying through the street. Being struck by the circumstance, the officer spoke to the drover, who immediately fled, leaving the swine with the guardian of the night. The hogs were taken to the station house and kept till morning.

A severe attack appears in the Savannah Republican on a renegade Northern Professor in the Georgia State University, named Lee, formerly of Buffalo. Mr. Lee wants the South to re-open the slave trade, and is writing in the papers about it. The Republican goes at him manfully.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NERVOUS IRRITABILITY.—How often do we see persons so easily irritated by the commonest trials and events of life, as to be perfect "sensitive plants" in regard external circumstances. Let such persons try the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and they will soon find, that with their increased strength, they can buffet the waves of every day life with vigor and pleasure.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitormenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

R. R. R.

A NEW BODY.—On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his disease-eaten body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st, RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day, his body was washed with water and R. R. Relief; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bathing-tub of water. Two of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 25th, four days later, he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia, and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is the rapidity with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

☞ Reader, do you want THE picture of the day? If so, have one of Gregory's Photographs in Oil Colors, which he is selling at about half the Boston and New York prices.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, and in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants throughout the U. S. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

French Periodical Golden Pills,
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are a thing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many those and ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy, for those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

LOCAL.

☞ There are two reasons why there should be a large audience at the Temple, Sunday Evening—either of which ought to fill the house. First, the Concert, in itself, is eminently worthy of it—and then the entire net proceeds are to go to aid the poor in their poverty, through the judicious administering of the Howard Benevolent Society. The expenses on the occasion will be very small—the Orchestra, printers, and others concerned, volunteering their services, or making their charges much less than usual; so that it will remain with the people to decide how much of a purse the needy shall receive. It ought to be a hundred dollars, certainly. "Shall auld acquaintance be forgot?" has a double significance this time—many of the would-be recipients on this occasion, being those who "have seen better days."

☞ The Concert by Mr. Brown and Miss Marsh, Friday evening, was even better than the first. The lovers of the comic were delighted with Brown's delineations—and the programme was varied enough to suit everybody. Miss Marsh has a delicious voice, and admirable manner of rendering her music—and some of their duets were among the most sweet and grateful harmony we ever enjoyed.

☞ Mr. S. P. Long's Lectures on Art and Beauty, with kindred topics, are to be resumed on Wednesday evening next, at the Hanover street Chapel. Additional and valuable illustrations will be given—and the course, with the improved conditions of a pleasant and convenient lecture-room, will be every way attractive to people of intelligence and good taste.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Mr. Sickles has in readiness to offer a compromise tariff bill, virtually restoring the tariff of '46, with the free list of '57, and specific duties on iron.

The difficulty between Gen. Bowie, member from Maryland, and Mr. Linton of Arizona, originating in a bar-room fight, has been amicably settled.

In the House to-day, Mr. Hughes moved to have the rules suspended to enable him to introduce a bill repealing the tariff of 1857 and revising that of 1846. Mr. Vallandingham gave notice of a substitute to suspend the tariff of 1857 and revive that of 1846 for two years, but Mr. Hughes' motion to suspend was negatived—94 to 85.

☞ Col. Forney is of opinion that 'the territorial question must necessarily enter largely into all the Presidential elections that will take place for fifty years to come.'

PERSONAL.—MRS. P—— of New York, the wife of a linseed oil manufacturer, wore to the Napier ball, diamonds valued at $100,000, and lace worth $11,000.—Her heavy tiara and necklace were wholly composed of diamonds, and her breastplate was of diamond leaves. She stood "knee-deep" in old chench lace, an Italian fabric of exceeding delicacy, the secret of the manufacture of which has long been lost. It fell over blue silk from her knees to her feet, and also in graceful folds over her bosom. The lady sat during the whole of the evening by a window opening from a side room into the dancing halls, in a position where the light could fall favorably upon her opulence. But she did not dare to enter the crowd, for fear that the lace might be injured, or the diamonds ravished from her person.

The marriage of Miss Bright, the daughter of the "squatter" Senator from Indiana, with Mr. George Riggs of New York, the Washington broker's brother, is to be celebrated this week.

Miss Corcoran will wed Mr. George Eustis, Jr., son of the late Chief Justice of Louisiana, soon after the close of the session.—Traveller.

☞ A Washington correspondent says that the President will devote the thirty millions of dollars, if he gets them, to buying up Spanish bonds in Europe, at their present depreciated value, and then insisting upon payment in full by the Spanish government, or the surrender of Cuba as an equivalent.

MARRIED.

In Dover, Mr. Thomas Day, of Sanford, Me., to Miss Lydia A. Littlefield, of Saco, Me.
In Great Falls, Mr. James R. Keay of Rochester, to Miss Mary J. Lowe.

DIED.

In Kittery, Feb. 23, Mrs. Hannah Brown, aged 46 years, wife of John Brown, Esq. She was a woman of remarkable calmness, decision, and evenness of temper, looking well to the ways of her household, who suffer a great loss by her removal,—though "to die was gain" for her.
☞ Funeral on Sunday at 2 o'clock, from her late residence.
In Dover, Stephen P. Blake, Esq., formerly of Barrington, aged 50.
In Durham, Mrs. Susan P. Mathes, aged 77.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co.

Invites the attention of Housekeepers, Seamstresses, Dressmakers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Ladies' Gaiters, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols and Silk Goods, to the perfect adaptation and unrivalled excellence of these SEWING MACHINES for their uses. Their extensive and increasing sale, and the unanimous commendation that they have received, warrant the Company in warmly recommending them. They have been in use sufficiently long to test them thoroughly, and have given entire satisfaction.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses.—Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand-sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

The change made in the tension during the past year, so that the upper thread is used from the original spool, and the addition of the hemmer, by which hems of any width are turned and stitched without any previous basting, evince the care of the Company in incorporating with the machines every device that can tend to perfecting them. They now combine every improvement that has been invented for sewing, and the Company feels confident that, in their present form, they are by far the best ever offered to the public; and refers, for confirmation of this opinion, to the thousands of families and manufacturers who use them.

Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler & Wilson machine has won the highest premium.

We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi, Missouri & California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco.

At the Fair of the St. Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee were composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson machine, the highest and only premium, a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.

"We prefer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for family use."—[N. Y. Tribune.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines are the favorites for families."—[N. Y. Times.

"The Wheeler & Wilson Machine has secured and justly maintains the pre-eminence for sewing every kind of material."—[N. Y. Express.

"There is not an invention of this inventive age that honors American genius more than the Sewing Machine. No family ought to be without its benefits."—[Independent.

"A Sewing Machine is among the most useful and economical of all household articles. Our choice is the Wheeler & Wilson."—[Examiner.

"Wheeler & Wilson is the machine par excellence for family use, and we recommend it most emphatically."—[Advocate and Journal.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines combine everything that can be required in the manufacture of garments. Our friends in Lynn may be assured that to purchase one of them is a safe investment."—[Observer.

"Wheeler & Wilson is beyond all question THE machine for family use."—[Life Illustrated.

"There is but ONE Sewing Machine, and that is Wheeler & Wilson's."—[Judge Meigs, of the American Institute.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;

PRICE $50.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

From the Portsmouth Journal.

In the BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday evening, the committee on grading and paving streets made report, recommending the sum of $1000 to be appropriated for that purpose. Accepted.

The COMMON COUNCIL concurred in the vote of the Aldermen last week relative to the new school house on Cabot street, referring the subject back to the committee to report plans and estimates; also in the matter of a new engine house for Hook & Ladder Co., etc., and the reference of the Chief Engineer's communication.

GREAT BAY FISHING.—The business of catching Smelts on Great Bay has been carried on as extensively during the winter just closing, as it was last year. The first catching was about the middle of December. The company on the Bay on some days has been a hundred, and an average of perhaps fifty persons has been kept up to the present time. Some tend three or four lines; and while some have caught 80 dozen in a day, others have toiled all day for the first dozen. On some days the catch on the Bay has been known to reach a thousand dozen. The price on the Bay has been four cents per dozen. They have usually been purchased by a few, and a large proportion have been forwarded to Boston market. The movable house on the ice has been a convenience to the fishers. Between two and three thousand dollars' worth of smelts have probably been drawn with the hook from the Bay this winter.

MINNESOTA.—L. Farlin, Esq., an experienced farmer in Arlington, Sibley Co. Minnesota, writes thus under date of Feb. 11: "The winter has been very mild so far, with very little sleighing. The times are dull and produce is very low: corn 40c., oats 35c., wheat $1, potatoes 30 to 35c., fresh pork $3 to $5 per cwt., oxen from $65 to $80 and $90 per yoke. * * * I would let my farm, which is well stocked and mostly under cultivation, on shares, to any good person who is disposed to come west and engage in farming."

GREAT SKATING FEAT.—Tuesday, the 1st inst., H. K. W. Ayers, a printer of "The Press" office skated from this city across Lake Winnebago, and up the Fox River to Berlin, a distance of 72 miles, performing the feat in just five hours and fifteen minutes, or at the rate of 14 miles per hour.—Fond du Lac Press.

REV. S. ILSLEY has resigned the pastoral charge of the church in Essex, Ct., the resignation to take effect in the spring.

From the N. H. Gazette.

Hon. John S. Wells and Hon. Daniel Marcy at Laconia.

AN EPISODE OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Hon. John S. Wells addressed a Democratic meeting at Laconia, Wednesday afternoon, which, as the gathering was larger than could get into the largest hall in Laconia, must per force have been as large as any meeting ever held there. Mr. Wells for two hours held his audience enchained—attentive and silent to catch every word—with his masterly eloquence. His speech was a very able, eloquent and effective one, marked by the admirable characteristics of Mr. Wells' addresses, and it cannot fail to produce a favorable effect.

But the marked incident of the meeting was the response made by Hon. Daniel Marcy to a question propounded to him by Mr. Wells, whom he sat beside on the platform. Mr. Wells had been referring to the infamous calumny of the Dover Enquirer and other black Republican papers, that Captain Marcy's brother, Peter Marcy of New Orleans, had advanced $10,000 to carry the 1st Congressional District, and that Captain Marcy was to put $3,000 to that sum, making $13,000, and that this amount was to be expended to secure the election of a man who would vote for the re-opening of the slave trade, in which profitable trade they wished to employ their ships. Mr. Wells characterized this story as a foul libel, too infamous for men and fit only for devils to conceive of, and said he, a Captain Marcy is present, I appeal to him to say whether he has received $10,000 or any sum from his brother or not, and how he stands upon the question of re-opening the African slave trade, for himself.

In reply, Captain Marcy spoke nearly half an hour in a strain of unstudied eloquence that brought the moisture to many a manly eye. He pronounced these reports and all reports of a like character falsehoods without a shadow of truth to rest upon. In reference to his having received money from his brother, he said he had all with him he had received from Peter since his nomination, being a letter, which he read, the only allusion of which to politics was in substance that he (Peter Marcy) had learned from the papers of his (Daniel Marcy's) nomination for Congress, and he was fearful it might interfere with his hitherto proud boast "that none of our family were ever hung or in Congress." Upon the subject of re-opening the slave trade, he denounced the idea in the strongest terms. He said that the declarations of the Enquirer and other opposition papers, that he was, ever had been, or ever should be in favor of re-opening this infamous and cruel traffic, were wickedly, maliciously and unqualifiedly false, and cruelly calumnious. He said that to any one knowing him and his brother, and the circumstances of his family, the idea was beyond conception absurd. Said he feelingly.—"That I and my brother, poor boys and orphans at an early age—that I a cabin boy, and my brother a farm laborer in youth—that I for years before the mast, and my brother who worked his passage to New Orleans as a common sailor—that we should be charged with a desire to participate in the slave trade, is monstrous; and that I, one of the people, always a worker, still a worker, should be charged with any such intent, is an infamous calumny, too wicked and false to be any where believed." And he closed with the following impressive words:—"I in favor of the slave trade! If I shall be elected to Congress, when I shall say yes to the re-opening of the slave trade, may my tongue be palsied, and should I ever vote for it, may my right arm wither."

A tumult of applause followed his close, and we venture to say that no one who heard him will ever again doubt the honesty or patriotism or honest devotion to the interests of the masses, of Daniel Marcy.—Patriot.

THE NAVAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.—We learn from private letters from Washington, that the charges of corruption &c. brought against persons connected with our Navy Yard, are considered unsustained by the evidence. The Committee will not even report the evidence, so frivolous and ridiculous is its character.—Gazette.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1858.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished, I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now rectify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of CONSUMPTIVES in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and shrinking from publicity, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of advanced Consumption were entirely treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are benefited upon his books at perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious names at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE'S REGULATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtues in removing all female irregularities. Their action is speedy and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

THE ELEPHANT IN DANGER.—Under this title the New York Post refers to the dissensions that are splitting the Democratic party in Virginia:

"In Colman's comic tales, entitled 'Broad Grins,' a story is told of two men employed by the manager of a theatre to personate an elephant. They walked inside of a large pasteboard figure of the quadruped, dividing the legs equally between them, one of them taking the forelegs as his share and the other the posterior pair. The elephant thus constituted performed greatly to the delight of the audience; it moved about on the stage with a majestic tread, and was talked of far and near, until a quarrel arose between the worthies inside, owing to a jealousy which the man who stood in the hind legs conceived of his associate.—Strange, muffled sounds and half-stifled oaths were heard to proceed from the animal's stomach, and the two performers fought till they had torn the pasteboard figure to rags, scattering it about the stage, and stood uncased before the audience.

A combat quite as interesting is at present going on inside the great pasteboard elephant which figures on the stage of the American Union. The fore-legs and hind legs are in a quarrel, and have already come to blows. One of the most remarkable indications of the breaking up of the party which has so long worn the appellation of Democrats in this country, is seen in the manner in which those who at the present day bear that name in Virginia conduct their State elections."

HOW AMERICANS WASTE FOOD.—We know a family of two persons, in which is daily cooked food enough for twice that number. The surplus stands about the pantry, exposed to flies, dust, heat, frost—any casualities—or it is recooked, at half the original cost; half of it to be eaten, and the remainder, with vegetables, mouldy bread and fruit, etc., to be consigned to the pigs. Here is a waste of food which requires a pretty long purse to maintain. Yet, both husband and wife are both complaining of hard times: Well they may; for if anything is sure to bring want, it is waste. When the flour barrel is empty, the molasses keg drained, and the sugar spent, and other things gone, neither husband or wife seem to think that an unnecessary part of the whole has been devoured by pigs, nor that, if Mrs. Eve would have but two or three kinds for each meal, and put on the table only half the usual quantity at once, they, both, would enjoy their meals far better, and have the suplus in good condition to be relished at future meals. Nobody relishes bread that has been handled, broken, rejected. But newly cut and wholesome looking it is always enjoyed by the hungry. A meal consisting of but few kinds, is more enjoyed, as well as more healthful, than if composed of more kinds. Profusion is as unfavorable to enjoyment as it is to health and the purse. Simplicity and economy insure domestic comfort and prosperity; but a thriftless wife brings sure ruin. Don't laugh, Mrs. Eve, saying, "I wonder how neighbor Showoff would like that!"—it means you, you.—Life Illustrated.

ADVANTAGE OF PRINTING.—An old lady entered the printing office of a New York printer with an old Bible in her hand.—"I want," said she, "that you should print it over again. It's gettin' a leetle blurred, sort'o, and my eyes isn't what they was. How much do you ax?"

"Fifty cents."

"Can you have it done in half an hour? I wish you would; want to be gettin' home; live good ways out o' town."

"Yes."

The lady went out, and the agent sent into the office of the Bible Society, and purchased a fifty-cent Bible.

"Lor' sakes a massy!" exclaimed the old lady, when she came to look at it, "how good you've fixed it; it's e'en a'most as good as new! I never see any thin' so curious as that printin' is!"

THE UNITED STATES NAVY.—According to a document recently submitted to the Senate, we not only have fewer guns afloat, in proportion to our commercial tonnage, than we had a quarter of a century ago, but our navy, in ships and guns, is weaker in comparison with that of Great Britain, than it was at the close of the war of 1811. In 1857 our entire navy afloat comprised twenty-nine vessels, carrying six hundred and twenty-eight guns, and these were scattered all over the globe; while at the same time Great Britain had at about our own cost, thirty four vessels, carrying seven hundred and ninety-four guns.—Trav.

An Eastern Editor says that a man got himself in trouble by marrying two wives. A Western Editor replies by assuring his contemporary that a good many men in that section have done the same thing by marrying one. A Northern Editor retorts, —quite a number of his acquaintances found trouble enough by barely promising to marry, without going any further. A Southern Editor says that a friend of his was bothered enough by simply being found in company with another man's wife.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions.—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for attendance so moderate.—
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him, to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

The buildings consist of a small house in thorough repair. There is also on the premises a frame for a barn 60 x 40, with 19 feet posts, and stone split for the underpinning and cellar.
The above property is situated in one of the best farming towns in the State, being under a high state of cultivation, and has upon it two desirable locations for building, and offers great inducements to any one wishing a farm, either for pleasure or income. Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1859.

SHORT DIALOGUE.

VERY PERSONAL.

Gazette.—Uncle Toby of the Chronicle, is either a very intelligent or a very fair politician. In his last Monday's paper he published a lengthy extract from the anti-Cuba speech of that rattle-headed, jolly-drunk, Whig, Know Nothing Senator Thompson, and introduced him as "a democratic Senator from Kentucky." If Uncle Toby's theological notions are as much out of joint as his political knowledge, we warn him to flee from the wrath to come, for we are sure, as the "pennyryal" hymn hath it:

"He can't stand the fire,
He can't stand the fire,
O, he can't stand the fire,
In that great day!"

Uncle Toby.—It seems a pity to spoil a joke which the maker thinks so fine as the above,—but it must be spoilt, nevertheless. The point of the joke, if it has any, is that Uncle Toby, in calling Thompson a Democrat, shows his political knowledge to be out of joint. This error does not betray ignorance of principles, but only of men. Now suppose I call the "rattle-headed, jolly ———" Alexander, a Christian, it does not follow that my theological notions are wrong, but only that I make some mistake in the person.

As the Gazette intimates that Mr. Thompson was not rightly classed, Uncle Toby is much obliged by the correction of the error—and if Mr. Alexander is wrongly classed, we will correct that also, on conviction.

A FALSEHOOD.—The Patriot and its echoes contain this item:

"Never was rum so freely sold, or drunkenness so prevalent."

We do not intend to cease contradicting this falsehood, whether it be wilful or ignorant. It is spoken of the State of New Hampshire—but it is not true. There is now not more than one quarter part of the drinking, selling, and drunkenness, that there was 40 years ago, in proportion to the population. We speak from actual knowledge and reliable data. The above statement to the contrary is made by men who do not know the facts in the case, or do not care whether they tell the truth or a lie, if it will answer their purpose.

LARGE SALE OF WOOL.—400,000 lbs. of wool—300,000 lbs. of medium quality, and 100,000 of finer quality—were sold at auction in Boston, on Thursday. There was a large attendance at the sale, comprising all the prominent wool traders, in Philadelphia, New York, Albany, Troy, Hartford, Providence, and manufacturers from those places. The lot was valued, before the sale, at between $180,000 and $200,000, and formed one of the most desirable lots of wool ever offered in the country.—This was the first of a series of sales inaugurated of late by merchants of Boston, to build up trade.

☞ The absconding teller of the Atlantic Bank, Brooklyn, Oscar A. Field, is reported by some of the papers to have gone to California, by others to Europe via Portland or Boston. It is not known how large an amount of money he has abstracted; but if true that a faro-table induced him to be disonest, there may be truth in the statement that his defalcations amount to $50,000. Mr. Field is 35 years of age, a native of New Jersey, and leaves a wife and two children. The detectives are on his track.

☞ An intemperate woman, known as Sarah Stewart, about thirty years of age, was found dead in a house at New Haven, on Monday morning. She was frightfully bruised and presented a shocking spectacle, but it was in evidence that her injuries were received from falling when intoxicated. Her features bore signs of former beauty, and a few days before her death, when asking assistance from the town agent she said she was from Brooklyn, N. Y.; that she was thirty-five years old, and had three children—two of whom were born in Bridgeport, and one in Guilford, Ct.

☞ Amos Tappan, of Boston, was appointed one of the Vice Presidents of the National Sunday School Teachers Convention, which met in Jayne's Hall, Philadelphia, on Tuesday last. Ex-Gov. Pollock was President. 1200 colored children are taught in the Richmond, Va., Sunday schools.

☞ Mrs. Ira Bliss of Manchester, N. H., died very suddenly on Thursday evening, while on her way home from a religious meeting.

A TRIP TO TEXAS.

AUSTIN CITY, TEXAS, Feb. 14.

Dear Chronicle:—Leaving San Antonio, with its Babel of tongues, and strange mixture of shrewd, money-making Yankee Jews; pipe-smoking, lager-beer-drinking, slow-plodding Dutch; and indolent, dirty, cock-fighting Mexicans; we passed thro' a high and rather gravelly country to the town of New Braunfels.

Here the German industry was strikingly apparent, from the large amount of land under cultivation, from the large number of women at work out of doors, and the large number of men drinking "lager" in-doors. The town is beautifully situated at the junction of Comal Creek and the Guadaloupe river, which furnish excellent water-power, though I am not willing to concede the vast superiority over the Merrimac which is claimed for these streams. Fine buildings are scarce in the place, but quite a nice Court House is in an advanced stage of external completion; built of the soft cream colored stone quarried between San Antonio and New Braunfels, which is dressed with saw or plane, and which hardens on exposure to the atmosphere. The jail I did not see, but judge that it is a poor concern like the other buildings of its class I have seen in the State, from the fact that Robinson who was imprisoned for murder, made his escape therefrom on Wednesday evening last.

At New Braunafels we had the good fortune to meet with Kendall of the New Orleans Picayune, just about to start on a trip up the Mountains, and gladly availed ourselves of the services of so good a guide. For five days we traveled among the most beautiful scenery, and through the finest country for sheep or horse raising which it has been our fortune to observe. Here also was a mine of more value than gold—a mine of health. Elevated far above the level of the ocean, with a mild summer and a mild winter, an atmosphere as pure as can be found anywhere gives life to the consumptive and health to all.

The delights of "camping out" were experienced, though mid-winter; and our friend K. shew that his long experience in this line was not entirely lost, for he can make good coffee, and boils eggs exactly right.

The fourth night out we stopped at the little town of Boerne, 35 miles west of New Braunfels, and 1300 feet above the sea. Here we had as fine a venison supper at a German hotel, as can be had in the world, though perhaps our appetites had something to do with it.

But all things that have had a beginning must have an end. Even so our trip was ended and we pursued the road from New Braunfels, through Stringtown, so called from its location on both sides of the road to Austin, to San Marcos on the Blanco, a straggling collection of buildings of no architectural pretensions. I noticed the peach trees in full blossom by the roadside. Much fruit will eventually be raised in this part of the State, and already much interest is taken in the culture. Wild grapes are abundant, and wine can be made at a profit, to sell for 50 cents a gallon, much like claret in flavor.

From San Marco to Austin, ranches are scattered in considerable numbers, and large cotton fields are to be seen at intervals through the whole route.

Crossing the Colorado we entered Austin, the capital of the State, which is situated on the undulating bank of the river, which slopes on the west to the river.

The State House which is now undergoing extensive "internal improvements" stands on an eminence overlooking the centre of the city, flanked on the right by the Governor's residence, and on the left by the heavy building for the Land Office. In the portico stands a monument to those who fell at the Alamo, made from the ruins of the building they bathed with their life's blood; and in the rear an artesian well is being sunk, which on Saturday, at the depth of 378 feet, struck a vein of salt water.

East of Austin the country changes, and eastern Texas is as different from the western part of the State, as is New Hampshire from Illinois.

The dinner-bell calls, and "I am,"

ION.

BUSINESS ON THE WESTERN RAILROADS. The Western Railroad receipts are coming in badly for the month, and little expectation of any improvement is entertained until the fall of the year. In Northern Illinois they have to receive grain for their own consumption from the Southern part, and have none to send forward. There is some little traffic also in groceries, which arrive by the Mississippi and are carried across the State; but there is sad want of freight in the Western railroads compared with the number of competitors for it by rival lines.

☞ The New Bedford Standard says a box of tin from the propeller Potomska, came ashore on Naushon Island, a distance of ten or twelve miles from the wreck, and also a steam guage, weighing eight or nine pounds. A package of looking-glasses which it took three men to roll up the beach, came up, and not one of them was broken.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says:

"There is a rumor that the President is about to remove certain postmasters in New Hampshire. Jefferson Davis's denunciation of Douglas and Squatter Sovereignty will damage Col. George, his 'right bower' in New Hampshire, in the prospective Frank Pierce movement at Charleston, as the Colonel in running for Congress against Tappan, professes to be a Douglas man."

☞ The Duchess of Louchtenberg, whom the King of Sardinia is to marry, is the eldest daughter of the Czar Nicholas of Russia, and sister of the present Emperor. She is thirty-nine years of age, has been a widow since 1852, and has one child—a son.—King Victor Emanuel, thus allied with the Emperor both of France and Russia, will prove a formidable antagonist to Austria.

☞ Quite a commotion was made in Exeter on the afternoon of Friday last week, by a runaway horse. A horse with a sleigh attached, belonging to Rev. Jonathan Cole, started on the full gallop without any driver from Water and run up Front street. He had a clear coast and a splendid run until he reached the house of J. T. Gilman, Esq., front of which was a funeral procession just forming. Here he overthrew the sleigh attached, and frightened the bystanders, but luckily no hurt was done more than breaking the shafts and dasher of Mr. Cole's sleigh.

Lord Miltoun, a gentleman whom Nature failed to provide with legs, wished to be presented to Louis Napoleon with his wife and daughter. The morning of the day on which the presentation was to take place, the Emperor sent word to Lord Cowley that he could not receive Lord Miltoun, as he had heard he had no legs, and so must sit while the Emperor stood.

THE ATTRACTION OF A GHOST STORY.—A ghost story in aid of the soup kitchen fund, announced to be related on Wednesday last by a gentleman, a visitor in Ryde, attracted such an overwhelming crowd of hearers, (some 1200 people having pressed themselves into a space that will only conveniently hold 600) that no order could be kept. After persevering but vain attempts to procure silence, the gentleman at last gave it up in despair, with a promise to take another opportunity, under regulations, for carrying his object into effect. The concourse was found almost as difficult to disperse as it was to keep quiet, and it was not until a liberal application of the policeman's belt and the proprietor's toe was resorted to, that the boys would surrender their hard won positions. It was the next day arranged to tell the story on Friday night, with a small charge for admission, for the purpose of securing the comfort of those willing to contribute to the charity, instead of leaving it to voluntary donations as on the previous day. —*Hampshire (Eng.) BOGUS NEWS.—The Traveller says:—Neither Judge McLean nor Judge Taney have any intention of resigning their seats on the Bench of the Supreme Court, as has been reported. Mr. Hendricks is not going to resign the Commissionship of the Land Office. Dr. Tate has not been appointed Fifth Auditor, and Senator Jones is not going to be appointed Sixth Auditor. About one-third of what is called "Washington news" is made up of unfounded reports, and another third is taken up in contradicting them.

THE NAVAL INVESTIGATION.— Washington, Feb, 25.—The following is the concluding resolution of the Investigating Committee on Naval Contracts and Abuses, which was inadvertently omitted yesterday, viz:—

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NERVOUS IRRITABILITY.—How often do we see persons so easily irritated by the commonest trials and events of life, as to be perfect "sensitive plants" as regard external circumstances. Let such persons try the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and they will soon find, that with their increased strength, they can buffet the waves of every day life with vigor and pleasure.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY, in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

A NEW BODY.- On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his disease-eaten body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st., RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day, his body was washed with water and R. R. Relief; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bathing-tub of water. The use of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 25th, four days later, he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia, and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is the rapidity with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME. —J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

☞ Reader, do you want THE picture of the day? If so, have one of Gregory's Photograps in Oil Colors, which he is selling at about half the Boston and New York prices.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranted to the ladies of America to be the original Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is medicinally flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the very ''able kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate constitution.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever met."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of weather and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints (thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imnitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

STEAMBOAT FROM PORTSMOUTH TO BOSTON.—We are informed that a staunch and able sea-going Steamer will be in readiness, and be placed on the route between this city and Boston, via Gloucester, on Wednesday, March 2d. The arrangements for establishing this Line (which will be christened the Granite State Line,) have been perfected through the persevering exertions of C. G. The merchants and business men of this city, favorable to the enterprise, are invited to meet in the Athenæum Hall, this day, (Monday) at 11 o'clock, when full particulars will be laid before them.—From information which has been given us, we believe this matter is worthy of the attention of our merchants and capitalists, and trust they will give it a fair investigation.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

In the case of Little and wife v. Gibson, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. Bell for plf.; Wells and Wilcox for deft.

No. 35, Jemima Tripe v. Daniel Marcy and William Pettigrew was tried. This is an action to foreclose a mortgage to recover the possession of a portion of the premises now occupied by the defendants as a ship-yard in Portsmouth. Mortgaged in 1834 by the late Thos. Hanscom to the plf. The admin'x of H. conveyed it to Jno. Mugridge, and M. to Lewis Barnes, whose ex'x conveyed to the defts. in 1857. The defence was that the note due in five years from 1834, to secure which the mortgage was given, had been paid, and the statute of limitation. Verdict for plaintiff. Transferred to the Law Term, on defts.' exceptions. Hacket for plf.; Hatch for defts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(Special dispatch to Boston Journal.—The Administration has been defeated on the Cuban question in the Senate.

When it comes up again in December, there is great probability that Senator Wilson's plan will be adopted, authorizing the President to negotiate treaties with Spain and the Central American powers, revoking all onerous restrictions on commerce between them, and the United States giving reciprocal advantages.

Senator Wade's speech last night was a sponge upon the Cuban annexation.

The Court of Common Pleas, which adjourned at Worcester on Saturday, occupied nearly the whole of its term with liquor trials or cases originating in the free use of liquor, fifty of them resulting in conviction or acknowledgement of guilt. Of these, twenty-three were for keeping and selling liquor, and five were under the nuisance act; and more than two-thirds of the expenses of the court are believed to be chargeable to the use of liquor.

ARREST OF CROWLEY THE MURDERER.—A telegraphic dispatch was received by the Boston Chief of Police, from Charlestown, S. C., stating that John Crowley, who murdered his wife in Cove Place, Boston, in November last, had been arrested and would be detained in custody. A requisition was obtained from the Governor, and an officer will proceed at once to secure the murderer.

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertible fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which are conveyed into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal Discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

PRICES GREATLY REDUCED.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co.

Invites the attention of Housekeepers, Seamstresses, Dressmakers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Ladies' Gaiters, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols and Silk Goods, to the perfect adaptation and unrivalled excellence of these SEWING MACHINES for their uses. Their extensive and increasing sale, and the unanimous commendation that they have received, warrant the Company in warmly recommending them. They have been in use sufficiently long to test them thoroughly, and have given entire satisfaction.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses.—Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand-sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

The change made in the tension during the past year, so that the upper thread is used from the original spool, and the addition of the hemmer, by which hems of any width are turned and stitched without any previous basting, evince the care of the Company in incorporating with the machines every device that can tend to perfecting them. They now combine every improvement that has been invented for sewing, and the Company feels confident that, in their present form, they are by far the best ever offered to the public; and refers, for confirmation of this opinion, to the thousands of families and manufacturers who use them.

Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler & Wilson machine has won the highest premium.

We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi, Missouri & California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco.

At the Fair of the St Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee was composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson machine, the highest and only premium, a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.

"We prefer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for family use."—[N. Y. Tribune.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines are the favorites for families."—[N. Y. Times.

"The Wheeler & Wilson Machine has secured and justly maintains the pre-eminence for sewing every kind of material."—[N. Y. Express.

"There is not an invention of this inventive age that honors American genius more than the Sewing Machine. No family ought to be without its benefits."—[Independent.

"A Sewing Machine is among the most useful and economical articles a housekeeper can purchase. In looking out for the best, see the machines of Wheeler & Wilson."—[Examiner.

"Wheeler & Wilson is the machine par excellence for family use, and we recommend it most emphatically."—[Address and Journal.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines combine everything that can be required in the manufacture of garments. Our friends abroad may be assured that to purchase one of them is a safe investment."—[Observer.

"Wheeler & Wilson is beyond all question THE machine for family use."—[Life Illustrated.

"There is but ONE Sewing Machine, and that is Wheeler & Wilson's."—[Judge Meigs, of the American Institute.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;

PRICE $50.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many a year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in roofing matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most emphatically and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks for itself, of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press!

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and whiskers, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the past fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the benefits of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds a full pint, and retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrounding their homes, to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of diseases which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing eyes.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE ENGRAVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled for efficacy and certainty of virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under the same name or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine can be had.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 d1y

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immesurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such uninstimable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their case, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOC'N.

AN ADDRESS
Delivered before the Portsmouth Mercantile Library Association, Jan. 20, 1859,
At the Opening of their New Rooms.
BY E. N. MATHES.

At a recent meeting of the Mercantile Library Association, it was voted to appoint a committee to solicit the President, Mr. E. N. Mathes, to furnish to the Association for publication, a copy of this Address delivered at the Dedication of their new Rooms; and to have the same published in the Daily Chronicle, and such other papers as may choose to copy the same or any portion thereof.

The Address gives a brief History of the P. M. L. Association, and all similar Associations which have been established here, of which there is any record.

The Committee who superintended the fitting up of the new Rooms, consisted of Messrs. E. A. Stevens, Wm. H. Sise, and J. C. Brown.

Mr. Stevens, in behalf of the Committee, delivered the keys of the Rooms to the President, who, in reply, made the following remarks:—

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the Committee:—

I take much pleasure in receiving from you the keys, and heartily congratulate you on the elegant and substantial manner in which these rooms have been prepared for our occupancy. The work has not actually been done by the Association; yet, being tenants of the premises for five years, we feel interested in them as owners for that brief period, and we look forward beyond those years into a future which may find us increased in numbers, and, both by our own exertions and the liberality of our friends, more enriched in pecuniary wealth and in all those stores which render an Association like ours attractive and useful. And while we indulge in these pleasant anticipations, it is easy to imagine ourselves in the possession of these or better rooms. It is to you, gentlemen, we owe the nicety of the present arrangement; you planned and carried out the details of fitting up the new Mercantile Rooms.

We are under great obligations to John J. Pickering, Esq., the agent for the owner of the building, who has leased the rooms to us, allowing us to superintend the arrangement of them; and, while we occupy them, we shall think with gratitude of the owner, Mrs. Satterthwaite, a lady who has often, in an unostentatious manner, shown her generosity towards many of our citizens. In taking possession of our new rooms, besides congratulating you on the success of the undertaking committed to your charge, the present prosperous condition of the Association and the suggestions of friends induce me to give a brief history of this and compare it with Associations of a similar nature which have been established in this city.

In Adams' Annals of Portsmouth, a perusal of which will repay any person who feels an interest in our city, I find the history of several Associations, in most cases quite briefly stated. The first Association founded on a plan in some degree similar to our own, was established here in 1750, when, as we are informed, "a number of gentlemen associated for the purpose of establishing a social library upon the principles of a tontine," (which means a system of shares with the benefit of survivorship, the share of each person at his decease going to the benefit of the survivors, until at last the property comes to be owned by the last one or more survivors, as may be agreed upon at the outset.) These persons made a small collection of books, some of which they imported from London, consisting principally of divinity and history; during the year they set up a lottery for the purpose of aiding their funds, but it is uncertain whether it was sanctioned by law or not. In 1751 the Selectmen were authorized to purchase 125 tickets in the social library lottery, and to appropriate the money raised by the same towards building and supporting a workhouse. In 1786 the proprietors of the social library dissolved the society, sold their books at auction and divided the proceeds. Thus ended the first Association.

In 1803 the Associated Mechanics' and Manufacurers' Society was incorporated. The design of this was to promote and encourage industry, good habits, and an increase of knowledge in their profession.—This Association is now in a flourishing condition, has a large fund, and does much good in our community.

In 1813, at the time of the great fire, the Portsmouth Library, consisting of about 100 well chosen books, was destroyed. It is not recorded whether this Library belonged to a public Association or not. The next Association was established in 1817, when we find that "a number of gentlemen, sensible of the great advantages to be derived from having a public library established under proper regulations, associated for the purpose of commencing one. They procured a convenient room, which was to be opened from 8 o'clock in the morning till 9 o'clock in the vening, in which they collected a few ooks and periodical publications for the ccommodation of the subscribers and such ersons as they might think proper to introduce. Several persons, to encourage he undertaking, deposited their books for he benefit of the subscribers. At the ession of the Legislature in June, they obained an act of incorporation making hem a body corporate, by the name of he Portsmouth Athenæum. The affairs of he society were managed by a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Board of Directors. Each proprietor paid $50, which was appropriated to the purchase of books.—Each share was taxed $3. There was another class of subscribers who paid $8, for reading room and library, but who had no property in the library—others were admitted to the reading room for $5."—When the Athenæum was established, it was the intention of the founders to have only a library and reading room, and they made no provision for a debating society connected with it; the present proprietors, however, enjoy all the advantages of library, reading room, and debating club; for in their elegant and comfortable reading room, questions are discussed day and evening, varying in importance from those that concern the destiny of nations or States, to the fluctuations in the price of stocks.

There are now 100 shares in the Athenæum, valued at $100 each, and it is the most valuable institution of the kind in the State, having an excellent reading room and 8400 valuable books in the library; but persons of limited or moderate means cannot afford to enjoy the advantages of it.

In 1823 the Mechanics Association established a library for the benefit of apprentices, and in 1834 there were about 900 books in this library; but the books have been distributed and sold—the Christian Association having purchased some of them. In 1832 the Franklin Encyclopedia Society was established; there was a small library connected with this and some of our most prominent citizens were members of it; they had occasional debating exercises. The Young Men's Society was established in 1834, but they had no library; meetings were held by them once a fortnight, and essays were read by members, which gave rise to discussion, in which any member was allowed to participate. Other charitable Associations have been established here, some of which, I think, have had small collections of books, and in their sphere have done much good.

The Young Men's Christian Association was established in 1852, and though not at present in a condition so prosperous as our own, it is about making new efforts to increase its usefulness. I trust, and I know it is the general wish of our society, that the Christian Association may again renew its energies and keep pace with our own.

A Young Catholic Association was established in 1858, and, as I am informed, is in a flourishing condition.

No similar Association ever established here (except perhaps the Athenæum) has reached to so much importance, in so short a time, as our own.

The Mercantile Library Association was originated in March, 1853, when a few young men, having determined that there were many advantages to be derived from a society like our own, met together and agreed to form themselves into an Association, and gave it the name it now bears. The original document, which I have in my possession, reads thus: "We, the subscribers, agree to form ourselves into a society for mutual improvement; March 19, 1853; (signed) Charles C. Harvey, Thomas H. Odiorne, Henry C. Barnabee, D. J. Vaughan, P. A. Butler, G. H. Frost, G. T. Vaughan, N. K. Raynes, W. O. Head, F. G. Beal, C. T. Emery, J. H. Head, Washington Freeman."

During the first few weeks of our existence, but little interest was felt in the Association; the meetings were held at the rooms of Butler and King, in Congress Block; but the Association had all the elements of strength in it, and was destined to increase and take a prominent position among the institutions of the city. In April, 1853, the Association occupied the back room over C. C. Harvey's store, and from that time, strengthened by the exertions of its members and the generosity of its friends, it has steadily and rapidly increased.

During the first year, from April, '53, to April, '54, about 50 members joined the society, and nearly 400 books were added to the library, by purchase and donation; most of the books were obtained during the last six months of that year, for in Oct., 1853, there were only 49 volumes in the library.

During this year the Sons of Portsmouth returned, and the splendid arch which was raised in front of our rooms made our existence more publicly known to our own citizens and the returning sons. It is gratifying to know that we contributed our share towards that celebration.

In the second year donations amounting to $155 were made by the citizens, about 350 books were added to the library, and 49 members joined the Association. In this year we conducted our first course of Lyceum Lectures, which was most satisfactory to the public and remunerative to ourselves.

In the third year about 25 members joined the Association, and 150 books were placed on the shelves of our library. During this year Rev. Daniel Austin presented us with the Boydell Shakspearian Gallery, and the stand accompanying it.

In July, 1855, the Association was incorporated by the Legislature. In the fourth year about 40 members joined the Association, donations amounting to $50 were made to us, and our library was increased by about 400 books. From 1857 to 1858 donations amounting to $600 were made by the late Samuel Sheafe, Esq., 247 books were added to the library, and 28 members joined the Association. During this year an interesting and instructive course of lectures was delivered by George W. Haven, Esq., of this city, under the auspices and for the benefit of the Association.

During the past nine months about 30 members have joined the Association, donations upwards of $200 have been made by members and others, and about 75 books have been added to our library.

The most important event of this year undoubtedly is the removing into our new rooms. Since the Association was established we have conducted four courses of Lyceum lectures, most of them successfully, and in all the enterprises the Society has undertaken for the entertainment of the public and our own advantage, we have done credit to the Association, although some may not have resulted so favorably to us in a pecuniary view as might have been desired.

In March, 1855, our Reading Room was established, but I regret to say that although we have had political papers of every stripe and have endeavored to keep up with the numerous changes in politics, the public have not patronized us very liberally, and unless more encouragement is given, we shall soon be compelled to close our Reading Room to all except the members of the Association.

I have been thus minute in the history of the Society, because I think it may be a matter of interest, if placed on our files, and if I had not feared that a more definite history would prove tedious, I should have been still more particular. 218 members in all have joined the Association, many of whom have removed from our midst and taken prominent and active parts in the Mercantile Associations of other cities.

Such is our history up to the present time; what we are now, the well filled shelves of our library, this pleasant hall, and all our surroundings, tell better than any words of mine can. There are 1650 or more volumes in our library, among which are some of the most valuable publications; we have a fund of $500 or $600 at interest; there are about 100 active and paying members in the Association, and we occupy some of the best rooms in the city; we have and shall continue to maintain for a time a Reading Room for the accommodation of the public and the members of the Association.

We offer all these to the public on the most liberal terms; the conditions being that members shall be of good repute among their fellow men, more than 16 years of age, shall pay $1 for an admission fee, the small sum of $2.50 as a regular annual assessment, and such small assessments as the Association may from time vote to raise; there has been only one special assessment (of $2) made since the society was established. That we have the respect and confidence of the public is seen from the generosity of many of our fellow citizens towards us. Among those who have aided us by donations of books and money, I would mention the names of the late Samuel Sheafe, John McClintock and William Jones, Esqs., deceased; Hons. Ichabod Goodwin, Daniel Marcy, Horton D. Walker, Richard Jenness; Rev. Chas. Burroughs, Daniel Austin, and A. P. Peabody; Dr. D. H. Peirce, James T. Fields, George W. Haven, W. P. Jones, J. M. Tredick, James F. Shores Jr., Wm. Pettigrew, Ichabod Rollins, Henry H. Ladd, Samuel Lord, Willis Barnabee and Robert Gray, Esqs.

Our most liberal friend thus far has been the late Samuel Sheafe, Esq., who not only gave us a liberal sum of money in his life-time, but made preparations that a portion of the estate which he had accumulated should be applied to our benefit after his decease. John McClintock, that generous and genial revolutionary patriot, who lived to such a good old age, gave us a number of books, and we have some letters written by him during his later years.

The great majority of our citizens undoubtedly look with favor upon Associations like ours, but there may be some who doubt the expediency of having such institutions established in our midst, and in their foolish self-esteem may say—to whom can they do any good? The number of these cavillers must be small, if there be any. Can any one doubt the usefulness of a library, which, at a trifling cost, is open to all our citizens? To question it, would be to assert that ignorance is better than knowledge, and that books are of no importance in the community. We often hear men of letters dwell in glowing terms upon the excellence of Milton, Shakspeare, or Webster, and the advisers of our early years tell us we should read their works; but the book publishers of the present time bind up the works of the best authors in so much gold and such precious leather, thus putting the barrier of high prices in the way of the masses, that unless access could be obtained to those precious volumes through sources similar to this Association, those fountains of knowledge would forever remain sealed.

Our usual exercises in debate are quite interesting, to the members at least, and often very instructive; they serve to give young men a degree of confidence in conversing about ordinary matters which they can derive from no other source. Modesty is not too common among our young men, we may be told, and I will admit that in the street and in places of business they have self assurance enough; behind the counter and in the warehouse they can recommend the quality of their goods in the most eloquent terms. But many of our young men, perhaps all of us, are quite unfamiliar with the method of conducting public meetings, and whenever questions arise for discussion, although they may be well informed on the subject, they hesitate to speak because they are not accustomed to debate: and no one can doubt that discussing questions of one kind serves to render a person familiar with the method of general debate. Another advantage to be derived from our Association is indicated in that word itself; we associate together, getting thus accustomed to the society of our fellow citizens, and instead of indulging in gloomy, misanthropic ideas, we pass through life in a pleasanter manner, with more profit to ourselves and to our friends.

Some of my pleasantest acquaintances have been formed in this Association; and I think all the members can say the same. We endeavor to treat each other in a gentlemanly manner—to be gentlemen in all our intercourse with others,—I say it not boastingly,—not only in, but outside the society; and I know of no bad influence which can be exerted by the Association.—I look upon it as a sort of school wherein we may continue our studies after having left the schools known by name as such. We have in our midst some excellent high schools and private schools, the loss of which would be of the greatest injury; but a man may be graduated from these or from our Academies or Colleges, and if he considers himself finished there, and ceases to study books, and men, and things, the knowledge he might have derived, would not be of much more advantage to him mentally, than the food we have eaten today will be to our bodies months hence. Men are very apt to neglect their studies after having left the schools. In an Association of this character, questions are constantly arising which make it necessary and interesting for the members to refresh their memories by reference to the books and thus acquire increased information.

I again congratulate you, my fellow members, on the present prosperous condition of our Association and trust that taking an inspiration from the newness of our rooms, we may renew our energies to make the Association profitable to ourselves and one that shall be entitled to the esteem and confidence of the public.

We endeavored and expected to have been favored with a poem by Mr. Albert Laighton, as well as by remarks from other active and honorary members on this occasion. The condition of Mr. Laighton's health, however, has been such as to prevent him complying with our invitation and his own wishes, but he has promised to deliver a poem in this hall at some future time.

☞ Prince Alfred, the midshipman, when aboard ship with his messmates of the same age or a little older than himself, throws off all restraint. No servant is allowed to him, he stands his watch, sleeps in a cot, pays like every one else, twenty-five cents for his daily mess. He is kind and affectionate, and the careful training of his mother is clearly shown. If one of his shipmates is sea-sick or ill, he will without being asked take an amusing book and read to him. This has been noticed in his treatment of a young officer on board, by the name of Gordon, and is an inborn trait, which promises well for the future. It is rumored that his next cruise will be to Canada, and first landing place New York, and his first visit to the President.

House of Representatives, killed Phillip Barton Key, the United States District Attorney for the District of Columbia, at Washington, on Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, by shooting him through three times with a revolver. Cause, Sickles' jealousy of his wife and Key. Sickles is in jail. He is a prominent politician of the democratic party, and the excitement caused by the crime is great at Washington.

The House sustained and screened the half drunken murderer who killed the Irish servant in the hotel—and the murderous assault by Brooks, Keitt and Company on Charles Sumner was winked at. Both of these cases were unprovoked and atrocious.

The present murder seems to have had provocation. The former murderers went unpunished by man. We wait to see what will be done with the Hon. Mr. Sickles.

LOCAL.

☞ Mr. G. G. Dennis, of New York, who has recently visited this city to negotiate relative to the erection of extensive Iron Works here—wrote us from Dover on Saturday, authorizing and requesting us to invite gentlemen interested in this object to meet him at the Atheneum on Monday forenoon. Quite a number assembled, and were disappointed at the non-appearance of Mr. Dennis.

But by a letter from him, Monday afternoon, we learn that he was sick at Dover—but hopes and expects to come to Portsmouth to-day, and make arrangements as proposed. The proposed works are to cost about $150,000, of which from $20,000 to $25,000 only will be called for from Portsmouth capitalists—this amount to be available when the works are completed, and to be made preferred stock with ten per cent. guarantee for a term of years.

Mr. Dennis confidently expects the success of his plan, and the location of these extensive iron works in Portsmouth. He has the countenance of some of our most enterprising and best informed business men; and seems worthy of a hearing, at any rate—being amply able to speak for himself.

☞ The Old Folks Concert, at the Temple on Sunday evening, for the benefit of the Howard Benevolent Society, drew a select and highly-appreciative audience, in spite of the bad walking. The performances were fully equal to any previous concert. The usual introductory prayer was made by Rev. Mr. Hicks of Dover, as representative for Rev. Mr. Patterson, with whom he was in exchange—all the clergymen of the city having officiated, in the order of their settlement here. Besides the enjoyment of the music—it was really gratifying to attend a concert once more, without the accompaniment of boot-heels or other encore.

☞ A couple of young ladies skated from Lowell to Lawrence, the other day, on the Merrimack river, 10 miles, in 40 minutes.

The receipts were about $46—exponses were about $25—leaving a balance of something more than $21 for the poor.

AN EXTENSIVE BUSINESS.—The New York News, says:—"Some opinion may be formed of the extent of the Sewing Machine business, from the fact that one company (Wheeler & Wilson,) are now manufacturing machines at the rate of 25,000 per annum, with a demand always greatly in advance of the supply. The various other companies together, manufacture probably nearly as many more. Wheeler & Wilson's sales room No. 505 Broadway is finished in a more elaborate, artistic and costly manner, than any other in the country."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NECROSIS.—If there be any disease calculated to drain away the life of a man, and weaken the mind and body by its painful slowness, it is the death of any part of the bones. The PERUVIAN SYRUP gives support under the profuse discharge, hastens the separation of the decaying bone, and heals the indolent and irritable ulcers consequent on the long continuance of the unhealthy suppuration.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

A NEW BODY.- On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his disease-eaten body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st, RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day, his body was washed with water and R. R. Relief; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bathing-tub of water. Two of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 25th, four days later, he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia, and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is the rapidity with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the supervision of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable qualities of the Holland Gin of the kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles's London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

Trumbull, for himself, was ready t could not make any pledge for nds.

Seward of New York said that after urs of discussion on the Cuba bill, time to come back to the great ques- the agree. Propositions now stand face. One is the question of land landless, and the other is the ques- a land for slaves.

Slidell here rose.

Vice President—Will the Senator ew York yield the floor to the Sen- m Louisiana?

Seward—No sir—I do not.

Slidell called Mr. Seward to order. discussing the comparative merits two bills.

Vice President decided that Mr. was in order.

Seward went on with a few words, Mr. Fitch appealed to the chair to e question of order to the Senate, e view of stopping this threatened inable discussion.

Vice President declined to do so.

Seward went on saying it is in the fifth Congress that the Homestead s been put aside. He contrasted rits of the two bills.

Toombs said, as to land for the e it carried with it some demagogi- or. He despised a demagogue, but d still more those who are driven nagogues. What are the other side of? If they do not want to give 00,000 to carry out a great nation- cy, let them say so, and not attempt rid of the issue, by saying, We want land to the lack-landers.

Wade said the question was land to ndless, or niggers to the niggerless. uld antagonise these issues, and car- appeal to the country. The whole of the Democratic party was to go the world hunting for niggers.— ould no more run their party with- ggers than they could a steam en- ithout fuel.

Fessenden took Mr. Toombs to and asked if the language he had was not an imitation of the great t the other end of the Avenue, the dent, who recently addressed an out- crowd, saying none but cowards k from this Cuban bill. He told the ors Republicans did not tremble nor . He referred to the trial of physi- ndurance at the last session, and d that they could endure as again. He denied that the Repub- were obstructing legitimate busi- but said they were opposed to this n measure, of which nothing was in- d but a party result.

Seward was not in the habit of im- ng the courage of any man. He be- every Senator had sufficient. He If had enough for his own purposes, ther qualities are also necessary.— is moral courage—there is faithi- ss to pledges. The President had r to carry out his pledges, and has he so? Where is the Pacific Railroad? ere is the protection, where relief to ankrupt? Lost, sunk, sacrificed in tempt to foster slavery in the Spanish rican States.

part of the President's policy has carried out, but it is all sacrificed to e and pretended issue. Mr. Seward concluded by an energetic declaration, that he is to be found on the side of liberty, everywhere and always.

Mr. Toombs replied, till Mr. Johnson of Arkansas, again raised a question of order to cut off debate.

Then came questions of order, rulings of the chair, and at last a dead lock till midnight, when Mr. Doolittle's motion to take up the Homestead Bill was voted on and lost—yeas 19, nays 29.

Mr. Mason moved to adjourn. It was manifest that the Senate could do nothing, and he feared the American people would consider this a humiliating spectacle. Lost 20 to 30.

Mr. Brown moved to lay Mr. Wilson's bill on the table. Agreed to 30 to 16.

Mr. Brown then proceeded to speak on the Cuba bill. He was in favor of the acquisition of the Island peaceably, if possible, but forcibly if we must. He would now move to lay the bill on the table, as a test vote, but would vote against his own motion.

The test vote was then taken, and the motion was then lost, by yeas 18, nays 30.

YEAS—Messrs. Broderick, Cameron, Chandler, Clark, Doolittle, Fessenden, Foster, Hale, Hamlin, Harlan, Kennedy, King, Seward, Simmons, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson—18.

NAYS—Messrs. Allen, Bayard, Benjamin, Bigler, Brown, Chestnut, Clay, Clingman, Douglas, Fitch, Fitzpatrick, Green, Gwin, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson of Arkansas, Johnson of Tenn., Lane, Mallory, Mason, Polk, Pugh, Reid, Rice, Sebastian, Shields, Smith, Slidell, Toombs, Ward—30.

PAIRED—Messrs. Davis and Dixon, and Messrs. Collamer and Wright.

In the House, Mr. Phelps moved to reconsider the vote rejecting the Post Office Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Blair moved to lay Mr. Phelps' motion on the table. Negatived—104 to 84.

The House then went into committee on the Naval Appropriation bill.

Mr Sherman moved to reduce the appropriation for repairs, equipment, etc., of steamers to $1,000,000.

Mr. Phelps objected, saying in the present condition of affairs the Navy ought not to be curtailed; there may be use for it in the Gulf.

Mr. Sherman's amendment was adopted.

At half-past eight o'clock, wearied with the unprofitable proceedings, the House adjourned by two majority.

In the Senate on Saturday, Feb 26, the leader of the Cuba thirty million bill, Mr. Slidell, made a long personal explanation, touching yesterday's proceedings on the Cuba bill, announcing at the same time that he should make no further attempt to bring up that bill. Mr. Slidell proceeded to give his reasons for this course, the gist of which is that he had become satisfied that the bill could not pass this session. He gave notice that he should present the bill at the next session.

This bill, the reader will bear in mind, virtually gives the president kingly power—more than any English king or queen has had for these 200 years. And yet the measure is called democratic—though it unites the purse and the sword.

The Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co.

Invites the attention of Housekeepers, Seamstresses, Dressmakers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Ladies' Gaiters, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols and Silk Goods, to the perfect adaptation and unrivalled excellence of these SEWING MACHINES for their uses. Their extensive and increasing sale, and the unanimous commendation that they have received, warrant the Company in warmly recommending them. They have been in use sufficiently long to test them thoroughly, and have given entire satisfaction.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses.—Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand-sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

The change made in the tension during the past year, so that the upper thread is used from the original spool, and the addition of the hemmer, by which, hems of any width are turned and stitched without any previous basting, evince the care of the Company in incorporating with the machines every device that can tend to perfecting them. They now combine every improvement that has been invented for sewing, and the Company feels confident that, in their present form, they are by far the best ever offered to the public; and refers, for confirmation of this opinion, to the thousands of families and manufacturers who use them.

Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler & Wilson machine has won the highest premium.

We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi Missouri & California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco.

At the Fair of the St Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee was composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson machine, the highest and only premium—a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines are the favorites for families."—[N Y. Times

"Wheeler & Wilson is the machine par excellence for family use, and we recommend it most emphatically."—[Advocate and Journal.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines combine everything that can be required in the manufacture of garments. Our friends abroad may be assured that to purchase one of them is a safe investment."—[Observer.

"Wheeler & Wilson is beyond all question THE machine for family use."—[Life Illustrated.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;

PRICE $50.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing laboured many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay, attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Snow and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman of Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

HAYS, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:—

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will have no occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by other physicians, came under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 18 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is to be had.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—18 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 diy

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Real or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but though it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that case is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN AP PEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1859.

THE WASHINGTON TRAGEDY.

The criminal connexion of the deceased Mr. Key with Mrs. Sickles, wife of the murderer, was proved beyond a doubt to the husband, and confessed by the wretched wife, before the murder, which is thus seen to be the result of well-founded jealousy.

This jealousy, we may remark, as we pass, is a feeling which, when indulged, makes the jealous man or woman utterly miserable. It is finely described in the 6th chapter of Proverbs, verses 20 to 35.

But there is a certain degree of self-possession which such men as Sickles have not, whereby a man in his position may coolly hand over the guilty parties to the criminal courts, call for divorce in the civil courts, and then live on steadily, firmly, and happily, giving no place to the devil, but letting his followers, male or female, go to their own place.

At Washington, in the Circuit Court, on the morning of the 28th, the day after the murder, Mr. Carlisle announced the death of Mr. Key, eulogizing him as a courteous, frank and open-hearted gentleman, but forbearing to speak of the cause which led to his death. The court spoke in a similar strain, and, as a token of respect, adjourned to Thursday.

This is the hypocrisy of that court; but the common verdict, out of doors, in the court of public opinion, is, that Sickles served him right. And according to the heathen code of ethics, which is the code that prevails in Washington and other Court Cities, Sickles is not to blame. And let no man blame him too much, unless he has suffered as much, and then behaved better.

Judged by Christian rules, and weighed in the Scriptural balance, all three parties are found wanting, and classed as fools—the fools of fashionable, glittering, artificial, and unnatural life.

Mrs. Sickles was a fashionable butterfly, 22 years old, the wife of a husband 40 years old. Her father is Antio Bagioli, an Italian music master in New York city, where he has resided about thirty years. Her mother's name was Cook, and was born in New York.

Mr. Sickles married his wife when she was 16 years of age. He took her to England with him when he was Secretary of Legation under Mr. Buchanan; introduced her to the Queen; carried her to the continent, and there introduced her to the most fashionable society. Mr. Sickles loved her with great devotion, and lavished all his means upon her. They lived in elegant style in Washington, occupying a house of $3000 rent. Mrs. Sickles rode in a splendid carriage, with outriders;—wore jewels to the value of $5000, and seemed to want nothing that she did not have.

She was very free with Key, and this freedom was town talk. Her mother saw the danger, and warned her, but in vain.

Key was a widower, 42 years old, considered a very handsome man, elegant rider, &c. He was nephew of Judge Taney, a brother-in-law of Mr. Pendleton, member of Congress from Ohio, and a relation of Judge Campbell, of the U. S. Supreme Court. Key and Sickles were both the intimate friends of the President.

Sickles is well known as one of the leaders of the New York Democracy; has stood high in favor with the President. He was his Secretary of Legation at London. He is now a Representative from the 3d District in New York. He will be lightly punished, if at all, although some of the friends of the deceased threaten to shoot him at sight. Sickles has two children, one of them a daughter six years old, and Key leaves four motherless children, one of them a daughter about 15 years old. It is said he leaves no property—but that his children are provided for by able friends.

☞ The Illinois Legislature has broken up in a round quarrel; it is alleged that the democrats wished to pass a new apportionment bill, (a gerrymander,) and that they would not attend to the usual business until they could put their measure through. The governor returned the bill with objections—the republicans having mostly gone home, the democrats would not receive the documents. No appropriation bills are passed. The legislature meets only once in two years.

☞ The American understands that a company of gentlemen from Boston last week bought the "Fulton Works" in the south part of Manchester, N. H., and intend putting them in operation.

STATE PRISONS.

These are not very pleasant institutions, and they are sometimes quite costly.—Yet almost every State has one, and they are thought to be indispensable.

The legislature of Maine, last year, authorized the Governor to appoint a Commissioner to examine into the present affairs and past history of the Thomaston State Prison.—Mr. Blaine was appointed, and his report is now printed.

It reveals the fact that since the Prison was located at Thomaston in 1823, the gross amount paid out from the State Treasury for its support is $321,740 20, and that besides this the Prison closed the last year with a debt of $4,178 36. Instead of being self-supporting, therefore, the Prison has at all times been a bill of expense to the State, and the annual deficit has now reached some fifteen thousand dollars. The total expenses for the year are over $21,000, and the receipts from labor of convicts a little more than $6000. The difference has to be supplied by the State. The report takes the ground that the Prison is not properly located for successful financial results, and that the only way to produce a radical and thorough reform is to construct a new Prison in a new place. Thomaston is most unfavorably located for manufacturing purposes, and the result is that most of the convicts are hired out to contractors for thirty cents a day, the State supplying tools, warming the shops, and paying the salary of the great bulk of the Overseers and Instructors. Some of the convicts, indeed, are hired out for as low a sum as seventeen cents a day, and the absolute net earnings of the whole number does not average even this much.

As the increased number of convicts demands enlarged accommodations, it will be necessary to add to and remodel the Prison at Thomaston, in case it now one should not be built. The Report declares it to be bad policy to invest more money at Thomaston, and urges the construction of a new Prison in some new location.—Portland, Biddeford and Lewiston are mentioned as eligible sites, with the strong recommendation that the change be made.

The report does not find fault with the keepers, but with the system—and it does not recommend to sell the prison at auction, until the new and improved prison shall be built.

☞ The U. S. Senate, Monday, Feb. 28, refused to take up the Homestead Bill, 29 to 26.

The Post Office Appropriation Bill was taken up. Appproprations 18,500,000, including $3,800,000 deficiency of the present fiscal year.

After discussion, a section was inserted providing that the sum of $6,000,000 be appropriated to meet the deficiencies of the fiscal year commencing July 1st, 1859, but the Postmaster shall not incur any liabilities whatever over the appropriations for the current fiscal year. Adopted.

It was debated till half past 12, midnight, when the Senate adj. 22 to 17.

The House passed the Navy Appropriation Bill, greatly cut down by amendments. One of these reduced the appropriation for repairs, armaments, etc., of steamers, from $3,100,000 to $1,900,009. The vote stood—122 to 66.

The amendment, reducing the appropriation for Navy Yards from $1,200,000 to $130,000, was also concurred in by 58 majority.

The House refused leave to report a bill to revive for two years the act authorising the issue of Treasury notes, but went into Committee on the Miscellaneous Appropriation Bill, passed it there, and at 20 minutes past eleven, rose and reported the bill, with amendments, to the House, which adjourned about midnight.

☞ The Army Appropriation bill was finally passed—yeas 24, nays 15; in the U. S. Senate on Saturday,—total $15,000,000. Before the passage, Mr. Davis moved, and carried by a vote of 28 to 12, an additional clause appropriating about a million of dollars for fortifications. This, with a few minor amendments, sends the bill back to the House.

☞ The Agricultural College bill being vetoed by the President, failed on Saturday in the House, 105 to 96—not two-thirds. This kills it. Mr. Phelps' tariff bill, and sundry other tariff bills, failed in the same way, 128 to 88.

The Post Office Appropriation Bill was passed,—in the same manner as heretofore reported—by 4 majority. This is a different bill from the Post Route Bill which passed the Senate, which raises the postage from 3 to 5 cents, and which will probably not pass the House.

Give work rather than alms to the poor. The former drives out indolence; the latter, industry.

GREAT FIRE IN BOSTON.

On Monday night, on Fort Hill, a great warehouse was burnt with its contents, beginning at 10 o'clock. Loss half a million of dollars. The warehouse was north of the Sailors' Home, on Purchase street, extending through from Purchase street to Broad street, five or six stories high. It consists of four distinct stores, and the partition walls were designed to be fireproof.

The fire caught in the southern store of the block, which was filled with cotton, gunny bags, wool, oakum, saltpetre, brimstone, and other inflammable materials.

At five minutes before eleven o'clock, the floor of the fifth story fell, and from that time the exertions of the firemen were mainly confined to saving the adjoining property.

About a quarter past eleven about one-third of the southerly wall fell outward, against the Sailors' Home, a few feet distant. At one o'clock nothing was left of the immense amount of property in store, but smouldering ruins.

The building was held in trust for the heirs of the late Joshua Sears, and was leased to the General Government for a Bonded Warehouse.

There was on store in the building, among other articles, 7000 bales of cotton, 7000 bags linseed, several thousand bags of saltpetre, a great quantity of gunny bags, and of foreign fruit.

The Sailor's Home, a five-story building, was saved with much difficulty. There was damage in the upper story by fire, and in the basement by the falling wall.—The whole building was completely drenched with water, making the damage not less than $3000—insured.

Adjoining the warehouse, in the rear of the Sailors' Home, and extending to Broad street, is a large building known as the "Barracks," and occupied by Irish families, numbering, it is reported, nearly 100. This building was in danger, and all the occupants removed their furniture, creating a scene of confusion and distress seldom equalled.

☞ Theodore Parker arrived at Havana, Feb. 18, and Dr. Howe has hope of his speedy improvement.—This intelligence was communicated to his society, who worship at the Boston Music Hall, on Sunday morning.

On Sunday afternoon and evening, a Methodist preacher, Rev. Henry Morgan, spoke there. He is employed, as the Atlas says, "under the auspices of the Evangelical denominations, the rent of the hall having been arranged for from the start,—and is of the revivalist order." Thus the room is a free church, for Parkerites and radicals in the morning, and for revivalists in the afternoon.

The Courier says "Mr. Morgan announced himself as a Methodist revivalist from Connecticut, and entertained a moderate sized audience with a very rough style of oratory. If Mr. Morgan's preaching is adapted to the times, then 'the times are out of joint' indeed."

THE SICKLES TRAGEDY.—Washington, Feb. 28.—Sickles will remain in prison until Monday, when his case will go before the Grand Jury. His counsel believe him entitled to a habeas corpus, but the application would bring up the entire case, including the provocation. Mrs. Sickles admits to a clergyman who visited her, that her confession is correct in all particulars. Mr. Key's funeral will take place to-morrow (Tuesday.) To-day, Mr. Sickles is in a state of complete mental prostration, and refuses to see any but a few of his most intimate friends. Mrs. Sickles is confined to her bed by severe illness, and refuses to see any one. Mr. S. has consented that, for the present, his wife and child shall remain with the mother of Mrs. S., who is expected here to-night. Mr. Buchanan called at the jail to-day to see Mr. Sickles. There are rumors that Mr. Butterworth was arrested this evening as an accessory to the killing of Mr. Key.

SWINDLERS ARRESTED.—David Palmer, Alonzo Shute, and Wm. P. Shute and wife were arrested at Newfield, Me., on Sunday night, by Marshal Westcott, of Newburyport, who took his prisoners home to Newburyport on Monday night. The three first named are the proprietors of the swindling concern recently broken up, and known as the New England Art Union, located partly at the Rockingham House, so called, in Plaistow, and partly in Newburyport.

☞ The boy Crosby, who has been on trial at Bangor for several days past, on a charge of killing his school fellow, Lowell, has been been acquitted of manslaughter.

☞ A letter from Jerusalem announces that the cupola of the Holy Sepulchre is falling to ruins. A subscription has been opened to repair it.

Four boys, the oldest 9, the youngest 6, were recently sent to the Juvenile Asylum in New York for theft.

ANOTHER OPINION.—The Manchester Mirror, sometimes deemed neutral and at others independent, says: "As we are daily and almost hourly asked privately how the State is going, we think we might as well answer it publicly. We feel confident of giving unprejudiced opinions."

We think the Republicans will carry the State generally, but by a greatly diminished majority on the general vote and in the number of Representatives to the Legislature. Both parties have nominated unexceptionable men for Governor.

Ichabod Goodwin will naturally run ahead of his party ticket; the old Whigs, the Freesoilers, Liberals, all admire him, and his vote will be such as will honor one of the most generous-hearted, enterprizing, high-minded politicians New Hampshire has ever produced. He will receive glorious testimonials far beyond other members of the party.

The first Congressional District is put down by most every one as the closest.—We don't think so. Gilman Marston, the Republican candidate will unquestionably be elected handsomely.

We are not much conversant with the State of politics in the Third District, but suppose Edwards will be easily elected.

This Second District, in which George is the democratic and Tappan the republican candidate, we regard the closest, in which the Congressional 'tug-of-war' comes.

MARRIED.

In Peterborough, Mr. Wm Wendemuth to Miss Rachel Smith, both of P.

In Wilton, Mr. James Felt to Miss Mary W. King, youngest daughter of Col S. King, of W.

DIED.

In this city, March 1, May H. Palmer, aged 1month, youngest daughter of Rufus L. and Jane L. Palmer.

In Rye, Feb. 23, Widow Betsy Berry, aged 62.

In Londonderry, John H. Ingalls, formerly of Chester, aged 36 years.

In Milford, Mrs Sally Blanchard, aged 88.

Adam's Patent Coal Sifter,

with which any lady can sift ashes without soiling her dress.

The following is one instance of the saving that this Sifter can effect:—

Passing the Worcester Depot in Boston last Spring, a lady observed some men removing ashes, that had accumulated there, to fill in near a stable. She hurried home, and sent back two boys with one of Adam's Sifters; they sifted the whole of those ashes in six hours and a half, and obtained from them, 10 Barrels good Coal, 1 Barrel Clinkers, and 11 barrels ashes. The coal weighed about 2250 lbs, worth about $6.

The construction of this Sifter is very simple, and it excels any other for usefulness and durability.

Thousands have been sold and give perfect satisfaction. Try one.

Worcester's Quarto Dictionary.

This work which is the result of a life time's labors is now nearly completed, and the publishers expect to issue it in the course of next May.

EMPHATICALLY, it will represent the usage of the best writers in this country and England.

The PRONUNCIATION of all words will be exhibitedby a system of notation which understood; and in doubtful or disputed words the best authorities for the different modes will be given.

In ETYMOLOGY it will be found more complete and satisfactory than other work of the kind.

The DEFINITIONS will be fully and accurately distinguished, and exemplified by quotations from the best authors, of sentences valuable in themselves.

SYNONYMS will be so treated as to be a very valuable feature of the work.

Another very novel and most useful feature of this Dictionary will be the WOOD CUTS, of which about 1200 will exemplify words whose meaning can be more accurately conveyed in this than by any verbal definition.

AN EDITION ON LARGER AND FINER PAPER FOR SUBSCRIBERS will be first issued at the same price as will afterwards be charged for the common edition; viz: $7,50.

A Specimen can be seen, and subscriptions entered at the bookstore of

TESTIMONY.—Des. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NECROSIS.—If there be any disease calculated to drain away the life of a man, and weaken the mind and body by its painful slowness, it is the death of any part of the bones. The PERUVIAN SYRUP gives support under the profuse discharge, hastens the separation of the decaying bone, and heals the indolent and irritable ulcers consequent on the long continuance of the unhealthy suppuration.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumeins.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

R. R. R.

A NEW BODY.—On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his disease-eaten body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st., RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day, his body was washed with water and R. R. Relief; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bathing-tub of water. Two of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 25th, four days later, he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia, and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is the rapidity with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

☞ Reader, do you want THE picture of the day? If so, have one of Gregory's Photograps in Oil Colors, which he is selling at about half the Boston and New York prices.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. There have been about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It will remove in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and eruptions upon the skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, exhilerating, nutritious, and perfectly mild and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, GENERAL DEBILITY, and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHERS IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Dyer, 14 Cornhill; S. E. Tucker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st; R. DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES:
Infallible in Removing Obstructions or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for thirty years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas. A. Tolle, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Doctor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ Here we are, on the first of March, nominally the first day of Spring.—But really and actually, we have a coating of ice a foot thick, all over the streets of Portsmouth, and in many places much thicker. In the roads, fields and woods the quantity of snow is uncommonly large. We have had two months of continuous sledding; we have had a winter of numerous changes, but not of uncommon severity, and have had either ice or water in the streets constantly since the first week in January.

During the winter we have enjoyed an extraordinary exemption from fires and alarms of fire, so that we may say, as the Portland papers said this week, our fire engines have not been used or wet for three months.

The number of inmates at the Alms House, thus far, has been only about 75, sometimes falling below that number. The out-door aid however, has been considerable, by the city, and otherwise, but not excessive. Pauperism being a direct result of intemperance—and the city pauperism of Portsmouth being comparatively so small—shows most conclusively that the strength and influence of the rum traffic is overrated by the timid, and lied about by those who say that "never was rum so freely sold or drunkenness so prevalent."

The large amount of wages paid at the Navy Yard, and the smaller amounts in private ship yards,—the constant employment at Portsmouth Steam Factory,—and last but not least, the better economy induced by last year's pinch, have had their uses in promoting comfort, preventing suffering, and diminishing pauperism.

POLITICAL ECONOMY.—Geo. W. Haven, Esq., has consented to deliver two Lectures on Coins, (being a part of his course of Lectures on Political Economy,) before the Mercantile Library Association; as will be seen by the following correspondence:

PORTSMOUTH, Feb. 25, '59.

MR. GEO. W. HAVEN—Dear Sir:—At a meeting of the Portsmouth Mercantile Library Association, held on the 18th inst., it was voted to invite you to deliver your "Lecture on Coins" before the Association, at your earliest convenience; and the undersigned were appointed a committee to extend to you the invitation.

Should it be your pleasure to comply with their request, some evening of next week would be preferred, if agreeable to you. Very respectfully,

Your ob't servants
J. P. PAYSON.
A. H. HOYT.

PORTSMOUTH, Feb. 28, '59.

GENTLEMEN:—It will give me great pleasure to accept the polite invitation conveyed by you, in behalf of the Mercantile Library Association, to read a Lecture on "Coins" before that institution. I must, however, remark that the subject occupies two lectures, neither of which is complete without the other. Any evening after to-morrow will be convenient to me, and I refer the appointment to yourselves,

I remain very truly yours,
GEO. W. HAVEN.

To Messrs. J. P. Payson, A. H. Hoyt.

The first Lecture will be delivered on Thursday evening next, March 3d, at 7½ o'clock, at the Mercantile Rooms. Members and friends are invited to attend.

☞ "Take our Hat," gentlemen, is the language of D. Knight & Co., the well known, experienced and reliable Hatters, in their handsome illustrated advertisement, this morning—the opening of Spring, and the opening of the Spring Style Hat, rendering this particularly an opportune time to inform the people where they can procure a tile suited to compare with the new dress which all nature is presently to don. At their establishment may be had Hats and Caps of all sorts, and no sort—hats of silk and hats of wool—cheap hats and dear—hats which will adorn any gentleman, and hats which no gentleman can adorn—hats high and hats low, hats fast and hats slow—hats which look as if a brick in 'em wouldn't do harm, since they couldn't well be more mellow—and hats shallow enough for any pate.

Then of Caps, they have any kind you you want—except "cap-ees:" most being cap-ital, improving the appearance of the wearer cap-a-pie, and others fit to cap the climax of comfort or oddity, according to the needs, tastes or whims of their buyers. But of all innovations ever sought out, and brought to our knowledge, to cover a man's head,—we say, let us have the regular stylish silk hat—the "section of stove pipe," if you fancy that a descriptive title. After all the fault-finding and ridicule which had been heaped on it—we pronounce it the most beautiful, comfortable and healthful in the market. The only real objection we have discovered is, that it is somewhat expensive. That it is not convenient or well adapted to work in, is nothing against a dress-hat.

No one article of dress changes a man's appearance so much as that on his head—and those who wish to get the best style or quality, can be suited at Knight & Co.'s.

Republican Rally,
AT THE TEMPLE,
This (WEDNESDAY) Evening.
Hon. C. A. PHELPS,
President of the Massachusetts Senate, and
A. O. BREWSTER, Esq., of Boston,
Two of the most Eloquent Champions of Republicanism in the Old Bay State, will address the Citizens of Portsmouth, this (WEDNESDAY) Evening, at 7 o'clock. The Ladies are invited to attend.

TERRIBLE STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION.—New Orleans, Feb. 28.—The steamboat Princess, from Vicksburg for New Orleans, exploded her boiler, caught fire and burned to the water's edge at Conrod's Point, near Baton Rouge, on Sunday morning.

Four hundred passengers were on board of her at the time, 200 of whom are lost and missing, mostly residents of Lousiana and Mississippi. A large number on board were ladies.

No other northern or eastern names have as yet been ascertained. A large number were badly scalded and otherwise injured. The boat and cargo are a total loss. The boat was one of the finest on the river.

☞ We have received No. 1, vol. 1, of the American edition of Champiouriere's Journal of Practical Medicine and Surgery.—This is a Paris Medical Work,—and is there translated into English and reprinted.—It is published in Boston by A. Williams & Co.—and we suppose must be valuable to the M. D.'s. The work, in France, is old and well established.

AN ORDINATION POSTPONED.—The ordination of Rev. George Howell, which was to take place at East Boston, Wednesday evening, was postponed. Mr. Howell, it is said, did not come up to the standard of some of the council on the doctrine of close communion. The question was asked him whether, if a member of an evangelical church, not of the Baptist denomination, should desire to commune with his church, he would give his consent. He replied promptly—yes. And on that ground two members of the council, who were to take part in the ordination services declined to proceed any further. It is probable that a new council will be called to consider the matter further.—Atlas.

☞ Wm. Lloyd Garrison delivered a Lyceum Lecture in Newburyport on Friday evening, Subject, John Greenleaf Whittier, and his poetry. Garrison, as editor in Newburyport, published Whittier's first piece of poetry. The lecture is highly spoken of.

Susan Shuck, of Lebanon, Ky., while dressing for her bridal, was terribly burned by her clothes taking fire. Her sister was so badly burned in her efforts to extinguish the flames, that she is not expected to recover. After Miss Shuck's wounds were dressed, and while she lay upon her couch, suffering the intensest agony, the marriage ceremony was performed.

☞ The oldest active clergyman in Massachusetts is probably Rev. Charles Cleveland, of Boston, who, though he has arrived at the age of eighty-eight, is laboring as an independent city missionary.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD OF THE JEWETTS, who settled at Rowley, Mass, in 1638, still remains in the family, and has been occupied by those who have filled the office of Deacon in the Congregational Church, for upward of two hundred years. A Clock, brought from England 220 years ago, still ticks away in the old mansion.

The lawyers in Portland have signed a card agreeing to not open their offices for business after 4 o'clock P. M. Some people wouldn't care if they didn't open them at all, or if the Judges and Sheriffs should follow suit.

☞ A half drunken man was killed on the Saugus Branch Railroad, on Saturday night.

Rev. J. Fullonton of Raymond, appreciates the kindness and substantial benefits of friends in an agreeable surprise visit.

The Wheeler & Wilson
Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co.
Invites the attention of Housekeepers, Seamstresses, Dressmakers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Ladies' Gaiters, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols and Silk Goods, to the perfect adaptation and unrivalled excellence of these SEWING MACHINES for their uses. Their extensive and increasing sale, and the unanimous commendation that they have received, warrant the Company in warmly recommending them. They have been in use sufficiently long to test them thoroughly, and have given entire satisfaction.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses.—Substituting as they do, healthful exercise and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand-sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

The change made in the tension during the past year, so that the upper thread is used from the original spool, and the addition of the hemmer, by which, hems of any width are turned and stitched without any previous basting, evince the care of the Company in incorporating with the machines every device that can tend to perfecting them. They now combine every improvement that has been invented for sewing, and the Company feels confident that, in their present form, they are by far the best ever offered to the public; and refers, for confirmation of this opinion, to the thousands of families and manufacturers who use them.

Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler & Wilson machine has won the highest premium.

We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi Missouri & California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco.

At the Fair of the St Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee was composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson machine, the highest and only premium, a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.

"We prefer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for family use."—[N. Y. Tribune.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines are the favorites for families."—[N. Y. Times

"The Wheeler & Wilson Machine has secured and justly maintains the pre-eminence for sewing every kind of material."—[N. Y. Express.

"There is not an invention of this inventive age that honors American genius more than the Sewing Machine. No family ought to be without its benefits."—[Independent.

"A Sewing Machine is among the most useful and economical articles a housekeeper can purchase. In looking out for the best, see the machines of Wheeler & Wilson."—[Examiner.

"Wheeler & Wilson is the machine par excellence for family use, and we recommend it most emphatically."—[Advocate and Journal.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines combine everything that can be required in the manufacture of garments. Our friends abroad may be assured that to purchase one of them is a safe investment."—[Observer.

"Wheeler & Wilson is beyond all question THE machine for family use."—[Life Illustrated.

"There is but ONE Sewing Machine, and that is Wheeler & Wilson's."—[Judge Meigs, of the American Institute.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, for useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

YOUIS truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds a least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all impurities and make pure blood or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of blood, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all yellowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious character. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfectcures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, are cured in all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is speedy and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is to be found. The pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, February 8 1858.

Mr R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1859.

OUR BOSTON CORRESPONDENCE.

BOSTON, March 1, 1859.

Dear Chronicle:—The influence of improving business the coming Spring, begins to be felt considerably. The consideration of some large business interests, and the prospect for a concerted movement for advancement of Boston prominence in the business world, has helped this condition, and the real wants of trade and of consumers have tended to sustain it.

If Boston capitalists and business men were to act out their facilities fully, or even as now being agitated, we should see some great changes in Boston prosperity and position. We greatly need independence, and increased facilities for transportation of people and freight Southward.

The Spring is at hand, and although we shall probably have some more winter weather, we may consider the main force of winter broken. Spring comes hard in this region. Last year at this time, orange blossoms were budding, and roses were blooming around me in Louisiana, and the present tidings from even so little distance Southward as Savannah, speak of green peas and open windows.

Tidings from the latitude of Washington are less pleasant, not especially in regard to climate, but to humanity. A methodic shooting exercise has been had there,—not exactly in Congress, to be sure, but by a Congressman—the object being a District Attorney for the District of Columbia.—The motive for the deed it seems was a wife's infidelity—a wife quite beautiful in person it is said; but it seems that her actual character did not correspond, whatever her reputation was, and that is said to have been quite good until very recently. Daniel E. Sickles, the murderer, has long been a prominent New York politician.—He has revenged his wife's dishonor fearfully; and the question now comes as to which of the offending parties was mainly to blame—the wife or the dead partner, in her confessed guilt. Sickles being taken in custody, will perhaps be tried for his part of the affair, but the chance is very small that a Jury there will convict him of murder. Some think no Grand Jury will ever find a bill. The law has been so weak to punish the male offender in cases of this kind, that private retribution is being winked at quite broadly—is commended in many circles, and is sympathized with by many who do not wish to give any formal countenance to an infringement of the laws against assault and murder.

Mrs. Sickles will now probably have notoriety enough to cloy even the vanity of a devotee of fashion and pleasure. Perhaps this occurrence will lead her to perceive the error of her ways.

Mr. Dalton, of Sumner and Coburn and Dalton memory, is said to be behaving herself with exemplary prudence now—living with her husband in a very dutiful and affectionate manner.

Mr. Dalton was always very fond of her, and but for his family would never have developed the details of her guilt in the public way which was so terribly pursued in the trial for divorce. But his apparent inconsistency in finally living with her after that development, cost him nearly all his Boston friends who assisted him previously. He is now prospering in the clothing business in Kansas, and as he is very energetic and ambitious it is likely that the Gold Fever trade will make him very wealthy, if not a young millionaire, before he is thirty-five. Then his wife will move in good society and will be respected and valued highly. So goes the world.

The Tiger Ball at the Boston Theatre Monday evening, was an affair of considerable interest to the partly fashionable world of Boston and vicinity; although the more strictly fashionable and refined circles reserve themselves for the Mount Vernon Ball, on Friday, March 4th. The decorations of the Theatre seemed to generally please the guests. The yellow mingled with the "red, white and blue" of the drapery or hangings on each side of the stage, seemed rather superfluous, however, and did not impress the mind as advantageous—seeming nearer gaudy than tasteful. The view in the rear of the stage—the painting of the famous "Bunker Hill Battle Scene," was fair and appropriate—more so than the decorations of Chinese Lanterns along the front entrance to the dancing floor.

During the early part of the night the crowd of dancers was a decided negative to even the comfort of any, but by one or two o'clock in the morning the number decreased by the departure of many juveniles, and then the enjoyment of dancing had more prevalence.

The dressing and costuming of the ladies was generally less elegant than expected. The galleries and balcony presented a fine sight, being thronged by ladies and gentlemen tier above tier—many of them richly and elegantly attired,—fine cloth, Silks, Satins, Laces and Jewels. Next comes the Mount Vernon. BERNARDE.

WHO ANSWERS?—Messrs. Editors:—I see it mentioned in the last Gazette that the Manchester Daily Union asks this question:

"Does anybody know of any good reason why the people of the territories should not be allowed to exercise the same control over their local institutions, as the people of the States?"

I am a Yankee, and therefore prefer to ask another question, rather than to answer this. Why did not the Democratic Congress let the people of Kansas have that control over their own affairs?

Why did the Democratic President urge the Lecompton scheme to prevent the people of that territory from having any control, but to force slavery down their throats?

And why did he throw a wet blanket on poor Alexander because he dared to denounce the fraud and contradict the lie?

There is no sovereignty allowed, either in Kansas or New Hampshire, and so it will eat Southern dirt. If it will only do that, it may be as sovereign as it can be in its shackles—but it must be national, that is, pro-slavery, or else it is not genuine. BOB SHORT.

A POSSE ROUTED.—At Lawrence, Kansas, Feb. 15, the letter writer of the Boston Journal tells us there was a Missouri posse of 50 men, headed by deputy marshal Hamilton, a well known scoundrel, who had fifteen free State men ironed, as prisoners.

But the people of Lawrence, a crowd of them, released the prisoners at once, and the posse fled; the crowd pursued them, pulled them from their horses, took away their rifles and revolvers and let them run.

Gov. Medary afterwards addressed the crowd and demanded the guns, but did not get them. Jim Lane, Judge Conway and others also made speeches.

Seven successive uncredited paragraphs in one day is rather severe, gentleman of the Portsmouth Chronicle. If your paper is to be edited in this office, it would be fair to send along the salary.—Boston Courier.

Pooh! Pooh! says Uncle Toby, we have been making paragraphs for the last forty years and more, and must have made many thousands. Almost every day we see our literary progeny floating about in the papers, without credit, though often with it,—and very often we get credit for what we never wrote; but we do not complain of it, either way, except when some sentiment or opinion is expressed, from which we dissent, and then sometimes we deny the authorship.

Items of news, or scraps of wit or humor, once afloat, are a sort of common property; and when any one tries to credit them, he will often find he has attributed them to some second owner, not to the writer.

We cut items from all papers indiscriminately, and if we happened to get seven in one string from the Courier, it only shows that the copy drawer must have been empty about that time, and the Courier lay close by the scissors.

A MODEL MAYOR.—Under this head the Manchester American tells a story which shows up their new Mayor in a pitiable light. The American says that last Tuesday evening the board of Mayor and Aldermen passed certain ordinances which were signed in session by the Mayor. The next morning the Mayor went and mutilated the record by tearing out his signature from one of the ordinances. Finding he had done not only a silly act, but one penal by the statute for mutilating public records, he went and re-affixed his signature. The American does not charge the Mayor with doing an intentional wrong, for he did not know the effect. But if the Mayor is tolerated in this, then the editor asks, what safety is there for the people of Manchester, and of their public records.

☞ There is now living in Stewarton, Scotland, a matron named Shields, who is a cousin of Burns's Highland Mary, whom she characterizes as having been "an unco' bonnie lass," and the poet as having "a great deal o' rough and ready sense."—Mrs. Shields has attained her 101st year. Her mother died a centenarian, and neither of them was ever three miles from Stewarton!

☞ The U. S. Senate, Monday, March 1,—in executive session, ratified the Reed treaties with China.

Gen'l. Wilson's exposure of an alleged plundering scheme implicating J. Glancy Jones and connecting Mr. Buchanan therewith, creates great excitement.

Mr. Cameron will move for a Committee of Investigation to-day.

The Senate took up the Post Office bill, and appended to this bill a clause similar to that on Post Routes bill raising the rate of postage to five cents, and abolishing the franking privilege.

This was adopted—25 to 26, Douglas voting against it, with Clark and Seward.

The bill as amended, passed by 29 to 22, nearly a party vote, Douglas voting for the bill. It is not supposed it can pass the House in this shape. If it should and become a law, it will raise a popular ferment, equal to King George's three-penny tax on tea.

The House passed the Miscellaneous Appropriation Bill with amendments reducing appropriation of $350,000 for continuing Treasury extension to $50,000; striking out $200,000 for the Charleston Custom House, and $250,000 for the New Orleans Custom House.

The House went into Committee on the Mail Steamship Appropriation Bill, which after some debate was tabled on motion of Mr. Jones of Tennessee, by 11 majority.

The bill making appropriations for fulfilling the treaty stipulations with the Yancton and Tonawando Indians was then passed.

The bill providing for the care and preservation of the Washington Aqueduct, and for the distribution of water, in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, was passed.

The Senate's amendments to the Army bill were then taken up in the Committee of the Whole, and that appropriating $227,000, the balance due Massachusetts on account of the war of 1812, was after debate, agreed to.

Mr. Shorter of Ala., offered an amendment which was ruled out, providing that Massachusetts pay the expenses of the enforcement of the fugitive slave law in that State.

Mr. Phelps of Missouri introduced a Resolution appropriating ten thousand dollars to defray the expenses of the Investigation Committee. Adopted. Adjourned.

A POWDER EXPLOSION.—On the 18th ult. there was an explosion of twelve thousand pounds of powder at the works of the Austin Company, near Akron, Ohio, but most fortunately, no person was injured. The buildings in the neighborhood were all injured, and it is said that a schoolhouse forty rods distant was pretty much demolished. The account from which we copy says:

Col. Sidney Edgerton was passing along the road, driving a buggy, and saw the building on fire. He gave the alarm, of course, and urged his horse to his full speed. The workmen took shelter in cellars, and awaited the event. It was five minutes after the alarm before the explosion took place. One man who was wheeling two barrels of powder from one shop to another, at a distance of not more than a hundred yards from the drying house, did not hear the alarm. His barrels did not explode, and he suffered no serious injury. He remarked to us, half an hour after the explosion, that his "head ached some!"

THE HIGHEST SOPRANO NOTE.—A discussion is going on, in the English papers as to the highest note reached by any soprano singer. Jenny Lind can sing to F in alt.; Madame Faure and Viardot Garcia to D sharp, while a friend of Madame Gassier avers that that lady sing up to G in alt.—If this be so, Madame G. bears away the palm from her competitors. La Grange has sung up to F, and probably can do F sharp. At the time when Haydn composed the "Creation," the sustained C for Soprano in the air "Thy marvelous works" was deemed something astonishing. In Verdi's music, D flat or C sharp very often occurs, and in the finals of concerted pieces, where E flat and D is the concluding note, many singers are fond of taking the octave.—N. Y. Evening Post.

AN ITEM FOR BOYS.—It is one of the besetting sins of the young men in this extravagant age, to endeavor to get rid of work, seek for easy and lazy employment—and the consequence is, that many of them turn out worthless vagabonds. Boys, avoid this whirlpool as you would a plague spot; banish from you the dangerous desire to live without work. Labor is honorable, dignified, it is the parent of health, wealth and happiness; look upon it as an invaluable blessing, and never as a burden and a curse. Shun idleness and sloth: pursue some honest calling, and be not ashamed to be useful.

☞ Hon. Truman Smith, of Connecticut, was attacked by a paralytic shock in New York on Sunday night, and his physician has directed him to refrain from active business for the present.

Science says tobacco is a poison, a rank poison, as really a poison as rats bane, prussic acid, or any other deadly thing, which takes the name.

ITALIAN BEGGARS.—A number of Italian vagrants are under arrest in Pittsburg, Penn., charged with soliciting aid under false pretences. They carry forged papers, setting forth their claims upon the sympathy of the public. The Mayor learned from an intelligent and respectable Italian that there is a system which has its headquarters in New York, by which this swindling is carried on. There these papers are printed by cartloads. The chiefs have the whole of the United States districted off, and solicit consignments of Italian beggars, to whom they farm out counties at so much per cent. on the collections made. The moneys collected are deposited to the credit of the depositor, and then sent on to an Italian banker in New York. From thence it is taken by the beggar, when he gets as much as he wants, to Italy, where he invests it to suit himself.

THE SEDIMENT OF THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER. New land is continually forming at the mouth of the Mississippi. As an example of the rapidity of its creation, it is stated that the old Balize, erected at the mouth of the river about 1774, was, in 1834, two miles above it. There was not, at that time, the smallest appearance of the island on which, forty two years after, Ulloa caused barracks to be raised for pilots, and now known as the new Balize. The rate of advance is believed to be ninety-six feet per year.

A VENERABLE COUPLE.—There is now residing in Wardsboro', Vt., a venerable couple—Capt. John Rice and his wife—who were married November 16, 1790, a period nearly approximating seventy years, or dating back to the year succeeding the adoption of the Constitution of the United States (in 1789,) or Washington's first visit to the New England States as the first President under the same. Capt. Rice was born Oct. 9th, 1771, and his wife in 1769, consequently both being now about 90 years of age.

ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.—The Governor returned the apportionment bill to the House with his objections, when the Douglasites forcibly ejected the Governor's Secretary, who brought it in. The bill was taken from the hands of the Page by Green (Douglasite) who threw it upon the floor. Church (Republican) picked it up and placed it upon the Speaker's desk, and the Speaker knocked it off. Green then put it in his pocket. During these proceedings the greatest excitement existed in the House.

TEXAS.—The Austin State Gazette publishes a summary of the State census, giving a total population of 458,620, of whom 138,265 slaves, and 290 free negroes. Of the whites 67,750 are voters. The Gazette thinks that 40,000 persons have come into the State since the rolls closed. In 1850 the population was 212,492. The same rolls give the total of acres under cultivation 1,948,215, of which 581,808 in cotton, 15,965 in sugar, 977,347 in corn, and 209,097 in wheat.

PROPOSED NEW JURY LAW IN ENGLAND. Lord Campbell's bill amending the Jury Law of England, has been printed for the information of members of Parliament.—It is proposed to furnish the jury with food and fire, and unless they agree, to keep them together for six hours. If, at the expiration of that period, nine of them have agreed, it is to be taken as the verdict of the jury; if not, they are to be discharged from further consideration of the case.

JOURNALISM IN RUSSIA.—Since the relaxation of the censorship in Russia by the present Emperor, more than 200 papers, dailies and monthlies have been started.—This is besides the journals issued by the government, and amounting under various names to about 80.

Worcester's Quarto Dictionary.

This work which is the result of a life's labors is now nearly completed, and the publishers expect to issue it in the course of next May.

In ORTHOGRAPHY, it will represent the usage of the best writers in this country and England.

The PRONUNCIATION of all words will be exhibited by a system of notation easily understood; and in doubtful cases, the words of the best authorities for the different modes will be given.

In ETYMOLOGY it will be found more complete and satisfactory than other work of the kind.

The DEFINITIONS will be fully and accurately distinguished, and exemplified by quotations from the best authors, of sentences valuable in themselves.

SYNONYMS will be so treated as to be a very valuable feature of the work.

Another very novel and most useful feature of this Dictionary will be the WOOD CUTS, of which about 1200 will exemplify words whose meaning can be more accurately conveyed in this than by any verbal definition.

AN EDITION ON LARGER AND FINER PAPER FOR SUBSCRIBERS will be first issued at the same price as will afterwards be charged for the common edition; viz: $7.50.

A Specimen can be seen, and subscriptions entered at the bookstore of

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NECROSIS.—If there be any disease calculated to drain away the life of a man, and weaken the mind and body by its painful slowness, it is the death of any part of the bones. The PERUVIAN SYRUP gives support under the profuse discharge, hastens the separation of the decaying bone, and heals the indolent and irritable ulcers consequent on the long continuance of the unhealthy suppuration.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every horse in the day Mather & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

A NEW BODY.—On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his disease-eaten body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st, RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day, his body was washed with water and R. R. Relief; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bathing-tub of water. Two of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 25th, four days later, he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia, and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is the rapidity with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevent them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by Physicians generally, for GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounced Charles's London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is IMPORTED.

DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are something new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case. He is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ We have no further information respecting the iron manufactory and the steamboat to Boston. Our authority in the matter was Mr. G. G. Dennis, a stranger to us—but who appeared like a well-informed, gentlemanly mechanic and business man. The last we heard from him, he was sick and in the doctor's charge at Dover. He may yet appear before our citizens as proposed—but many are inclined to doubt it. We can conceive of no motive for such deception; but some folks are inquiring for the South End Factory about this time.

☞ Geo. W. Haven, Esq., is to Lecture on "Coins," at the new Mercantile Hall, this (Thursday) evening, at half-past 7.—Members, other gentlemen, and ladies, are invited. Free admittance.

CONGRESSIONAL.—It would appear from the report, that of Mr. Hammond's amendments for increasing the appropriations for five navy yards, only that for the Portsmouth yard was successful. It raises the appropriation from $10,000 to $60,000. Mr. Hale's motion that no promotions shall be made in the Navy till the number of Captains shall be reduced to fifty, was adopted.

PRETTY GOOD.—This morning, says the Lowell News, as the turnkeys at the new jail were attending to their usual business, a loud rap called them to the door, upon the steps of which knelt an old Irishman, with his hat in his hand. "Plaze, sure," said he, crossing himself, "can I see the inside of the church?"

☞ Gaius Fenn, of Plymouth, Conn., who forged a letter to Catholics, purporting to be written by Father Hughes, of New Haven, during the Fremont and Buchanan campaign, has been arrested for forging a note for $350, which he offered at the New Haven City Bank, where its spurious character was detected.

A FAMILY SWEPT OFF.—Miss Margaret E. McDonald died in Hardy county, Va., on the 9th inst., being the tenth member of her family, including her parents, who have died in the last five months. Only one sister now remains out of a family of 11.

POLYGLOT DESECRATION.—San Francisco has, every Sunday night, English, French and German theatres in full blast. Probably no other city in the world of 70,000 population does the same.

The Washington news is that the Cuban $30,000,000 swindle being defeated. Senator Wilson's statesmanlike plan will be adapted by the next Congress, authorizing the President to negotiate treaties with Spain and the Central American powers, revoking all onerous restrictions on commerce between them and the United States—giving reciprocal privileges.—American.

Piccolomini, at a recent concert, gave two songs not in the programme. These were, "Hi dreamt zas hi dwelt in ze marvel 'alls," and a new version of Moore's melody, rendered as "Ze syung May moon his beaming, loaf!"

If you wish to enjoy life, perform some act of kindness or charity every day.—A kind word or a cheerful look work wonders in smoothing down the rugged knolls in life a weary path.

A Japanese nobleman, upon being shown a fashion plate in an American magazine, was very much startled and exclaimed: "How very fat your women are!"

"You would be pretty indeed," said a gentleman, patronizingly, to a young lady, "if your eyes were a little larger." "My eyes may be very small, sir, but such people as you don't fill them!"

THE OTHER SIDE.—There are two sides to almost everything. For example, a prima facie view of the Key seduction and Sickles murder, has been favorable to Sickles in the public mind, where he was known over the nation as a great democratic politician, but was not known to be one of the most corrupt, lewd, debauched men in the land. But now Burleigh, the New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, says:

The Sickles matter makes great excitement here. Sickles has not the sympathy he would have if the crime that he charges on his wife did not lie at his own door. He is confessedly one of the most socially corrupt men in New York. He has long had barred against him the doors of respectable society, and had vengeance been sought as he sought it, he would now be in a bloody grave. To his own lips the chalice has been placed that he has commended to so many.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Feb. 2.—Under a suspension of the rules the House passed the Senate's resolution authorizing the President to confer on Commodore Stuart, a commission as senior Flag Officer of the Navy, on the active list.

The House then considered the Senate's amendments to the Army bill, and among others, concurred in the appropriation of $100,000 for a military road from Fort Benton to Walla-Walla; $53,000 for the Springfield Armory; $55,000 for Harper's Ferry Armory.

☞ News from Hayti, to Feb. 14, mentions the funeral of Col. Geffrard, son of the new president, attended by an immense crowd.

Geffrard has dismissed the National Guard, as the nation is in perfect tranquility; has issued an address of thanks to the foreign Consuls for the dignified part they took in the revolution; and he invites all exiled Haytiens to return.

Mr. Botts spoke nearly three hours in New York. It was a good discourse, but what a fearful length!

Farm for Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER, being about to change his business, offers for sale, one of the most desirable farms in the County of Rockingham, situated in Stratham, two miles from Exeter, and the main road from Exeter to Portsmouth, formerly part of the well known Ladd farm, consisting of 88 acres, 40 of which is in tillage, including one of the best orchards in the State, the remainder being an excellent pasture, twelve acres of which is covered with a fine growth of white and yellow oak.

The buildings consist of a small house in thorough repair. There is also on the premises a frame for a barn 60 x 40, with 19 feet posts, and stone split for the underpinning and cellar.

The above property is situated in one of the best farming towns in the State, being under a high state of cultivation, and has upon it two desirable locations for building, and offers great inducements to any one wishing a farm, either for pleasure or income. It is in the immediate vicinity of schools and churches.

The society in town is excellent, having been so much improved within the last year and a half by the change of property, that the subscriber regrets exceedingly being the cause of business renders it necessary for him to leave the pleasant town of Stratham. J. B. WADLEIGH.

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTELESS RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co.

Invites the attention of Housekeepers, Seamstresses, Dressmakers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Ladies' Gaiters, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols and Silk Goods, to the perfect adaptation and unrivalled excellence of these SEWING MACHINES for their uses. Their extensive and increasing sale, and the unanimous commendation that they have received, warrant the Company in warmly recommending them. They have been in use sufficiently long to test them thoroughly, and have given entire satisfaction.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses.—Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand-sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quiteness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

The change made in the tension during the past year, so that the upper thread is used from the original spool, and the addition of the hemmer, by which hems of any width are turned and stitched without any previous basting, evince the care of the Company in incorporating with the machines every device that can tend to perfecting them. They now combine every improvement that has been invented for sewing, and the Company feels confident that, in their present form, they are by far the best ever offered to the public; and refers, for confirmation of this opinion, to the thousands of families and manufacturers who use them.

Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler & Wilson machine has won the highest premium.

We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi Missouri & California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco.

At the Fair of the St Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee was composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson machine, the highest and only premium—a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks gloriously of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guaranty of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair Restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my color was that the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that it never will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. HAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its natural color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $1.50; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $2.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are indebted upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 16 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivaled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some unauthorized or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—16 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 diy

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given, are but a few of those SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The long practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and succesful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN AP PEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

PROGRESS OF LIBERALISM.

It is quite certain that some progress is made in partly pulling down sectarian walls, and in looking and leaping over them, shaking hands across them, &c., &c.

"Last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Prof. Stowe of Andover Institution preached at the New South (Unitarian) Church in Boston, —and a Boston paper of some weeks ago, says, speaking of Rev. Prof. Park of Andover, "The admirers of this able clergyman are by no means limited to his own religious sect."

As a further evidence of the same thing, we notice that Rev. Parsons Cooke, D. D., of Lynn, Mass., a noted controversialist of the orthodox congregationalists, comes out with a pamphlet condemning Prof. Park, and resigning his (Cooke's) seat at the Board of Publication, because that Board had voted to invite Prof. Park to write the preface to a book of Dr. Griffin's, on the Atonement.

To this vote Dr. Cooke objected on the ground that in his opinion Professor Park had perverted the sentiments of Griffin in his review in the Bibliotheca Sacra. He then goes on in his pamphlet, to vindicate his objection by showing, as best he can, that the Andover Professor, though professing to be of the school of Emmons, as was his father before him and all others who founded the original Doctrinal Tract Society, is in fact a semi-Arminian, and that he is successfully laboring to fill pulpits, college professorships, and editor's chairs, with men of his own stripe. Having also shown, as he thinks, that the doctrine of total depravity, regeneration and irresistible grace taught by Professor Park are not the doctrines taught by Emmons, but those of the Arminian school, he considers his position proved ,that the Board, in sustaining his theology, is sustaining that which is in opposition to the system of Emmons, and thus has become the organ of the Park party.

Dr. Cooke next examines the finances of the Board, and finds that about $10,000 of the fund raised for sustaining the Society has disappeared, having been consumed in paying salaries, and that besides a large portion of the monies contributed to pay for books for gratuitous distribution, has gone the same way.

The Congregational Journal remarks:

We express no opinion of our own, for we have not heard the other side. We only say that we have read nothing this long time which has given us so much pain.—We did not dream of trouble to our Zion from that quarter. Its effects on the peace and mutual confidence of the ministry and the prosperity of the cause of truth and benevolence in New England, remains to be seen. We will hope for the best.

It is true, beyond all cavil, that there is a great, gradual, steady change going on in the New England theology, in the direction of which Dr. Cooke complains.—The change is not, however, merely a change of dogmas and theories, but a change of feeling for the better—a desire to meet on some common ground of mutual good will, and Christian courtesy, and human fellowship, that no small division fences can obstruct or disfigure.

An opinion is worth a great deal—but a man is worth a great deal more.

So we see in the Baptist papers, discussions of the question how far it is best to go in close communion, or in open christian and church fellowship; and in the Congregational papers, similar discussions of the question, how much, or how little, it is best to insist upon infant baptism, in ordaining ministers or organizing churches.

We see, also, the question discussed, whether it is not best, in a small village, to have not only a Union House of Worship, but also a Union Church of all "evangelical" christians, with a congregational platform so broad that they can all stand on it.

And we see a trembling and shaking in some quarters, lest when brother Spurgeon comes over to revive us with his unction, he should also advocate open communion, and speak disrespectfully of slavery and the slave trade.

THE CAMPAIGN IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Republican State Committee of New Hampshire have issued an address to the voters, in which they give the result of a thorough canvass of the State, as follows:

For Ichabod Goodwin (Rep.)	38,215
For Asa P. Cate (Dem.)	33,706
Doubtful	2,000

In the three Congressional Districts they consider a Republican majority certain.

☞ The Ohio Legislature has repealed the ten per cent. interest law, restoring the rate again to six per cent.

EDUCATION.

We are glad to see indications that the training of the physical system is of some slight importance, as well as the mental—that muscles need development, as well as brains, and are equally as worthy of it. The newspapers, and intelligent thoughtful teachers everywhere, are turning their attention to the subject. Among other things the Boston Courier states that a number of gentlemen of that city some time ago united for the purpose of physical education and training in several modes of warfare; not with the intention of putting themselves in a belligerent attitude before the world, but of gaining health, strength, manly grace, and the means of self-defence, in the Boston Fencing Club.

These sports which develope the physical resources of man, and illustrate the advantage of skill over stupid force, are always popular, always will be so; unfortunately, as the qualities which in these exercises attract the educated gentleman, are equally powerful to fascinate the vulgar, and as the vulgar use them for unworthy purposes, considering them an end rather than a means, such exhibitions have late fallen into disrepute among the refined and the scholarly; though a certain portion of the aristocracy of every society ordinarily devotes itself to physical developement, yet this devotion has hardly that admirable character which commands the respect of fathers and the teachers of youth.

Sporting bloods, fancy swells, and the whole class indicated by these singularly metaphorical phrases, have never had full justice done them: they have a distinct mission upon earth, and they fulfil their destiny probably more completely than most of us. But it is very true that, heretofore, the manly sports of fencing, sparring, and the like, have been associated in the public mind with tan and sawdust, with cropped-haired professors, with ugly mugged champions, and rascals eluding justice under every variety of soubriquet.

Now, however, says the Courier, a stride has been taken, and there is hope alike for moral and physical vigor among us. Our groping among books, our grubbing in the earth for treasure, all the cares and duties of life tend to bow our forms, and stiffen our muscles; we have too long allowed ourselves to be bullied by a public opinion against ruffianism, into neglecting the very means to make ruffianism comparatively harmless; because certain sports have been degraded, we hesitate to do that which shall make them respected. Our hope is that more will be done to raise the body of man from the neglect in which it has long lain. Exercise gives strength to the graceful, and grace to the strong.

☞ Capt. Kruse, a ship-master, entered a carriage of the railway to London, and a well-dressed man entered and took a seat opposite. Capt. Kruse's fellow-passenger addressed him, and said:—"There is some dirt on your face—some black; allow me to wipe it off." The stranger advanced towards him with a handkerchief in his hand, and put it on the face of the captain, who immediately became insensible, and did not return to a state of consciousness until the train reached London, when he found himself alone in the carriage, and missed his pocket book, containing £60 in gold and notes.

☞ On the 27th of June, 1836, a duel was fought near Washington city, between John H. Sherburne of Portsmouth, N. H., then a midshipman in the Navy, and Daniel Key, a brother of the late district attorney, and son of Francis S. Key, author of the "Star Spangled Banner," who also held the same rank in the Navy. The first intimation his family had of the duel was when the body of young Key was carried into his father's house.

☞ A great row agitates Quincy, Ill. Henry H. Johnson was murdered at a house of infamy by Thomas Cassidy, the keeper, and a young man named Thornton, who have been committed for trial.—As soon as the examination was concluded before the Coroner, a number of boys and men proceeded to the house of Mr. Cassidy and "riddled" it inside and out. They then proceeded to other houses of ill-fame, "cleaning out" ten of them, and burning one to the ground.

☞ As an illustration of Henry Ward Beecher's liberal style of invitation to the communion, the anecdote is quoted of an English judge, who, on being refused the bread and the cup, because he was not a member of a particular church, quietly remarked: "Oh! I beg your pardon; I thought this was the Lord's table. I have nothing more to say, if it is only a private little supper of your own."

SCIENCE AND THE BIBLE.

We learn from the New York correspondence of the Boston Journal, that Rev. Prof. Hitchcock has been engaged in a course of lectures at Brooklyn, at the Packer Institute, on the History of the Bible. His lectures have been assailed as tending to infidelity. The attack was made in the Presbyterian of Philadelphia. To this Prof. Hitchcock replied in an elaborate article in the Observer, in which he avows his opinion to be, that the Books of Moses, though inspired, were made up of oral and written traditions, handed down from the earlier times, and incorporated into the Mosaic record by the command of the Lord; that the world as a creation was called into being ages before the Mosaic period; that the term six days are expanded into immense periods, and do not mean the days of our reckoning; that the account of the fall, the apple, and the devil,* is rather a fictioned moral, and symbolic representation than a literal one; that the deluge was not universal, but restricted, and the term "all" applied to it does not necessarily include all portions of the globe. The deluge was historically, and not geographically universal. It was as wide as the human race, and no more so. Prof. Hitchcock fortifies his opinions by citations from the ablest theological writers who have lived.

* There is not a word about the devil in Genesis; the story there is about the serpent; or as Adam Clark calls him, the monkey.—Ed. Chron.

BLOOD STOCK FOR THE DAIRY.—Among his other beautiful and valuable possessions for the farmer and gardener, Mr. John Rogers, the well known and successful florist and nurseryman in Kittery, has recently turned his attention to live stock. A few months since, he imported direct from Scotland, a pair of beautiful calves of the celebrated Ayrshire breed—the first favorites for the dairy wherever they are known. There are but about half-a-dozen animals of this breed in the whole State of Maine; but should Mr. Rogers be as successful in this branch of farming, as in whatever else he has undertaken, he will ere long possess a valuable herd, which will increase the quantity and improve the quality of milk in his region.

FIRE IN WINDHAM.—On Monday morning, Feb 21, the barn of Rev. Loren Thayer, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was burnt with all its contents, including a horse, five cows, hay, wagon, sleigh robes and forty dollars worth of new shingles. The fire is supposed to have caught from sparks issuing from the chimney of a small house five rods distant. Loss $700. insurance of $150 on the barn and hay.

☞ In Professor Mitchell's last lecture on astronomy he explained the astronomical inquiries in the book of Job; and concluded by saying that he had been amazed as he studied God's word to see how accurately its language accorded in every particular with the later revelations of science.

☞ The exploit of William Tell has stimulated a weaver at Spire to try his hand at rifle practice on his young son, on whose head he placed a potato and brought down the tuber at 100 yards, but was had up before the police and sent to jail for a week by an indignant magistrate.

SPURGEON.—One item says:

The Rev. C. H. Spurgeon has abandoned his contemplated trip to America, certainly for the present year.

Per contra, Rev. Mr. Corey, who engaged Mr. Spurgeon, says he is coming.

☞ A fight with pistols and other weapons took place in Louisville, Ky., Court House, March 1, between two men, one or both being lawyers. The fight became general, one man was killed, and another shot through the thigh. One Low, who brought on the fight, is in jail, badly wounded.

Repine not, fellow-mortal, though thy path is beset with difficulties and trials;—despair not, though portentous clouds of trouble and affliction hang over thy head; by and by they will break and roll away, revealing a world lighted by the effulgence of divine glory, and inhabited by sympathizing spirits to cheer and comfort thee. This is thy home.

☞ Rev. E. N. Hidden has received a call to become the pastor of the Congregational church in Candia.

☞ In regard to the murder of Key by Sickles, at Washington, and other crimes which led to it, news items come along daily.

The Philadelphia Press states that Key was known to be in the habit of attending the theatre, opera, balls, soirees, and other places of gayety and fashion, and was almost invariably accompanied by Mrs. Sickles. He, indeed, followed her everywhere.

It is said that Key was accustomed to boast of his attentions in that quarter, and at the National Club House the criminal intercourse between himself and Mrs. Sickles was well known, and formed the topic of conversation.

Key had been time and again warned by his friends that something dangerous would grow from his criminal attachment. He was accustomed, however, to treat these friendly admonitions with an air of haughty bravado. He had been known to boast of his amours in society, and it is said that Mr. Buchanan, being informed of Mr. Key's character, had made out his dismissal, and was only waiting to select a successor previous to sending in the document to the Senate, when Mr. Key met his death.

It is said that the intimacy between Mr. Key and Mrs. Sickles had been remarked in Washington circles for a year past.—During the last Congress, notes passed between Key and Sickles on this subject, which were followed by a complete reconciliation. The Albany Evening Statesman says:—

The career of the individual who so pompously enacts the character of the 'injured husband' in this domestic turmoil, is familiar to our citizens, as, indeed, it is known to the people of the entire State.—He has a reputation for everything but integrity, honor, morality and manhood.—It there is a moral vice with which he is not conversant—practically familiar—we think it must be indeed modern. Those who are familiar with the libertine career which first gave him possession of the unfortunate woman whom he now calls wife, will not be surprised at the denoument of his married life.

The New York Evening Post significantly remarks that "it is certain that the man who makes no scruple to invade and destroy the domestic peace of others, has little right to complain when the mischief which he carries without scruple into other families, enters his own."

PERSONAL.—The following impromptu lines were pencilled by a Southern Senator, a day or two since, when, on entering the chamber, he found Senator Hale in the chair:

When humor, manhood, wit and talent fail,
To thee we jointly turn, and cry 'All Hale;'
When taste demands a magisterial air
To fill, adorn and dignify the Chair,
New Hampshire's son, with modest, matchless grace,
Presides—and in the Preidential race
Is called by Democrats to fill the second place.

☞ The Boston Courier of March 2, contains an editorial appeal for patronage, based on the independence of its position as an able defender of "principles once more generally honored in New England." It states that its circulation is now three times as large as it was two years ago, and so large as to make it valuable medium for advertisers. Of about sixty persons employed in editing and prtnting, Messrs. Clark, Lunt, and Hillard, are editors; Gill, House, and Dutton, editorial staff; Moulton, shipping, and O'Brien, commercial editor; Rockwell and two aids, reporters. It is a very nicely printed and ably edited sheet.

New Hampshire speaks next week. The result is in doubt.—Bath, Me., Times.

Not much doubt, we think. The Times intimates that if Senator Douglas had come and spoken in New Hampshire, all doubts would have been removed. We think so too.

Worcester's Quarto Dictionary.

This work which is the result of a life's labors is now nearly completed, and the publishers expect to issue it in the course of next May.

In ORTHOGRAPHY, it will represent the usage of the best writers in this country and England.

The PRONUNCIATION of all words will be exhibited by a system of notation easily understood; and in doubtful or disputed words the best authorities for the different modes will be given.

In ETYMOLOGY it will be found more complete and satisfactory than other work of the kind.

The DEFINITIONS will be fully and accurately distinguished, and exemplified by quotations from the best authors, of sentences valuable in themselves.

SYNONYMS will be so treated as to be a very valuable feature of the work.

Another very novel and most useful feature of this Dictionary will be the WOOD CUTS, of which about 1200 will exemplify words whose meaning can be more accurately conveyed in this than by any verbal definition.

AN EDITION ON LARGER AND FINER PAPER FOR SUBSCRIBERS will be first issued at the same price as will afterwards be charged for the common edition: viz: $7,50.

A Specimen can be seen, and subscriptions entered at the bookstore of

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NECROSIS.—If there be any disease calculated to drain away the life of a man, and weaken the mind and body by its painful slowness, it is the death of any part of the bones. The PERUVIAN SYRUP gives support under the profuse discharge, hastens the separation of the decaying bone, and heals the indolent and irritable ulcers consequent on the long continuance of the unhealthy suppuration.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY, in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every body in the day Mathes & Farrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

A NEW BODY.- On the 21st of July, J. D. H., aged 31, was covered from head to foot with sores, and so offensive was the stench that emanated from his disease-eaten body, that perfumed waters were kept constantly burning in his chamber. On the 21st, RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT was given him six times per day, his body was washed with water and R. R. Ecl.; one small bottle of Ready Relief to a bath-tub of water. Two of RADWAY'S REGULATORS were given him per night. On the 26th, four days later, he was greatly changed for the better. His skin emitted no more offensive effluvia, and the sores were fast healing up. On the 1st of August not a blemish or sore was upon his body—in fact, to use his own words, he was a "new made man, with a new body and clear skin." It is the rapidity with which the R. R. R. remedies act that insures their success; the moment they are taken or applied, pain is stopped and disease checked

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound R. Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, recommends Charles's London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is genuine.

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are not a new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply agents at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

THAT STEAMBOAT.—From the following letter, it would appear that Mr. Dennis is yet moving in the enterprises which he proposes to establish among us. He writes that he has been confined by sickness in Dover. The steamer Acorn, mentioned below, was advertised to commence her trips from Boston to Gloucester on Tuesday last—and we presume did so:

DOVER, March 2.

Messrs. Editors:—Permit me to inform the merchants and business men of Portsmouth, that the steamer "Acorn" made her first passage from Boston to Gloucester, on Tuesday, March 1st; and that either her trips will be extended to Portsmouth, on and after Monday, March 7th, or the new and staunch steamer "Queen" will be placed on the route between Portsmouth and Boston, via Gloucester. G. G. DENNIS.

☞The Newburyport Herald has a long article, contrasting the advantages of having the capital of a city employed in manufacturing at home, or in shipping abroad—the latter having been the case of late years in Newburyport, to a great extent, as also here in Portsmouth. "No place can be thrifty and prosperous, when it does not attract capital from abroad and does not employ what it has at home."—The Herald says business is very dull there, and many houses are empty. In that respect Portsmouth is better off—all our dwellings being always occupied, and several new ones being now in course of erection.

☞Mr. Long's lecture, on Wednesday evening, was attended by a good audience, notwithstanding a political meeting at the same hour took away many gentlemen; ladies attended, and more will attend the next lecture, which is to be delivered on Friday evening of next week.

The Hanover street Chapel, which has recently been fitted up, is very conveniently arranged now for these lectures, and the eastern side of the room is well covered with the pictures, many of them rare and valuable, which are used by Mr. Long to illustrate his lectures.

The pictures of themselves are a pleasant study, and with Mr. Long's remarks and explanations, a profitable study, also, to every lover and student of art.

The lecture of Wednesday night, was chiefly on Hogarth and his paintings—contrasted with his French cotemporary painter, and connected with notices of West and others.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE.—The spring term of this institution commences this day, March 4. Mr. W. W. Dow and Mr. G. Hodgdon are members from this city. Mr. Dow was therefore under the necessity of withdrawing from his position in the High School, which he has temporarily filled with much satisfaction to all concerned.—Mr. Carter again takes the place for a short time.

ANOTHER SURPRISE.—Number 9, Islington Street, was again "taken by surprise," Wednesday Evening; when the Ladies' Benevolent Society, (connected with the Christian Church,) the Young Ladies' Sewing Circle, and various other individuals of the Christian Society, made several valuable, highly complimentary and gratifying thank-offerings to their lady Organist—who has so devotedly and acceptably served them for eight years, without salary. The company was large, and enjoyed the occasion much.

CAUCUS.—The Republicans of Ward One are notified to meet at the Republican Head Quarters, over J. A. Graco's Store, in Market street, (entrance in Commercial Alley,) this (Friday) Evening, March 4th, at 7 1-2 o'clock, to make the Nominations and arrangements for the coming election. A full attendance is important.

Per Order of the Committee.

☞The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room; price 3 cts. $1 per year, in advance.

SEIZURE OF JEWELRY.—New York, March 3.—The police, yesterday, made a seizure of about $8000 worth of jewelry and watches at a Lager Beer Saloon, in William street, called Constantine Hotel. The property was contained in two black travelling trunks, and is believed to be the fruits of some robbery, although the parties having it in possession say it belongs to a Brazilian emigrant. The Brazilian has not been found.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Mr. English has ready to report a new Post Route bill including the routes in the original bill, as well as the routes added by the Senate, but dropping all the other amendments of the Senate, including the increase of postage and the abolition of the franking privilege.

☞In the U. S. Senate, Wednesday, March 2d, the Miscellaneous Appropriation Bill was taken up.

It appropriates—For the Coast Survey, $253,000; Light Houses, $927,000; Survey of Public Lands, $265,000; Washington City, $127,000; Treasury Building, $50,000; Post Office Building, $150,000; Capitol Extension, $400,000; Botanic Garden, $7,400; Insane Hospital, $88,000; mortgage on the government property in Pine street, New York, $11,000: Patent Office, (Agricultural Department) $40,000; and for various other things about $30,000. The total amount appropriated is $2,345,000.

Mr. Simmons moved an amendment, providing for a home valuation on imports; but, after a protracted debate as to whether it was in order or not, it was lost.

Mr. Hunter moved an amendment, that the President be authorized to re-issue Treasury Notes for $20,000,000, at 6 per cent. interest.

After discussion, adopted by yeas 24, nays 10.

Mr. Benjamin moved to appropriate $350,000 to continue the work on the Custom House at New Orleans. Lost—15 to 29.

Mr. Davis moved an amendment to appropriate $250,000 to complete the Washington Aqueduct. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Bright, the bill was amended, to provide that Senators shall be allowed mileage for the extra session; but not constructive in any case.

After a protracted discussion of various trivial items for furniture, etc., the Senate at one o'clock, no action having been taken, adjourned.

In the House, Mr. Davis of Ind. tried to introduce a bill repealing the prohibitory clause in the English Kansas bill, but the House refused to suspend the rules.

The House reconsidered the vote by which the Mail Steamer bill was yesterday defeated, and again rejected it by a vote of 66 against 14.

The House concurred in the report of the Commitee of Conference on the disagreeing amendments to the Executive Judicial Legislative Appropriation bill.—This restores the mileage of the next Congress, originally stricken out by the House.

In the evening session, the River and Harbor bill was thrown overboard, for want of time to mature it.

The Senate's amendments to the Naval bill were considered in Committe.

Mr. Bocock of Va. moved to amend the amendment appropriating $173,700 for the charter of vessels for the Paraguay expedition, and give Secretary of the Navy authority to purchase them. The chartering of these vessels for nine months amounts to this sum, and in making the contract, the Secretary inserted a clause by which the Government could purchase them at $289,000, only $100,000 more than the price of the charter, and $500 less than their charter for fifteen months.

After debate, the Senate's Paraguay amendment, as amended by Mr. Bocock, was agreed to by three majority.

It was afterwards concurred in by the House, by 83 against 77.

All the other amendments were then adopted.

The report of the committee on the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill was agreed to.

PRICES GREATLY REDUCED.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co.

Invites the attention of Housekeepers, Seamstresses, Dressmakers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Ladies' Gaiters, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols and Silk Goods, to the perfect adaptation and unrivalled excellence of these SEWING MACHINES for their uses. Their extensive and increasing sale, and the unanimous commendation that they have received, warrant the Company in warmly recommending them. They have been in use sufficiently long to test them thoroughly, and have given entire satisfaction.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses.—Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand-sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;

2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;

3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;

4. Hemming and seaming attachments;

5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;

6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with

7. Economy of Thread;

8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

The change made in the tension during the past year, so that the upper thread is used from the original spool, and the addition of the hemmer, by which, hems of any width are turned and stitched without any previous basting, evince the care of the Company in incorporating with the machines every device that can tend to perfecting them. They now combine every improvement that has been invented for sewing, and the Company feels confident that, in their present form, they are by far the best ever offered to the public; and refers, for confirmation of this opinion, to the thousands of families and manufacturers who use them.

Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler & Wilson machine has won the highest premium.

We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi, Missouri & California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco.

At the Fair of the St Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee was composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson machine, the highest and only premium, a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. It these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.

"We prefer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for family use."—[N. Y. Tribune.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines are the favorites for families."—[N. Y. Times

"The Wheeler & Wilson Machine has secured and justly maintains the pre-eminence for sewing every kind of material."—[N. Y. Express.

"There is not an invention of this inventive age that honors American genius more than the Sewing Machine. No family ought to be without its benefit."—[Independent.

"A Sewing Machine is among the most useful and economical articles a housekeeper can purchase. In looking out for the best, see the machines of Wheeler & Wilson."—[Examiner.

"Wheeler & Wilson is the machine par excellence for family use, and we recommend it most emphatically."—[Advocate and Journal.

"Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines combine everything that can be required in the manufacture of garments. Our friends abroad may be assured that to purchase one of them is a safe investment."—[Observer.

"Wheeler & Wilson is beyond all question THE machine for family use."—[Life Illustrated.

"There is but ONE Sewing Machine, and that is Wheeler & Wilson's."—[Judge Meigs, of the American Institute.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;

PRICE $50.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

Adam's Patent Coal Sifter,

with which any lady can sift ashes without soiling her dress.

The following is one instance of the saving that this Sifter can effect:—

Passing the Worcester Depot in Boston last Spring, a lady observed some men removing ashes, that had accumulated there, to fill in near a stable. She hurried home, and sent back two boys with one of Adam's Sifters; they sifted the whole of those ashes in six hours and a half, and obtained from them, 10 Barrels good Coal, 1 Barrel Clinkers, and 11 barrels ashes. The coal weighed about 2280 lbs, worth about $6.

The construction of this Sifter is very simple, and it excels any other for usefulness and durability.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay, to which upon tin and shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after five years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or 1 in. at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public

Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the causes of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

HOW TO CURE.

One dose often repeated, is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for a month, will remove all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating, gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by expelling the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number have inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

The medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE REMOVING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is speedy and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by dishonest persons who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine, the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.
